

Adult Support and Protection (Scotland) Act 2007

2007 asp 10

PART 1

PROTECTION OF ADULTS AT RISK OF HARM

Protection orders and visits: supplementary

37 Warrants for entry

- (1) A “warrant for entry” is a warrant which authorises—
- (a) a council officer to visit any specified place under section 7 or 16 together with a constable, and
  - (b) a constable who so accompanies a council officer to do anything, using reasonable force where necessary, which the constable considers to be reasonably required in order to fulfil the object of the visit.
- (2) A warrant for entry—
- (a) expires 72 hours after it is granted, and
  - (b) does not entitle any person to remain in a place which that person has entered in pursuance of the warrant after the warrant has expired.
