

Education (Additional Support for Learning) (Scotland) Act 2004

2004 asp 4

The Bill for this Act of the Scottish Parliament was passed by the Parliament on 1st April 2004 and received Royal Assent on 7th May 2004

An Act of the Scottish Parliament to make provision for additional support in connection with the school education of children and young persons having additional support needs; and for connected purposes.

Main definitions

1 Additional support needs

(1) A child or young person has additional support needs for the purposes of this Act where, for whatever reason, the child or young person is, or is likely to be, unable without the provision of additional support to benefit from school education provided or to be provided for the child or young person.

[^{F1}(1A) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), a child or young person has additional support needs if the child or young person is looked after by a local authority (within the meaning of section 17(6) of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995 (c. 36)).

(1B) But where, in the course of identifying (in accordance with the arrangements made by them under section 6(1)(b)) the particular additional support needs of a child or young person who is looked after by a local authority (within the meaning of section 17(6) of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995 (c. 36)), an education authority form the view that the child or young person is, or is likely to be, able without the provision of additional support to benefit from school education provided to or to be provided for the child or young person, subsection (1A) ceases to apply.]

(2) In subsection (1), the reference to school education includes, in particular, such education directed to the development of the personality, talents and mental and physical abilities of the child or young person to their fullest potential.

(3) In this Act, “additional support” means—

- (a) in relation to [^{F2}an eligible] pre-school child, a child of school age or a young person receiving school education, provision [^{F3}(whether or not educational provision)]which is additional to, or otherwise different from, the educational

20 [F110References to First-tier Tribunal and powers of First-tier Tribunal: further provision]

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by order extend the categories of decision, failure or information in respect of which a reference to the [F111First-tier Tribunal] under section 18(1) may be made; and without prejudice to the generality such further categories of decision, failure or information may include—
- (a) a decision of the education authority—
 - (i) that the child or young person has, or does not have, additional support needs,
 - (ii) that a child or young person has additional support needs of a type that the person making the referral considers are not an accurate reflection of the child or young person’s additional support needs,
 - (iii) to refuse an assessment request as referred to in section 8,
 - (iv) as to the person, or to the means used, or to be used, to carry out the process of assessment or examination referred to in section 8,
 - (b) failure by—
 - (i) the education authority,
 - (ii) any person identified in any co-ordinated support plan prepared for the child or young person as a person by whom additional support should be provided, or
 - (iii) a combination of these persons, to provide the additional support required by the child or young person.
- (2) Any order made under subsection (1) may also include provision to allow the [F112Chamber President] to reject references to the [F113First-tier Tribunal] arising from any further category of decision, failure or information referred to in the order without a hearing where the [F112Chamber President] is satisfied that the reference prima facie raises no substantial issue.
- (3) Orders made under subsection (1) may also make such consequential provision as the Scottish Ministers consider necessary or expedient, including provision as to the [F114First-tier Tribunal’s] powers in relation to any new category of decision, failure or information that may be referred to it.

- (1) Where it appears to an education authority that an appropriate agency could, by doing certain things, help in the exercise of any of the education authority's functions under this Act, the authority may, specifying what those things are, request the help of that agency.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act, each of the following is, in relation to any education authority, an appropriate agency, namely—
 - (a) any other local authority,
 - (b) any Health Board, and
 - (c) any person, or a person of any description, specified for the purposes of this subsection in an order made by the Scottish Ministers.
- (3) An appropriate agency must comply with a request made to it under subsection (1) unless it considers that the request—
 - (a) is incompatible with its own statutory or other duties, or
 - (b) unduly prejudices the discharge of any of its functions.

29 Interpretation

(1) In this Act—

“the 1980 Act” means the Education (Scotland) Act 1980 (c. 44),

“the 2000 Act” means the Standards in Scotland’s Schools etc. Act 2000 (asp 6),

“additional support” has the meaning given in section 1(3),

“additional support needs” is to be construed in accordance with section 1(1),

“appropriate agency” is to be construed in accordance with section 23(2),

“co-ordinated support plan” has the meaning given in section 2(1) and, in relation to any such plan which has been amended by virtue of any provision of this Act, references in this Act to a co-ordinated support plan are (except where the context otherwise requires) to the plan as amended,

[^{F132}“eligible pre-school child” has the same meaning as in Part 6 of the Children and Young People (Scotland) Act 2014,]

[^{F133}“First-tier Tribunal” means the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Health and Education Chamber]

“local authority” means a council constituted under section 2 of the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994 (c. 39),

“placing request” has the meaning given in paragraph 2(3) of schedule 2,

“primary education” is to be construed in accordance with section 135(2) of the 1980 Act,

“special school” means—

(a) a school, or

(b) any class or other unit forming part of a public school which is not itself a special school,

the sole or main purpose of which is to provide education specially suited to the additional support needs of children or young persons selected for attendance at the school, class or (as the case may be) unit by reason of those needs,

[^{F137}“young person” means a person who—

(a) is aged 16 years or over,

(b) is a pupil at a school, and

F146 SCHEDULE 1

(introduced by section 17)

Textual Amendments

F146 Sch. 1 repealed (12.1.2018) by The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Transfer of Functions of the Additional Support Needs Tribunals for Scotland) Regulations 2018 (S.S.I. 2018/4), reg. 1(1), sch. 2 para. 3(14)

SCHEDULE 2

(introduced by section 22)

CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS WITH ADDITIONAL SUPPORT NEEDS: PLACING REQUESTS

Introductory

- 1 Sections 28A, 28C, 28E, 28F and 28G of the 1980 Act (which make provision as to the making of placing requests and appeals in relation to the refusal of such requests) do not apply in relation to children and young persons having additional support needs and instead the provisions of this schedule apply in relation to such children and young persons.

Commencement Information

I37 Sch. 2 para. 1 in force at 14.11.2005 by S.S.I. 2005/564, art. 2

Duty to comply with placing requests

- 2 (1) Where the parent of a child having additional support needs makes a request to an education authority to place the child in the school specified in the request, being a school under their management, it is the duty of the authority, subject to paragraph 3, to place the child accordingly.
- (2) Where the parent of a child having additional support needs makes a request to the education authority for the area to which the child belongs to place the child in the school specified in the request, not being a public school but being—
- (a) a special school the managers of which are willing to admit the child,
 - (b) a school in England, Wales or Northern Ireland the managers of which are willing to admit the child and which is a school making provision wholly or mainly for children (or as the case may be young persons) having additional support needs, or
 - (c) a school at which education is provided in pursuance of arrangements entered into under section 35 of the 2000 Act,
- it is the duty of the authority, subject to paragraph 3, to meet the fees and other necessary costs of the child's attendance at the specified school.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/01/2018. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education (Additional Support for Learning) (Scotland) Act 2004. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) A request made under sub-paragraph (1) or (2) is referred to in this Act as a “placing request” and the school specified in it is referred to in this schedule as the “specified school”.
- (4) Where a placing request relates to 2 or more schools being—
- (a) schools under the management of the education authority to whom it is made, or
 - (b) schools mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(a), (b) or (c) the managers of which are willing to admit the child in respect of whom the request is made,
- the duty imposed by sub-paragraph (1) or, as the case may be, sub-paragraph (2) applies in relation to the first mentioned such school, which is to be treated for the purposes of this schedule as the specified school.
- [^{F147}(5) In sub-paragraph (1), the reference to an education authority includes an education authority which are not responsible for the school education of the child.]

Circumstances in which duty does not apply

- 3 (1) The duty imposed by sub-paragraph (1) or, as the case may be, sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 2 does not apply—
- (a) if placing the child in the specified school would—
 - (i) make it necessary for the authority to take an additional teacher into employment,
 - (ii) give rise to significant expenditure on extending or otherwise altering the accommodation at or facilities provided in connection with the school,
 - (iii) be seriously detrimental to the continuity of the child’s education,
 - (iv) be likely to be seriously detrimental to order and discipline in the school,
 - (v) be likely to be seriously detrimental to the educational well-being of pupils attending the school,
 - (vi) assuming that pupil numbers remain constant, make it necessary, at the commencement of a future stage of the child’s primary education, for the authority to elect either to create an additional class (or an additional composite class) in the specified school or to take an additional teacher into employment at the school, or
 - (vii) though neither of the tests set out in paragraphs (i) and (ii) is satisfied, have the consequence that the capacity of the school would be exceeded in terms of pupil numbers,
 - (b) if the education normally provided at the specified school is not suited to the age, ability or aptitude of the child,

Status: Point in time view as at 12/01/2018. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education (Additional Support for Learning) (Scotland) Act 2004. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) if the education authority have already required the child to discontinue attendance at the specified school,
 - (d) if, where the specified school is a school mentioned in paragraph 2(2)(a) or (b), the child does not have additional support needs requiring the education or special facilities normally provided at that school,
 - (e) if the specified school is a single sex school (within the meaning of [F148 substitute “paragraph 1(2) of Part 1 of Schedule 11 to the Equality Act 2010] and the child is not of the sex admitted or taken (under that [F149 paragraph]) to be admitted to the school,
 - (f) if all of the following conditions apply, namely—
 - (i) the specified school is not a public school,
 - (ii) the authority are able to make provision for the additional support needs of the child in a school (whether or not a school under their management) other than the specified school,
 - (iii) it is not reasonable, having regard both to the respective suitability and to the respective cost (including necessary incidental expenses) of the provision for the additional support needs of the child in the specified school and in the school referred to in paragraph (ii), to place the child in the specified school, and
 - (iv) the authority have offered to place the child in the school referred to in paragraph (ii), or
 - (g) if, where the specified school is a special school, placing the child in the school would breach the requirement in section 15(1) of the 2000 Act.
- (2) An education authority may place a child in the specified school notwithstanding sub-paragraph (1)(a) to (e).
- (3) The duty imposed by sub-paragraph (1) or, as the case may be, sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 2 does not apply where the acceptance of a placing request in respect of a child who is resident outwith the catchment area of the specified school would prevent the education authority from retaining reserved places at the specified school or in relation to any particular stage of education at the school.
- (4) Nothing in sub-paragraph (3) prevents an education authority from placing a child in the specified school.
- (5) In sub-paragraph (3), “reserved places” means such number of places (not exceeding such number or, as the case may be, such percentage of places at the school or relating to the particular stage of education as the Scottish Ministers may by regulations prescribe) as are in the opinion of the education authority reasonably required to accommodate pupils likely to become resident in the catchment area of the school in the period from the time of consideration of the placing request up to and during the year from 1st August to which the placing request relates.
- (6) In sub-paragraphs (3) and (5) “catchment area”, in relation to a school, means the area from which pupils resident therein will be admitted to the school in terms of any priority based on residence in accordance with the guidelines formulated by the authority under section 28B(1)(c) of the 1980 Act.

References to appeal committees: supplementary provisions

- 6 (1) An appeal committee may, on a reference made to them under paragraph 5,^{F152} (including such a reference relating to a decision which has been referred back under section 19(5)(d) or (e))] confirm the education authority's decision if they are satisfied that—
 - (a) in relation to the placing request, one or more of the grounds of refusal specified in paragraph 3(1) or (3) exists or exist, and
 - (b) in all the circumstances it is appropriate to do so,
 but otherwise must refuse to confirm the authority's decision.
- (2) Where they so refuse, the appeal committee shall require the education authority—
 - (a) in the case of a placing request made under paragraph 2(1), to place the child in the specified school,
 - (b) in the case of a placing request made under paragraph 2(2), to meet the fees and other necessary costs of the child's attendance at the specified school, and the authority must comply with that requirement.
- (3) An appeal committee must notify their decision under this paragraph and the reasons for it in writing to the parent who made the reference and to the education authority and, where they confirm the authority's decision, they must inform the parent of the right of appeal to the sheriff under paragraph 7.
- (4) Sub-paragraph (5) applies where—
 - (a) after a reference is made to an appeal committee under paragraph 5, but
