PART 1

CHARITIES

CHAPTER 2

SCOTTISH CHARITY REGISTER

Applications

5 Determination of applications

- (1) OSCR may enter an applicant in the Register only if it considers that the applicant meets the charity test.
- (2) OSCR must refuse to enter an applicant if—
 - (a) it considers that the applicant's name falls within section 10, or
 - (b) the application must, by virtue of regulations under section 6(1), be refused, but must not otherwise refuse to enter an applicant which it considers meets the charity test.
