Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

SCHEDULE 1 TENANCIES WHICH ARE NOT SCOTTISH SECURE TENANCIES

Agricultural and business premises

- 8 A tenancy is not a Scottish secure tenancy if the house—
 - (a) is let together with agricultural land exceeding two acres in extent,
 - (b) consists of or includes premises which are used as a shop or office for business, trade or professional purposes,
 - (c) consists of or includes premises licensed for the sale of excisable liquor, or
 - (d) is let in conjunction with any purpose mentioned in sub-paragraph (b) or (c).