

Family Law (Scotland) Act 2006

2006 asp 2

Domicile of persons under 16

22 Domicile of persons under 16

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where—
 - (a) the parents of a child are domiciled in the same country as each other; and
 - (b) the child has a home with a parent or a home (or homes) with both of them.
- (2) The child shall be domiciled in the same country as the child's parents.
- (3) Where subsection (2) does not apply, the child shall be domiciled in the country with which the child has for the time being the closest connection.
- (4) In this section, "child" means a person under 16 years of age.
