Patient advice and support service

19 Duties to share information S

- (1) A relevant body must (where reasonably practicable and otherwise appropriate) give providers of the patient advice and support service information about—
 - (a) the relevant body (and the health service generally) including its organisation, procedures and specific services that it provides,
 - (b) any changes to the information mentioned in paragraph (a), and
 - (c) such other relevant matters as providers of the patient advice and support service may reasonably request.
- (2) The Agency must secure that providers of the patient advice and support service give relevant bodies information about—
 - (a) the services that providers of the patient advice and support service provide,
 - (b) such other relevant matters as relevant bodies may reasonably request.
- (3) No information is to be given under subsection (1) or (2) which would infringe patient confidentiality.
- (4) For the purposes of this section “relevant body” has the same meaning as in section 10ZA(6) of the 1978 Act (provision of patient advice and support service).
