

Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003

2003 asp 13

PART 9

COMPULSION ORDERS

CHAPTER 2

REVIEW OF COMPULSION ORDERS

Further steps to be taken where order not revoked

145 Mandatory reviews: further steps to be taken where compulsion order not revoked

- (1) This section applies where a patient's responsible medical officer is carrying out—
 - (a) the first review of the relevant compulsion order to which the patient is subject; or
 - (b) a further review of that order.
- (2) If, having regard to any views expressed by persons consulted under section 139(3)(c) of this Act for the purpose of the review being carried out, the patient's responsible medical officer is satisfied—
 - (a) that the conditions mentioned in section 139(4) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient; and
 - (b) that it continues to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsion order,the responsible medical officer shall comply with the requirements in subsection (3) below.
- (3) Those requirements are—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) to consider whether it will continue to be necessary for the patient to be subject to a compulsion order after the day on which the order to which the patient is subject will cease (unless extended) to authorise the measures specified in it;
- (b) to assess the needs of the patient for medical treatment;
- (c) to consider—
 - (i) whether the compulsion order should be varied by modifying the measures specified in it;
 - (ii) if the order should be varied, what modification is appropriate; and
- (d) to consider any views expressed on the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) above by persons consulted under section 139(3)(c) of this Act.