

Education (Additional Support for Learning) (Scotland) Act 2004

2004 asp 4

Main definitions

1 Additional support needs

(1) A child or young person has additional support needs for the purposes of this Act where, for whatever reason, the child or young person is, or is likely to be, unable without the provision of additional support to benefit from school education provided or to be provided for the child or young person.

[^{F1}(1A) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), a child or young person has additional support needs if the child or young person is looked after by a local authority (within the meaning of section 17(6) of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995 (c. 36)).

(1B) But where, in the course of identifying (in accordance with the arrangements made by them under section 6(1)(b)) the particular additional support needs of a child or young person who is looked after by a local authority (within the meaning of section 17(6) of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995 (c. 36)), an education authority form the view that the child or young person is, or is likely to be, able without the provision of additional support to benefit from school education provided to or to be provided for the child or young person, subsection (1A) ceases to apply.]

(2) In subsection (1), the reference to school education includes, in particular, such education directed to the development of the personality, talents and mental and physical abilities of the child or young person to their fullest potential.

(3) In this Act, “additional support” means—

- (a) in relation to [^{F2}an eligible] pre-school child, a child of school age or a young person receiving school education, provision [^{F3}(whether or not educational provision)] which is additional to, or otherwise different from, the educational provision made generally for children or, as the case may be, young persons of the same age in schools (other than special schools) under the management of the education authority [^{F4}responsible for the school education of the child or young person, or in the case where there is no such authority, the education authority],

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education (Additional Support for Learning) (Scotland) Act 2004. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) in relation to a child under school age other than [^{F5}an eligible] pre-school child, such [^{F6}provision (whether or not educational provision)] as is appropriate in the circumstances.

2 Co-ordinated support plans

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a child or young person requires a plan (referred to in this Act as a “co-ordinated support plan”) for the provision of additional support if—
- an education authority are responsible for the school education of the child or young person,
 - the child or young person has additional support needs arising from—
 - one or more complex factors, or
 - multiple factors,
 - those needs are likely to continue for more than a year, and
 - those needs require significant additional support to be provided—
 - by the education authority in the exercise of any of their other functions as well as in the exercise of their functions relating to education, or
 - by one or more appropriate agencies (within the meaning of section 23(2)) as well as by the education authority themselves.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)—
- a factor is a complex factor if it has or is likely to have a significant adverse effect on the school education of the child or young person,
 - multiple factors are factors which—
 - are not by themselves complex factors, but
 - taken together, have or are likely to have a significant adverse effect on the school education of the child or young person.

that failure is to be treated for the purposes of this section as a decision of the authority that the child or young person does not require a co-ordinated support plan.

(5B) Where under subsection (2)(a) of section 11 the education authority have informed the persons mentioned in subsection (3) of that section of their proposal to establish whether the child or young person requires, or would require, a co-ordinated support plan, failure by the authority so to establish by the time required by regulations made in pursuance of subsection (8) of that section is to be treated for the purposes of this section as a decision of the authority that the child or young person does not require a co-ordinated support plan.]

(6) Where, in respect of any child or young person for whom a co-ordinated support plan has been prepared (and not discontinued), any of the information referred to in subsection (3)(d)(i) has been referred under subsection (1) to [^{F86}the First-tier Tribunal], a further reference under that subsection in respect of the same information is not competent unless, since the last such reference was disposed of, a review of the plan has been carried out under section 10.

(7) Where a decision referred to in subsection [^{F87} (3)(da) or (e)] in respect of a child or young person has been referred under subsection (1) to [^{F88}the First-tier Tribunal], a further reference under that subsection of such a decision in respect of the child or young person is not competent during the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which the last such reference of such a decision was made, unless, during that period—

- (a) a review of any co-ordinated support plan prepared for the child or young person has been carried out under section 10,
- (b) any such plan prepared for the child or young person has been amended pursuant to a requirement made by [^{F88}the First-tier Tribunal] under section 19(4)(b), or
- (c) where the last such reference of such a decision was made by virtue of subsection (4)(c), a co-ordinated support plan has been prepared for the child or young person.

[^{F89}(8) For the purposes of subsection (7), it is irrelevant whether the further reference, and the last reference, mentioned in that subsection relate to the same or to different specified schools (which expression is to be construed in accordance with paragraph 2(3) of schedule 2).

(9) Nothing in subsection (7) prevents a further reference being made during the period mentioned in that subsection if the last reference so mentioned is, by virtue of rules under paragraph 11 of schedule 1, withdrawn before any hearing by [^{F90}the First-tier Tribunal] in relation to the last reference is held.

20 [F110]References to First-tier Tribunal and powers of First-tier Tribunal: further provision]

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by order extend the categories of decision, failure or information in respect of which a reference to the [F111]First-tier Tribunal] under section 18(1) may be made; and without prejudice to the generality such further categories of decision, failure or information may include—
- (a) a decision of the education authority—
 - (i) that the child or young person has, or does not have, additional support needs,
 - (ii) that a child or young person has additional support needs of a type that the person making the referral considers are not an accurate reflection of the child or young person’s additional support needs,
 - (iii) to refuse an assessment request as referred to in section 8,
 - (iv) as to the person, or to the means used, or to be used, to carry out the process of assessment or examination referred to in section 8,
 - (b) failure by—
 - (i) the education authority,
 - (ii) any person identified in any co-ordinated support plan prepared for the child or young person as a person by whom additional support should be provided, or
 - (iii) a combination of these persons, to provide the additional support required by the child or young person.
- (2) Any order made under subsection (1) may also include provision to allow the [F112]Chamber President] to reject references to the [F113]First-tier Tribunal] arising from any further category of decision, failure or information referred to in the order without a hearing where the [F112]Chamber President] is satisfied that the reference prima facie raises no substantial issue.
- (3) Orders made under subsection (1) may also make such consequential provision as the Scottish Ministers consider necessary or expedient, including provision as to the [F114]First-tier Tribunal’s] powers in relation to any new category of decision, failure or information that may be referred to it.

- (1) Where it appears to an education authority that an appropriate agency could, by doing certain things, help in the exercise of any of the education authority's functions under this Act, the authority may, specifying what those things are, request the help of that agency.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act, each of the following is, in relation to any education authority, an appropriate agency, namely—
 - (a) any other local authority,
 - (b) any Health Board, and
 - (c) any person, or a person of any description, specified for the purposes of this subsection in an order made by the Scottish Ministers.
- (3) An appropriate agency must comply with a request made to it under subsection (1) unless it considers that the request—
 - (a) is incompatible with its own statutory or other duties, or
 - (b) unduly prejudices the discharge of any of its functions.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education (Additional Support for Learning) (Scotland) Act 2004. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations provide that, where an appropriate agency is under a duty by virtue of subsection (3) to comply with a request made to it under subsection (1), the agency must, subject to such exceptions as may be provided in the regulations, comply with the request within such period as is specified in the regulations.
- (5) Where it appears to an education authority that, by doing certain things in the exercise of any of their other functions (whether relating to education or not), they could help the exercise by them of their functions under this Act, the authority must do those things unless they consider that to do so would—
- (a) be incompatible with any of their statutory or other duties, or
 - (b) unduly prejudice the discharge by them of any of their functions.

29 Interpretation

(1) In this Act—

“the 1980 Act” means the Education (Scotland) Act 1980 (c. 44),

“the 2000 Act” means the Standards in Scotland’s Schools etc. Act 2000 (asp 6),

“additional support” has the meaning given in section 1(3),

“additional support needs” is to be construed in accordance with section 1(1),

“appropriate agency” is to be construed in accordance with section 23(2),

“co-ordinated support plan” has the meaning given in section 2(1) and, in relation to any such plan which has been amended by virtue of any provision of this Act, references in this Act to a co-ordinated support plan are (except where the context otherwise requires) to the plan as amended,

[^{F132}“eligible pre-school child” has the same meaning as in Part 6 of the Children and Young People (Scotland) Act 2014,]

[^{F133}“First-tier Tribunal” means the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Health and Education Chamber]

“local authority” means a council constituted under section 2 of the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994 (c. 39),

“placing request” has the meaning given in paragraph 2(3) of schedule 2,

^{F134}

^{F135}

“primary education” is to be construed in accordance with section 135(2) of the 1980 Act,

“special school” means—

(a) a school, or

(b) any class or other unit forming part of a public school which is not itself a special school,

the sole or main purpose of which is to provide education specially suited to the additional support needs of children or young persons selected for attendance at the school, class or (as the case may be) unit by reason of those needs,

^{F136}

[^{F137}“young person” means a person who—

(a) is aged 16 years or over,

(b) is a pupil at a school, and

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education (Additional Support for Learning) (Scotland) Act 2004. (See end of Document for details)

(c) has, since attaining the age of 16 years or over, remained a pupil at that or another school.]

(2) In this Act, the following expressions have the meanings given in section 135(1) of the 1980 Act—

“ child ”,
“ education authority ”,
“ grant-aided school ”,
“ Health Board ”,
“ independent school ”,
“ managers ”,
“ parent ”,
“ public school ”,
“ school ”,
“ school age ”,
“ school education ”,

(3) In this Act [F139 and subject to subsection (3A)], references to a child or young person for whose school education an education authority are responsible are to any child or young person being, or about to be, provided with school education—

- (a) in a school under the management of the education authority, or
- (b) in pursuance of arrangements made or entered into by the authority.

[F140(3A) For the purposes of this Act, where arrangements are made or entered into by an education authority in respect of the school education of a child or young person with another education authority, the authority responsible for that school education is the authority for the area to which the child or young person belongs despite the education being, or about to be, provided in a school under the management of another authority.]

(4) In this Act, references to a child or young person belonging to an area are to be construed in accordance with section 23(3) of the 1980 Act.

(5) In this Act, references to the doing of anything in writing include references to the doing of that thing by means of a document—

- (a) transmitted by electronic means,
- (b) received in legible form, and
- (c) capable of being used for subsequent reference.
