2. Your solicitor's details

You should complete this section if you have a solicitor acting for you. He or she may be able to help you complete this form and will give you the information necessary to complete these details.

If you do not have a solicitor simply insert the words "solicitor not instructed".

Section 2

Complete this section only if:

- a) you are the respondent
- b) the applicant has completed Form C1AA and,
- c) you wish to comment on the allegations made by the applicant.

You must only comment on the allegations made by the applicant in his or her Form C1AA and not on any other information elsewhere in the application.

If you do not wish to comment at this stage, this section may be left blank or you may insert the words "No comment at this stage".

Section 3

1. Involvement with outside agencies and organisations

“Harm” means ill-treatment or the impairment of health and development.

If following an incident of domestic abuse or harm, the police, social services, mental health services or other support services have been or are still involved with:

- a) any or all of the children listed at the top of the Form C1AA
- b) a full, half or step brother or sister of a child(ren) listed at the top of the form
- c) or a person who is or has been involved with caring for the children or has had contact with the children you should provide:
 - the name and address of any agency or service that has been involved but do not give any further details. You can comment on these later in this form.
 - the name of the person you have as a contact within that agency or service.
 - the dates on which you had involvement. (If you cannot remember the precise dates, please provide the month or a date as near as possible).

If any of the agencies mentioned above continue to be involved you should say so in simple terms e.g. “the police are continuing their investigations” or “the social services are still involved”. This list is not exhaustive so you should include all those that are still involved. If you have any documents, reports or correspondence, appointment cards or other relevant paperwork please say so here.

Do not enclose any of this paperwork with this form. The court may ask you to produce this later in the proceedings if it considers that it may be relevant to the case.

2. Incidents of abuse, violence or harm

For each alleged incident of violence, domestic abuse or harm, please give short answers to the following questions:

- What was the date of each incident? (If you cannot remember the precise date, please provide the month or a date as near as possible).
- Who was the victim of this behaviour? You should consider whether any child saw or heard anything and name him or her but do not give details here.

- Who was responsible for this behaviour?
- What was the nature of this behaviour e.g. was it physical, mental or sexual (and what form did it take)?
- How often did this kind of behaviour happen and give the date (as far as you can remember) of the most recent incident?
- Did you go to your GP or to a hospital to get treatment in respect of any injuries sustained for any of the children named in this form or the applicant or other person involved in the incident(s)?
- Do you believe that the harm, violence or abuse is likely to happen again in the future?

You shall have an opportunity later in the proceedings to provide a more substantial statement.

3. Involvement of the children

If you believe that any of the child(ren) named at the top of the form C1AA have either seen, heard or were aware of any of the alleged incidents of abuse, you should say so here and say briefly how these alleged incidents affected the family and the children. You will have an opportunity to give full details later in the proceedings.

4. Witnesses

If your answer to this question is “yes” you should ask whether he or she is willing, and able, to provide supporting evidence. This evidence could be any paperwork supplied by the police, hospital or any agency to which the incident was reported. You should also say whether or not this person is prepared to give evidence in court.

Do not attach any of the evidence to this form. The court may ask you to provide it later in the proceedings.

5. Medical treatment or other assessment of the child(ren)

If any of the children named at the top of Form C1AA have been referred by a doctor, psychiatrist or psychologist for treatment or assessment relating to his or her emotional, social or behavioural development you should provide:

- the name and address of the psychiatrist or psychologist.
- the date when the referral was made (this may not be the date of the appointment).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

If you cannot remember the precise date, please provide the month or a date as near as possible.

- a summary of the treatment recommended or the result of the assessment.
- information about whether you know that there was an assessment and the whereabouts of any reports or correspondence relating to it.

If any of this information is in your possession please say so:

- information about whether or not this treatment continues.

You should not include any documents, copies of appointment cards etc at this stage. You may be asked to provide this information later in the proceedings.

6. Steps or orders required to protect you and the children

You are completing this form because there are allegations that the child(ren) may have suffered or be at risk of suffering domestic abuse, violence or harm or seeing another person suffering such domestic abuse, violence or harm and you are asking the court to make an order for Residence, Contact, Prohibited Steps or Specific Issue.

These terms mean:

- a) Residence: this decides who the child or children are going to live with in the future.
 - b) Contact: this decides how often and for how long the person with whom the child(ren) are living must let the child(ren) visit, stay or otherwise have contact with the person asking for the order.
 - c) Prohibited Steps: this prevents a parent from taking a particular action as set out in the order without the permission of the court. This also applies to actions by any other person named in the order.
 - d) Specific issue: this decides specific questions e.g. about education, medical treatment or a foreign holiday or visit where parents or those with parental responsibility cannot agree.
- Please say what steps or order you think the court should make to protect the interests of yourself and the child(ren) named in this form so that you and they may be protected.

7. Attending the Court

If you feel that you are vulnerable or likely to be intimidated when you attend court and would like the court to make special arrangements, please say so on this form. The court will try to supply you and your witnesses with a separate waiting area. For this or any other measures to be considered please will you explain why you feel you need them.”

Notes for Guidance

Section 1

If you do not wish your address to be made known to the respondent, leave the space on the form blank and complete the Confidential Address Form C5. The court can give you this form.

If you are under 18, someone over 18 must help you make this application. That person, who might be one of your parents, is called a 'next friend'.

If you are under 16 you need permission to make this application. You must apply to the High Court for permission, using this form. If the High Court gives you permission to make this application, it will then either hear the application itself or transfer it to a county court.

Section 3

- An urgent order made by the court before notice of the application is served on the respondent is called an ex-parte order. In* deciding whether to make an ex-parte order the court will consider the circumstances of the case, including:

- any risk of significant harm to the applicant or a relevant child, attributable to conduct of the respondent, if the order is not made immediately*
- whether it is likely that the applicant will be deterred or prevented from pursuing the application if an order is not made immediately*
- whether there is reason to believe that the respondent is aware of the proceedings but is deliberately evading service and that the applicant or a relevant child will be seriously prejudiced by the delay involved.*

If the court makes an ex-parte order, it must specify a date for a full hearing.

'Harm' in relation to a person who has reached the age of 18 means ill-treatment or the impairment of health, and in relation to a child means ill-treatment or the impairment of health and development. 'Ill-treatment' includes sexual abuse and forms of ill-treatment which are not physical. The court will require evidence of any harm which you allege in support of your application. This evidence should be included in the statement accompanying this application.

Section 4

For you to be able to apply for an order you must be related to the respondent in one of the ways listed in this section of the form. If you are not related in one of these ways you should seek legal advice.

Cohabitees are two persons who, although not married to each other nor civil partners of each other, are living together or have lived together as husband and wife or civil partners. People who have cohabited, but have then married or formed a civil partnership will not fall within this category, but will fall within the category of married people or people who are civil partners of each other.

Those who live or have lived in the same household do not include people who share the same household because one of them is the other's employee, tenant, lodger or boarder.

You will only be able to apply as a relative of the respondent if you are:

(A) the father, mother, stepfather, stepmother, son, daughter, stepson, stepdaughter, grandmother, grandfather, grandson or granddaughter of the respondent or of the respondent's spouse or former spouse, civil partner or former civil partner.

(B) the brother, sister, uncle, aunt, niece, nephew or first cousin (whether of the full blood or of the half blood, or by affinity or by civil partnership) of the respondent or of the respondent's spouse, former spouse, civil partner or former civil partner.

This includes, in relation to a person who is cohabiting or has cohabited with another person, any person who would fall within paragraph (A) or (B) if the parties were married to, or civil partners of, each other (for example, your cohabitee's father or brother).

Agreements to marry: You will fall within this category only if you make this application within three years of the termination of the agreement. The court will require the following evidence of the agreement:

evidence in writing

or the gift of an engagement ring in contemplation of marriage or evidence that a ceremony has been entered into in the presence of one or more other persons assembled for the purpose of witnessing it.

Agreements to form a civil partnership:

You will fall within this category only if you make this application within three years of the termination of the agreement. The court will require the following evidence of the agreement:

evidence in writing

or a gift from one party to the agreement to the other as a token of the agreement or evidence that a ceremony has been entered into in the presence of one or more other persons assembled for the purpose of witnessing it.

Parents and parental responsibility:

You will fall within this category if both you and the respondent are either the parents of a child or have parental responsibility for that child or if one of you is the parent and the other has parental responsibility.

Under the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995, parental responsibility is held automatically by a child's mother, and by the child's father if he and the mother were married to each other at the time of the child's birth or have married subsequently. Where this is not the case, parental responsibility can be acquired by the father in accordance with the provisions of the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995.

Section 5

A non-molestation order can forbid the respondent to molest you or a relevant child. Molestation can include, for example, violence, threats, pestering and other forms of harassment. The court can forbid particular acts of the respondent, molestation in general, or both.

A non-molestation order may also exclude the respondent from a defined area in which a dwelling house is included, any other defined area and any premises specified in the order.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Section 6

If you wish to apply for an occupation order but you are uncertain about your answer to any of the questions in this part of the application form, you should seek legal advice.

(A) A dwelling house includes any building or part of a building which is occupied as a dwelling; any caravan, houseboat or structure which is occupied as a dwelling; and any yard, garden, garage or outhouse belonging to it and occupied with it.

(C) & (D) The following questions give examples to help you to decide if you or the respondent, or both of you, are entitled to occupy the dwelling house:

(a) Are you the sole legal owner of the dwelling house?

(b) Are you and the respondent joint legal owners of the dwelling house?

(c) Is the respondent the sole legal owner of the dwelling house?

(d) Do you rent the dwelling house as sole tenant?

(e) Do you and the respondent rent the dwelling house as joint tenants?

(f) Does the respondent rent the dwelling house as sole tenant?

If you answer:

- Yes to (a), (b), (d) or (e) you are likely to be entitled to occupy the dwelling house.
- Yes to (c) or (f) you may not be entitled (unless, for example you are a spouse or civil partner and have home rights – see the notes under ‘Home Rights’ below).
- Yes to (b), (c), (e) or (f) the respondent is likely to be entitled to occupy the dwelling house.
- Yes to (a) or (d) the respondent may not be entitled (unless for example he is a spouse or civil partner and has home rights).

Box 1 For example, if you are sole owner, joint owner or if you rent the property. If you are not a spouse, former spouse, civil partner or former civil partner, cohabitee or former cohabitee of the respondent you will only be able to apply for an occupation order if you fall within this category.

If you answer Yes to this question, it will not be possible for a magistrates’ court to deal with the application, unless the court decides that it is unnecessary for it to decide this question or make an order. If the court decides that it cannot deal with the application it will transfer the application to a county court.

Box 2 For example, if the respondent was married to you or if you and the respondent are or were civil partners and he or she is sole owner or rents the property.

Box 3 For example, if the respondent is or was cohabiting with you and is sole owner or rents the property.

Home Rights

- Where one spouse or civil partner “A” is entitled to occupy the dwelling house by virtue of a beneficial estate or interest or contract or by virtue of any enactment giving him or her the right to remain in occupation and the other spouse or civil partner “B” is not so entitled, then B (who is not so entitled) has home rights. These are a right, if B is in occupation, not to be evicted or excluded from the dwelling house except with the leave of the court and, if B is not in occupation, the right with the leave of the court to enter into and occupy the dwelling house. Home rights do not exist if the dwelling house has never been and was never intended to be, the matrimonial or civil partnership home of two spouses or civil partners. If the marriage or civil partnership has come to an end, home rights will also have ceased unless a court order has been made during the marriage or civil partnership for the rights to continue after the end of that relationship.

Occupation Orders The possible orders are: If you have ticked box 1 above, an order under Article 11 of the Order of 1998 may:

- require the respondent to permit the applicant to enter and remain in the dwelling house or part of it
- require the respondent to permit the applicant to have peaceful use and enjoyment of the dwelling house or part of it
- regulate the occupation of the dwelling house by either or both parties
- if the respondent is also entitled to occupy, prohibit, suspend or restrict the exercise by him of that right

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- provide for the respondent to remove from the dwelling house or part of it personal effects or furniture or other contents which are specified in the order
- exclude the respondent from a defined area around the dwelling house or any other defined area or premises
- declare that the applicant is entitled to occupy the dwelling house or has matrimonial rights in it
- provide that the home rights of the applicant are not brought to an end by the death of the other spouse or civil partner or termination of the marriage or civil partnership
- restrain the respondent from disposing of any estate he has in the dwelling house

If you have ticked box 2 or box 3 above—

(a) an order under Article 13 or 14 of the Order of 1998 must:

- prohibit the respondent from evicting or excluding the applicant during that period

(ii) if the applicant is not in occupation—

- give the applicant the right to enter and occupy the dwelling-house for a specified period; and
- require the respondent to permit the exercise of that right

(b) an order under Article 13 or 14 of the Order of 1998 may—

- exclude the respondent from a defined area around the dwelling house or any other defined area or premises specified in the order
- restrain the respondent from disposing of any estate he has in the dwelling house.

If you have ticked box 4 or box 5 above, an order under Article 15 or 16 of the Order of 1998 may:

- provide for the respondent to remove from the dwelling house or part of it personal effects or any furniture or other contents which are specified in the order.
- exclude the respondent from a defined area around the dwelling house, or any other defined area or premises.

You should provide any evidence which you have on the following matters in your evidence in support of this application. If necessary, further statements may be submitted after the application has been issued.

If you have ticked box 1, 4, 5 or 6 above, the court will need any available evidence of the following:

- the housing needs and resources of you, the respondent and any relevant child
- the financial resources of you and the respondent
- the likely effect of any order, or of any decision not to make an order, on the health, safety and well-being of you, the respondent and any relevant child

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules.)

These Rules make amendments to two sets of rules, which apply in proceedings in magistrates' courts, in consequence of the Civil Partnership Act 2004 (c. 33). The Civil Partnership Act 2004 introduces a statutory civil registration procedure to allow same-sex couples to make a formal, legal commitment to each other by entering into a civil partnership. The Rules amend the Magistrates' Courts (Domestic Proceedings) Rules (Northern Ireland) 1996 to prescribe the procedures for proceedings under Schedule 16 to the 2004 Act. They also make minor consequential amendments to forms prescribed in the Magistrates' Courts (Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995) Rules (Northern Ireland) 1996.

The Magistrates' Courts (Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995) Rules (Northern Ireland) 1996 are also amended in consequence of Council Regulation (EC) No. 2201/2003 of 27th November 2003 on jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of judgments in matrimonial matters and matters of parental responsibility (“the new Council Regulation”). The new Council Regulation reproduced and repealed Council Regulation (EC) 1347/2000 extending it to include matters of parental responsibility where there are no matrimonial proceedings. The amendments insert new definitions relevant to the new Council Regulation, including a definition of “Member State”, which gives a list of the Member States who have signed up to the new Council Regulation so as to save cross-reference to other documents. They also make provision to prescribe the procedure for applications pursuant to Article 15 of the new Council Regulation, and in relation to applications for certified copies of judgments or for a certificate under Article 39 or 41 of the new Council Regulation.

The Rules also amend the Magistrates' Courts (Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995) Rules (Northern Ireland) 1996 consequential to amendments made to Article 7 (acquisition of parental responsibility) of the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995 by section 1 of the Family Law Act (Northern Ireland) 2001 and amend the prescribed forms to ensure that allegations of domestic violence are raised at the commencement of proceedings under Article 8 of the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995.

The Notes for Guidance in Form F1 of the Magistrates' Courts (Domestic Proceedings) Rules (Northern Ireland) 1996 are also amended in consequence of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Northern Ireland) Order 2005. The 2005 Order amended the definitions of the terms “relative” and “cohabitee” in the Family Homes and Domestic Violence (Northern Ireland) Order 1998; so as to allow exclusion zones of defined areas to be attached to non-molestation orders and to make it clear that protective orders made ex-parte can only be made for a short period and that, if a court makes such an order, it must specify a date for a full hearing.
