Raising of devolution issues on appeal

- 3.—(1) Where a party to an appeal proposes to raise a devolution issue, he shall raise it either—
- (a) in the notice of appeal; or
 - (b) in a notice in Form 1 which shall be filed in the Central Office and served on each of the other parties to the appeal, setting out the facts and circumstances and points of law on the basis of which it is alleged that the devolution issue arises in sufficient detail to enable the Court to determine whether a devolution issue arises in the proceedings.

(2) Where a devolution issue has been raised on an appeal in accordance with paragraph (1) the proper officer shall as soon as practicable cause the matter to be drawn to the attention of the court for the making of an order under paragraph 5 of Schedule 10 requiring notice of the devolution issue to be given to the Attorney General, the Attorney General for Northern Ireland and the appropriate Minister or department.

(3) If the Attorney General, the Attorney General for Northern Ireland or the appropriate Minister or department wishes to become a party to the proceedings so far as relates to the devolution issue he or it shall, within 7 days after receipt of the notice, or such longer period as the Court may direct, give notice in Form 2 to the Master (Queen’s Bench and Appeals); and a copy of such notice shall be sent to each of the other parties.

it shall make an order referring the issue to the Judicial Committee.

(2) The Court may give directions to the parties as to the manner and form in which the schedule to the order is to be drafted.

(3) When the reference has been settled by the Court, the Master (Queen’s Bench and Appeals) shall send it to the Registrar of the Judicial Committee.

Adjournment of proceedings pending reference of devolution issue

5.—(1) The proceedings in which an order is made under rule 3 referring the devolution issue to the Judicial Committee shall, unless the Court otherwise orders, be adjourned until the Judicial Committee has determined the issue referred to it.

(2) Nothing in paragraph (1) shall be taken as preventing the Court from deciding any preliminary or incidental question which may arise in the proceedings after an order referring the devolution issue is made and before the Court has received the determination of the Judicial Committee.

Procedure

6. Where, on a reference of a devolution issue the Judicial Committee, has determined the issue and the determination has been received by the Court, the proper officer shall send a copy of the determination to each of the parties, and the Court shall give directions as to the further conduct of the appeal.
