PART 1

THE LISTS

Consideration whether to list

11 Consideration whether to list: court referrals

- (1) This section applies where prescribed information relating to an individual has been given to Ministers in pursuance of section 7.
- (2) Where the individual has been convicted of a relevant offence, Ministers must consider listing the individual in the children's list.
- (3) In any other case, Ministers must consider listing the individual in the children's list where they are satisfied that—
 - (a) the information indicates that it may be appropriate for the individual to be included in that list, and
 - (b) the individual does, has done or is likely to do regulated work with children.
- (4) Ministers must consider listing the individual in the adults' list where they are satisfied that—
 - (a) the information indicates that it may be appropriate for the individual to be included in that list, and
 - (b) the individual does, has done or is likely to do regulated work with adults.
