Date of birth:

THE COURT, having convicted the offender and being of the opinion that having regard to the circumstances, including the nature of the offence and the character of the offender, it is expedient to make a drug treatment and testing order containing the undernoted requirements;

AND the Court having explained to the offender the effect of the order (including the requirements set out below) and the consequences of failure to comply with the order or with any requirement thereof;

AND the offender having expressed willingness to comply with the requirements of the order;

REQUIRES, in respect that in terms of this order the offender is to reside in the local authority area of (specify), the said Council to appoint or assign an officer (the "supervising officer") to discharge the functions assigned by sections 234C and 234F of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 in respect of the offender and to notify the offender forthwith of the particulars of the supervising officer, of any change in the particulars of the supervising officer and of any change of appointed or assigned supervising officer;

ORDERS that the offender shall, for a period of (specify period) from the date of the order, reside in the local authority area of (specify) under the supervision of the supervising officer at (place) in the said local authority area; and that he shall throughout that period comply with the following requirements, namely—

- (i) to submit to treatment (specify whether as a resident or as a non-resident) by or under the direction of (name of treatment provider) (the "treatment provider") at (name of institution) with a view to the reduction or elimination of dependency on or propensity to misuse drugs;
- (ii) to conform to the directions of the supervising officer and of the treatment provider;
- (iii) to inform the supervising officer immediately of any change of address;
- (iv) to provide for the purpose of ascertaining whether he has any drug in his body such samples, of such description, at such times, in such circumstances, as the treatment provider may determine;
- (v) to keep in touch with the supervising officer as instructed from time to time by that officer;
- (vi) to attend each review hearing;
- (vii) (any additional requirement).

ORDERS that the treatment provider shall communicate to the supervising officer the results of the tests carried out on the samples provided by the offender in pursuance of this order;

ORDERS that the supervising officer shall report in writing on the offender's progress under this order to the court conducting the review hearing; and that he shall include in each such report the results of the tests communicated to him by the treatment provider and the views of the treatment provider as to the treatment and testing of the offender;

FURTHER ORDERS that this Order shall be reviewed periodically at intervals of not less than one month at a hearing held for the purpose by (specify the appropriate court), the first such review to be heard on (date).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Act of Adjournal)

Section 89 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37) inserted section 234B into the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 to empower a court to make drug treatment and testing orders in certain circumstances.

This Act of Adjournal amends the Criminal Procedure Rules 1996 by prescribing the form in which such drug treatment and testing orders are to be made.
