

Interests of Members of the Scottish Parliament Act 2006

2006 asp 12

The Bill for this Act of the Scottish Parliament was passed by the Parliament on 8th June 2006 and received Royal Assent on 13th July 2006

An Act of the Scottish Parliament to make provision (including provision for the purposes of section 39 of the Scotland Act 1998) about the registration and declaration of interests of members of the Scottish Parliament and the prohibition of advocacy by such members in return for payment or benefit in kind; and for connected purposes.

Register of Interests of Members of the Scottish Parliament

1 The register

- (1) There shall be a Register of Interests of Members of the Scottish Parliament (in this Act referred to as “the register”).
- (2) The register shall be kept by the Clerk at the office of the Clerk.
- (3) In the register, there shall be an entry for each member which shall contain—
 - (a) the information required by or under this Act; and
 - (b) any other matter which the Parliament may determine should be included in each entry.
- (4) The register shall be kept in such form (which need not be in documentary form) as the Clerk considers appropriate but, if it is kept otherwise than in documentary form, it shall be in such form that, when printed or displayed, it shows what the register contains.

Commencement Information

- II This provision comes into force in accordance with s. 21(4)

2 Registrable interests

- (1) In this Act, a “registrable interest” means a registrable financial interest.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Interests of Members of the Scottish Parliament Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The schedule sets out the circumstances in which a member has, or had, a registrable financial interest.
- (3) A financial interest is defined for the purposes of paragraph (a) of section 39(2) of the 1998 Act as a registrable financial interest.

Commencement Information

I2 This provision comes into force in accordance with s. 21(4)

3 Initial registration of registrable interests

- (1) Each member shall register—
 - (a) any registrable interest which that member had on the date on which that member was returned; and
 - (b) any registrable interest which that member had before that date but which that member no longer had on that date, if that interest meets the prejudice test, or declare that the member had no such interest.
- (2) An interest meets the prejudice test if, after taking into account all the circumstances, that interest is reasonably considered to prejudice, or to give the appearance of prejudicing, the ability of the member to participate in a disinterested manner in any proceedings of the Parliament.
- (3) A member shall comply with subsection (1) by lodging with the Clerk, not later than the relevant date, a written statement or, as the case may be, a written declaration.
- (4) The relevant date for the purposes of subsection (3) is the date which is 30 days after the date on which the member has taken the oath of allegiance or made a solemn affirmation in accordance with section 84(1) of the 1998 Act.
- [^{F1}(5) But where the member acquired the registrable interest on the same date as the member was returned, the relevant date for the purposes of subsection (3) is the last day of the period of 30 days beginning with the date of the return.]

4 Written statement

- (1) A written statement shall be in such form as the Parliament may determine.
- (2) A written statement shall contain such information about the interest or relating to it as the Parliament may determine.
- (3) The Parliament may make different determinations under subsections (1) and (2) for different kinds of interests.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Interests of Members of the Scottish Parliament Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The member may also include in the written statement such other information relating to the interest as the member wishes to disclose in the register.
 - (5) Within 30 days after a member has lodged with the Clerk a written statement in accordance with section 3, 5, 6 or 7, the Clerk shall—
 - (a) register that statement in the entry relating to the member in the register together with the date on which the statement was lodged; and
 - (b) send a copy of that entry to the member.
- [^{F2}(6) However, the Clerk need not register the address of any individual named or referred to in a written statement.]

A member may at any time register an interest which a member is not required to register by lodging a written statement with the Clerk.

Commencement Information

I7 This provision comes into force in accordance with s. 21(4)

8 Deletion of interests from the register

- (1) In this Act, a “ceased interest” means—
 - (a) an interest which is registered but which, if it had not been registered, would not now require to be registered; and
 - (b) an interest which is registered under section 7 but which the member no longer wishes to be registered.
- (2) Where a member has a ceased interest, that member may lodge with the Clerk a written notice which identifies the interest in question, states that it is a ceased interest and gives the date on which it became a ceased interest.
- (3) Within 30 days after a member has lodged a written notice in accordance with this section, the Clerk shall—
 - (a) amend the entry relating to that member in the register by recording in it that the interest is a ceased interest, the date mentioned in subsection (2), and the date on which the amendment was made in the register; and
 - (b) send a copy of the amended entry to that member.
- (4) Not less than 12 months after the date on which the notice was lodged, the Clerk shall—
 - (a) amend the entry relating to that member in the register by deleting that interest and any information relating to it; and
 - (b) send a copy of the amended entry to that member.

Commencement Information

[^{F4}8A Reporting and registration of changes to controlled transactions

- (1) For the purposes of this section, there is a change to a registered interest that is a controlled transaction if—
 - (a) another person becomes party to the transaction (whether in place of or in addition to any existing party to it);
 - (b) there is a change to anything about which information was (or should have been) provided by the member in the written statement lodged by the member when registering the transaction;
 - (c) the transaction comes to an end.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1)(b) to information provided is a reference to information—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Interests of Members of the Scottish Parliament Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) about or relating to the transaction; and
 - (b) provided in accordance with a determination under section 4(2).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(c), a loan comes to an end if—
- (a) the whole debt (or all the remaining debt) is repaid;
 - (b) the creditor releases the whole debt (or all the remaining debt).
- (4) A member who has registered a controlled transaction shall notify the Clerk of any change to the transaction.
- (5) A member shall comply with subsection (4) by lodging a written notice with the Clerk not later than the last day of the period of 30 days beginning with the day on which the change takes effect.
- (6) A written notice shall—
- (a) be in such form; and
 - (b) contain such information about the change or relating to it, as the Parliament may determine.
- (7) Within 30 days after a member has lodged a written notice in accordance with this section, the Clerk shall—
- (a) amend the entry relating to that member in the register so as to record the change and the date when it took effect; and
 - (b) send a copy of the amended entry to the member.]

Textual Amendments

- F28 Sch. para. 6 and cross-heading substituted (5.5.2016 coming into force in accordance with s. 17 of the amending Act) by Interests of Members of the Scottish Parliament \(Amendment\) Act 2016 \(asp 4\), ss. 3, 16(2)

- 6 (1) Where the circumstances are as described in sub-paragraph (2) or (3).
- (2) Where a member or a company in which the member has a controlling interest or a partnership of which the member is a partner receives, or has received, a gift of heritable or moveable property or a gift of a benefit in kind and—
- (a) in the case where the gift was received from a person on a single occasion, the value of that gift, at the date on which it was received, exceeds the specified limit; or
 - (b) in the case where gifts were received from that person on more than one occasion during the current parliamentary session, the aggregate value of those gifts, each valued at the date on which it was received, exceeds the specified limit; and, in either case,
 - (c) that gift or those gifts meet the prejudice test.
- (3) Where a member or a company in which the member has a controlling interest or a partnership of which the member is a partner receives, or has received, a gift of heritable or moveable property or a gift of a benefit in kind and—
- (a) in the case where the gift was received from a person on a single occasion, the value of that gift, at the date on which it was received, exceeds £1,500; or
 - (b) in the case where—
 - (i) the value of the gift, at the date on which it was received, exceeds £500 (but does not exceed £1,500); and
 - (ii) the aggregate value of the gift and any aggregable benefit or benefits, each valued at the date on which it was received, exceeds £1,500; and, in either case,

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Interests of Members of the Scottish Parliament Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) that gift is—
 - (i) offered to the member; or
 - (ii) having been accepted, retained by the member,for use by or the benefit of the member in connection with the member's political activities.
- (4) Sub-paragraph (2) does not apply to the costs of travel and subsistence in connection with the member's attendance at a conference or meeting where those costs are borne in whole or in part by—
 - (a) the organiser of that conference; or
 - (b) one of the other parties attending that meeting,as the case may be.
- (5) Sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) do not apply to—
 - (a) any support (of any kind) provided by the services of a volunteer which are provided in that volunteer's own time and free of charge; or
 - (b) a donation (of any kind) which is intended by the donor to be used for the purposes of meeting—
 - (i) the election expenses of the member in relation to the election at which that member was returned as a member of the Scottish Parliament; or
 - (ii) the election expenses of the member in relation to any UK parliamentary election at which that member stands as a candidate, but this exemption ceases to apply if the donation is not used for its intended purpose by the expiry of the 35th day after the election result is declared.
- (6) Sub-paragraph (3) does not apply to a gift or other benefit which the member has returned (or repaid) or sent to the Electoral Commission in accordance with sections 56 and 57 of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 (c.41) (as applied by paragraph 8 of Schedule 7 to that Act).
- (7) The reference in sub-paragraph (3)(b)(ii) to a benefit being valued at the date on which it was received is, in the case of a controlled transaction, a reference to its being valued at the date on which it was entered into.
- (8) For the purposes of this paragraph—

“ aggregable benefit ” means any of the following that is accepted by the member from the same person as gave the gift and in the same calendar year as the member accepted it—

 - (a) any other gift of a kind to which sub-paragraph (3)(b)(i) and (c) applies;
 - (b) any remuneration that is registrable by virtue of paragraph 2, and has a value exceeding £500 (but not exceeding £1,500) and consisting of—
 - (i) the payment to the member of any expenses incurred directly or indirectly by the member in connection with any of the member's political activities; or
 - (ii) a benefit in kind deriving from the payment by a person (other than the member) to a third party of expenses attributable to the member in connection with those activities;
 - (c) any controlled transaction (construed in accordance with paragraph 6A) having a value not exceeding £1,500;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Interests of Members of the Scottish Parliament Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) any overseas political visit (within the meaning given by sub-paragraph (4), as read with sub-paragraph (5), of paragraph 7) having a value exceeding £500 (but not exceeding £1,500);
- “ candidate ” has the same meaning as in section 118A, as read with section 90ZA(5) of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (c.2);
- “ controlling interest ” means, in relation to a company, shares carrying in the aggregate more than half of the voting rights exercisable at general meetings of the company;
- “current parliamentary session” means the parliamentary session which begins immediately after, or in which, the member is returned;
- “ election expenses ”, in relation to a member, has the same meaning for the purposes of—
- (a) sub-paragraph (5)(b)(i) as “election expenses” has in relation to a candidate in the order under section 12 of the 1998 Act which is in force for the purposes of the election at which the member was returned; and
 - (b) sub-paragraph (5)(b)(ii) as “election expenses” has in section 90ZA of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (c.2);
- “ political activities ”, in relation to a member, means the political activities of the member as such or as a member of a registered political party or both;
- “ specified limit ” means 0.5% of a member's salary (rounded down to the nearest £10) at the beginning of the current parliamentary session.]

Textual Amendments

F29 Sch. paras. 6A, 6B and cross-headings inserted (5.5.2016 coming into force in accordance with s. 17 of the amending Act) by Interests of Members of the Scottish Parliament \(Amendment\) Act 2016 \(asp 4\), ss. 4, 16(2)

- 6A (1) Where a member enters into a controlled transaction and—
- (a) the value of the transaction is more than £1,500; or
 - (b) if not, the aggregate value of it and any aggregable benefit or benefits exceeds £1,500.
- (2) Sub-paragraphs (3) to (10) define and provide further about controlled transactions.
- (3) An agreement between the member and another person by which that person lends money to the member is a controlled transaction if the use condition (see sub-paragraph (9)) is satisfied.
- (4) An agreement between the member and another person by which that person provides a credit facility to the member is a controlled transaction if the use condition (see sub-paragraph (9)) is satisfied.
- (5) A credit facility is an agreement whereby a member is enabled to receive from time to time from another party to the agreement a loan of money not exceeding such amount (taking account of any repayments made by the member) as is specified in or determined in accordance with the agreement.
- (6) Where—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Interests of Members of the Scottish Parliament Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the member and another person enter into a controlled transaction of a kind mentioned in sub-paragraph (3) or (4) or a transaction under which any property, services or facilities are provided for the use or benefit of the member (including the services of any person);
 - (b) the other person also enters into an arrangement where a third person gives any form of security for a sum owed to the other person by the member under a transaction mentioned in paragraph (a); and
 - (c) the use condition (see sub-paragraph (9)) is satisfied,
- the arrangement is a controlled transaction.
- (7) But the agreement or arrangement is not a controlled transaction—
- (a) to the extent that, in accordance with any enactment, a payment made in pursuance of the agreement or arrangement falls to be included in a return as to election expenses in respect of a candidate or candidates at a particular election;
 - (b) to the extent that it is entered into by the member and a person—
 - (i) in connection with the provision of goods or services to the member; and
 - (ii) in the normal course of that person's trade or business and on its normal terms;
 - (c) if its value does not exceed £500; or
 - (d) despite section 3(1)(b), it was entered into by the person who is the member before the date the member was returned.
- (8) For the purposes of sections 3 and 5 and sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, if—
- (a) the value of a controlled transaction as first entered into is such that it is not registrable; but
 - (b) the terms of the transaction are subsequently varied in such a way that it becomes registrable,
- the member is to be treated as having entered into a registrable transaction on the date when the variation takes effect.
- (9) The use condition is that the member intends, at the time the member enters into the loan or credit facility agreement or the transaction second mentioned in sub-paragraph (6)(a), to use any money or benefit obtained in consequence of it in connection with the member's political activities (either as a member or as a member of a registered political party or both).
- (10) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (9), it is immaterial that only part of the money or benefit is intended to be used in connection with the member's political activities.
- (11) In sub-paragraph (1)(b), “ aggregable benefit ” means any of the following that is accepted by the member from the same person, being a party to the controlled transaction, and in the same calendar year as the member accepted the controlled transaction—
- (a) any other controlled transaction having a value not exceeding £1,500;
 - (b) any remuneration that is registrable by virtue of paragraph 2, and has a value exceeding £500 (but not exceeding £1,500) and consisting of—
 - (i) the payment to the member of expenses incurred directly or indirectly by the member in connection with the member's political activities (as a member or as a member of a registered political party or both); or

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Interests of Members of the Scottish Parliament Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) a benefit in kind deriving from the payment by a person (other than the member) to a third party of expenses attributable to the member in connection with those activities;
- (c) any gift to which paragraph 6(3)(b)(i) and (c) applies;
- (d) any overseas political visit (within the meaning given by sub-paragraph (4), as read with sub-paragraph (5), of paragraph 7) having a value exceeding £500 (but not exceeding £1,500).

Value of loans, credit facilities etc.

- 6B (1) The value of a controlled transaction which is a loan is the value of the total amount to be lent under the loan agreement.
- (2) The value of a controlled transaction which is a credit facility is the maximum amount which may be borrowed under the agreement for the facility.
- (3) The value of a controlled transaction which is an arrangement by which any form of security is given is the contingent liability under the security provided.
- (4) For the purposes of sub-paragraphs (1) and (2), no account is to be taken of the effect of any provision in a loan agreement or an agreement for a credit facility at the time it is entered into which enables outstanding interest to be added to any sum for the time being owed in respect of the loan or credit facility, whether or not any such interest has been so added.]

 - (b) were approved prior to the visit by the Parliamentary corporation.
- (6) In sub-paragraph (4)(b), “ aggregable benefit ” means any of the following that is accepted by the member from the same person as met the costs of the visit and in the same calendar year as the member accepted it—
- (a) any other overseas political visit having a value exceeding £500 (but not exceeding £1,500);
 - (b) any remuneration that is registrable by virtue of paragraph 2, having such a value and consisting of—
 - (i) the payment to the member of any expenses incurred directly or indirectly by the member in connection with the member's political activities (as a member or as a member of a registered political party or both);
 - (ii) a benefit in kind deriving from the payment by a person (other than the member) to a third party of expenses attributable to the member in connection with those activities;
 - (c) any gift to which paragraph 6(3)(b)(i) and (c) applies;
 - (d) any controlled transaction (construed in accordance with paragraph 6A) having a value not exceeding £1,500.]

Heritable property

- 8 (1) Where a member owns or holds, or has owned or held, any heritable property and sub-paragraph (2) applies.
- (2) This sub-paragraph applies where either—
- (a) the market value of the heritable property, at the relevant date, exceeds [^{F31}the specified limit]; or
 - [^{F32}(b) any income is received from the heritable property during the twelve months prior to the relevant date.]
- (3) Sub-paragraph (1) applies to heritable property which a member owns or holds, or has owned or held—
- (a) solely in [^{F33}the member's] name;
 - (b) jointly with any other person or body; or
 - (c) as a trustee, whether or not jointly with other trustees, where the member has an interest as a beneficiary of the trust.
- (4) Sub-paragraph (1) does not apply to heritable property—
- (a) which is used as a residential home by the member or the member's spouse, civil partner or cohabitant;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Interests of Members of the Scottish Parliament Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) which was used as a residential home by the member or the member's spouse, civil partner or cohabitant but which, for a period of not more than 12 months, is or was unoccupied and for sale; or
 - (c) which forms part of the assets of a partnership and any income from that partnership is, or forms part of, the remuneration registered under paragraph 2 of this schedule.
- (5) Where a member has ceased to own or hold any heritable property before the date on which the member was returned as a member, the relevant date is the date when the heritable property ceased to be so owned or held.
- (6) Where a member owned or held any heritable property at the date on which the member was returned as a member, the relevant date is—
- (a) that date; and
 - (b) the 5th April immediately following that date and in each succeeding year, where the heritable property continues to be so owned or held on that 5th April.
- (7) Where a member becomes the owner of or acquires any heritable property after the date on which that member was returned as a member, the relevant date is—
- (a) the date on which the member became the owner of or acquired that heritable property; and
