

Protection from Abuse (Scotland) Act 2001 2001 asp 14

The Bill for this Act of the Scottish Parliament was passed by the Parliament on 4th October 2001 and received Royal Assent on 6th November 2001

An Act of the Scottish Parliament to enable a power of arrest to be attached to interdicts granted to protect individuals from abuse; to regulate the consequences of such attachment; and for connected purposes.

1 Attachment of power of arrest to interdict

- (1) A person who is applying for, or who has obtained, an interdict for the purpose of protection against abuse may apply to the court for a power of arrest to be attached to the interdict under this Act.

[^{F1}(1A) In the case of an interdict which is—

- (a) a matrimonial interdict (as defined by section 14(2) of the Matrimonial Homes (Family Protection) (Scotland) Act 1981 (c. 59)) which is ancillary to—
 - (i) an exclusion order within the meaning of section 4(1) of that Act; or
 - (ii) an interim order under section 4(6) of that Act; or
- (b) a relevant interdict (as defined by section 113(2) of the Civil Partnership Act 2004 (c. 33)) which is ancillary to—
 - (i) an exclusion order within the meaning of section 104(1) of that Act; or
 - (ii) an interim order under section 104(6) of that Act, the court must, on an application under subsection (1), attach a power of arrest to the interdict.]

- (2) [^{F2}In the case of any other interdict,] the court must, on such application, attach a power of arrest to the interdict if satisfied that—

- (a) the interdicted person has been given an opportunity to be heard by, or represented before, the court;

^{F3}(b)

- (c) attaching the power of arrest is necessary to protect the applicant from a risk of abuse in breach of the interdict.

Status: Point in time view as at 25/01/2018.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Protection from Abuse (Scotland) Act 2001. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The court, on attaching a power of arrest, must specify a date of expiry for the power, being a date not later than three years after the date when the power is attached.

2 Duration, extension and recall

- (1) A power of arrest comes into effect only when it has been served on the interdicted person along with such documents as may be prescribed.
- (2) A power of arrest ceases to have effect—
- (a) on the date of expiry specified by the court;
 - (b) when it is recalled by the court; or
 - (c) when the interdict to which the power is attached is varied or recalled, whichever is the earliest.
- (3) The duration of a power of arrest must, on the application of the person who obtained it, be extended by the court, if satisfied that—
- (a) the interdicted person has been given an opportunity to be heard by, or represented before, the court; and
 - (b) the extension is necessary to protect the applicant from a risk of abuse in breach of the interdict.
- (4) The court, on extending the duration of a power of arrest, must specify a new date of expiry for the power, being a date not later than three years after the date when the extension is granted.
- (5) Where the duration of a power of arrest has been extended—
- (a) the extension comes into effect only when it has been served on the interdicted person along with such documents as may be prescribed; and
 - (b) subsection (2) applies as if the date referred to in paragraph (a) of that subsection were the new date of expiry specified by the court in granting the extension.
- (6) Subsections (3), (4) and (5) apply to further extensions as they apply to an initial extension.
- (7) A power of arrest must be recalled by the court if —
- (a) the person who obtained it applies for recall; or
 - (b) the interdicted person applies for recall and the court is satisfied that—
 - (i) the person who obtained the power has been given an opportunity to be heard by, or represented before, the court; and
 - (ii) the power is no longer necessary to protect that person from a risk of abuse in breach of the interdict.

5 Court appearance

- (1) [^{F8}Where a person is detained under section 4(2), the] person must wherever practicable be brought before the sheriff sitting as a court of summary criminal jurisdiction for the district in which the person was arrested not later than in the course of the first day after the arrest, such day not being a Saturday, a Sunday or a court holiday for that court.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) prevents the detained person from being brought before the sheriff on a Saturday, a Sunday or a court holiday if the sheriff is sitting on such a day for the disposal of criminal business.
- [^{F9}(2A) Subsections (3) to (5) apply where, on being brought before the sheriff under this section, the detained person is not accused on petition or charged on complaint with an offence in respect of the facts and circumstances giving rise to the arrest.]
- (3) When the detained person is brought before the sheriff under this section the procurator fiscal must present to the court a petition—
- giving particulars of the detained person;
 - stating the facts and circumstances which gave rise to the arrest;
 - giving any information known to the procurator fiscal about the circumstances which gave rise to the interdict and the attachment of the power of arrest;
 - giving any other information known to the procurator fiscal and relevant to an assessment of the risk of abuse or further abuse in breach of the interdict; and
 - requesting the court to consider whether, on the information presented, a further period of detention is justified.
- (4) If it appears to the sheriff, after affording the detained person the opportunity to make representations, that—
- the information presented to the court discloses a prima facie breach of the interdict by that person; and
 - there would, if further detention were not ordered, be a substantial risk of abuse or further abuse by that person in breach of the interdict,
- the sheriff may order that person to be detained for a further period not exceeding 2 days.
- (5) If the sheriff does not order further detention the detained person must, unless in custody in respect of any other matter, be released from custody.
