10 Power of court to make section 8 orders.

- (1) In any family proceedings in which a question arises with respect to the welfare of any child, the court may make a section 8 order with respect to the child if—
- (a) an application for the order has been made by a person who—
 - (i) is entitled to apply for a section 8 order with respect to the child; or
 - (ii) has obtained the leave of the court to make the application; or
 - (b) the court considers that the order should be made even though no such application has been made.
- (2) The court may also make a section 8 order with respect to any child on the application of a person who—
- (a) is entitled to apply for a section 8 order with respect to the child; or
 - (b) has obtained the leave of the court to make the application.
- (3) This section is subject to the restrictions imposed by section 9.
- (4) The following persons are entitled to apply to the court for any section 8 order with respect to a child—
- (a) any parent [^{F19}, guardian or special guardian] of the child;
 - [^{F20}(aa) any person who by virtue of section 4A has parental responsibility for the child;]
 - [^{F21}(b) any person who is named, in a child arrangements order that is in force with respect to the child, as a person with whom the child is to live.]
- (5) The following persons are entitled to apply for a [^{F22}child arrangements] order with respect to a child—
- (a) any party to a marriage (whether or not subsisting) in relation to whom the child is a child of the family;
 - [^{F23}(aa) any civil partner in a civil partnership (whether or not subsisting) in relation to whom the child is a child of the family;]
 - (b) any person with whom the child has lived for a period of at least three years;
 - (c) any person who—
 - [^{F24}(i) in any case where a child arrangements order in force with respect to the child regulates arrangements relating to with whom the child is to live or when the child is to live with any person, has the consent of each of the persons named in the order as a person with whom the child is to live;]

- (ii) in any case where the child is in the care of a local authority, has the consent of that authority; or
 - (iii) in any other case, has the consent of each of those (if any) who have parental responsibility for the child.
- [^{F25}(d) any person who has parental responsibility for the child by virtue of provision made under section 12(2A).]
- [^{F26}(5A) A local authority foster parent is entitled to apply for a [^{F27}child arrangements order to which subsection (5C) applies] with respect to a child if the child has lived with him for a period of at least one year immediately preceding the application.]
- [^{F28}(5B) A relative of a child is entitled to apply for a [^{F29}child arrangements order to which subsection (5C) applies] with respect to the child if the child has lived with the relative for a period of at least one year immediately preceding the application.]
- [^{F30}(5C) This subsection applies to a child arrangements order if the arrangements regulated by the order relate only to either or both of the following—
 - (a) with whom the child concerned is to live, and
 - (b) when the child is to live with any person.]
- (6) A person who would not otherwise be entitled (under the previous provisions of this section) to apply for the variation or discharge of a section 8 order shall be entitled to do so if—
 - (a) the order was made on his application; or
 - (b) in the case of a [^{F31}child arrangements] order, he is named in [^{F32}provisions of the order regulating arrangements relating to—
 - (i) with whom the child concerned is to spend time or otherwise have contact, or
 - (ii) when the child is to spend time or otherwise have contact with any person.]
- (7) Any person who falls within a category of person prescribed by rules of court is entitled to apply for any such section 8 order as may be prescribed in relation to that category of person.
- [^{F33}(7A) If a special guardianship order is in force with respect to a child, an application for a [^{F34}child arrangements order to which subsection (7B) applies] may only be made with respect to him, if apart from this subsection the leave of the court is not required, with such leave.]
- [^{F35}(7B) This subsection applies to a child arrangements order if the arrangements regulated by the order consist of, or include, arrangements which relate to either or both of the following—
 - (a) with whom the child concerned is to live, and
 - (b) when the child is to live with any person.]
- (8) Where the person applying for leave to make an application for a section 8 order is the child concerned, the court may only grant leave if it is satisfied that he has sufficient understanding to make the proposed application for the section 8 order.
- (9) Where the person applying for leave to make an application for a section 8 order is not the child concerned, the court shall, in deciding whether or not to grant leave, have particular regard to—
 - (a) the nature of the proposed application for the section 8 order;
 - (b) the applicant’s connection with the child;

11 General principles and supplementary provisions.

- (1) In proceedings in which any question of making a section 8 order, or any other question with respect to such an order, arises, the court shall (in the light of any [^{F36}provision in rules of court that is of the kind mentioned in subsection (2)(a) or (b)]—
 - (a) draw up a timetable with a view to determining the question without delay; and
 - (b) give such directions as it considers appropriate for the purpose of ensuring, so far as is reasonably practicable, that that timetable is adhered to.
- (2) Rules of court may—
 - (a) specify periods within which specified steps must be taken in relation to proceedings in which such questions arise; and
 - (b) make other provision with respect to such proceedings for the purpose of ensuring, so far as is reasonably practicable, that such questions are determined without delay.
- (3) Where a court has power to make a section 8 order, it may do so at any time during the course of the proceedings in question even though it is not in a position to dispose finally of those proceedings.
- ^{F37}(4)
- (5) Where—
 - (a) a [^{F38}child arrangements] order has been made with respect to a child; and
 - (b) [^{F39}the child has] two parents who each have parental responsibility for him, the [^{F40}order, so far as it has the result that there are times when the child lives or is to live with one of the parents,] shall cease to have effect if the parents live together for a continuous period of more than six months.
- (6) [^{F41}A child arrangements order made with respect to a child, so far as it provides for the child to spend time or otherwise have contact with one of the child's parents at times when the child is living with the child's other parent,] shall cease to have effect if the parents live together for a continuous period of more than six months.
- (7) A section 8 order may—
 - (a) contain directions about how it is to be carried into effect;
 - (b) impose conditions which must be complied with by any person—
 - [^{F42}(i) who is named in the order as a person with whom the child concerned is to live, spend time or otherwise have contact;]
 - (ii) who is a parent of the child ^{F43}...;
 - (iii) who is not a parent of his but who has parental responsibility for him; or
 - (iv) with whom the child is living,and to whom the conditions are expressed to apply;

[^{F45}11A ^{F44}... Activity directions

[^{F46}(1) Subsection (2) applies in proceedings in which the court is considering whether to make provision about one or more of the matters mentioned in subsection (1A) by making—

- (a) a child arrangements order with respect to the child concerned, or
- (b) an order varying or discharging a child arrangements order with respect to the child concerned.

(1A) The matters mentioned in this subsection are—

- (a) with whom a child is to live,
- (b) when a child is to live with any person,
- (c) with whom a child is to spend time or otherwise have contact, and
- (d) when a child is to spend time or otherwise have contact with any person.

(2) The court may make an activity direction in connection with the provision that the court is considering whether to make.

(2A) Subsection (2B) applies in proceedings in which subsection (2) does not apply and in which the court is considering—

- (a) whether a person has failed to comply with a provision of a child arrangements order, or
- (b) what steps to take in consequence of a person's failure to comply with a provision of a child arrangements order.

- (2B) The court may make an activity direction in connection with that provision of the child arrangements order.
- (3) An activity direction is a direction requiring an individual who is a party to the proceedings concerned to take part in an activity that would, in the court's opinion, help to establish, maintain or improve the involvement in the life of the child concerned of—
- (a) that individual, or
 - (b) another individual who is a party to the proceedings.]
- (4) The direction is to specify the activity and the person providing the activity.
- (5) The activities that may be so required include, in particular—
- (a) programmes, classes and counselling or guidance sessions of a kind that—
 - (i) may assist a person as regards establishing, maintaining or improving [F47]involvement in a child's life];
 - (ii) may, by addressing a person's violent behaviour, enable or facilitate [F48]involvement in a child's life];
 - (b) sessions in which information or advice is given as regards making or operating arrangements for [F49]involvement in a child's life], including making arrangements by means of mediation.
- (6) No individual may be required by [F50]an] activity direction—
- (a) to undergo medical or psychiatric examination, assessment or treatment;
 - (b) to take part in mediation.
- (7) A court may not on the same occasion—
- (a) make [F51]an activity direction under subsection (2)], and
 - (b) dispose finally of the proceedings as they relate to [F52]the matters mentioned in subsection (1A) in connection with which the activity direction is made].
- (8) [F53]Each of subsections (2) and (2B)] has effect subject to the restrictions in sections 11B and 11E.
- (9) In considering whether to make [F54]an]activity direction, the welfare of the child concerned is to be the court's paramount consideration.]
- F55 A court may not on the same occasion—
- (a) make an activity direction under subsection (2B), and
 - (b) dispose finally of the proceedings as they relate to failure to comply with the provision in connection with which the activity direction is made.]

[^{F115}11J Enforcement orders

- (1) This section applies if a [^{F116}child arrangements] with respect to a child has been made.
- (2) If the court is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that a person has failed to comply with [^{F117}a provision of the child arrangements] order, it may make an order (an “enforcement order”) imposing on the person an unpaid work requirement.
- (3) But the court may not make an enforcement order if it is satisfied that the person had a reasonable excuse for failing to comply with the [^{F118}provision] .
- (4) The burden of proof as to the matter mentioned in subsection (3) lies on the person claiming to have had a reasonable excuse, and the standard of proof is the balance of probabilities.
- (5) The court may make an enforcement order in relation to the [^{F119}child arrangements order] only on the application of—
 - (a) [^{F120}a person] who is, for the purposes of the [^{F119}child arrangements order], the person with whom the child concerned lives or is to live;
 - (b) [^{F121}a person] whose contact with the child concerned is provided for in the [^{F119}child arrangements order];
 - (c) any individual subject to a condition under section 11(7)(b) or [^{F122}an activity] condition imposed by the [^{F119}child arrangements order] ; or
 - (d) the child concerned.
- (6) Where the person proposing to apply for an enforcement order in relation to a [^{F123}child arrangements] order is the child concerned, the child must obtain the leave of the court before making such an application.
- (7) The court may grant leave to the child concerned only if it is satisfied that he has sufficient understanding to make the proposed application.
- (8) Subsection (2) has effect subject to the restrictions in sections 11K and 11L.
- (9) The court may suspend an enforcement order for such period as it thinks fit.
- (10) Nothing in this section prevents a court from making more than one enforcement order in relation to the same person on the same occasion.

[^{F140}11O Compensation for financial loss

- (1) This section applies if a [^{F141}child arrangements] order with respect to a child has been made.
- (2) If the court is satisfied that—
 - (a) an individual has failed to comply with [^{F142}a provision of the child arrangements] order, and
 - (b) a person falling within subsection (6) has suffered financial loss by reason of the breach, it may make an order requiring the individual in breach to pay the person compensation in respect of his financial loss.
- (3) But the court may not make an order under subsection (2) if it is satisfied that the individual in breach had a reasonable excuse for failing to comply with the [^{F143}particular provision of the child arrangements] order.
- (4) The burden of proof as to the matter mentioned in subsection (3) lies on the individual claiming to have had a reasonable excuse.
- (5) An order under subsection (2) may be made only on an application by the person who claims to have suffered financial loss.
- (6) A person falls within this subsection if he is—
 - (a) [^{F144}a person] who is, for the purposes of the [^{F145}child arrangements order], [^{F144}a person] with whom the child concerned lives or is to live;
 - (b) [^{F146}a person] whose contact with the child concerned is provided for in the [^{F145}child arrangements order];

^{F177}14A Special guardianship orders

- (1) A “ special guardianship order ” is an order appointing one or more individuals to be a child’s “ special guardian ” (or special guardians).
- (2) A special guardian—
 - (a) must be aged eighteen or over; and
 - (b) must not be a parent of the child in question,and subsections (3) to (6) are to be read in that light.
- (3) The court may make a special guardianship order with respect to any child on the application of an individual who—
 - (a) is entitled to make such an application with respect to the child; or
 - (b) has obtained the leave of the court to make the application,or on the joint application of more than one such individual.
- (4) Section 9(3) applies in relation to an application for leave to apply for a special guardianship order as it applies in relation to an application for leave to apply for a section 8 order.

- (5) The individuals who are entitled to apply for a special guardianship order with respect to a child are—
- (a) any guardian of the child;
 - (b) any individual [^{F178}who is named in a child arrangements order as a person with whom the child is to live;]
 - (c) any individual listed in subsection (5)(b) or (c) of section 10 (as read with subsection (10) of that section);
 - (d) a local authority foster parent with whom the child has lived for a period of at least one year immediately preceding the application.^{F179};
 - (e) a relative with whom the child has lived for a period of at least one year immediately preceding the application.]
- (6) The court may also make a special guardianship order with respect to a child in any family proceedings in which a question arises with respect to the welfare of the child if—
- (a) an application for the order has been made by an individual who falls within subsection (3)(a) or (b) (or more than one such individual jointly); or
 - (b) the court considers that a special guardianship order should be made even though no such application has been made.
- (7) No individual may make an application under subsection (3) or (6)(a) unless, before the beginning of the period of three months ending with the date of the application, he has given written notice of his intention to make the application—
- (a) if the child in question is being looked after by a local authority, to that local authority, or
 - (b) otherwise, to the local authority in whose area the individual is ordinarily resident.
- (8) On receipt of such a notice, the local authority must investigate the matter and prepare a report for the court dealing with—
- (a) the suitability of the applicant to be a special guardian;
 - (b) such matters (if any) as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State; and
 - (c) any other matter which the local authority consider to be relevant.
- (9) The court may itself ask a local authority to conduct such an investigation and prepare such a report, and the local authority must do so.
- (10) The local authority may make such arrangements as they see fit for any person to act on their behalf in connection with conducting an investigation or preparing a report referred to in subsection (8) or (9).
- (11) The court may not make a special guardianship order unless it has received a report dealing with the matters referred to in subsection (8).
- (12) Subsections (8) and (9) of section 10 apply in relation to special guardianship orders as they apply in relation to section 8 orders.
- (13) This section is subject to section 29(5) and (6) of the Adoption and Children Act 2002.

F188 14C Special guardianship orders: effect

- (1) The effect of a special guardianship order is that while the order remains in force—
- (a) a special guardian appointed by the order has parental responsibility for the child in respect of whom it is made; and
 - (b) subject to any other order in force with respect to the child under this Act, a special guardian is entitled to exercise parental responsibility to the exclusion of any other person with parental responsibility for the child (apart from another special guardian).
- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect—
- (a) the operation of any enactment or rule of law which requires the consent of more than one person with parental responsibility in a matter affecting the child; or
 - (b) any rights which a parent of the child has in relation to the child’s adoption or placement for adoption.
- (3) While a special guardianship order is in force with respect to a child, no person may—
- (a) cause the child to be known by a new surname; or
 - (b) remove him from the United Kingdom,
- without either the written consent of every person who has parental responsibility for the child or the leave of the court.
- (4) Subsection (3)(b) does not prevent the removal of a child, for a period of less than three months, by a special guardian of his.
- (5) If the child with respect to whom a special guardianship order is in force dies, his special guardian must take reasonable steps to give notice of that fact to—
- (a) each parent of the child with parental responsibility; and
 - (b) each guardian of the child,
- but if the child has more than one special guardian, and one of them has taken such steps in relation to a particular parent or guardian, any other special guardian need not do so as respects that parent or guardian.
- (6) This section is subject to section 29(7) of the Adoption and Children Act 2002.

 - (f) a local authority designated in a care order with respect to the child.
- (2) In any family proceedings in which a question arises with respect to the welfare of a child with respect to whom a special guardianship order is in force, the court may also vary or discharge the special guardianship order if it considers that the order should be varied or discharged, even though no application has been made under subsection (1).
- (3) The following must obtain the leave of the court before making an application under subsection (1)—
- (a) the child;
 - (b) any parent or guardian of his;
 - (c) any step-parent of his who has acquired, and has not lost, parental responsibility for him by virtue of section 4A;
 - (d) any individual falling within subsection (1)(d) who immediately before the making of the special guardianship order had, but no longer has, parental responsibility for him.
- (4) Where the person applying for leave to make an application under subsection (1) is the child, the court may only grant leave if it is satisfied that he has sufficient understanding to make the proposed application under subsection (1).
- (5) The court may not grant leave to a person falling within subsection (3)(b)(c) or (d) unless it is satisfied that there has been a significant change in circumstances since the making of the special guardianship order.

- (5) Where, as a result of an assessment, a local authority decide that a person has needs for special guardianship support services, they must then decide whether to provide any such services to that person.
- (6) If—
 - (a) a local authority decide to provide any special guardianship support services to a person, and
 - (b) the circumstances fall within a prescribed description,the local authority must prepare a plan in accordance with which special guardianship support services are to be provided to him, and keep the plan under review.
- (7) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision about assessments, preparing and reviewing plans, the provision of special guardianship support services in accordance with plans and reviewing the provision of special guardianship support services.
- (8) The regulations may in particular make provision—
 - (a) about the type of assessment which is to be carried out, or the way in which an assessment is to be carried out;
 - (b) about the way in which a plan is to be prepared;
 - (c) about the way in which, and the time at which, a plan or the provision of special guardianship support services is to be reviewed;
 - (d) about the considerations to which a local authority are to have regard in carrying out an assessment or review or preparing a plan;
 - (e) as to the circumstances in which a local authority may provide special guardianship support services subject to conditions (including conditions as to payment for the support or the repayment of financial support);
 - (f) as to the consequences of conditions imposed by virtue of paragraph (e) not being met (including the recovery of any financial support provided);
 - (g) as to the circumstances in which this section may apply to a local authority in respect of persons who are outside that local authority's area;
 - (h) as to the circumstances in which a local authority may recover from another local authority the expenses of providing special guardianship support services to any person.
- (9) A local authority may provide special guardianship support services (or any part of them) by securing their provision by—
 - (a) another local authority; or
 - (b) a person within a description prescribed in regulations of persons who may provide special guardianship support services,and may also arrange with any such authority or person for that other authority or that person to carry out the local authority's functions in relation to assessments under this section.
- (10) A local authority may carry out an assessment of the needs of any person for the purposes of this section at the same time as an assessment of his needs is made under any other provision of this Act or under any other enactment.
