6 Key definitions

- (1) A “simple majority system” means an electoral system where—
 - (a) each voter may cast as many votes as there are offices to be filled;
 - (b) in the case of an election for a single office, the candidate who receives the highest number of votes is elected;
 - (c) in the case of an election to fill more than one office, the candidates equal to the number of offices to be filled who receive the highest number of votes are elected.
- (2) A “single transferable vote system” means an electoral system where—
 - (a) in the case of an election to fill more than one office—
 - (i) voters express a first preference for one candidate and may express second and further preferences for other candidates;
 - (ii) a quota for election is calculated from the number of votes and offices to be filled;
 - (iii) the first preferences are counted and any candidate whose first preference votes equal or exceed the quota is elected;
 - (iv) if insufficient candidates are elected under sub-paragraph (iii), the proportion of an elected candidate’s votes above the quota is redistributed according to voters’ further preferences;
 - (v) candidates who then reach the quota are elected and the candidate with the fewest votes is excluded;
 - (vi) the excluded candidate’s votes are redistributed according to voters’ further preferences;
 - (vii) if insufficient candidates are elected under sub-paragraphs (iv) to (vi), the steps described in those sub-paragraphs are repeated until all offices are filled;
 - (b) in the case of an election for a single office—
 - (i) voters express a first preference for one candidate and may express second and further preferences for other candidates;
 - (ii) an absolute majority of votes for election is calculated from the number of votes;
 - (iii) the first preferences are counted and, if a candidate’s first preference votes equal or exceed the absolute majority of votes, that candidate is elected;
 - (iv) if no candidate is elected under sub-paragraph (iii), the candidate with the fewest votes is excluded, the excluded candidate’s votes are redistributed according to voters’ further preferences and a candidate who then reaches the absolute majority is elected;
 - (v) if no candidate is elected under sub-paragraph (iv), the steps described in sub-paragraph (iv) are repeated until a candidate is elected.
- (3) The systems described in subsections (1) and (2) may include other provision for situations where—
 - (a) following the steps described does not lead to a candidate being elected, or
 - (b) it would not be appropriate to follow the steps described.
- (4) This section applies for the purposes of this Part.

7 The voting system that applies

- (1) This section provides for the voting system that applies to electing councillors of a principal council in a poll at a contested election.
- (2) The simple majority system provided for by local elections rules applies, unless and until the council changes the voting system for the first time.
- (3) But in the case of a principal council constituted by regulations under Part 7 (mergers and restructuring), the voting system provided for in the regulations applies, unless and until the council changes the voting system for the first time after the first ordinary election of councillors to the council.
- (4) After a principal council has changed the voting system for the first time (including the first time after a principal council is established), the system to which the council has most recently decided to change applies (subject to subsection (6)).
- (5) If a principal council changes its voting system, the change takes effect at the first ordinary election of councillors that takes place after the council passes the resolution required by section 9 and continues in effect unless and until the system is changed again.
- (6) But in a poll for an election to fill a casual vacancy in the office of councillor that takes place before the first ordinary election of councillors after the principal council passes the resolution required by section 9, the voting system that applied at the last ordinary election applies.

- (1) A principal council may change the voting system that applies to the election of councillors of the council, subject to the requirements of this section and section 9.

- (3) If the voting system that applies to a council for the time being is the single transferable vote system provided for by local elections rules, the council may change it to the simple majority system provided for by those rules.
- (4) The power to change the voting system under this section—
 - (a) is not to be the responsibility of an executive of the council under executive arrangements (within the meaning of section 10 of the 2000 Act);
 - (b) is not a function to which section 101 of the 1972 Act (arrangements for discharge of functions by local authorities) applies.
- (5) Before a principal council exercises its power to change its voting system it must consult—
 - (a) the persons entitled to vote as electors at a local government election in its area;
 - (b) each community council in its area;
 - (c) such other persons as it considers appropriate.

9 Resolutions to exercise the power to change the voting system

- (2) A resolution to exercise the power is not passed unless the number of councillors voting in favour of it at a meeting of the council is at least two-thirds of the total number of councillor seats on the council.
- (3) A resolution to exercise the power is of no effect unless—
 - (a) the resolution is considered at a meeting specially convened for the purpose,
 - (b) written notice of the meeting is given to all councillors, and

- (4) A resolution to exercise the power has no effect unless it is passed before 15 November of the year that is three years before the year in which the next ordinary election of the council is due to be held.
- (5) After a principal council has exercised the power, a further resolution to exercise the power has no effect unless two ordinary elections of the council have been held under the voting system to which it was changed.
- (6) A resolution to exercise the power passed during the period between two consecutive ordinary elections of the council has no effect if the council has previously voted on a resolution to exercise the power during that period at a meeting held in accordance with subsection (3).

10 Duty to notify when resolution passed

- (1) If a principal council exercises its power to change the voting system under section 8, the council must notify the Welsh Ministers and the Local Democracy and Boundary Commission of the change.
