

Active Travel (Wales) Act 2013

2013 anaw 7

Other provisions

10 Duty to exercise functions to promote active travel

- (1) The Welsh Ministers and local authorities must exercise their functions under this Act in a manner designed to—
 - (a) promote active travel journeys, and
 - (b) secure new active travel routes and related facilities and improvements in existing active travel routes and related facilities.
- (2) Each local authority must make a report to the Welsh Ministers specifying what it has done in each financial year in the performance of the duty imposed on it by subsection (1).