

Management of Offenders etc. (Scotland) Act 2005

2005 asp 14

Assessing and managing risks posed by certain offenders

11 Review of arrangements

- (1) The responsible authorities must keep the arrangements established by them under section 10 under review for the purpose of monitoring the effectiveness of those arrangements and making any changes to them that appear necessary or expedient.
- (2) As soon as practicable after the end of each period of 12 months beginning with 1st April, the responsible authorities must—
 - (a) jointly prepare a report on the discharge by them during that period of the functions conferred by section 10;
 - (b) publish the report in the area of the local authority; and
 - (c) submit the report to the community justice authority within the area of which the area of the local authority is comprised.
- (3) The report must include—
 - (a) details of the arrangements established by the responsible authorities; and
 - (b) information of such description as the Scottish Ministers have notified to the responsible authorities that they wish to be included in the report.
