SEXUAL OFFENCES (SCOTLAND) ACT 2009

EXPLANATORY NOTES

COMMENTARY ON SECTIONS

Part 4 – Children

Young Children

Section 24 – Communicating indecently with a young child etc

- 67. This section creates two offences, each relating to sexual communication with a young child. There are some common features shared by both offences.
- 68. Subsection (1) creates the offence of "communicating indecently with a young child". It is committed if a person intentionally sends a young child a sexual written communication by whatever means or directs a sexual verbal communication at a young child, by whatever means.
- 69. Subsection (2) creates the offence of "causing a young child to see or hear an indecent communication". It is committed if a person causes the young child to see a sexual written communication or to hear a sexual verbal communication in circumstances other than as described in subsection (1).
- 70. Subsection (3) provides that an offence is committed only where the perpetrator acts for the purpose of obtaining sexual gratification or to humiliate, distress or alarm the young child.
- 71. Subsection (4) defines "written communication" and "verbal communication" for the purposes of this section.
