

SCHEDULE 1
ADDITIONAL SUPPORT NEEDS TRIBUNALS FOR SCOTLAND

Constitution of Tribunals

- 4 (1) The President must from time to time constitute such number of Tribunals as the President thinks necessary to exercise Tribunal functions.
- (2) A Tribunal constituted under sub-paragraph (1) must consist of—
- (a) either—
- (i) the President, or
- (ii) one member selected by the President from the panel referred to in paragraph 3(1)(a),
- who is to act as the convener of the Tribunal, and
- (b) two other members selected by the President from the panel referred to in paragraph 3(1)(b).