- (i) an enactment;
- (ii) a statute passed either before the date of the commencement of the Union with Ireland Act, 1800, by the Parliament of England, the Parliament of Great Britain or the Parliament of Ireland, or after that date by the Parliament of the United Kingdom, being a statute extending to Northern Ireland and relating to a matter in respect of which the Parliament of Northern Ireland^[F1] had power] to make laws;
- (iii) an instrument made under or by virtue of any such statute; and
- (iv) any provision of any such statute or instrument.

F1 SI 1999/663

2 Application of this Act.

- (1) Every provision of this Act shall extend and apply to every enactment, whether passed or made before or after the passing of this Act, unless a contrary intention appears in this Act or in the enactment.
- (2) In addition, any provision of this Act which refers to [^{F2}statutory] provisions shall, unless the contrary intention appears in the [^{F2}statutory] provisions, have, in relation to those provisions, such effect as is stated in that provision of this Act.
- (3) The provisions of this Act shall apply to this Act as they apply to an enactment passed after the commencement of this Act and references in this Act to an enactment passed after the commencement of this Act shall be construed as including references to this Act.

3 Rules not inconsistent not excluded.

Nothing in this Act shall be construed as excluding the application to a statutory provision of a rule of construction applicable thereto and not inconsistent with this Act.

OPERATION OF ENACTMENTS

4 Acts to be deemed public.

Every Act shall be a public Act and shall be judicially noticed as such, unless the contrary is expressly provided by the Act.

5 Provisions in private Acts.

A provision in a private Act shall not affect the rights of a person otherwise than as therein mentioned or referred to.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

6 Enactments to apply to whole of Northern Ireland.

Every enactment shall, unless the contrary intention appears, apply to the whole of^{F3} . . . Northern Ireland.

F3 SI 1999/663

7 Crown not bound, unless named.

No enactment passed or made after the commencement of this Act shall bind or affect in any manner whatsoever Her Majesty or Her Majesty's rights or prerogatives, unless it is stated therein that Her Majesty is bound thereby to the full extent authorised or permitted by the constitutional laws of Northern Ireland or to such less extent as is specified in the enactment.

8 References to the Crown, etc.

- (1) A reference in an enactment to the Sovereign or to the Crown includes a reference to the Sovereign for the time being.
- (2) This Act shall be binding on the Crown to the full extent authorised or permitted by the constitutional laws of Northern Ireland.

9 Provisions to be substantive enactments.

Every provision of an enactment shall have effect as a substantive enactment without introductory words.

10 Preamble and marginal notes.

- (1) The preamble to an enactment shall be construed as a part thereof intended to assist in explaining the purport and object of the enactment.
- (2) Marginal notes in an enactment and marginal references therein to other enactments shall not be construed as part of the enactment and shall be deemed to be inserted for convenience of reference only.

11 References in enactments.

- (1) A reference in an enactment to any statutory provision shall be construed as a reference to that provision as for the time being amended by or under any other statutory provision, including the enactment in which the reference is made.
- (2) A reference in an enactment to any statute passed either before the date of the commencement of the Union with Ireland Act, 1800, by the Irish Parliament or the Parliament of England or the Parliament of Great Britain or on or after that date by the Parliament of the United Kingdom, or to any instrument made under or by virtue of any such statute, shall, except as provided in sub-section (3), be construed as a reference to that statute or instrument as it applies for the time being in Northern Ireland.
- (3) Sub-section (2) shall not apply where the reference—
 - (a) is to a statute or instrument which does not apply in Northern Ireland; or

- (b) relates to any act or thing done in any other part of the United Kingdom under and for the purposes of a statute or instrument as it applies in that part of the United Kingdom.
- (4) A reference in an enactment by number or letter to a Part, section, sub-section, paragraph, sub-paragraph or other division of another enactment or statutory provision shall be construed as a reference to such Part, section, sub-section, paragraph, sub-paragraph or other division of such other enactment or provision as printed by authority of law.
- (5) A reference in an enactment by number or letter to two or more Parts, divisions, sections, sub-sections, paragraphs, sub-paragraphs, schedules, instruments or forms shall be read as including the number or letter first mentioned and the number or letter last mentioned.
- (6) Where in an enactment reference is made to a Part, division, section, schedule or form without anything in the context to indicate that a reference to a Part, division, section, schedule or form of some other enactment or statutory provision is intended, the reference shall be construed as a reference to a Part, division, section, schedule or form of the enactment in which the reference is made.
- (7) Where in a section of an enactment reference is made to a sub-section, paragraph, sub-paragraph or other division without anything in the context to indicate that a reference to a sub-section, paragraph, sub-paragraph or other division of some other section or provision is intended, the reference shall be construed as a reference to a sub-section, paragraph, sub-paragraph or other division of the section in which the reference is made.
- (8) Where in a schedule or Part of a schedule to an enactment reference is made to a paragraph, sub-paragraph or other division without anything in the context to indicate that a reference to a paragraph, sub-paragraph or other division of some other provision is intended, the reference shall be construed as a reference to the paragraph, sub-paragraph or other division of the schedule or the Part of the schedule in which the reference is made.
- (9) Where in an enactment reference is made to a statutory instrument or statutory document, without anything in the context to indicate that a reference to a statutory instrument or statutory document made under some other enactment or statutory provision is intended, the reference shall be construed as a reference to a statutory instrument or statutory document, as the case may be, made under the enactment in which the reference is made.
- (10) A reference in an enactment to any power exercisable, statutory instrument or statutory document made, or issued or act or thing done under a statutory provision shall include a reference to a power exercisable, a statutory instrument or statutory document made, or issued or act or thing done by virtue of that provision or of any statutory instrument or statutory document made or issued under or by virtue of that provision.
- (11) The expression “herein” when used in a section or other division of an enactment passed or made after the commencement of this Act shall relate to the whole enactment and not to that section or division only.

12 Amending provisions.

- (1) An Act may be amended, altered or repealed in the same session of [F4 the Assembly].

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) An amending enactment shall, so far as consistent with the tenor thereof, operate and be construed as part of any^[F4] statutory] provision which it amends and, without prejudice to sub-section (1) of section eleven shall, as from the date on which it comes into operation, have effect accordingly for the purpose of the construction and operation of any other^[F4] statutory] provision which refers to, or is incorporated with, the provision which it amends.

13 Date of passing, etc., of enactments.

- (1) The date of the passing of every Act shall be the date on which the Bill for that Act receives the Royal Assent.

Subs. (2) rep. by 1998 c. 47

- (3) The date of the making of every statutory instrument shall be the date therein expressed as the date of the execution thereof, but where the instrument is made by two or more authorities jointly and is therein expressed to be executed by those authorities on different dates, the date of the making thereof shall be the last date so expressed.
- (4) Where a statutory instrument made or to be made after the commencement of this Act by one authority requires the concurrence or approval of any other authority, that concurrence or approval shall be formally inscribed on the instrument either—
- on or before the date of the making thereof; or
 - if the other authority has before that date indicated an intention to concur in or approve of the making of the instrument, within one month after such making.

14 Coming into force of enactments.

- (1) Every enactment which is not expressed to come into force or operation on a particular day shall come into operation immediately on the expiration of the day before the date of the passing thereof, or, where the enactment is a statutory instrument, of the making thereof.
- (2) Where an enactment is expressed to come into force or operation on a particular day (whether such day is before or after the date of the passing of such enactment, or where the enactment is a statutory instrument, of the making thereof, and whether such day is named in the enactment or is to be appointed or fixed or ascertained in any other manner) the enactment shall be construed as coming into force immediately on the expiration of the day before that particular day.

Subs. (3) rep. by SLR 1976

15 Date of expiration of enactments.

- (1) Where an enactment is expressed to expire, lapse or otherwise cease to have effect on a particular day, the enactment shall, except as provided by sub-section (2), be construed as ceasing to have effect immediately on the expiration of that day.
- (2) Where a Bill is introduced into any session of ^[F5]the Assembly] for the continuance of any Act limited to expire in that session and that Act expires before such Bill, ^[F5]having been passed by the Assembly], receives in that session the Royal Assent, that Act shall be deemed to have continued as fully and effectively in operation as if such Bill had received the Royal Assent before that Act expired.

- (3) Sub-section (2) shall not operate so as to render any person liable under the provisions of an Act which has expired to any penalty or forfeiture by reason of any act done by him before the date on which the Bill for the continuance of that Act, [^{F5}having been passed by the Assembly], receives the Royal Assent.

16 Exercise of powers before enactment comes into force.

Where an enactment which is not to come into force immediately on the passing or making thereof confers power—

- (a) to make appointments;
- (b) to hold elections;
- (c) to make statutory instruments or issue statutory documents;
- (d) to publish documents or give any notices;
- (e) to prescribe forms;
- (f) to give directions; or
- (g) to do any other act or thing;

that power may, for the purpose of making the enactment effective upon its commencement, be exercised at any time after the passing or making thereof, but, except in so far as may be necessary or expedient for that purpose, a statutory instrument or statutory document made under that power shall not have effect before the commencement of the enactment conferring the power.

17 Statutory powers and duties generally.

- (1) Where an enactment confers a power or imposes a duty, the power may be exercised and the duty shall be performed from time to time, as occasion requires.
- (2) Where an enactment confers a power to make any statutory instrument the power shall be construed as including power, exercisable in the like manner and subject to the like consent and conditions, if any, to amend, alter, rescind or revoke, that instrument and to make other statutory instruments in lieu thereof but this sub-section shall not apply to an order which is not made by a rule-making authority in the exercise of a statutory power which is of a legislative character.
- (3) Where an enactment empowers any person or authority to do any act or thing, all such powers shall be deemed to be also given as are reasonably necessary to enable that person or authority to do that act or thing or are incidental to the doing thereof.
- (4) Where an enactment authorises or requires an act or thing to be done collectively by more than two persons, a majority of those persons may do that act or thing, unless any quorum fixed by that enactment or by any other [^{F6} statutory] provision has not been formed.
- (5) Any power conferred by an enactment to make a statutory instrument or issue a statutory document may be exercised—

- (a) either in relation to all cases to which the power extends, or in relation to all those cases subject to specified exceptions, or in relation to any specified cases or classes of case; and
- (b) so as to make, as respects the cases in relation to which it is exercised—
 - (i) the full provision to which the power extends or any less provision (whether by way of exception or otherwise);
 - (ii) the same provision for all cases in relation to which the power is exercised, or different provision for different cases or classes of case, or different provision as respects the same case or class of case for different purposes of the enactment;
 - (iii) any such provision either unconditionally or subject to any specified condition.

F6 SI 1999/663

18 Provisions as to holders of offices.

- (1) Every person who is appointed by the Crown in right of Her Majesty's Government in Northern Ireland to any office by or under the authority of an enactment, passed or made after the commencement of this Act, shall hold that office during pleasure only, unless the contrary is expressed in the enactment or in his commission or appointment.
- (2) Words in an enactment passed or made after the commencement of this Act which authorise the appointment of a person to any office and declare that this sub-section shall apply to that appointment shall be deemed also to confer on the authority in whom the power of appointment is vested—
 - (a) power, at the discretion of the authority, to remove or suspend him; and
 - (b) power, exercisable in the like manner and subject to the like consent and conditions, if any, applicable on his appointment—
 - (i) to reappoint or reinstate him;
 - (ii) to appoint another person in his stead or to act in his stead and to provide for the remuneration of the person so appointed;
 - (iii) to fix or vary his remuneration, to withhold his remuneration in whole or in part during any period of suspension from office, and to terminate his remuneration on his removal from office.
- (3) In an enactment a reference, without qualification, to the holder of any office shall include a reference to any person for the time being holding that office and, in particular—
 - (a) words in an enactment directing or empowering the holder of an office to do any act or thing, or otherwise applying to him by the name of his office, shall apply to his successors in office and to his or their deputy;
 - (b) where an enactment confers a power or imposes a duty on the holder of an office, as such, the power may be exercised and the duty shall be performed by the person for the time being charged with the execution of the powers and duties of the office.

28 Effect of repeal.

- (1) The repeal of any enactment shall not be deemed to be or to involve a declaration that such enactment was or was considered by Parliament^{F24} or (as the case may be) the Assembly] to have been previously in force in Northern Ireland.
- (2) Where an enactment repeals or revokes a [^{F24} statutory] provision, the repeal or revocation shall not, save as in this section otherwise provided—
 - (a) revive any [^{F24} statutory] provision or thing not in force or existing at the time at which the repeal or revocation takes effect;
 - (b) affect the previous operation of the [^{F24} statutory] provision so repealed or revoked, or anything duly done or suffered thereunder;
 - (c) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the [^{F24} statutory] provision so repealed or revoked;
 - (d) affect any offence committed against the [^{F24} statutory] provision so repealed or revoked, or any penalty or forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect thereof; or
 - (e) affect any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid;and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed, as if the [^{F24} statutory] provision had not been repealed or revoked.
- (3) Nothing in sub-section (2) shall be taken to authorise the continuance in force after the repeal or revocation of a [^{F24} statutory] provision of any instrument made under that provision.
- (4) Where at any time an enactment expires, lapses or otherwise ceases to have effect, this section shall apply as if that enactment had then been repealed or revoked.

statutory instrument or statutory document to the provision so repealed or revoked shall without prejudice to the operation of sub-sections (2) and (3) be construed as a reference to the provision as re-enacted.

- (2) Where an enactment repeals or revokes a^{F26} statutory] provision and substitutes another enactment therefor by way of amendment, revision or consolidation—
- (a) all officers and persons acting under that provision shall continue to act, as if appointed under the enactment so substituted;
 - (b) every bond and security given by a person appointed under that provision shall remain in force and all offices, books, papers and things used or made under that provision shall continue to be used as theretofore so far as consistent with the enactment so substituted;
 - (c) all proceedings taken under that provision shall be prosecuted and continued under and in conformity with the enactment so substituted, so far as consistently may be;
 - (d) in the recovery or enforcement of penalties and forfeitures incurred, and in the enforcement of rights existing or accruing under that provision or in any other proceedings under that provision, the procedure established by the enactment so substituted shall be followed so far as it can be adapted; and
 - (e) where any penalty, forfeiture or punishment is reduced or mitigated by any of the provisions of the enactment so substituted, the penalty, forfeiture or punishment, if imposed or adjudged after such repeal or revocation, shall be reduced or mitigated accordingly.
- (3) Without prejudice to sub-section (2), where an enactment repeals or revokes a^{F26} statutory] provision and substitutes another enactment therefor by way of amendment, revision or consolidation—
- (a)^{F25} all statutory instruments or statutory documents made, issued, confirmed or granted under that^{F26} statutory] provision and all decisions, authorisations, directions, consents, applications, requests or things made, issued, given or done thereunder shall, in so far as they are in force at the commencement of the enactment so substituted, and are not inconsistent therewith, have the like effect, and the like proceedings may be had thereon and in respect thereof as if they had been made, issued, confirmed or granted or made, issued, given or done under the corresponding provision of the enactment so substituted; and
 - (b) any reference to that^{F26} statutory] provision in any unrepealed or unrevoked^{F26} statutory] provision shall, in relation to any subsequent transaction, matter or thing, be construed as a reference to so much of the enactment so substituted as relates to the same subject-matter as that provision; and, if nothing in the enactment so substituted relates to the same subject-matter, that provision shall stand good, and be read and construed as unrepealed or unrevoked in so far, and in so far only, as is necessary to support, maintain or give effect to such unrepealed or unrevoked^{F26} statutory] provision.

- (a) affect the title to any property which vested pursuant to the provisions of an enactment in any person upon payment of compensation; or
 - (b) prejudice [^{F28}any power] to amend, repeal or revoke any enactment or to modify, restrict or revoke any power, privilege or advantage conferred or granted by an enactment.

F28 SI 1999/663

33 Expressions in instrument have same meaning as in enactment.

Where an enactment confers power to make any statutory instrument or issue any statutory document, expressions used in the instrument or document shall, unless a contrary intention appears, have the same respective meanings as in the enactment.

34 Application of interpretation provisions in enactments.

- (1) Definitions or rules of interpretation contained in an enactment shall apply to the construction of the provisions of the enactment which contain those definitions or rules of interpretation, as well as to the other provisions of the enactment.
- (2) An interpretation section or provision contained in an enactment shall be read and construed as being applicable only if a contrary intention does not appear in the enactment.

35 Corresponding meanings of parts of speech.

Where a word is defined in an enactment other parts of speech and grammatical variations of that word shall have corresponding meanings in that enactment.

36 Names commonly used.

In an enactment, a name commonly applied to a country, place, Government department, body, corporation, society, Minister, officer, functionary, person, party, statutory provision, or other thing whatsoever, shall mean the country, place, Government department, body, corporation, society, Minister, officer, functionary, person, party, statutory provision or thing to which the name is commonly applied, or is commonly applied in Northern Ireland, whether or not the name is the formal or unabbreviated designation thereof.

37 Rules as to gender and number.

- (1) Words in an enactment importing (whether in relation to an offence or otherwise) persons or male persons shall include male and female persons, corporations (whether aggregate or sole) and unincorporated bodies of persons.
- (2) In an enactment—
 - (a) words in the singular shall include the plural; and
 - (b) words in the plural shall include the singular.
- (3) Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions, a reference in an enactment to a party aggrieved shall include a reference to a body corporate in every case where that body is a party aggrieved.

38 Construction of “shall” and “may”.

In an enactment passed or made after the commencement of this Act, the expression “shall” shall be construed as imperative and the expression “may” as permissive and empowering.

39 Time.

- (1) Words in an enactment relating to time and references therein to a point of time shall be construed as relating or referring to Greenwich mean time, subject, however, to any statutory provision which may for the time being provide that, during any specified period or periods, time in Northern Ireland is to differ from Greenwich mean time.
- ^{F29}(2) Where in an enactment a period of time is expressed to begin on, or to be reckoned from, a particular day, that day shall not be included in the period.
- (3) Where in an enactment a period of time is expressed to end on, or to be reckoned to, a particular day, that day shall be included in the period.
- (4) Where the time limited by an enactment for the doing of anything expires or falls upon a Sunday or a public holiday, the time so limited shall extend to and the thing may be done on the first following day that is not a Sunday or a public holiday.
- (5) Sub-sections (2), (3) and (4) shall apply whether or not the number of days concerned is expressed to be clear days.
- (6) In an enactment—
 - (a) a reference to midnight, in relation to any particular day, shall be construed as a reference to the point of time at which that day ends;
 - (b) a reference to a week-day shall be construed as a reference to a day which is not a Sunday;
 - (c) a reference to a month shall be construed as a reference to a calendar month;
 - (d) a reference, without qualification, to a year shall be construed as a reference to a period of twelve months; and
 - (e) a reference to a financial year or to a local financial year shall be construed as a reference to a period of twelve months ending at midnight on the thirty-first day of March.

Introductory

- 1 In this Schedule—
“the inquiry” means any inquiry or investigation in relation to which, by virtue of section 23 of this Act, the provisions of this Schedule apply;
“the Department” means the Minister or Northern Ireland department causing the inquiry to be held.

Appointment of person to hold inquiry

- 2 The Department shall appoint a person to hold the inquiry and to report thereon to the Department.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Notification of time and place of inquiry

- 3 Notification shall be sent to any persons appearing to the Department or the person appointed to hold the inquiry to be interested of the time when, and the place where, the inquiry is to be held.

Powers to require persons to give evidence etc.

- 4 (1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2) and (3), the person appointed to hold the inquiry may by notice require any person—
- (a) to attend at the time and place set forth in the notice to give evidence or to produce any books or documents in his custody or under his control which relate to any matter in question at the inquiry; or
 - (b) to furnish, within such reasonable period as is specified in the notice, such information relating to any matter in question at the inquiry as the person appointed to hold the inquiry may think fit, and as the person so required is able to furnish.
- (2) A person shall not be required, in obedience to such a notice, to attend at any place which is more than 16 kilometres from the place where he resides unless the necessary expenses are paid or tendered to him.
- (3) Nothing in this paragraph shall empower the person appointed to hold the inquiry to require any person to produce any book or document, or to answer any question, which he would be entitled, on the ground of privilege or otherwise, to refuse to produce or to answer if the inquiry were a proceeding in a court of law.

Oaths and statements

- 5 The person appointed to hold the inquiry may administer oaths and examine witnesses on oath, and may accept, in lieu of evidence on oath by any person, a statement in writing by that person.

Offences

- 6 Any person who—
- (a) refuses or wilfully neglects to attend in obedience to a notice under paragraph 4, or to give evidence; or
 - (b) wilfully alters, suppresses, conceals or destroys or refuses to produce any book or document which he may be required to produce by any such notice; or
 - (c) refuses or deliberately neglects to furnish any information which he is required to furnish under paragraph 4(1)(b);
- shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale.

Expenses

- 7 (1) The expenses incurred by the Department in relation to the inquiry (including such sum as the Department may, with the approval of the Department of Finance and Personnel, determine in respect of the services of any officer engaged in the
