PART 18

MISCELLANEOUS

Implementation of compulsory supervision orders: annual report

181 Implementation of compulsory supervision orders: annual report

- (1) The National Convener must, as soon as is reasonably practicable after the end of each financial year, prepare and submit to the Scottish Ministers a report about implementation of compulsory supervision orders during the year—
 - (a) in Scotland as a whole, and
 - (b) in each local authority area.
- (2) The National Convener must give a copy of the report to each member of the Children's Panel.
- (3) The Scottish Ministers must lay the report before the Scottish Parliament.
- (4) For the purposes of preparing the report, the National Convener may require each local authority to provide to the National Convener for each financial year—
 - (a) information about—
 - (i) the number of compulsory supervision orders for which the authority is the implementation authority,
 - (ii) changes in the circumstances that led to the making of the orders,
 - (iii) the ways in which the overall wellbeing of children who are subject to the orders has been affected by them, and
 - (b) such other information relating to the implementation of the orders as the National Convener may require.
- (5) Information provided under subsection (4) must not identify (or enable the identification of) a particular child.
- (6) In this section, "financial year" has the meaning given by paragraph 24(3) of schedule 1.
