

Well-being of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2015

2015 anaw 2

PART 4

PUBLIC SERVICES BOARDS

CHAPTER 2

IMPROVING LOCAL WELL-BEING

Local well-being plans

43 Preparation of local well-being plans: further consultation and approval

- (1) Before publishing its local well-being plan, a public services board must consult—
- (a) the Commissioner (having received advice from the Commissioner under section 42(2));
  - (b) its invited participants;
  - (c) its other partners;
  - (d) such of the persons who received but did not accept an invitation from the board under section 30 as the board considers appropriate;
  - (e) the local authority's overview and scrutiny committee;
  - (f) any relevant voluntary organisation as the board considers appropriate;
  - (g) representatives of persons resident in its area;
  - (h) representatives of persons carrying on business in its area;
  - (i) trade unions representing workers in its area;
  - (j) such persons with an interest in the maintenance and enhancement of natural resources in the board's area, as the board considers appropriate;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Well-being of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2015, Section 43. (See end of Document for details)

- (k) any other persons who, in the opinion of the board, are interested in the improvement of the area's economic, social, environmental and cultural well-being.
- (2) As part of the consultation under subsection (1), each board must provide each consultee with a draft local well-being plan.
- (3) The consultation under subsection (1) must not end until at least 12 weeks have passed since the day on which it began.
- (4) Before publishing its local well-being plan, a public services board must hold a meeting at which each member confirms its approval of the plan for publication.
- (5) If the local authority is operating executive arrangements under Part 2 of the Local Government Act 2000 (c.22), the function of approving the local well-being plan for publication may not be exercised by an executive of the authority under those arrangements; nor does section 101 of the Local Government Act 1972 (c. 70) (discharge of functions by committees etc.) apply to that function.
- (6) In the case of each Local Health Board, each Welsh fire and rescue authority and the Natural Resources Body for Wales, the function of approving the local well-being plan for publication may only be exercised at a meeting of the body in question.
