(3) The claimant must send a copy of the claim to the Equality and Human Rights Commission⁽¹⁾.

(4) A Tribunal shall not consider a claim unless the claim has been received by the Secretary before the end of the period of six months beginning when the act complained of was done.

(5) If, in relation to proceedings or prospective proceedings under section 27 of the Equality Act 2006⁽²⁾, the dispute is referred for conciliation in pursuance of arrangements under that section before the end of the period specified in paragraph (4), that period is extended by 3 months.

(6) A Tribunal may consider any claim which is out of time under paragraphs (4) or (5) if, in all the circumstances of the case, it considers that it is just and equitable to do so.

Action upon receiving a claim

6. On receiving a claim the Secretary shall—

(1) The address of the Commission's offices in Scotland is The Optima Building, 58 Robertson Street, Glasgow.

(2) 2006 c.3.

- (b) send a copy of the claim and of any accompanying documents to the responsible body, together with a notice in writing giving the case number of the claim from the Register, and including information, as appropriate to the claim, about the means and time for submission of a response, the consequences of failure to do so, and the right to receive a copy of the decision; and
- (c) acknowledge receipt and provide the claimant with a notice in writing giving the case number of the claim, and including information as appropriate to the claim, about the time for the responsible body to submit a response, the right to withdraw the claim, and the right to receive a copy of the decision.

Sufficiency of reasons for claim

7.—(1) If the claim does not state grounds of claim which a convener considers sufficient to enable the responsible body to respond to it, the convener shall direct the claimant to send further and better particulars of the grounds of claim to the Secretary within 10 working days of the receipt of notice of such direction by the claimant in accordance with rule 50.

(2) Rules 15 and 17 shall apply to a direction under paragraph (1).

(3) Further and better particulars of the grounds of claim sent in response to a direction made under paragraph (1) shall, if a convener is satisfied that, together with the claim, such particulars should be sufficient to enable the responsible body to respond to it, be treated as part of the claim.

(4) Where a convener has made a direction under paragraph (1), a copy of that direction shall be sent to the responsible body with confirmation that the case statement period will not commence until the direction has been complied with.

Case statement period and statement of claimant's case

8.—(1) Where rule 7 does not apply or a convener is satisfied under rule 7(3), the Secretary shall send notice in writing to both parties advising them of the dates of the case statement period.

(2) The case statement period shall be the period of 30 working days beginning on the date on which notice under paragraph (1) is taken to have been received in accordance with rule 50.

(3) Before the end of the case statement period, the claimant must submit all written evidence to be relied on and which has not already been submitted and may submit to the Secretary a written statement of the claimant's case, which may include the views of the person to whom the claim relates.

(4) The claimant may amend the claim, submit a supplementary written statement of the claimant's case or amend a supplementary written statement, if permission is given by a convener or a Tribunal at a hearing after having first sought and taken account of the views of the responsible body.

(5) The claimant shall submit to the Secretary a copy of every amendment and supplementary statement for which permission is given.

(6) Subject to paragraphs (7) and (8), on the application of either party or on the convener's own initiative, a convener may make an order shortening or extending the case statement period in any claim.

(7) Before making an order under paragraph (6), the convener shall seek oral or written representations from the parties on the issue of shortening or extending the case statement period.

(8) A convener may only make an order under paragraph (6) if satisfied that—

- (a) both parties will have sufficient time to prepare their cases; and
- (b) it is fair and just to do so.

(9) In the case of any claim where permission is given by a convener under paragraph (4) the convener giving permission may extend the case statement period if satisfied that it is fair and just to do so.

(10) If, at the time permission is granted under paragraph (4), the responsible body is not entitled to take any part in the proceedings in accordance with rule 10(4), the giving of permission shall restore such entitlement and, if necessary, the hearing shall be rearranged or adjourned, as a convener or a Tribunal at the hearing may consider appropriate, so that the responsible body can be represented.
