Application for a non-molestation order or occupation order

Notes for Guidance

Section 1

If you do not wish your address to be made known to the respondent, leave the space on the form blank and complete the Confidential Address Form C5. The court can give you this form.

Section 3

An urgent order made by the court before notice of the application is served on the respondent is called an ex-parte order. In deciding whether to make an ex-parte order the court will consider the circumstances of the case, including:

- any risk of significant harm to the applicant or a relevant child, attributable to conduct of the respondent, if the order is not made immediately
- whether it is likely that the applicant will be deterred or prevented from pursuing the application if an order is not made immediately
- whether there is reason to believe that the respondent is aware of the proceedings but is deliberately evading service and that the applicant or a relevant child will be seriously prejudiced by the delay involved.

If the court makes an ex-parte order, it must give the respondent an opportunity to make representations about the order as soon as just and convenient at a full hearing.

'Harm' in relation to a person who has reached the age of 18 means ill-treatment or the impairment of health, and in relation to a child means ill-treatment or the impairment of health and development. 'Ill-treatment' includes sexual abuse and forms of ill-treatment which are not physical. The court will require evidence of any harm which you allege in support of your application. This evidence should be included in the statement accompanying this application.

Section 4

For you to be able to apply for an order you must be related to the respondent in one of the ways listed in this section of the form. If you are not related in one of these ways you should seek legal advice.

Cohabitants are a man and a woman who, although not married to each other are living or have lived together as husband and wife. People who have cohabited but have then married will not fall within this category, but will fall within the category of married people.*

Those who live or have lived in the same household do not include people who share the same household because one of them is the other's employee, tenant, lodger or boarder.*

You will only be able to apply as a relative of the respondent if you are:

- (A) the father, mother, stepfather, stepmother, son, daughter, stepson, stepdaughter, grandmother, grandfather, grandson or granddaughter of the respondent or of the respondent's spouse or former spouse.
- (B) the brother, sister, uncle, aunt, niece or nephew (whether of the full blood or of the half blood by affinity) of the respondent or of the respondent's spouse or former spouse.

This includes, in relation to a person who is living or has lived with another person as husband and wife, any person who would fall within (A) or (B) if the parties were married to each other (for example your cohabitee's father or brother).

Agreements to marry: You will fall within this category only if you make this application within three years of the termination of the agreement. The court will require the following evidence of the agreement:*

- evidence in writing*
- or the gift of an engagement ring in contemplation of marriage*

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

or evidence that a ceremony has been entered into in the presence of one or more other persons assembled for the purpose of witnessing it.

Parents and parental responsibility: You will fall within this category if both you and the respondent are either the parents of a child or have parental responsibility for that child or if one of you is the parent and the other has parental responsibility.

Under the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995, parental responsibility is held automatically by a child's mother and by the child's father if he and the mother were married at the time of the child's birth or have married subsequently. Where this is not the case parental responsibility can be acquired by the father in accordance with the provisions of the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995.

Section 5

A non-molestation order can forbid the respondent to molest you or a relevant child. Molestation can include, for example, violence, threats, pestering and other forms of harassment. The court can forbid particular acts of the respondent, molestation in general, or both.

Section 6

If you wish to apply for an occupation order but you are uncertain about your answer to any of the questions in this part of the application form, you should seek legal advice.

(A) A dwelling-house includes any building or part of a building which is occupied as a dwelling; any caravan, houseboat or structure which is occupied as a dwelling; and any yard, garden, garage or outhouse belonging to it and occupied with it.

(C) & (D) The following questions give examples to help you to decide if you or the respondent, or both of you, are entitled to occupy the dwelling-house:

(a) Are you the sole legal owner of the dwelling-house?

(b) Are you and the respondent joint legal owners of the dwelling-house?

(c) Is the respondent the sole legal owner of the dwelling-house?

(d) Do you rent the dwelling-house as sole tenant?

(e) Do you and the respondent rent the dwelling-house as joint tenants?

(f) Does the respondent rent the dwelling-house as sole tenant?

If you answer

- Yes to (a), (b), (d) or (e) you are likely to be entitled to occupy the dwelling-house.
- Yes to (c) or (f) you may not be entitled (unless, for example you are a spouse and have matrimonial home rights — see the notes under 'Matrimonial Home Rights' below).
- Yes to (b), (c), (e) or (f) the respondent is likely to be entitled to occupy the dwelling-house.
- Yes to (a) or (d) the respondent may not be entitled (unless for example he is a spouse and has matrimonial home rights).

Box 1 For example, if you are sole owner; joint owner or if you rent the property. If you are not a spouse, former spouse, cohabitant or former cohabitant of the respondent you will only be able to apply for an occupation order if you fall within this category.

If you answer Yes to this question, it will not be possible for a magistrates' court to deal with the application, unless the court decides that it is unnecessary for it to decide this question in order to deal with the application or make an order. If the court decides that it cannot deal with the application it will transfer the application to a county court.

Matrimonial Home Rights

Where one spouse is entitled to occupy the dwelling-house by virtue of a beneficial estate or interest or contract or by virtue of any enactment giving him or her the right to remain in occupation and the other spouse is not so entitled, the spouse who is not entitled has matrimonial home rights. Matrimonial home rights do not exist if the dwelling house has never been and was never intended to be, the matrimonial home of the two spouses.
