EXPLANATORY NOTES

COMMENTARY ON SECTIONS

Part 5 Housing Finance

Section 133 – Further payments

234. The Welsh Ministers may make a further determination to correct a settlement payment made under Section 132. A further payment would only be made where there was an error, or a change in any matter that was taken into consideration, in the calculation or determination relating to a settlement payment made under section 132. Payments may be made by the Welsh Ministers to local housing authorities and vice versa. A determination under this section can be varied or revoked by a subsequent determination.
