

Abolition of Feudal Tenure etc. (Scotland) Act 2000

2000 asp 5

PART 7

GENERAL

71 The appointed day

The Scottish Ministers may, for the purposes of this Act, by order appoint a day (in this Act referred to as the “appointed day”, being a day which—

- (a) falls not less than six months after the order is made; and
- (b) is one or other of the terms of Whitsunday and Martinmas.