

SCHEDULE 1
THE SCOTTISH SENTENCING COUNCIL

Resignation and removal of members

- 5 (1) A member appointed by the Lord Justice General may resign office by giving notice in writing to the Lord Justice General.
- (2) A member appointed by the Scottish Ministers may resign office by giving notice in writing to the Scottish Ministers.
- (3) The Lord Justice General may, by notice in writing, remove a judicial or legal member if satisfied that the member is unfit to be a member by reason of inability, neglect of duty or misbehaviour.
- (4) The Scottish Ministers may, by notice in writing, remove a lay member if satisfied that the member is unfit to be a member by reason of inability, neglect of duty or misbehaviour.