PART 2

SEQUESTRATION: AWARD AND RECALL

Incomplete or inappropriate debtor applications

20 Debtor application: incomplete application

- (1) This section applies where a debtor application is made and AiB considers that—
- (a) the application is incomplete,
 - (b) further information is required in relation to the application,
 - (c) further evidence is required to substantiate any fact relevant to the application, or
 - (d) any fee or charge applicable to the application is outstanding.
- (2) AiB must specify by notice in writing to the debtor—
- (a) any further information which must be provided,
 - (b) any further evidence which must be provided, and
 - (c) any fee or charge to be paid.
- (3) Any information, evidence, fee or charge to be provided or paid under subsection (2) must be provided or paid within 21 days (or such greater number of days as may be specified by AiB) beginning with the day on which notice is sent under that subsection.
- (4) AiB may refuse to award sequestration if, after the expiry of the days referred to in subsection (3), AiB considers that—
- (a) the application remains incomplete,
 - (b) the debtor has provided insufficient information or evidence under subsection (2)(a) or (b), or
 - (c) any fee or charge applicable to the application remains outstanding.

21 Refusal of debtor application: inappropriate application

- (1) This section applies where a debtor application is made and AiB considers that an award of sequestration may not be appropriate in the circumstances of the case.
- (2) AiB must specify by notice in writing to the debtor—
- (a) the reason why AiB considers the application may not be appropriate, and
 - (b) any further information which must be provided within 21 days (or such greater number of days as may be specified by AiB) beginning with the day on which notice is sent under this subsection.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (3) AiB may refuse to award sequestration if, after the expiry of the days referred to in subsection (2)(b), AiB remains of the view that an award of sequestration would be inappropriate in the circumstances of the case.

Award of sequestration

22 When sequestration is awarded

- (1) Where a debtor application (other than an application under section 5(a)) is made and neither section 20 nor section 21 applies, AiB must award sequestration forthwith if satisfied—
- (a) that the application is made in accordance with—
 - (i) this Act, and
 - (ii) any provisions made under this Act,
 - (b) that section 2(8) applies to the debtor, and
 - (c) that the provisions of section 8(3)(a) have been complied with.
- (2) Where a debtor application is made under section 5(a), AiB must award sequestration forthwith if satisfied—
- (a) that the application has been made in accordance with this Act and with any provisions made under this Act, and
 - (b) that the provisions of section 8(3)(a) have been complied with.
- (3) Where a petition for sequestration of the estate of a debtor is presented by—
- (a) a creditor, or
 - (b) a trustee acting under a trust deed,
- the sheriff must grant warrant to cite the debtor to appear before the sheriff on such date as is specified in the warrant to show cause why sequestration should not be awarded.
- (4) Any date specified under subsection (3) must be—
- (a) no fewer than 6, and
 - (b) no more than 14,
- days after the date of citation.
- (5) The sheriff must forthwith award sequestration on that petition on being satisfied—
- (a) if the debtor has not appeared, that proper citation has been made of the debtor,
 - (b) that the petition has been presented in accordance with this Act,
 - (c) that the provisions of section 13(1) have been complied with,
 - (d) that in the case of a petition by a trustee—
 - (i) at least one of the conditions in section 2(7)(a) applies, or
 - (ii) the petition includes an averment in accordance with section 2(7)(b), and
 - (e) that, in the case of a petition by a creditor, the requirements of this Act relating to apparent insolvency have been fulfilled.
- (6) But subsection (5) is subject to section 23.
- (7) In this Act, “the date of sequestration” means—
- (a) where a debtor application is made, the date on which sequestration is awarded,

- (b) where the petition for sequestration is presented by a creditor, or by a trustee acting under a trust deed, and sequestration is awarded, the date on which the sheriff granted warrant under subsection (3) (or, where more than one warrant is so granted, the date on which the first warrant is so granted).

23 Circumstances in which sequestration is not to be awarded in pursuance of section 22(5)

- (1) Sequestration must not be awarded in pursuance of section 22(5) if—
 - (a) cause is shown why sequestration cannot competently be awarded,
 - (b) the debtor forthwith pays or satisfies, or produces written evidence of the payment or satisfaction of—
 - (i) the debt in respect of which the debtor became apparently insolvent, and
 - (ii) any other debt due by the debtor to the petitioner and to any creditor concurring in the petition.
- (2) Where the sheriff is satisfied that the debtor will, within 42 days beginning with the day the debtor appears before the sheriff, pay or satisfy the debts mentioned in subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of subsection (1)(b), the sheriff may continue the petition for no more than 42 days.
- (3) The sheriff may continue the petition for such period as the sheriff thinks fit if satisfied—
 - (a) that a debt payment programme, under Part 1 of the 2002 Act, relating to the debts mentioned in sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) of subsection (1)(b) has been applied for and has not yet been approved or rejected, or
 - (b) that such a debt payment programme will be applied for.

24 Effect of sequestration on diligence generally

- (1) The order of the sheriff, or as the case may be the determination of the debtor application by AiB, awarding sequestration has, as from the date of sequestration, in relation to diligence done (whether before or after that date) in respect of any part of the estate of the debtor, the effect mentioned in subsection (2).
- (2) The effect is of—
 - (a) a decree of adjudication of the heritable estate of the debtor for payment of debts duly recorded in the Register of Inhibitions on the date of sequestration,
 - (b) an arrestment in execution and decree of furthcoming,
 - (c) an arrestment in execution and warrant for sale, and
 - (d) an attachment,in favour of the creditors according to their respective entitlements.
- (3) Where an inhibition on the estate of the debtor takes effect within the 60 days before the date of sequestration, any relevant right of challenge vests, at the date of sequestration, in the trustee in the sequestration as does any right of the inhibitor to receive payment for the discharge of the inhibition.
- (4) But subsection (3) neither entitles the trustee to receive any payment made to the inhibitor before the date of sequestration nor affects the validity of anything done before that date in consideration of such payment.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (5) In subsection (3), “any relevant right of challenge” means any right to challenge a deed voluntarily granted by the debtor if it is a right which vested in the inhibitor by virtue of the inhibition.
- (6) No arrestment, money attachment, interim attachment or attachment of the debtor’s estate (including any estate vesting in the trustee under section 86(5)) executed—
- (a) within the 60 days before the date of sequestration and whether or not subsisting at that date, or
 - (b) on or after that date,
- is effectual to create a preference for the arrester or attacher.
- (7) The estate so arrested or attached is, or any funds released under section 73J(2) of the Debtors (Scotland) Act 1987 (automatic release of funds) or the proceeds of sale of such estate are, to be handed over to the trustee.
- (8) An arrester or attacher whose arrestment, money attachment, interim attachment or attachment is executed within the period mentioned in subsection (6)(a) is entitled to payment, out of the arrested or attached estate or out of the proceeds of the sale of such estate, of the expenses incurred—
- (a) in obtaining—
 - (i) warrant for interim attachment, or
 - (ii) the extract of the decree or other document on which the arrestment, money attachment or attachment proceeded,
 - (b) in executing the arrestment, money attachment, interim attachment or attachment, and
 - (c) in taking any further action in respect of the diligence.
- (9) Nothing in subsections (6) to (8) applies to an earnings arrestment, a current maintenance arrangement, a conjoined arrestment order or a deduction from earnings order under the Child Support Act 1991.

25 Effect of sequestration on diligence: estate of deceased debtor

- (1) Section 24 applies to the estate of a deceased debtor which—
- (a) has been sequestrated within 12 months after the date of death, or
 - (b) was absolutely insolvent at that date and in respect of which a judicial factor has been appointed under section 11A of the Judicial Factors (Scotland) Act 1889 within 12 months after that date,
- but with the modifications mentioned in subsection (2).
- (2) The modifications are that—
- (a) any reference to the date of sequestration is to be construed as a reference to the date of death, and
 - (b) any reference to the debtor is to be construed as a reference to the deceased debtor.
- (3) It is not competent, on or after the date of sequestration, for any creditor to raise or insist in an adjudication against the estate of a debtor (including any estate vesting under section 86(5)) or to be confirmed as executor-creditor on the estate.
- (4) Subsections (5) and (6) apply where, within 12 months after the debtor’s death—
- (a) the debtor’s estate is sequestrated, or

- (b) a judicial factor is appointed under section 11A of the Judicial Factors (Scotland) Act 1889 to administer the debtor's estate and that estate is absolutely insolvent.
- (5) No confirmation as executor-creditor on that estate at any time after the debtor's death is effectual in a question with the trustee or the judicial factor.
- (6) But the executor-creditor is entitled—
 - (a) out of the estate, or
 - (b) out of the proceeds of sale of the estate,to the expenses incurred by the executor-creditor in obtaining the confirmation.

- (2) On awarding sequestration on a debtor application AiB must forthwith send a certified copy of AiB's determination of the application to the Keeper of the Register of Inhibitions for recording in that register.
- (3) Recording under subsection (1)(a) or (2) has the effect, as from the date of sequestration, of an inhibition and of a citation in an adjudication of the debtor's heritable estate at the instance of the creditors who subsequently have claims in the sequestration accepted under section 126.
- (4) The effect mentioned in subsection (3) expires—
 - (a) on the recording by virtue of section 27(11)(a) of a certified copy of an order refusing to award sequestration or by virtue of section 30(9)(a) of a certified copy of an order recalling an award of sequestration,
 - (b) on the recording by virtue of section 18(7), 34(4) or 35(7) of a certified copy of a decision, or
 - (c) if the effect has not earlier expired by virtue of paragraph (a) or (b), at the end of 3 years beginning with the date of sequestration.
- (5) But subsection (4)(c) is subject to subsections (6) and (7).
- (6) The trustee may if not discharged send a memorandum, in a form prescribed by act of sederunt, to the Keeper of the Register of Inhibitions for recording in that register before the expiry of—
 - (a) the 3 years mentioned in subsection (4)(c), or
 - (b) a period for which the effect mentioned in subsection (3) has been renewed by virtue of subsection (7).

- (9) The recording of a memorandum sent in accordance with subsection (8) imposes the effect mentioned in subsection (3) for 3 years beginning with the day of notification in accordance with section 153(1).

27 Further matters in relation to award of sequestration

- (1) On application the sheriff may, at any time after sequestration has been awarded, transfer the sequestration to any other sheriff.
- (2) But subsection (1) is subject to subsection (3).
- (3) The debtor may, with the leave of the sheriff, appeal to the Sheriff Appeal Court against such a transfer.

- (2) In particular, the sheriff may recall the award if satisfied—
- (a) that the debtor has paid the debtor’s debts in full,

- (6) Subsection (5)(b) is without prejudice to subsection (8).
- (7) Where the sheriff considers that it is inappropriate to recall, or to refuse to recall, an award of sequestration forthwith, the sheriff may order that the proceedings in the sequestration are to continue but are to be subject to such conditions as the sheriff may think fit.

VESTING ETC.

Vesting

78 Vesting of estate at date of sequestration

- (1) The whole estate of the debtor vests for the benefit of the creditors in the trustee in the sequestration, by virtue of the trustee's appointment, as at the date of sequestration.
- (2) But subsection (1) is subject to section 88.
- (3) It is not competent for—
 - (a) the trustee, or
 - (b) any person deriving title from the trustee,to complete title, before the expiry of the period mentioned in subsection (4), to any heritable property in Scotland vested in the trustee by virtue of the trustee's appointment.
- (4) The period is 28 days (or such other period as may be prescribed) beginning with the day on which the certified copy of—
 - (a) the order of the sheriff granting warrant is recorded under subsection (1)(a) of section 26 in the Register of Inhibitions, or
 - (b) the determination of AiB awarding sequestration is recorded under subsection (2) of that section in that register.
- (5) The exercise by the trustee of any power conferred on the trustee by this Act, in respect of any heritable estate vested in the trustee by virtue of that person's appointment, is not challengeable on the ground of a prior inhibition.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (6) Where the debtor has an uncompleted title to any heritable estate in Scotland, the trustee may complete title to that estate either in the trustee's own name or in the name of the debtor.
- (7) But completion of title in the name of the debtor does not validate by accretion any unperfected right in favour of a person other than the trustee.
- (8) Moveable property in respect of which, but for this subsection—
- (a) delivery or possession, or
 - (b) intimation of assignation,
- would be required in order to complete title vests in the trustee, by virtue of the trustee's appointment, as if at the date of sequestration (as the case may be) the trustee had taken delivery or possession of the property or had made intimation of its assignation to the trustee.
- (9) Any non-vested contingent interest which the debtor has vests in the trustee as if an assignation of that interest had been executed by the debtor (and intimation of assignation made) at the date of sequestration.
- (10) Any non-vested contingent interest vested in the trustee by virtue of subsection (9) is, where it remains so vested as at the date which is 4 years after the date of sequestration, re-invested in the debtor as if an assignation of that interest had been executed by the trustee (and intimation of assignation made) at that date.
- (11) A person claiming a right to any estate claimed by the trustee may apply to the sheriff for the estate to be excluded from such vesting, a copy of the application being served on the trustee.
- (12) The sheriff must grant the application if satisfied that the estate should not be so vested.
- (13) Where any successor of a deceased debtor whose estate has been sequestrated has made up title to, or is in possession of, any part of that estate, the sheriff may on the application of the trustee order the successor to convey such estate to the trustee.

79 Provision supplementary to section 78 and interpretation of Part 5

- (1) In subsection (1) of section 78, the “whole estate of the debtor” means the debtor's whole estate at the date of sequestration (wherever situated) including—
- (a) any income or estate vesting in the debtor on the date of sequestration,
 - (b) any property of the debtor title to which has not been completed by another person deriving right from the debtor, and
 - (c) the capacity to exercise and to take proceedings for exercising all such powers in, over or in respect of any property as—
 - (i) might have been exercised by the debtor for the debtor's own benefit as at, or on, the date of sequestration, or
 - (ii) might be exercised on a relevant date.
- (2) But subsection (1) is subject to subsection (3) and to section 231.
- (3) The “whole estate of the debtor” does not include any interest of the debtor as tenant under—
- (a) a tenancy which is an assured tenancy within the meaning of Part 2 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1988,

- (b) a protected tenancy within the meaning of the Rent (Scotland) Act 1984 in respect of which, by virtue of Part 8 of that Act, no premium can lawfully be required as a condition of assignation, or
 - (c) a Scottish secure tenancy within the meaning of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001.
- (4) On the date on which the trustee serves notice to that effect on the debtor, the interest of the debtor as tenant under any of the tenancies referred to in subsection (3) forms part of the debtor's estate and vests in the trustee as if it had vested in the trustee under section 86(5).
- (5) In this Part “relevant date” means a date after the date of sequestration and before the date which is 4 years after the date of sequestration.

80 Property subject to restraint order

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where—
- (a) property is excluded from the debtor's estate by virtue of section 420(2)(a) of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 (property subject to a restraint order),
 - (b) an order under section 50, 67A, 128, 131A, 198 or 215A of that Act has not been made in respect of the property,
 - (c) the restraint order is discharged, and
 - (d) immediately after the discharge of the restraint order the property is not detained under or by virtue of section 44A, 47J, 122A, 127J, 193A or 195J of that Act.
- (2) The property vests in the trustee in the sequestration as part of the debtor's estate.
- (3) But subsection (2) does not apply to the proceeds of property realised by a management receiver under section 49(2)(d) or 197(2)(d) of that Act (realisation of property to meet receiver's outlays and remuneration).

81 Property released from detention

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where—
- (a) property is excluded from the debtor's estate by virtue of section 420(2)(b) of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 (property detained under certain provisions),
 - (b) no order is in force in respect of the property under section 41, 50, 120, 128, 190 or 198 of that Act, and
 - (c) the property is released.
- (2) The property vests in the trustee in the sequestration as part of the debtor's estate.

82 Property in respect of which receivership or administration order is made

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where—
- (a) property is excluded from the debtor's estate by virtue of section 420(2)(c) of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 (property in respect of which an order for the appointment of a receiver or administrator under certain provisions of that Act is in force),
 - (b) a confiscation order is made under section 6, 92 or 156 of that Act,
 - (c) the amount payable under the confiscation order is fully paid, and

(d) any of the property remains in the hands of the receiver or administrator (as the case may be).

(2) The property vests in the trustee in the sequestration as part of the debtor's estate.

83 Property in respect of which realisation order is made

(1) Subsection (2) applies where—

- (a) property is excluded from the debtor's estate by virtue of section 420(2)(d) of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 (property in respect of which an order has been made authorising realisation of the property by an appropriate officer),
- (b) a confiscation order is made under section 6, 92 or 156 of that Act,
- (c) the amount payable under the confiscation order is fully paid, and
- (d) any of the property remains in the hands of the appropriate officer.

(2) The property vests in the trustee in the sequestration as part of the debtor's estate.

84 Property subject to certain orders where confiscation order discharged or quashed

(1) Subsection (2) applies where—

- (a) property is excluded from the debtor's estate by virtue of section 420(2)(a), (b), (c) or (d) of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 (property excluded from debtor's estate),
- (b) a confiscation order is made under section 6, 92 or 156 of that Act, and
- (c) the confiscation order is discharged under section 30, 114 or 180 of that Act (as the case may be) or quashed under that Act or in pursuance of any enactment relating to appeals against conviction or sentence.

(2) Any such property vests in the trustee in the sequestration as part of the debtor's estate if it is in the hands of—

- (a) a receiver appointed under Part 2 or 4 of that Act,
- (b) an administrator appointed under Part 3 of that Act, or
- (c) an appropriate officer (within the meaning of section 41A, 120A or 190A of that Act).

(3) But subsection (2) does not apply to the proceeds of property realised by a management receiver under section 49(2)(d) or 197(2)(d) of that Act (realisation of property to meet receiver's outlays and remuneration).

85 Vesting of income received by debtor after sequestration

(1) Any income, of whatever nature, received by the debtor on a relevant date, other than income arising from the estate which is vested in the trustee in the sequestration, is to vest in the debtor.

(2) But subsection (1) is subject to sections 90 to 97.

86 Further provision as regards vesting of estate

(1) Diligence in respect of a debt or obligation mentioned in subsection (2) is not competent against income vesting in the debtor under section 85.

- (2) The debt or obligation is one in respect of which the debtor, if discharged under section 137, 138 or 140, would be discharged under section 145.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), diligence includes the making of a deduction from earnings order under the Child Support Act 1991.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies where any estate, wherever situated—
 - (a) is acquired by the debtor on a relevant date, and
 - (b) would have vested in the trustee in the sequestration if it had been part of the debtor’s estate on the date of sequestration.
- (5) The estate vests in the trustee for the benefit of the creditors as at the date of acquisition.
- (6) A person who holds estate vesting in the trustee under subsection (5) is, on production to the person of a copy of the order certified by the sheriff clerk, or as the case may be by AiB, appointing the trustee, to convey or deliver the estate to the trustee.
- (7) But such a person incurs no liability to the trustee except to account for any proceeds of the conveyance which are in the person’s hands if the person has, in good faith and without knowledge of the sequestration, conveyed the estate—
 - (a) to the debtor, or
 - (b) to anyone on the instructions of the debtor.
- (8) The trustee is not entitled, by virtue of subsections (4) to (7), to any remedy against an appropriate bank or institution (in this section and in section 87(7) referred to as a “bank”) in respect of a banking transaction entered into before the receipt by the bank of a notice under subsection (9) (whether or not the bank is aware of the sequestration).
- (9) Where the trustee knows, or becomes aware, of any estate vested in the trustee under section 78 or this section which comprises funds held by a bank, the trustee must serve a notice on the bank—
 - (a) informing the bank of the sequestration, and
 - (b) specifying reasonable detail in order to allow the bank to identify the debtor and the funds held.
- (10) A notice under subsection (9)—
 - (a) must be in writing and may be sent—
 - (i) by first class post or by using a registered or recorded delivery postal service to the bank, or
 - (ii) in some other manner (including by electronic means) which the trustee reasonably considers likely to cause it to be delivered to the bank on the same or next day, and
 - (b) is deemed to have been received the day after it is sent.
- (11) Subsections (4) to (8) are without prejudice to—
 - (a) section 85, and
 - (b) any right acquired in the estate in good faith and for value.

87 Dealings and circumstances of debtor after sequestration

- (1) The debtor must immediately notify the trustee in the sequestration—
 - (a) of any assets acquired by the debtor on a relevant date, or
 - (b) of any other substantial change in the debtor’s financial circumstances.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) A debtor who fails to comply with subsection (1) commits an offence.
- (3) A debtor who commits an offence under subsection (2) is liable on summary conviction—
 - (a) to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale,
 - (b) to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months, or
 - (c) both to such fine and to such imprisonment.
- (4) Any dealing of, or with, the debtor and relating to the debtor's estate vested in the trustee under section 78 or 86 is of no effect in a question with the trustee.
- (5) But subsection (4) does not apply where the person seeking to uphold the dealing establishes that the trustee—
 - (a) has abandoned to the debtor the property to which the dealing relates,
 - (b) has expressly or impliedly authorised the dealing, or
 - (c) is otherwise personally barred from challenging the dealing.
- (6) Nor does subsection (4) apply where the person seeking to uphold the dealing establishes both—
 - (a) that the dealing is—
 - (i) the performance of an obligation undertaken before the date of sequestration by a person obliged to the debtor in the obligation,
 - (ii) the purchase from the debtor of goods for which the purchaser has given value to the debtor or is willing to give value to the trustee, or
 - (iii) one which satisfies the conditions mentioned in subsection (10), and
 - (b) that the person dealing with the debtor was, at the time when the dealing occurred, unaware of the sequestration and had at that time no reason to believe that the debtor's estate had been sequestrated or was the subject of sequestration proceedings.
- (7) Nor does subsection (4) apply where the dealing is a banking transaction entered into before the receipt by the bank of a notice under section 86(9) (whether or not the bank is aware of the sequestration).
- (8) Where the trustee has abandoned heritable property to the debtor, notice (in such form as may be prescribed) given to the debtor by the trustee is sufficient evidence that the property is vested in the debtor.
- (9) Where notice is given under subsection (8), the trustee is as soon as reasonably practicable after giving it to record a certified copy of it in the Register of Inhibitions.
- (10) The conditions are that—
 - (a) the dealing constitutes—
 - (i) the transfer of incorporeal moveable property, or
 - (ii) the creation, transfer, variation or extinguishing of a real right in heritable property,for which the person dealing with the debtor has given adequate consideration to the debtor or is willing to give adequate consideration to the trustee,
 - (b) the dealing requires the delivery of a deed, and
 - (c) the delivery occurs during the period beginning with the date of sequestration and ending 7 days after the day on which—

- (i) the certified copy of the order of the sheriff granting warrant is recorded in the Register of Inhibitions under section 26(1)(a), or
- (ii) the certified copy of the determination of AiB awarding sequestration is recorded in that register under section 26(2).

Limitation on vesting

88 Limitation on vesting

- (1) The following property of the debtor does not vest in the trustee in the sequestration—
 - (a) any property—
 - (i) kept outside a dwellinghouse, and
 - (ii) in respect of which attachment is, by virtue of section 11(1) of the 2002 Act, incompetent,

 - (i) kept inside a dwellinghouse, and
 - (ii) not a non-essential asset for the purposes of Part 3 of that Act, and
 - (c) property held on trust by the debtor for any other person.
- (2) The vesting of the debtor’s estate in the trustee in the sequestration does not affect the right of hypothec of a landlord.
- (3) Sections 78, 85 and 86 are without prejudice to the right of any secured creditor which is preferable to the rights of the trustee.

PART 6

DEBTOR’S CONTRIBUTION

89 Assessment of debtor’s contribution

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations specify a method (the “common financial tool”) to be used to assess an appropriate amount of a living debtor’s income (the “debtor’s contribution”) to be paid to a trustee after the sequestration of the debtor’s estate.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may in particular prescribe—
 - (a) a method for assessing a debtor’s financial circumstances (including the debtor’s assets, income, liabilities and expenditure),
 - (b) a method for determining a reasonable amount of expenditure for a debtor after the sequestration of the debtor’s estate,
 - (c) the proportion of a debtor’s income that is to constitute the debtor’s contribution,
 - (d) that a method determined by another person must be used (with or without modification in accordance with regulations made under subsection (1)) as the common financial tool.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (3) The common financial tool must ensure that the amount of reasonable expenditure for a debtor is not less than the total amount of any income received by the debtor by way of guaranteed minimum pension (within the meaning of the Pension Schemes Act 1993).
- (4) The common financial tool must ensure that an amount is allowed for—
 - (a) aliment for the debtor, and
 - (b) the debtor’s relevant obligations.
- (5) The “debtor’s relevant obligations” are any obligation of—

 - (b) the debtor to make a periodical allowance to a former spouse or former civil partner, and
 - (c) the debtor to pay child support maintenance under the Child Support Act 1991.

Payments by debtor following sequestration

- (1) AiB must make an order fixing the debtor’s contribution (a “debtor contribution order”)—
 - (a) in the case of a debtor application, at the same time as awarding sequestration of the debtor’s estate,
 - (b) in the case of an award of sequestration following a petition under section 2(1)(b), after considering initial proposals for the debtor’s contribution provided by the trustee.
- (2) In a case referred to in subsection (1)(b), the trustee must send initial proposals for the debtor’s contribution within 6 weeks beginning with the date of the award of sequestration.

- (9) A debtor contribution order must not take effect on a date before the expiry of 14 days beginning with the day of notification of the order.

91 Debtor contribution order: payment period and intervals

- (1) A debtor contribution order must contain provision requiring the debtor to pay the debtor’s contribution (if not zero)—
- (a) during the payment period, and
 - (b) at regular intervals determined by the person making or varying the order.
- (2) In subsection (1)(a), “payment period” means—
- (a) the 48 months beginning with the date of the first payment,
 - (b) such shorter period as is determined by the person making or varying the order, or
 - (c) such longer period as is—
 - (i) determined by the trustee where there is a period during which the debtor did not pay an amount required under the debtor contribution order, or
 - (ii) agreed by the debtor and the trustee.
- (3) The person making or varying the order may determine a shorter period under subsection (2)(b) only if, in the opinion of that person, the value of—
- (a) the debtor’s contribution during the shorter period, and
 - (b) any other estate of the debtor taken possession of by the trustee,
- would be sufficient to allow a distribution of the debtor’s estate to meet in full all of the debts mentioned in section 129.
- (4) AiB must, when making a debtor contribution order—
- (a) determine the date of the first payment, or
 - (b) in a case where the debtor’s contribution is fixed as zero, determine the date which is to be deemed the date of the first payment under the order.

92 Debtor contribution order: review and appeal

- (1) The debtor, the trustee or any other interested person may apply to AiB for a review of a debtor contribution order.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) must be made within 14 days beginning with the day on which the order is made.
- (3) If an application under subsection (1) is made, the order is suspended until the determination of that review by AiB.
- (4) If an application under subsection (1) is made, AiB must—
- (a) take into account any representations made by an interested person within 21 days beginning with the day on which the application is made, and
 - (b) confirm, amend or revoke the order within 28 days beginning with that day.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (5) The trustee or the debtor may, within 14 days beginning with the date of any decision of AiB under subsection (4)(b), appeal to the sheriff against that decision.

93 Effect of debtor contribution order

- (1) The debtor must pay to the trustee any debtor’s contribution (if not zero)—
- (a) as fixed by AiB in making the debtor contribution order, or
 - (b) as varied in accordance with section 95.
- (2) The requirement to pay the debtor’s contribution applies irrespective of the debtor’s discharge.
- (3) If the value of the debtor’s estate and income when taken possession of by the trustee is sufficient to allow a distribution of the debtor’s estate to meet in full all of the debts mentioned in section 129, any debtor contribution order ceases to have effect.

94 Deductions from debtor’s earnings and other income

- (1) Subsections (2) to (6) apply where, under a debtor contribution order—
- (a) the debtor is required to pay to the trustee an amount from the debtor’s earnings or other income, or
 - (b) in accordance with section 90(6), a third person is required to pay to the trustee money otherwise due to the debtor by way of income.
- (2) The debtor must give the person mentioned in subsection (3) an instruction to make—
- (a) deductions of specified amounts from the debtor’s earnings or other income, and
 - (b) payments to the trustee of the amounts so deducted.
- (3) The person—
- (a) in the case of an amount to be paid from the debtor’s earnings from employment, is the person by whom the debtor is employed,
 - (b) in the case of an amount to be paid from other earnings or income of the debtor, is a third person who is required to pay the earnings or income to the debtor, and
 - (c) in the case mentioned in subsection (1)(b), is the third person who is required to pay the income to the trustee.
- (4) The trustee may give the person mentioned in subsection (3) an instruction of the type mentioned in subsection (2) if the debtor fails—
- (a) to comply with the requirements imposed by that subsection, and
 - (b) to pay the debtor’s contribution in respect of 2 payment intervals applying by virtue of the debtor contribution order.
- (5) A person mentioned in subsection (3) must comply with an instruction provided in accordance with subsection (2) or (4).
- (6) Where the person by whom the debtor is employed or another third person pays a sum of money to the trustee in accordance with this section, that person is discharged from any liability to the debtor to the extent of the sum so paid.
- (7) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision about instructions to be provided under this section, including in particular—

- (a) the form in which an instruction must be made,
- (b) the manner in which an instruction provided in accordance with subsection (2) or (4) affects the recipient of that instruction, and
- (c) the consequence of any failure of a recipient of an instruction provided in accordance with subsection (2) or (4) to comply with the duty imposed by subsection (5).

95 Variation and removal of debtor contribution order by trustee

- (1) The trustee may vary or quash a debtor contribution order—
 - (a) on the application of the debtor, following any change in the debtor’s circumstances,
 - (b) if the trustee considers it to be appropriate, following any such change, or
 - (c) if the trustee considers it to be appropriate when—
 - (i) sending a report to AiB under section 137(4), or
 - (ii) granting a discharge under section 138(2).
- (2) In deciding whether to vary or quash a debtor contribution order, the trustee must use the common financial tool to assess the debtor’s contribution.
- (3) A decision by the trustee under subsection (1)(b) must not take effect before the expiry of 14 days beginning with the day on which the decision is made.
- (4) The trustee must notify in writing the persons mentioned in subsection (5) immediately following—
 - (a) any variation or quashing of a debtor contribution order, or
 - (b) any refusal of an application as respects such an order.
- (5) The persons are—
 - (a) the debtor,
 - (b) AiB (if the trustee is not AiB),
 - (c) any third person required to make a payment under the debtor contribution order or under section 94(5), and
 - (d) any other interested person.

96 Payment break

- (1) The trustee may, on the application of the debtor, extend the payment period of a debtor contribution order by granting a payment break.
- (2) A “payment break” is a period not exceeding 6 months during which payments under the debtor contribution order are deferred.
- (3) A debtor may apply for a payment break if—
 - (a) there has been a reduction of at least 50% in the debtor’s disposable income (as determined using the common financial tool) as a result of any of the circumstances mentioned in subsection (4) arising in relation to the debtor, and
 - (b) the debtor has not previously applied for a payment break in relation to a debtor contribution order applying after the sequestration of the debtor’s estate.
- (4) The circumstances are—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) a period of unemployment or a change in employment,
 - (b) a period of leave from employment because of—
 - (i) the birth or adoption of a child, or
 - (ii) the need to care for a dependant,
 - (c) a period of illness of the debtor,
 - (d) a divorce,
 - (e) a dissolution of civil partnership,
 - (f) a separation from a person to whom the debtor is married or with whom the debtor is in civil partnership, and
 - (g) the death of a person who, along with the debtor, cared for a dependant of the debtor.
- (5) An application for a payment break must specify the period during which the debtor wishes payments to be deferred.
- (6) If, in the opinion of the trustee, a payment break is fair and reasonable, the trustee may grant it on such conditions and for such period as the trustee thinks fit.
- (7) The trustee must notify in writing the grant of a payment break to—
- (a) the debtor,
 - (b) AiB (if the trustee is not AiB), and
 - (c) any third person required to make a payment under the debtor contribution order.
- (8) If the trustee decides not to grant a payment break, the trustee must notify the debtor of that decision and of the reasons for that decision.
- (9) The payment period in a debtor contribution order is deemed to be varied by the addition to the period of any payment break granted under this section.

97 Sections 95 and 96: review and appeal

- (1) The debtor or any other interested person may apply to AiB for a review of a decision by the trustee under section 95 or 96.
- (2) Any application under subsection (1) must be made within 14 days beginning with the day on which the decision is made.
- (3) If an application under subsection (1) relates to a decision by the trustee under section 95(1)(b), the decision is suspended until the determination of that review by AiB.
- (4) If an application under subsection (1) is made, AiB must—
- (a) take into account any representations made by an interested person within 21 days beginning with the day on which the application is made, and
 - (b) confirm, amend or revoke the decision within 28 days beginning with that day.
- (5) The trustee or the debtor may, within 14 days beginning with the date of any decision of AiB under subsection (4)(b), appeal to the sheriff against that decision.

PART 7

SAFEGUARDING INTERESTS OF CREDITORS

Gratuitous alienations and unfair preferences

98 Gratuitous alienations

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where—
 - (a) by an alienation (whether before or after the coming into force of this Act) by a debtor—
 - (i) any of the debtor’s property has been transferred, or
 - (ii) any claim or right of the debtor has been discharged or renounced,
 - (b) any of the following has occurred—
 - (i) the debtor’s estate has been sequestrated (other than, in the case of an individual, after the debtor has died),
 - (ii) the debtor has granted a trust deed which has become a protected trust deed,
 - (iii) the debtor has died and within 12 months after the date of death the debtor’s estate has been sequestrated, or
 - (iv) the debtor has died, the debtor’s estate was absolutely insolvent at the date of death and within those 12 months a judicial factor has been appointed under section 11A of the 1889 Act (see section 107) to administer that estate, and
 - (c) the alienation took place on a relevant day.
- (2) The alienation is challengeable by—
 - (a) any creditor who is a creditor by virtue of a debt incurred on or before (as the case may be) the date of sequestration, the granting of the trust deed or the debtor’s death, or
 - (b) (as the case may be) the trustee in the sequestration, the trustee acting under the trust deed or the judicial factor.
- (3) For the purposes of paragraph (c) of subsection (1), the day on which an alienation takes place is the day on which the alienation becomes completely effectual.
- (4) In that paragraph, “relevant day” means, if the alienation has the effect of favouring—
 - (a) a person who is an associate of the debtor, a day not earlier than 5 years before, or
 - (b) any other person, a day not earlier than 2 years before,(as the case may be) the date of sequestration, the granting of the trust deed or the date of death.
- (5) On a challenge being brought under subsection (2), the court must grant decree—
 - (a) of reduction, or
 - (b) for such restoration of property to the debtor’s estate, or such other redress, as may be appropriate.
- (6) Except that the court is not to grant such decree if the person seeking to uphold the alienation establishes—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) that immediately, or at any other time, after the alienation the debtor's assets were greater than the debtor's liabilities,
 - (b) that the alienation was made for adequate consideration, or
 - (c) that the alienation was—
 - (i) a birthday, Christmas or other conventional gift, or
 - (ii) a gift made, for a charitable purpose, to a person who is not an associate of the debtor, being a gift which, having regard to all the circumstances, it was reasonable for the debtor to make.
- (7) Subsection (6) is without prejudice to any right acquired, in good faith and for value, from or through the transferee in the alienation.
- (8) In subsection (6)(c)(ii), “charitable purpose” means any charitable, benevolent or philanthropic purpose whether or not it is charitable within the meaning of any rule of law.
- (9) For the purposes of subsections (1) to (8), an alienation in implementation of a prior obligation is deemed to be one for which there was no consideration, or no adequate consideration, to the extent that the prior obligation was undertaken for no consideration, or no adequate consideration.
- (10) This section is without prejudice to the operation of section 2 of the Married Women's Policies of Assurance (Scotland) Act 1880 (which provides that a policy of assurance may be effected in trust for spouse, future spouse and children) including the operation of that section as applied by section 132 of the Civil Partnership Act 2004.
- (11) A trustee in a sequestration, a trustee acting under a protected trust deed or a judicial factor appointed under section 11A of the 1889 Act has the same right as a creditor has under any rule of law to challenge an alienation of a debtor made for no consideration or for no adequate consideration.

99 Unfair preferences

- (1) Subsection (5) applies to a transaction entered into (whether before or after the coming into force of this Act) by a debtor which has the effect of creating a preference in favour of a creditor to the prejudice of the general body of creditors, being a preference created not earlier than 6 months before—
- (a) the date of sequestration of the debtor's estate (if, in the case of an individual, a date within the debtor's lifetime),
 - (b) the granting by the debtor of a trust deed which has become a protected trust deed,
 - (c) the debtor's death where, within 12 months after the date of death—
 - (i) the debtor's estate is sequestrated,
 - (ii) a judicial factor is appointed under section 11A of the 1889 Act to administer the debtor's estate and that estate was absolutely insolvent at the date of death.
- (2) But subsection (5) does not apply to—
- (a) a transaction in the ordinary course of trade or business,
 - (b) a payment in cash for a debt which when it was paid had become payable,

- (c) a transaction by which the parties undertake reciprocal obligations (whether the performance by the parties of their respective obligations is to occur at the same time or at different times),
 - (d) the granting of a mandate by a debtor authorising an arrestee to pay over the arrested funds, or part of the arrested funds, to the arrester where—
 - (i) there has been a decree for payment or a warrant for summary diligence, and
 - (ii) the decree or warrant has been preceded by an arrestment on the dependence of the action or followed by an arrestment in execution.
- (3) Paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (2) are to be disregarded if the transaction in question was collusive with the purpose of prejudicing the general body of creditors.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1), the day on which a preference is created is the day on which it becomes completely effectual.
- (5) The transaction is challengeable by—
- (a) any creditor who is a creditor by virtue of a debt incurred on or before (as the case may be) the date of sequestration, the granting of the protected trust deed or the debtor's death, or
 - (b) (as the case may be) the trustee in the sequestration, the trustee acting under the protected trust deed or the judicial factor.
- (6) On a challenge being brought under subsection (5) the court, if satisfied that the transaction challenged is a transaction to which that subsection applies, must grant decree—
- (a) of reduction, or
 - (b) for such restoration of property to the debtor's estate, or such other redress, as may be appropriate.
- (7) Subsection (6) is without prejudice to any right acquired, in good faith and for value, from or through the creditor in whose favour the preference was created.
- (8) A trustee in a sequestration, a trustee acting under a protected trust deed or a judicial factor appointed under section 11A of the 1889 Act has the same right as a creditor has under any rule of law to challenge a preference created by a debtor.

Recall of certain orders

100 Recall of order for payment of capital sum on divorce or on dissolution of civil partnership

- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) a court has, under section 8(2) of the Family Law (Scotland) Act 1985 and whether before or after the coming into force of this Act, made—
 - (i) an order for the payment by a debtor of a capital sum,
 - (ii) an order for the transfer of property by the debtor, or
 - (iii) a pension sharing order,
 - (b) on the date of the making of the order the debtor was absolutely insolvent or was rendered so by implementation of the order, and
 - (c) within 5 years after the making of the order—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (i) the debtor’s estate has been sequestrated other than on the death of the debtor,
 - (ii) the debtor has granted a trust deed which has (whether or not within the 5 years) become a protected trust deed,
 - (iii) the debtor has died and, within 12 months after the date of death, the debtor’s estate has been sequestrated, or
 - (iv) the debtor has died and, within those 12 months, a judicial factor has been appointed under section 11A of the 1889 Act to administer the debtor’s estate.
- (2) The court, on the application of (as the case may be) the trustee in the sequestration, the trustee acting under the trust deed or the judicial factor, may make an order for recall of the order in question and—
- (a) for the repayment to the applicant of the whole or part of any sum already paid under the order,
 - (b) for the return to the applicant of all or part of any property already transferred under the order, or
 - (c) (where such property has been sold) for payment to the applicant of all or part of the proceeds of sale.
- (3) But before making an order under subsection (2), the court must have regard to all the circumstances including, in particular, the financial and other circumstances (in so far as made known to the court) of the person against whom the order would be made.

Excessive contributions

101 Recovery of excessive pension contributions

- (1) Where a debtor’s estate has been sequestrated and the debtor—
- (a) has rights under an approved pension arrangement, or
 - (b) has excluded rights under an unapproved pension arrangement,
- the trustee in the sequestration may apply to the court for an order under this section.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies where the court is satisfied—
- (a) that the rights under the arrangement are to any extent, and whether directly or indirectly, the fruits of relevant contributions, and
 - (b) that the making of any of the relevant contributions (“the excessive contributions”) has unfairly prejudiced the debtor’s creditors.
- (3) The court may make such order as it thinks fit for restoring the position to what it would have been had the excessive contributions not been made.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies where the court is satisfied that the value of the rights under the arrangement is, as a result of rights of the debtor under—
- (a) the arrangement, or
 - (b) any other pension arrangement,
- having at any time become subject to a debit under section 29(1)(a) of the 1999 Act (see section 107), less than it would otherwise have been.
- (5) Where this subsection applies—

- (a) any relevant contributions which were represented by the rights which became subject to the debit are, for the purposes of subsection (2), to be taken to be contributions of which the rights under the arrangement are the fruits, and
 - (b) where the relevant contributions represented by the rights under the arrangement (including those so represented by virtue of paragraph (a)) are not all excessive contributions, relevant contributions which are represented by the rights under the arrangement otherwise than by virtue of paragraph (a) are to be treated as excessive contributions before any which are so represented by virtue of that paragraph.
- (6) In subsections (2) to (5), “relevant contributions” means contributions to the arrangement or to any other pension arrangement—
- (a) which the debtor has at any time made on the debtor’s own behalf, or
 - (b) which have at any time been made on the debtor’s behalf.
- (7) The court must, in determining whether it is satisfied under subsection (2)(b), consider in particular—
- (a) whether any of the contributions were made for the purpose of putting assets beyond the reach of, or of any of, the debtor’s creditors, and
 - (b) whether the total amount of any contributions—
 - (i) made by or on behalf of the debtor to pension arrangements, and
 - (ii) represented (whether directly or indirectly) by rights under approved pension arrangements or excluded rights under unapproved pensions arrangements,is an amount which is excessive in view of the debtor’s circumstances when those contributions were made.
- (8) For the purposes of this section and of sections 102 and 103, rights of a debtor under an unapproved pension arrangement are excluded rights if they are rights which are excluded from the debtor’s estate by virtue of regulations under section 12 of the 1999 Act.
- (9) In the recovery provisions (see section 103(7))—
- “approved pension arrangement” has the same meaning as in section 11 of the 1999 Act, and
 - “unapproved pension arrangement” has the same meaning as in section 12 of that Act.

102 Orders under section 101

- (1) Without prejudice to the generality of section 101(3), an order under that section may include provision—
- (a) requiring the person responsible for the arrangement to pay an amount to the trustee,
 - (b) adjusting the liabilities of the arrangement in respect of the debtor,
 - (c) adjusting any liabilities of the arrangement in respect of any other person that derive, directly or indirectly, from rights of the debtor under the arrangement,
 - (d) for the recovery by the person responsible for the arrangement (whether by deduction from any amount which that person is ordered to pay or otherwise) of costs incurred by that person in complying in the debtor’s case with any requirement under section 103(1) or in giving effect to the order.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) In subsection (1), references to adjusting the liabilities of the arrangement in respect of a person include, in particular, reducing the amount of any benefit or future benefit to which that person is entitled under the arrangement.
- (3) In subsection (1)(c), the reference to liabilities of the arrangement does not include liabilities in respect of a person which result from giving effect to an order or provision falling within section 28(1) of the 1999 Act (pension sharing orders).
- (4) The maximum amount which the person responsible for an arrangement may be required to pay by an order under section 101 is the lesser of—
 - (a) the amount of the excessive contributions, and
 - (b) the value of the debtor’s rights under the arrangement (if the arrangement is an approved pension arrangement) or of the debtor’s excluded rights under the arrangement (if the arrangement is an unapproved pension arrangement).
- (5) An order under section 101 which requires the person responsible for an arrangement to pay an amount (“the restoration amount”) to the trustee must provide for the liabilities of the arrangement to be correspondingly reduced.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), liabilities are correspondingly reduced if the difference between—
 - (a) the amount of the liabilities immediately before the reduction, and
 - (b) their amount immediately after the reduction, is equal to the restoration amount.
- (7) An order under section 101 in respect of an arrangement—
 - (a) is binding on the person responsible for the arrangement, and
 - (b) overrides provisions of the arrangement to the extent that they conflict with the provisions of the order.

103 Orders under section 101: supplementary

- (1) The person responsible for—
 - (a) an approved pension arrangement under which a debtor has rights,
 - (b) an unapproved pension arrangement under which a debtor has excluded rights, or
 - (c) a pension arrangement under which a debtor has at any time had rights, must, on the trustee in the sequestration making a written request, provide the trustee with such information about the arrangement and rights as the trustee may reasonably require for, or in connection with, the making of applications under section 101.
- (2) Nothing in—
 - (a) any provision of section 159 of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 or section 91 of the Pensions Act 1995 (which prevent assignation and the making of orders that restrain a person from receiving anything which the person is prevented from assigning),
 - (b) any provision of any enactment (whether passed or made before or after the passing of the 1999 Act) corresponding to any of the provisions mentioned in paragraph (a), or
 - (c) any provision of the arrangement in question corresponding to any of those provisions,

- applies to a court exercising its powers under section 101.
- (3) Where any sum is required by an order under section 101 to be paid to the trustee, that sum is to be comprised in the debtor's estate.
 - (4) Regulations made by the Secretary of State may, for the purposes of the recovery provisions, make provision about the calculation and verification of—
 - (a) any such value as is mentioned in section 102(4)(b),
 - (b) any such amounts as are mentioned in section 102(6)(a) and (b).
 - (5) The power conferred by subsection (4) includes power to provide for calculation or verification—
 - (a) in such manner as may, in the particular case, be approved by a prescribed person, or
 - (b) in accordance with guidance from time to time prepared by a prescribed person.
 - (6) References in the recovery provisions to the person responsible for a pension arrangement are to—
 - (a) the trustees, managers or provider of the arrangement, or
 - (b) the person having, in relation to the arrangement, functions corresponding to those of a trustee, manager or provider.
 - (7) In this section and in section 101, “the recovery provisions” means this section and sections 101 and 102.
 - (8) Regulations under subsection (4) may contain such incidental, supplemental and transitional provisions as appear to the Secretary of State necessary or expedient.
 - (9) In subsection (5), “prescribed” means prescribed by the regulations.

104 Excessive contributions in pension-sharing cases: general

- (1) For the purposes of section 98, a pension-sharing transaction is taken—
 - (a) to be a transaction, entered into by the transferor (in this section referred to as “TR”) with the transferee (in this section referred to as “TE”), by which the appropriate amount is transferred by TR to TE, and
 - (b) to be capable of being an alienation challengeable under that section only so far as it is a transfer of so much of the appropriate amount as is recoverable.
- (2) For the purposes of section 99, a pension-sharing transaction is taken—
 - (a) to be something (namely a transfer of the appropriate amount to TE) done by TR, and
 - (b) to be capable of being an unfair preference given to TE only so far as it is a transfer of so much of the appropriate amount as is recoverable.
- (3) For the purposes of section 100, a pension-sharing transaction is taken—
 - (a) to be a pension sharing order made by the court under section 8(2) of the Family Law (Scotland) Act 1985, and
 - (b) to be an order capable of being recalled under that section only so far as it is a payment or transfer of so much of the appropriate amount as is recoverable.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies where—
 - (a) an alienation is challenged under section 98,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (b) a transaction is challenged under section 99, or
 - (c) an application is made under section 100 for the recall of an order made in divorce proceedings.
- (5) If any question arises as to whether, or the extent to which, the appropriate amount in the case of a pension-sharing transaction is recoverable, the question must be determined in accordance with subsections (6) to (10).
- (6) The court is first to determine the extent, if any, to which TR’s rights under the shared arrangement at the time of the transaction appear to have been, whether directly or indirectly, the fruits of contributions (“personal contributions”) to the shared arrangement or any other pension arrangement—
- (a) which TR has at any time made on TR’s own behalf, or
 - (b) which have at any time been made on TR’s behalf.
- (7) Where it appears that those rights were to any extent the fruits of personal contributions, the court is then to determine the extent, if any, to which those rights appear to have been the fruits of personal contributions whose making has unfairly prejudiced TR’s creditors (“the unfair contributions”).
- (8) If it appears to the court that the extent to which those rights were the fruits of the unfair contributions is such that the transfer of the appropriate amount could have been made out of rights under the shared arrangement which were not the fruits of the unfair contributions, then the appropriate amount is not recoverable.
- (9) If it appears to the court that the transfer could not have been wholly so made, then the appropriate amount is recoverable to the extent to which it appears to the court that the transfer could not have been so made.
- (10) In making the determination mentioned in subsection (7) the court must consider in particular—
- (a) whether any of the personal contributions were made for the purpose of putting assets beyond the reach of TR’s creditors or any of them, and
 - (b) whether the total amount of any personal contributions represented, at the time the pension sharing arrangement was made, by rights under pension arrangements is an amount which is excessive in view of TR’s circumstances when those contributions were made.
- (11) In this section and sections 105 and 106—
- “appropriate amount”, in relation to a pension-sharing transaction, means the appropriate amount in relation to that transaction for the purposes of section 29(1) of the 1999 Act (creation of pension credits and debits),
 - “pension-sharing transaction” means an order or provision falling within section 28(1) of that Act (orders and agreements which activate pension-sharing),
 - “shared arrangement”, in relation to a pension-sharing transaction, means the pension arrangement to which the transaction relates,
 - “transferee” (or “TE”), in relation to a pension-sharing transaction, means the person for whose benefit the transaction is made, and
 - “transferor” (or “TR”), in relation to a pension-sharing transaction, means the person to whose rights the transaction relates.

105 Excessive contributions in pension-sharing cases: recovery orders

- (1) In this section and section 106, “recovery order” means, in any proceedings to which section 104 applies—
 - (a) a decree granted under section 98(5),
 - (b) a decree granted under section 99(6), or
 - (c) an order made under section 100(2).
- (2) A recovery order may include provision—
 - (a) requiring the person responsible for a pension arrangement in which TE (see section 104(11)) has acquired rights derived directly or indirectly from the pension-sharing transaction (again see that section) to pay an amount to the trustee,
 - (b) adjusting the liabilities of the pension arrangement in respect of TE,
 - (c) adjusting any liabilities of the pension arrangement in respect of any other person that derive, directly or indirectly, from rights of TE under the arrangement,
 - (d) for the recovery by the person responsible for the pension arrangement (whether by deduction from any amount which that person is ordered to pay or otherwise) of costs incurred by that person in complying in the debtor’s case with any requirement under section 106(1) or in giving effect to the order.
- (3) Subsection (2) is without prejudice to the generality of section 98(5), 99(6) or 100(2).

- (2) But a warrant under subsection (1) must not be granted unless the sheriff is satisfied that it is necessary to grant it to secure the attendance of the debtor or relevant person at the examination.
- (3) If the debtor or relevant person is for any good reason prevented from attending for examination, the sheriff may grant a commission to take the examination of the debtor or relevant person (the commissioner being, in this section and in section 121, referred to as an "examining commissioner").

PART 10

CLAIMS, DIVIDENDS AND DISTRIBUTION ETC.

Submission and adjudication of claims

122 Submission of claims to trustee

- (1) A creditor must submit a claim in accordance with this section to the trustee in the sequestration in order to obtain an adjudication as to that person's entitlement—
 - (a) to vote at a meeting of creditors other than the statutory meeting, or
 - (b) (so far as funds are available) to a dividend out of the debtor's estate in respect of any accounting period.
- (2) Where the claim is by virtue of—
 - (a) paragraph (a) of subsection (1), it must be submitted at or before the meeting,
 - (b) paragraph (b) of that subsection, it must be submitted in accordance with subsection (4).
- (3) But subsection (1) is subject to subsections (4), (7) and (8) and to section 131(6) to (9).
- (4) A creditor must, in order to obtain an adjudication as to the creditor's entitlement (so far as funds are available) to a dividend out of the debtor's estate, submit a claim to the trustee not later than the relevant day.
- (5) The "relevant day", in relation to a creditor, means—
 - (a) where notice is given to the creditor under section 44(3), the day which is 120 days after the day on which that notice is given,
 - (b) where no such notice is given, the day which is 120 days after the day on which the trustee gives notice to the creditor inviting the submission of claims.
- (6) If a creditor submits a claim to the trustee after the relevant day, the trustee may, in respect of any accounting period, provide an adjudication as to the creditor's entitlement (so far as funds are available) to a dividend out of the debtor's estate if—
 - (a) the claim is submitted not later than 8 weeks before the end of the accounting period, and
 - (b) there were exceptional circumstances which prevented the claim from being submitted before the relevant day.
- (7) Subsection (8) applies as regards a claim submitted by a creditor—
 - (a) under section 46 and accepted in whole or in part by the trustee for the purpose of voting at the statutory meeting, or
 - (b) under this section and not rejected in whole.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (8) The claim is deemed to have been re-submitted for the purpose of obtaining an adjudication as to the creditor’s entitlement both to vote at any subsequent meeting and (so far as funds are available) to a dividend in respect of an accounting period or as the case may be of any subsequent accounting period.
- (9) A creditor submits a claim under this section by producing to the trustee—
 - (a) a statement of claim in the prescribed form, and
 - (b) an account or voucher (according to the nature of the debt) which constitutes prima facie evidence of the debt.
- (10) But the trustee, with the consent of the commissioners if any, may dispense with any requirement under subsection (9) in respect of any debt or of any class of debt.
- (11) Where a creditor (in this subsection referred to as “C”) neither resides, nor has a place of business, in the United Kingdom, the trustee—
 - (a) must, if the trustee knows where C does reside or have a place of business and if no notification has been given to C under section 44(3), write to C informing C that C may submit a claim under this section, and
 - (b) may allow C to submit an informal claim in writing.
- (12) Where a creditor has submitted a claim under this section (or under section 46 a statement of claim which has been deemed re-submitted as mentioned in subsection (8)), the creditor may at any time submit a further claim under this section specifying a different amount for the creditor’s claim.
- (13) But a secured creditor is not entitled to produce a further claim specifying a different value for the security at any time after the trustee requires the secured creditor to discharge, or convey or assign, the security under paragraph 4(3) of schedule 2.

123 Evidence as to validity or amount of claim

- (1) The trustee in the sequestration, for the purpose of being satisfied as to the validity or amount of a claim submitted by a creditor under section 122, may require—
 - (a) the creditor to produce further evidence, or
 - (b) any other person who the trustee believes can produce relevant evidence to produce such evidence.
- (2) If the creditor (or as the case may be the other person) refuses or delays to do so, the trustee may apply to the sheriff for an order requiring the creditor (or the other person) to attend for private examination before the sheriff.
- (3) At any private examination under subsection (2)—
 - (a) a solicitor or counsel may act on behalf of the trustee, or
 - (b) the trustee may appear on the trustee’s own behalf.
- (4) Sections 118(4) to (7) and 121(1) apply, subject to any necessary modifications, to the examination of the creditor (or the other person) as they apply to the examination of a relevant person.
- (5) References in subsections (1) and (4) to the creditor in a case where the creditor is an entity mentioned in section 6(1) are to be construed, unless the context otherwise requires, as references to a person representing the entity.

124 False claims etc.

- (1) Subsections (2) and (3) apply where a creditor produces under section 122 or 123—
 - (a) a statement of claim,
 - (b) account,

 - (b) failed, as soon as practicable after acquiring such knowledge, to report to the trustee that the statement of claim, account, voucher or other evidence was false.
- (4) A person convicted of an offence under subsection (2) or (3) is liable—

 - (i) to a fine, or
 - (ii) to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years, or both to a fine and to such imprisonment.

125 Further provision as to claims

- (1) A creditor may, in such circumstances as may be prescribed, state the amount of the creditor's claim under section 122 in foreign currency.
- (2) The trustee in the sequestration must, on production of any document to the trustee for the purposes of any of sections 122 to 124—
 - (a) initial the document, and
 - (b) if requested by the person producing it, return it (if it is not a statement of claim) to that person.
- (3) The submission of a claim under section 122 bars the effect of any enactment or rule of law relating to the limitation of actions.
- (4) Schedule 2 has effect for determining the amount in respect of which the creditor is entitled to claim.

126 Adjudication of claims: general

- (1) At the commencement of every meeting of creditors (other than the statutory meeting) the trustee in the sequestration must, for the purposes of section 128 so far as it relates to voting at the meeting, accept or reject the claim of each creditor.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies where funds are available for payment of a dividend out of the debtor's estate in respect of an accounting period.
- (3) For the purpose of determining who is entitled to such a dividend, the trustee—
 - (a) must, not later than 4 weeks before the end of the period, accept or reject every claim submitted (or deemed to have been re-submitted) to the trustee under this Act, and
 - (b) must, at the same time, make a decision on any matter required to be specified under paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (7).
- (4) The trustee must then, as soon as reasonably practicable, send a list of every claim so accepted or rejected (including its amount and whether it has been accepted or rejected) to the debtor and to every creditor known to the trustee.
- (5) If the amount of a claim is stated in foreign currency, the trustee in adjudicating under subsection (1) or (3) on the claim must convert the amount into sterling, in such manner as may be prescribed, at the rate of exchange prevailing at the close of business on the date of sequestration.
- (6) Where the trustee rejects a claim, the trustee must forthwith notify the claimant, giving reasons for the rejection.
- (7) Where the trustee accepts or rejects a claim, the trustee must record the trustee's decision on the claim, specifying—

 - (c) if the trustee is rejecting the claim, the trustee's reasons for doing so.
- (8) Any reference in this section or in section 127 to the acceptance or rejection of a claim is to be construed as a reference to the acceptance or rejection of the claim in whole or in part.

127 Adjudication of claims: review and appeal

- (1) The debtor or any creditor may apply to AiB for a review of—
 - (a) the acceptance or rejection of any claim, or
 - (b) a decision in respect of any matter requiring to be specified under section 126(7)(a) or (b).
- (2) The debtor may make an application under subsection (1) only if the debtor satisfies AiB that the debtor has, or is likely to have, a pecuniary interest in the outcome of the review.
- (3) Any application under subsection (1) must be made, in the case of a review relating to an acceptance or rejection—
 - (a) under subsection (1) of section 126, within 14 days beginning with the day of the decision to accept or reject the claim, and

- (b) under subsection (3) of that section, within 28 days beginning with that day.

- (6) The debtor may appeal under subsection (5) only if the debtor satisfies the sheriff that the debtor has, or is likely to have, a pecuniary interest in the outcome of the appeal.

Entitlement to vote and draw a dividend

128 Voting and drawing a dividend

- (1) A creditor whose claim has been accepted in whole or in part by the trustee in the sequestration or on review or appeal under section 127 is entitled, in a case where the acceptance is under (or on review or appeal arising from)—
 - (a) section 126(1), to vote on any matter at the meeting of creditors for the purpose of voting at which the claim is accepted, or
 - (b) section 126(3), to payment out of the debtor’s estate of a dividend in respect of the accounting period for the purposes of which the claim is accepted.
- (2) But—
 - (a) paragraph (a) of subsection (1) is subject to sections 70(1)(a) and 77(1) and (7)(b), and
 - (b) the entitlement mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection arises only in so far as the estate has funds available, having regard to section 129, to make the payment in question.
- (3) No vote may be cast, by virtue of a debt, more than once on any resolution put to a meeting of creditors.
- (4) Where a creditor—
 - (a) is entitled to vote under this section,
 - (b) has lodged the creditor’s claim in one or more sets of other proceedings, and
 - (c) votes (either in person or by proxy) on a resolution put to the meeting,only the creditor’s vote is to be counted.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies where—
 - (a) a creditor has lodged the creditor’s claim in more than one set of other proceedings, and
 - (b) more than one member State liquidator seeks to vote by virtue of the claim.
- (6) The entitlement to vote by virtue of the claim is exercisable by the member State liquidator in main proceedings whether or not the creditor has lodged the claim in those proceedings.
- (7) For the purposes of subsections (4) to (6), “other proceedings” means main proceedings, secondary proceedings or territorial proceedings in a member State other than the United Kingdom.

Distribution

129 Priority in distribution

- (1) The funds of the debtor’s estate must be distributed by the trustee in the sequestration to meet the following debts in the order in which they are mentioned—
- (a) the outlays and remuneration of an interim trustee in the administration of the debtor’s estate,
 - (b) the outlays and remuneration of the trustee in the sequestration in the administration of the debtor’s estate,
 - (c) where the debtor has died—
 - (i) deathbed and funeral expenses reasonably incurred, and
 - (ii) expenses reasonably incurred in administering the deceased’s estate,
 - (d) the expenses reasonably incurred by a creditor who is a petitioner for, or concurs in a debtor application for, sequestration,
 - (e) ordinary preferred debts (excluding any interest which has accrued on those debts to the date of sequestration),
 - (f) secondary preferred debts (excluding any interest which has accrued on those debts to the date of sequestration),
 - (g) ordinary debts (that is to say, debts which are neither secured debts nor debts mentioned in any other paragraph of this subsection),
 - (h) interest, between the date of sequestration and the date of payment of the debt, at the rate specified in subsection (10) on—
 - (i) the ordinary preferred debts,
 - (ii) the secondary preferred debts, and
 - (iii) the ordinary debts,
 - (i) any postponed debt.
- (2) In this Act—
- “preferred debt” means a debt listed in Part 1 of schedule 3 of this Act,
- “ordinary preferred debt” means a debt within any of paragraphs 1 to 6 of that Part, and
- “secondary preferred debt” means a debt within paragraph 7 or 8 of that Part.
- (3) Part 2 of that schedule has effect for the interpretation of Part 1 of that schedule.
- (4) In this Act, “postponed debt” means—
- (a) a loan made to the debtor, in consideration of a share of the profits in the debtor’s business, which is postponed under section 3 of the Partnership Act 1890 to the claims of other creditors,
 - (b) a loan made to the debtor by the debtor’s spouse or civil partner, or
 - (c) a creditor’s right to—
 - (i) anything vesting in the trustee by virtue of a successful challenge under section 98, or
 - (ii) the proceeds of sale of anything so vesting.
- (5) A debt falling within any of paragraphs (c) to (i) of subsection (1) has the same priority as any other debt falling within the same paragraph and, where the funds of the estate are inadequate to enable the debts mentioned in the paragraph in question to be paid in full, those debts are to abate in equal proportions.

- (6) Any surplus remaining after all the debts mentioned in this section have been paid in full must be made over to the debtor or the debtor's successors or assignees.
- (7) In subsection (6), "surplus"—
 - (a) includes any kind of estate, but
 - (b) does not include any unclaimed dividend.
- (8) Subsection (6) is subject to Article 35 of the EC insolvency proceedings regulation (which provides that any surplus in secondary proceedings is to be transferred to main proceedings).
- (9) Nothing in this section affects—
 - (a) any right of a secured creditor which is preferable to the rights of the trustee,
 - (b) any preference of the holder of a lien over a title deed, or other document, which has been delivered to the trustee in accordance with a requirement under section 108(5).
- (10) The rate of interest referred to in paragraph (h) of subsection (1) is whichever is the greater of—
 - (a) the prescribed rate at the date of sequestration, and
 - (b) the rate applicable to that debt apart from the sequestration.

130 Accounting periods

- (1) The trustee in the sequestration must make up accounts of the trustee's intromissions with the debtor's estate in respect of each accounting period.
- (2) In this Act, "accounting period" is to be construed as follows—
 - (a) the first accounting period is the period of 12 months, or such shorter period as may be determined or agreed in accordance with subsection (5), either period beginning with the date on which sequestration is awarded, and
 - (b) any subsequent accounting period is the period of 12 months beginning when its immediately preceding accounting period ends.
- (3) But—
 - (a) paragraph (a) of subsection (2) is subject to subsection (4), and
 - (b) paragraph (b) of subsection (2) is subject to the exception that—
 - (i) in a case where AiB is not the trustee, the trustee and the commissioners (or, if there are no commissioners, the trustee and AiB) agree, or
 - (ii) in a case where AiB is the trustee, the trustee determines, an accounting period is to be some other period beginning when its immediately preceding accounting period ends, it is that other period.
- (4) Where the trustee was appointed under section 54(1) as interim trustee in the sequestration, the first accounting period is—
 - (a) the period—
 - (i) beginning with the date of the appointment as interim trustee, and
 - (ii) ending on the date 12 months after that on which sequestration is awarded, or

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (b) such shorter period as may be determined or agreed in accordance with subsection (5).
- (5) This subsection applies where the trustee considers that the funds of the debtor's estate are sufficient to pay a dividend in accordance with section 131(1) in respect of—
 - (a) in a case where the trustee is AiB, a shorter period of not less than 6 months determined by AiB, and
 - (b) in any other case, a shorter period of not less than 6 months agreed—
 - (i) between the trustee and the commissioners, or
 - (ii) if there are no commissioners, between the trustee and AiB.
- (6) An agreement under sub-paragraph (i), or determination under sub-paragraph (ii), of subsection (3)(b)—
 - (a) may be made in respect of one accounting period or more,
 - (b) may be made before the beginning of the accounting period in relation to which it has effect and, in any event, is not to have effect unless made before the day on which that accounting period would, but for the agreement or determination, have ended, and
 - (c) may provide for different accounting periods to be of different duration.

131 Distribution in accordance with accounting periods

- (1) The trustee in the sequestration must pay, under section 135(1), a dividend out of the estate in respect of each accounting period—
 - (a) if the funds of the debtor's estate are sufficient, and
 - (b) after making allowance for future contingencies.
- (2) But subsection (1) is subject to the following subsections.
- (3) The trustee may pay—
 - (a) the debts mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 129(1), other than the trustee's own remuneration, at any time,
 - (b) the preferred debts at any time but only with the consent of the commissioners or, if there are no commissioners, of AiB.
- (4) If, in respect of an accounting period, the trustee—
 - (a) is not ready to pay a dividend, or
 - (b) considers it would be inappropriate to pay a dividend because the expense of doing so would be disproportionate to the amount of the dividend, the trustee may, with the consent of the commissioners or, if there are no commissioners, of AiB, postpone the payment to a date not later than the time for payment of a dividend in respect of the next accounting period.
- (5) Where a review or appeal is made under section 127 as respects the acceptance or rejection of a creditor's claim, the trustee must, at the time of payment of dividends and until the review or appeal is determined, set aside an amount which would be sufficient, if the determination in the review or appeal were to provide for the creditor's claim being accepted in full, to pay a dividend in respect of that claim.
- (6) Subsection (7) applies where a creditor—

- (a) has failed to produce evidence in support of the creditor’s claim earlier than 8 weeks before the end of an accounting period on being required to do so under section 123(1), and
 - (b) has given a reason for such failure which is acceptable to the trustee.
- (7) The trustee must set aside, for such time as is reasonable to enable the creditor to produce that evidence or any other evidence that will enable the trustee to be satisfied under that section, an amount which would be sufficient, were the claim accepted in full, to pay a dividend in respect of that claim.
- (8) Where a creditor submits a claim to the trustee later than 8 weeks before the end of an accounting period but more than 8 weeks before the end of a subsequent accounting period in respect of which, after making allowance for future contingencies, funds are available for the payment of a dividend, the trustee must, if the trustee accepts the claim in whole or in part, pay to the creditor—
 - (a) the same dividend as has, or dividends as have, already been paid to creditors of the same class in respect of any accounting period or periods, and
 - (b) whatever dividend may be payable to the creditor in respect of the subsequent accounting period mentioned above.
- (9) Paragraph (a) of subsection (8) is without prejudice to any dividend which has already been paid.
- (10) In the declaration of, and payment of, a dividend, a payment must not be made more than once by virtue of the same debt.
- (11) Any dividend paid in respect of a claim must be paid to the creditor.

Procedure after end of accounting period

132 Submission of accounts and scheme of division

- (1) Within 2 weeks after the end of an accounting period the trustee in the sequestration must, in respect of that period, submit to the commissioners (or, if there are no commissioners, to AiB)—
 - (a) the trustee’s accounts of the trustee’s intromissions with the estate of the debtor for audit and, where funds are available after making allowance for future contingencies, a scheme of division of the divisible funds, and
 - (b) a claim for the outlays reasonably incurred by the trustee and for the trustee’s remuneration.
- (2) Where documents mentioned in subsection (1) are submitted to the commissioners, the trustee must send a copy of them to AiB.
- (3) All accounts in respect of legal services incurred by the trustee are, before they are paid by the trustee, to be submitted for taxation to the auditor of the court before which the sequestration is pending.
- (4) But subsection (3) is subject to subsection (5).
- (5) The trustee may pay the account without submitting it for taxation where—
 - (a) any such account has been agreed between the trustee and the person entitled to payment in respect of that account,
 - (b) the trustee is not an associate of that person, and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (c) the commissioners have (or, if there are no commissioners, AiB has) determined that the account need not be submitted for taxation.
- (6) This section and sections 133 to 135 do not apply where AiB is the trustee in the sequestration.

133 Audit of accounts and determination as to outlays and remuneration payable to trustee

- (1) Within 6 weeks after the end of an accounting period—
 - (a) the commissioners (or, as the case may be, AiB)—
 - (i) may audit the accounts, and
 - (ii) must issue a determination fixing the amount of the outlays and the remuneration payable to the trustee in the sequestration, and
 - (b) the trustee must make the audited accounts, scheme of division and that determination available for inspection by the debtor and the creditors.
- (2) The basis for fixing the amount of the remuneration payable to the trustee may be a commission calculated by reference to the value of the debtor’s estate which has been realised by the trustee.
- (3) But there is in any event to be taken into account—
 - (a) the work which, having regard to that value, was reasonably undertaken by the trustee, and
 - (b) the extent of the trustee’s responsibilities in administering the debtor’s estate.
- (4) In fixing the amount of such remuneration in respect of any accounting period, the commissioners (or, as the case may be, AiB) may take into account any adjustment which the commissioners or AiB may wish to make in the amount of remuneration fixed in respect of any earlier accounting period.

134 Appeal against determination as to outlays and remuneration payable to trustee

- (1) Not later than 8 weeks after the end of an accounting period the trustee in the sequestration, the debtor or any creditor may appeal against a determination issued under section 133(1)(a)(ii)—
 - (a) to AiB where it is a determination of the commissioners, and
 - (b) to the sheriff where it is a determination of AiB.
- (2) But subsection (1) is subject to subsection (4).
- (3) The determination of AiB in an appeal under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) is appealable to the sheriff (whose decision on an appeal under this subsection or under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) is final).
- (4) The debtor may appeal under subsection (1) if, and only if, the debtor satisfies AiB, or as the case may be the sheriff, that the debtor has, or is likely to have, a pecuniary interest in the outcome of the appeal.
- (5) Before the debtor or a creditor appeals under subsection (1) or (3), the debtor or, as the case may be, the creditor must give notice to the trustee of the intention to appeal.

135 Further provision as to procedure after end of accounting period

- (1) The trustee in the sequestration must pay to the creditors their dividends in accordance with the scheme of division on—
 - (a) the expiry of the 8 weeks mentioned in section 134(1), or
 - (b) if there is an appeal under that subsection, on the final determination of the last such appeal.
- (2) There must be deposited by the trustee, in an appropriate bank or institution, any dividend—
 - (a) allocated to a creditor but not cashed or uplifted, or
 - (b) dependent on a claim in respect of which an amount has been set aside under subsection (5) or (7) of section 131.
- (3) If a creditor's claim is revalued, the trustee may—
 - (a) in paying any dividend to that creditor, make such adjustment to it as the trustee considers necessary to take account of that revaluation, or
 - (b) require the creditor to repay to the trustee the whole or part of a dividend already paid to the creditor.

136 Procedure after end of accounting period where Accountant in Bankruptcy is trustee

- (1) In any case where AiB is the trustee in the sequestration, AiB must at the end of each accounting period—
 - (a) prepare accounts of AiB's intromissions with the estate of the debtor, and
 - (b) make a determination of AiB's fees and outlays calculated in accordance with regulations under section 205.
- (2) Such accounts and determination must be available for inspection by the debtor and the creditors by not later than 6 weeks after the end of the accounting period to which they relate.
- (3) In making a determination as mentioned in subsection (1), AiB may take into account any adjustment which AiB may wish to make in the amount of AiB's remuneration fixed in respect of any earlier accounting period.
- (4) Not later than 8 weeks after the end of an accounting period the debtor or any creditor may appeal to the sheriff against AiB's determination.
- (5) But subsection (4) is subject to subsection (7).
- (6) The decision of the sheriff on an appeal under subsection (4) is final.
- (7) The debtor may appeal under subsection (4) if, and only if, the debtor satisfies the sheriff that the debtor has, or is likely to have, a pecuniary interest in the outcome of the appeal.
- (8) Before the debtor or a creditor appeals under subsection (4), the debtor or as the case may be the creditor must give notice to AiB of the intention to appeal.
- (9) On the expiry of the 8 weeks mentioned in subsection (4), AiB must pay to the creditors their dividends in accordance with the scheme of division.
- (10) There must be deposited by AiB, in an appropriate bank or institution, any dividend—

- (a) allocated to a creditor but not cashed or uplifted, or

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2)—

- (2) But for the purposes of subsection (1), section 219(2) has effect as if, for paragraph (c) of that section, there were substituted—

- with the permission of the sheriff.

159 Duration of bankruptcy restrictions order and application for revocation or variation

- (1) A bankruptcy restrictions order—
- (a) comes into force when made, and

- (b) ceases to have effect at the end of a day specified, for the purposes of this paragraph, in the order.

 - (b) confirm, revoke or vary the order within 28 days beginning with that day.
- (6) The debtor may appeal to the sheriff against any decision of AiB under subsection (5)
 - (b) within 14 days beginning with the date of the decision.
- (7) The sheriff may—
 - (a) in determining such an appeal, or
 - (b) otherwise on an application by AiB, make an order providing that the debtor may not make another application under subsection (3) for such period as may be specified in the order.
- (8) Variation under subsection (3)(b) may include providing for such an order to cease to have effect at the end of a day earlier than that specified under subsection (1)(b).

Interim bankruptcy restrictions orders

160 Interim bankruptcy restrictions orders

 - (a) after AiB notifies the debtor under section 155(2) that AiB proposes to make a bankruptcy restrictions order, and
 - (b) before AiB decides whether to make the order.
- (2) AiB may make an interim bankruptcy restrictions order if AiB thinks—

 - (b) where it was made by the sheriff, on the determination of the application for the bankruptcy restrictions order, or
 - (c) if the sheriff discharges it on the application of AiB or of the debtor.
- (7) Where a bankruptcy restrictions order is made in respect of a debtor who is subject to an interim bankruptcy restrictions order, subsection (2) of section 159 has effect in relation to the bankruptcy restrictions order as if the reference in that subsection to the day the order is made were a reference to the day the interim bankruptcy restrictions order is made.

Effect of recall of sequestration

161 Bankruptcy restrictions orders and interim bankruptcy restrictions orders:
effect of recall of sequestration

- (1) Where an award of sequestration of a debtor's estate is recalled under section 30(1)—

PART 14

VOLUNTARY TRUST DEEDS FOR CREDITORS

General

162 Voluntary trust deeds for creditors

Sections 163 to 193 and schedule 4 have effect in relation to voluntary trust deeds executed on or after the date on which this Part comes into force.

Protected trust deeds: protected status

163 Protected status: general

- (1) A trust deed has protected status (and is to be known as a “protected trust deed”) where—
 - (a) the conditions set out in sections 164, 165, 166(2) (where it applies) and 167 to 170 are met, and
 - (b) the deed is registered under section 171(2) in the register of insolvencies.
- (2) And it has that status from the date on which it is so registered (that date being, in this Part, referred to as the “date of protection”).

Conditions for protected status

164 Protected status: the debtor

- (1) The debtor must be—
 - (a) a living individual who,
 - (b) a partnership which,
 - (c) a limited partnership (within the meaning of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907) which,

The trustee under the trust deed must be a person who would not be disqualified under section 49(3) to (5) from acting as the replacement trustee were the debtor’s estate being sequestrated.

166 Exclusion of a secured creditor from trust deed

- (1) The conditions set out in subsection (2) apply where a secured creditor is, by virtue of an agreement such as is mentioned in paragraph (b)(ii) of the definition of “trust deed” in section 228(1) (in this Part referred to as “the trust deed definition”), excluded from a trust deed.
- (2) Before the debtor grants the trust deed—
 - (a) the trustee must provide the debtor and the secured creditor with a valuation, made by a chartered surveyor or other suitably qualified person, of the dwellinghouse (or part) which is to be excluded from the estate conveyed as mentioned in paragraph (b)(i) of the trust deed definition,
 - (b) the debtor must, in such form as may be prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph, request obtaining the secured creditor’s agreement not to claim under the trust deed for any of the debt in respect of which the security is held, and
 - (c) any agreement so obtained must be set out in such form as may be prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph.

167 Statements in and advice regarding trust deed

- (1) The trust deed must state—
 - (a) that, subject to any exclusion mentioned in paragraph (b)(i) of the trust deed definition, all of the debtor’s estate (other than property listed in section 88(1) or which would be excluded under any other provision of this Act or of any other enactment from vesting in the trustee of a sequestrated estate) is conveyed to the trustee, and
 - (b) that the debtor agrees to convey to the trustee, for the benefit of creditors generally, any estate (wherever situated) which—
 - (i) is acquired by the debtor during the 4 years beginning with the date on which the trust deed is granted, and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (ii) would have been conveyed to the trustee by virtue of paragraph (a) had it been part of the debtor's estate on the date on which the trust deed was granted.
- (2) Where the debtor's dwellinghouse, or part of the debtor's dwellinghouse, is excluded as mentioned in paragraph (b)(i) of the trust deed definition from the estate conveyed to the trustee, the trust deed must also include details—
 - (a) of any secured creditor who has agreed not to claim under the trust deed for any of the debt in respect of which the security is held, and
 - (b) of that debt.
- (3) Before the debtor grants the trust deed—
 - (a) the trustee must advise the debtor that granting the deed may result—
 - (i) in the debtor's estate being sequestrated,
 - (ii) in the debtor's being refused credit, whether before or after the debtor's discharge under section 184,
 - (iii) subject to any exclusion mentioned in paragraph (b)(i) of the trust deed definition, in the debtor's not being able to remain in the debtor's current place of residence,
 - (iv) subject to any such exclusion, in the debtor's being required to relinquish property which the debtor owns,
 - (v) in the debtor's being required to make contributions from income for the benefit of creditors,

168 Payment of debtor's contribution

- (1) The trust deed must state that the debtor is, during the payment period mentioned in subsection (2), to pay any contributions from income for the benefit of creditors (including, where the debtor is an individual, any contribution required by the common financial tool) at regular intervals.
- (2) The payment period is—
 - (a) a period of 48 months beginning with the date on which the trust deed is granted,
 - (b) such period shorter than 48 months as is determined by the trustee, or
 - (c) such period longer than 48 months as is—
 - (i) determined by the trustee where there has been a period during which the debtor has not paid those contributions, or
 - (ii) agreed between the debtor and the trustee.
- (3) The trustee may, under subsection (2)(b), determine a shorter payment period only if, in the trustee's opinion, payment of those contributions (from income or otherwise) during that period would allow distribution of the debtor's estate to meet in full the total amount, as at the date on which the debtor grants the trust deed, of the debtor's debts (including interest).

- (4) Where the debtor is an individual, those contributions must be such as to result, over the payment period, in the payment of a sum less than the total amount, as at the date on which the debtor grants the trust deed, of the debtor's debts (including interest).
- (5) In calculating those contributions for the purposes of subsections (1) and (4), the whole of the debtor's surplus income over the amount allowed for expenditure in the statement of the debtor's income and expenditure supplied under section 170(1)(d)(ii) must be applied.

169 Notice in register of insolvencies

After the trust deed has been delivered to the trustee, the trustee must without delay send a notice in such form as may be prescribed for the purposes of this section to AiB for publication by registration in the register of insolvencies.

170 Documents to be sent to creditors

- (1) Not later than 7 days after the date of registration under section 169, the trustee must send to every creditor known to the trustee (other than any secured creditor who has, as mentioned in paragraph (b)(ii) of the trust deed definition, agreed not to claim under the trust deed for any of the debt in respect of which the security is held)—
 - (a) a copy of the trust deed,
 - (b) a copy of such form as may be prescribed for the purposes of a creditor making a statement of claim,

 - (i) a list of the debtor's assets and liabilities,
 - (ii) a statement of the debtor's income and expenditure as at the date on which the trust deed was granted (being, where the debtor is a living individual, a statement in the style and format of the Common Financial Statement),
 - (iii) a statement as to the extent to which those assets and that income will not vest in the trustee,
 - (iv) a statement as to whether, and if so on what basis, the EC insolvency proceedings regulation applies to the trust deed,
 - (v) if the EC insolvency proceedings regulation does apply to the trust deed, a statement as to whether the proceedings are main proceedings or territorial proceedings,
 - (vi) a statement as to whether the creditors are likely to be paid a dividend and the amount of the dividend that is expected to be paid,
 - (vii) if the case is one in which there is an exclusion such as is mentioned in paragraph (b)(i) of the trust deed definition, a statement by the trustee, on the basis of the information for the time being available to the trustee, as to what the effect of that exclusion is likely to be on any such dividend,
 - (viii) a statement that the trustee on request must provide a copy of any valuation held by the trustee which has been made by a third party and which relates to an asset of the debtor, any statement showing the

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (ix) a copy of any agreement referred to in section 175(1),
 - (x) a statement explaining the conditions which require to be fulfilled before the trust deed will become a protected trust deed and the consequences of its so becoming,
 - (xi) details of any protected trust deed in respect of which, in the 6 months preceding publication of the notice provided for in section 169, the debtor has been discharged in terms of section 184(1) (or regulation 24(1) of the Protected Trust Deeds (Scotland) Regulations 2013 (S.S.I. 2013/318)) or been refused a letter of discharge under section 184(8) (or regulation 24(8) of those regulations), and
 - (xii) where a secured creditor’s agreement has been obtained by virtue of paragraph (b) of section 166(2), a statement containing the valuation made by virtue of paragraph (a) of that section and a statement of the amount owed, in respect of the security held, to that creditor, and
- (e) a statement, in such form as may be prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph, of the trustee’s anticipated realisations from the trust deed.
- (2) The trust deed must be acceded to by the creditors to whom the trustee is required by subsection (1) to send documents (those creditors being in this Part referred to as “the notified creditors”) but is deemed to have been acceded to by them unless, within the relevant period, the trustee receives notification in writing from a majority in number, or no fewer than $\frac{1}{3}$ in value, of them that they object to the trust deed being granted protected status.

Registration for protected status

171 Registration for protected status

- (1) As soon as reasonably practicable after the expiry of the relevant period (and in any event within 4 weeks after that expiry), the trustee must send to AiB for registration in the register of insolvencies—
- (a) a copy of the trust deed,
 - (b) either—
 - (i) a copy of every form of agreement obtained by virtue of section 166(2)(c), or
 - (ii) a statement by the trustee that no such form of agreement has been obtained,
 - (c) a statement by the trustee that those creditors, if any, who have objected in writing to the trust deed during the relevant period do not constitute a majority in number, or $\frac{1}{3}$ or more in value, of the creditors,
 - (d) a copy of the statement referred to in section 167(3)(c),
 - (e) a copy of the statement referred to in section 170(1)(d),
 - (f) a copy of any agreement referred to in section 175(1),
 - (g) a statement, in the form prescribed for the purposes of section 170(1)(e), of the trustee’s anticipated realisations from the trust deed,
 - (h) where the debtor, being a living individual, makes a contribution from income—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (i) a statement that the amount of the contribution is in accordance with the common financial tool as assessed by the trustee, and
 - (ii) any evidence or explanation required in applying the common financial tool.
- (2) AiB must register the trust deed in the register of insolvencies if—
 - (a) AiB has received all the documents required to be sent under subsection (1),
 - (b) the conditions set out in sections 164 to 170 have been met, and
 - (c) AiB is satisfied, in accordance with the common financial tool, with the amount of the contribution determined.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies where AiB notifies the trustee either—
 - (a) that the trust deed is registered in the register of insolvencies, or
 - (b) that such registration is refused.
- (4) The trustee must, within 7 days after being so notified, notify the debtor and every creditor known to the trustee that the trust deed is so registered or refused.

Effect of protected status etc.

172 Effect of protected status: general

- (1) Where a trust deed has protected status then—
 - (a) subject to section 177, a creditor who (either or both)—
 - (i) is not a notified creditor, or
 - (ii) notified the trustee, during the relevant period, of objection to the trust deed, has no higher right to recover the debt than a creditor who has acceded to, or been deemed by virtue of section 170(2) to have acceded to, the trust deed, and
 - (b) an application for sequestration of the debtor's estate may not be made by the debtor while the trust deed subsists.
- (2) A creditor ceases to be deemed (by virtue of section 170(2)) to have acceded to a trust deed if the trustee refuses a request by the debtor to apply to AiB for discharge in terms of section 184(8).
- (3) Where a secured creditor's agreement has been obtained by virtue of section 166(2) (b) and the trust deed becomes a protected trust deed, that creditor is not entitled—
 - (a) to make a claim under the protected trust deed for any of the debt in respect of which the security is held,
 - (b) to do diligence against the assets conveyed to the trustee under the protected trust deed, or
 - (c) to petition for the sequestration of the debtor during the subsistence of the protected trust deed.

173 Effect of protected status on diligence against earnings

- (1) This section applies where a trust deed has protected status.
- (2) On the date of protection, any current earnings arrestment, maintenance arrestment, or, subject to subsection (3), conjoined arrestment order ceases to have effect.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (3) Any sum paid, before the date of protection, by the employer to the sheriff clerk under a conjoined arrestment order must be disbursed by the sheriff clerk under section 64 of the Debtors (Scotland) Act 1987 even if the date of disbursement is after the date of protection.
- (4) A deduction from earnings order under that Act of 1987 is not competent after the date of protection to secure the payment of any amount due by the debtor under a maintenance calculation (within the meaning of that Act) in respect of which a claim could be made under the trust deed.
- (5) The execution of an earnings arrestment or the making of a conjoined arrestment order is not competent, after the date of protection, to enforce a debt in respect of which the creditor is entitled to make a claim under the trust deed.

174 Deductions by virtue of protected trust deed from debtor's earnings

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a debtor is required to pay to the trustee, by virtue of a protected trust deed, a contribution from income for the benefit of creditors,
 - (b) in respect of that contribution, an amount is required to be paid from the debtor's earnings from employment, and
 - (c) the debtor has failed on two consecutive occasions to pay that amount to the trustee.
- (2) Following a request by the trustee, the debtor must give the debtor's employer an instruction, in such form as may be prescribed for the purposes of this section, to make—
 - (a) deductions of specified amounts from the debtor's earnings, and
 - (b) payments to the trustee of the amounts so deducted.
- (3) The trustee may give the debtor's employer an instruction, in such form as may be prescribed for the purposes of this section (being a form to the same effect as is mentioned in subsection (2)), if the debtor fails to comply with the requirement imposed by that subsection.
- (4) If agreed between the debtor and the trustee, the debtor may give the debtor's employer a variation to an instruction mentioned in subsection (2).
- (5) The employer must comply with any instruction given in accordance with subsection (2) or (3) (or, if an instruction under subsection (2) is varied in accordance with subsection (4), with that instruction as so varied).
- (6) The instruction having been delivered, the employer must, while it is in effect—
 - (a) deduct the sum specified in it on every pay day, and
 - (b) pay the sum deducted to the trustee as soon as it is reasonable to do so.
- (7) Where an employer fails without good cause to make a payment due under an instruction, the employer is—
 - (a) liable to pay on demand by a trustee the amount that should have been paid, and
 - (b) not entitled to recover from a debtor the amount paid to the debtor in breach of the instruction.

- (8) An employer may, on making a payment due under an instruction—
 - (a) charge a fee equivalent to the fee chargeable for the time being under section 71 (employer’s fee for operating diligence against earnings) of the Debtors (Scotland) Act 1987, and
 - (b) deduct that fee from the balance due to the debtor.
- (9) The trustee must, without delay after the discharge of a debtor under section 184, notify in writing any person who has received an instruction under subsection (2) or (3) (or an instruction under subsection (2) varied in accordance with subsection (4)) that the instruction is recalled.

175 Agreement in respect of debtor’s heritable property

- (1) Subject to the conditions in subsection (2), the trustee may, in such form as may be prescribed for the purposes of this section as at the date on which the trust deed is granted, agree—
 - (a) not to realise any specified heritable estate of the debtor which has been conveyed to the trustee,
 - (b) to relinquish the trustee’s interest in respect of such heritable estate, and
 - (c) to recall any notice of inhibition in respect of such heritable estate in accordance with paragraph 3(3) of schedule 4.
- (2) The conditions are that the debtor must—
 - (a) pay any amount determined by the trustee by a date so determined,
 - (b) pay a monthly amount so determined for a period so determined (being, in a case where there is a contribution from income, a period following the payment period applicable by virtue of section 168(2)), and
 - (c) co-operate with the administration of the trust.
- (3) The amount of the debtor’s payments under paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) must be determined in accordance with a valuation made by a chartered surveyor, or other qualified third party, of the debtor’s heritable estate as at the date of grant of the trust deed.
- (4) If the debtor fails to fulfil a condition mentioned in subsection (2), the trustee may withdraw from the agreement.
- (5) The trustee must, as soon as is practicable, send a copy of the agreement (in the form mentioned in subsection (1)) to AiB and to every creditor known to the trustee other than any secured creditor who has, as mentioned in paragraph (b)(ii) of the trust deed definition, agreed not to claim under the trust deed for any of the debt in respect of which the security is held.
- (6) This section does not apply to the debtor’s dwellinghouse (or any part of that dwellinghouse) if the dwellinghouse or part is, by virtue of an exclusion such as is mentioned in paragraph (b)(i) of the trust deed definition, excluded from the estate conveyed to the trustee.

176 Dividend payments

- (1) If the funds of the debtor’s estate are sufficient, the trustee must pay a dividend out of it to the creditors no later than 6 weeks after the end of—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) a first dividend period of 24 months beginning with the date on which the trust deed is granted, and
 - (b) any subsequent dividend period of 6 months beginning with the end of the previous dividend period.
- (2) The funds of the debtor’s estate are “sufficient” if, after—
- (a) deduction of the trustee’s fees and of any outlays payable under this Part, and
 - (b) making allowance for future contingencies,
- a dividend may be paid to the creditors amounting to at least 5 pence for each pound sterling of the debtor’s debt, as at the date of protection, under the trust deed.

177 Sequestration petition by qualified creditor

- (1) A qualified creditor who is not a notified creditor or who has notified the trustee of objection to the trust deed within the relevant period may—
- (a) not later than 5 weeks after the date of registration under section 169 of the notice mentioned in that section, or
 - (b) at any time if the creditor avers that the provision for distribution of the estate is, or is likely to be, unduly prejudicial to a creditor or class of creditors,
- present a petition to the sheriff for sequestration of the debtor’s estate.
- (2) Subsection (1)(b) is subject to section 13(2)(a).
- (3) The sheriff may award sequestration in pursuance of—
- (a) subsection (1)(a), only if satisfied that to do so would be in the best interests of the creditors, and
 - (b) subsection (1)(b), only if satisfied that the creditor’s averment is correct.

178 Creditor’s application as respects intrusions of trustee

- (1) A creditor who is not sent a copy of the notice mentioned in section 169 or who has notified the trustee of objection to the trust deed within the relevant period may apply to the sheriff under this section.
- (2) Where on such an application the sheriff is satisfied, on grounds other than those on which a petition under section 177(1)(b) has been or could have been presented by the creditor, that the intrusions of the trustee with the estate of the debtor have been so unduly prejudicial to the creditor’s claim that the creditor should not be bound by the trustee’s discharge, the sheriff may order that the creditor is not to be so bound.
- (3) On the sheriff making an order under subsection (2), the sheriff clerk must—
- (a) send a copy of the order to the trustee, and
 - (b) send a copy of the order to AiB for registration in the register of insolvencies.
