
Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: Administration of Justice (Language) Act (Ireland) 1737, Section II is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 October 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Administration of Justice (Language) Act (Ireland) 1737

1737 CHAPTER 6 11 Geo 2

II But names of writs, process or technical words, may be expressed as commonly used, so as not in court-hand. Prosecutions to be in three months.

Provided nevertheless, That such penalty shall not be extended to the expressing the proper or known names of writs, or other process, or technical words, in the same language as hath been commonly used, so as the same be written or printed in a common legible hand and character, and not in any hand commonly called Court-hand; and that all prosecutions for offences against this act shall be commenced within three calendar months, after the same shall be committed.

Status:

Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation:

Administration of Justice (Language) Act (Ireland) 1737, Section II is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 October 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations.