

Title Conditions (Scotland) Act 2003

2003 asp 9

PART 1

REAL BURDENS: GENERAL

Termination

24 Effect of registration of notice of termination

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, a notice of termination, when registered against the burdened property, extinguishes the real burden in question wholly or as the case may be to such extent as may be described in that notice.
- (2) A notice of termination registrable by virtue of a certificate under paragraph (b) of section 23(1) of this Act shall not, on being registered, extinguish a real burden which is the subject of an application disclosed by the certificate in so far as that burden—
 - (a) is constituted in favour of the property of which the applicant is owner; or
 - (b) is a personal real burden of which the applicant is holder, but if under that section a further certificate is endorsed on the notice (or on an annexation to the notice) the notice may be registered again, the effect of the later registration being determined by reference to the further certificate rather than to the certificate by virtue of which the notice was previously registered.
