

Marine (Scotland) Act 2010

2010 asp 5

PART 7

COMMON ENFORCEMENT POWERS ETC.: LICENSING AND MARINE PROTECTION ETC.

Miscellaneous and ancillary common enforcement powers

146 Power to require attendance of certain persons

(1) Where a marine enforcement officer has—

- (a) boarded a vessel or marine installation,
- (b) entered any premises,

for the purpose of carrying out any relevant functions, the officer may require the attendance of any of the persons mentioned in subsection (2).

(2) The persons are—

- (a) the person who is for the time being in charge of the vessel or marine installation,
- (b) any other person who is on board the vessel or marine installation,
- (c) the owner or occupier of the premises,
- (d) any person who is on the premises.