 Scottish Parliamentary Pensions Act 2009, Part O. (See end of Document for details)*

$$A \times \frac{B}{C}$$

where—

“A” is the number of added years the individual applied to buy,

“B” is the total of the periods (in days) before and after the break in service in respect of which instalments have been paid, and

“C” is the period (in days) for which instalments would have been paid had the individual remained in the scheme continuously.

Buying added years by lump sum

- 88 (1) The Fund trustees may accept a participating member's application to buy added years by lump sum if the following conditions are met.

Condition 1	The application states the number of added years which the applicant wishes to buy.
Condition 2	The applicant has satisfied the Fund trustees that he or she is in good health.
Condition 3	The applicant has given the Fund trustees any information that they reasonably require in relation to the application.

- (4) Such a determination must be—
- (a) certified by the scheme actuary, or
  - (b) made in accordance with guidance or tables prepared by the scheme actuary.
- (5) On payment of the lump sum, the participating member's reckonable service as an MSP or, as the case may be, as an office-holder is increased by the number of added years bought.
- (6) The increased period of reckonable service is, for the purposes of rule 38(1) or, as the case may be, 39(3), to be treated as a period during which higher rate scheme member contributions were made.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Scottish Parliamentary Pensions Act 2009, Part O. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) Where added years are bought by an office-holder member who is not an MSP, the increase in reckonable service is, for the purposes of rule 39(3), to be attributed to the period in office being served when the added years are bought.

Limitations on buying added years

- 89 (1) The Fund trustees must reject an application to buy added years if the corresponding increase in reckonable service, when taken with the applicant's anticipated reckonable service, would (but for rule 38(2) or 39(4)) entitle the applicant to—
- (a) an annual MSP pension of more than the individual's annual MSP pension cap, or
  - (b) an annual office-holder pension of more than the individual's annual office-holder pension cap.
- (2) An applicant's "anticipated reckonable service" is the reckonable service as an MSP or, as the case may be, office-holder which the applicant would obtain if he or she—
- (a) continued as an MSP member (and continued making scheme member contributions at the same rate) until—
    - (i) where applying to buy by monthly instalments, the end of the period for which instalments are payable, or
    - (ii) where applying to buy by lump sum, the next ordinary general election day, or
  - (b) continued to hold the same office and to be an office-holder member (and continued making scheme member contributions at the same rate) until—
    - (i) where applying to buy by monthly instalments, the end of the period for which instalments are payable, or
    - (ii) where applying to buy by lump sum, the next ordinary general election day (or such other day as the Fund trustees may determine).
- (3) The Fund trustees must reject an application to buy added years if they consider—
- (a) that an annual allowance charge may arise under section 227 of the Finance Act 2004 (c. 12) in respect of the applicant in any tax year in which an instalment or lump sum would be payable if the application were accepted,
  - (b) that a lifetime allowance charge may arise under section 214 of the Finance Act 2004 (c. 12) in respect of the applicant (or may so arise if the application were accepted), or
  - (c) that the total of—
    - (i) the amount which the applicant would pay for added years in any tax year, and
    - (ii) the amount of scheme member contributions to be made by the applicant in that year,would exceed 20% of the salary payments to be made to the applicant in that year.

Multiple applications

- 90 The Fund trustees may accept more than one application by a participating member to buy added years by instalment or lump sum (and may, in particular, accept two or more applications to buy added years by instalments payable in overlapping periods).
