

Title Conditions (Scotland) Act 2003

2003 asp 9

PART 11

SAVINGS, TRANSITIONAL AND GENERAL

VALID FROM 28/11/2004

Savings and transitional provisions etc.

119 Savings and transitional provisions etc.

- (1) Nothing in this Act shall be taken to impair the validity of creating, varying or discharging a real burden by the registering of a deed before the appointed day.
- (2) This Act is without prejudice to section 3(1) of the 1979 Act (effect of registration).
- (3) The repeal by this Act of section 32 of the Conveyancing (Scotland) Act 1874 (c. 94) does not affect the construction of the expression “deed of conditions” provided for in section 122(1) of this Act.
- (4) Sections 8 and 14 of this Act do not affect proceedings commenced before the appointed day.
- (5) Section 10 of this Act does not apply where a person ceases to be, or becomes, an owner before the appointed day.
- (6) Section 16 of this Act does not apply as respects a breach of a real burden which occurs before the appointed day.
- (7) Section 61 of this Act does not apply as respects a constitutive deed (or a deed into which the constitutive deed is incorporated) registered before the appointed day except in so far as a real burden the terms of which are set out in the constitutive deed is a community burden.
- (8) Sections 75 and 78 of this Act do not apply as respects a deed executed before the appointed day.

Status: Point in time view as at 04/04/2003. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Title Conditions (Scotland) Act 2003, Part 11. (See end of Document for details)

(9) Sections 106 and 107 of this Act do not apply as respects a conveyance registered before the appointed day.

(10) Except where the contrary intention appears, this Act applies to all real burdens, whenever created.

General

VALID FROM 28/11/2004

120 Requirement for dual registration

A deed which, to be duly registered for the purposes of any provision of this Act, requires to be registered against both a benefited property and a burdened property, shall not be registrable against one only of the properties; nor shall a document which includes but does not wholly consist of such a deed.

VALID FROM 28/11/2004

121 Crown application

This Act binds the Crown.

- (a) are, or are designed to be, in separate ownership; and
- (b) are divided from each other horizontally;

“terminator” shall be construed in accordance with section 20(2) of this Act;

“title condition” means—

- (a) a real burden;
- (b) a servitude;
- (c) an affirmative obligation imposed, in a servitude, on the person who is in right of the servitude;
- (d) a condition in a registrable lease if it is a condition which relates to the land (but not a condition which imposes either an obligation to pay rent or an obligation of relief relating to the payment of rent);
- (e) a condition or stipulation—
 - (i) imposed under subsection (2) of section 3 of the Registration of Leases (Scotland) Act 1857 (c. 26) (assignment of recorded leases) in an assignment which has been duly registered; or
 - (ii) contained in a deed registered under subsection (2A) or (5) of that section;
- (f) a condition in an agreement entered into under section 7 of the National Trust for Scotland Order Confirmation Act 1938 (c.iv); or
- (g) such other condition relating to land as the Scottish Ministers may, for the purposes of this paragraph, prescribe by order;

“unit” means any land which is designed to be held in separate ownership (whether it is so held or not); and

“variation”, in relation to a title condition, includes both—

- (a) imposition of a new obligation; and
- (b) provision that a property becomes a benefited property,

(cognate expressions being construed accordingly).

(2) In so far as it constitutes an obligation to maintain or reinstate which has been assumed—

- (a) by a local or other public authority; or
- (b) by virtue of any enactment, by a successor body to any such authority, a real burden is neither—

- (i) a facility burden; nor
- (ii) for the purposes of sections 52 to 54(1) of this Act, to be regarded as imposed as mentioned in any of those sections.

(3) The examples referred to in the definition of “facility burden” in subsection (1) above are—

- (a) a common part of a tenement;
- (b) a common area for recreation;
- (c) a private road;
- (d) private sewerage; and

123 The expression “owner”

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3) below, in this Act “owner”, in relation to any property, means a person who has right to the property whether or not that person has completed title; but if, in relation to the property (or, if the property is held pro indiviso, any pro indiviso share in the property) more than one person comes within that description of owner, then “owner”—
 - (a) for the purposes of sections 4(2)(b), 6(1)(a), 15, 16, 19, 33(1) and (2) and 35 of this Act, means any person having such right; and
 - (b) for any other purposes means such person as has most recently acquired such right.
- (2) Where a heritable creditor is in lawful possession of security subjects which comprise the property, then “owner”—
 - (a) for the purposes of the sections mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) above includes, in addition to any such person as is there mentioned, that heritable creditor; and
 - (b) for any other purposes (other than of construing section 1 of this Act) means the heritable creditor.
- (3) In section 60(1) of this Act, “owner” in relation to any property has the meaning given by subsection (1) above except that, for the purposes of this subsection, in that subsection—
 - (a) the words “Subject to subsections (2) and (3) below, in this Act” shall be disregarded; and
 - (b) paragraph (a) shall be construed as if section 60(1) were one of the sections mentioned.

124 Sending

- (1) Where a provision of this Act requires that a thing be sent—
 - (a) to a person it shall suffice, for the purposes of that provision, that the thing be sent to an agent of the person;
 - (b) to an owner of property but only the property is known and not the name of the owner, it shall suffice, for the purposes of that provision, that the thing be sent there addressed to “The Owner” (or using some other such expression, as for example “The Proprietor”).
- (2) Except in subsection (3) below, in this Act any reference to a thing being sent shall be construed as a reference to its being—
 - (a) posted;
 - (b) delivered; or
 - (c) transmitted by electronic means.
- (3) For the purposes of any provision of this Act, a thing posted shall be taken to be sent on the day of posting; and a thing transmitted by electronic means, to be sent on the day of transmission.
