holds office only so long as that member retains the qualification of solicitor or advocate or, as the case may be, officer.

8 A member who becomes a member of—

- (a) the House of Commons;
- (b) the Scottish Parliament; or
- (c) the European Parliament,

ceases to be a member of the Commission.

9 A member may at any time resign by notice in writing to the Scottish Ministers.

10 The Scottish Ministers may remove a member from office if they consider—

- (a) that the member is unable or unfit to discharge the functions of a member; or
- (b) that the member has not complied with the terms and conditions of the office as determined under paragraph 4 above.

11 Where—

- (a) a person makes a complaint to the Commission about the conduct of a member; or
- (b) a member is charged with an offence,

the Commission may suspend the member from office.

12 The Commission may revoke or extend a suspension made under paragraph 11 above.

Filling vacancies

13 (1) This paragraph applies where a person ceases to be a member (whether by resignation or otherwise) prior to the expiry of that member's period of appointment.

(2) The Scottish Ministers must appoint a person to fill the vacancy.

(3) A person so appointed—

- (a) must hold the same office or, as the case may be, possess the same qualification as the member that person succeeds; and
- (b) holds and vacates office as a member on terms and conditions determined by the Scottish Ministers.

14 Paragraphs 5 to 13 above apply in relation to a member appointed under paragraph 13(2) above as they apply to a member appointed under paragraph 4 above.

- pensions, allowances and gratuities to or in respect of such of its employees, or former employees, as it considers appropriate.
- 27 The reference in paragraph 26 above to pensions, allowances and gratuities includes a reference to pensions, allowances and gratuities by way of compensation for loss of employment or reduction in remuneration.
- 28 Anything done by virtue of paragraphs 24 to 27 above must be approved by the Scottish Ministers.

Location of office

- 29 The Commission—
- (a) must not determine where its office premises are to be located without that location being approved by the Scottish Ministers; and
 - (b) must comply with any direction as to the location of those premises given by the Scottish Ministers.

Financing by the Scottish Ministers

- 30 The Scottish Ministers may—
- (a) pay grants;
 - (b) make loans,
- to the Commission of amounts that they determine.
- 31 Any—
- (a) grant paid in pursuance of paragraph 30(a) above;
 - (b) loan made in pursuance of paragraph 30(b) above,
- may be paid or, as the case may be, made on such terms and subject to such conditions (including, in the case of a loan, conditions as to repayment) as the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate.
- 32 The Scottish Ministers may, from time to time after any grant is paid or loan made, vary the terms and conditions on which it was paid or, as the case may be, made.

Accounts and audit

- 33 The Commission must—
- (a) keep proper accounts and accounting records;
 - (b) prepare for each financial year a statement of accounts giving a true and fair view of the state of its financial affairs; and
 - (c) send the statement of accounts, by the time directed by the Scottish Ministers, to the Auditor General for Scotland for auditing.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- 34 Every statement of accounts prepared by the Commission in accordance with paragraph 33 above must comply with any direction given by the Scottish Ministers relating to—
- (a) the information to be contained in the statement of accounts;
 - (b) the manner in which that information is to be presented; or
 - (c) the methods and principles according to which the statement of accounts is to be prepared.
- 35 The financial year of the Commission is—
- (a) the period beginning with the date on which the Commission is established and ending with 31 March next following that date; and
 - (b) each successive period of 12 months ending with 31 March.
