Part 2: Public Order Etc.

Chapter 1: Football Banning Orders

Miscellaneous and general

Section 69 – Interpretation of Chapter 1

118. This section sets out who is the football banning orders authority and defines passport for the purposes of this Chapter. The first football banning orders authority will be the chief constable of Strathclyde Police who will establish a team to administer the orders on behalf of all Scottish forces. This section also provides that Ministers may by order made by statutory instrument subject to negative resolution procedure appoint a different authority to take on the role and functions of the football banning orders authority.
