

*These notes refer to the Social Services and Well-being (Wales)
Act 2014 (c.4) which received Royal Assent on 1 May 2014*

SOCIAL SERVICES AND WELL- BEING (WALES) ACT 2014

EXPLANATORY NOTES

COMMENTARY ON SECTIONS

Section 139 – Safeguarding Boards: supplementary

389. A Safeguarding Board must co-operate with the National Board and provide information to it, if requested by the National Board. Regulations may make further provision about the functions of Safeguarding Board partners relating to the Safeguarding Boards on which they are represented. A Safeguarding Board partner is under a duty to have regard to any guidance given by the Welsh Ministers and each partner is also under a duty to take all reasonable steps to ensure the Safeguarding Board on which it is represented operates efficiently.