Schedule

Part 2: Content of the annual report by the Scottish Ministers

78. Part 2 of the schedule specifies the reporting requirements on the Scottish Ministers under section 12. The report must contain details covering each category of information provided by the local authorities under part 1 of the schedule. This will enable the performance of local authorities to be compared.
79. Paragraph 4 enables the Scottish Ministers to provide in their report any other information about the performance, functions and duties of local authorities in relation to disabled persons' parking places that they consider appropriate.
