- 9 (1) In section 11 of the 1960 Act (procedure in connection with applications and authorisations), for subsections (1) and (2) there shall be substituted the following subsection—

“(1) Before the chief inspector and the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food—

- (a) refuse an application for an authorisation under section six of this Act, or
- (b) attach any limitations or conditions to such an authorisation, or
- (c) vary such an authorisation, otherwise than by revoking a limitation or condition subject to which it has effect, or
- (d) revoke such an authorisation,

the person directly concerned shall, and such local authorities or other persons whom the Secretary of State and the Minister consider appropriate may, be afforded the opportunity of appearing before, and being heard by, a person appointed for the purpose by the Secretary of State and the Minister.”

- (2) In subsection (4) of that section—

- (a) for the words from “a registration” where they first appear to “Act,” in the second place it appears, there shall be substituted the words “an authorisation under section six of this Act,”;
- (b) for the words from “a registration” (in the second place they appear) to the end there shall be substituted the words “such an authorisation is a reference to attaching limitations or conditions thereto either in granting the authorisation or in the exercise of any power to vary it.”

Appeals against certain other decisions of the chief inspector

- 10 After the section 11C of the 1960 Act inserted by section 102 of this Act there shall be inserted the following sections—

“11D Registrations, authorisations and notices: appeals from decisions of chief inspector.

- (1) Where the chief inspector—

- (a) refuses an application for registration under section one or section three of this Act, or refuses an application for an authorisation under section six or section seven of this Act;
- (b) attaches any limitations or conditions to such a registration or to such an authorisation, or
- (c) varies such a registration or such an authorisation, otherwise than by revoking a limitation or condition subject to which it has effect, or
- (d) cancels such a registration or revokes such an authorisation, the person directly concerned may, subject to subsection (3) below, appeal to the Secretary of State.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/11/1991.

Changes to legislation: Environmental Protection Act 1990, SCHEDULE 5 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) A person on whom a notice under section 11B or section 11C of this Act is served may, subject to subsections (3) and (4) below, appeal against the notice to the Secretary of State.
- (3) No appeal shall lie—
 - (a) under subsection (1) above in relation to authorisations which are subject to subsection (1) of section eight of this Act;
 - (b) under subsection (1) or (2) above in respect of any decision taken by the chief inspector in pursuance of a direction of the Secretary of State under section 12A or 12B of this Act.
- (4) No appeal shall lie under subsection (2) above in respect of any notice served in exercise of the power under section 11B or 11C of this Act by the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food.
- (5) The Secretary of State may refer any matter involved in an appeal to a person appointed by him for the purpose.
- (6) An appeal under this section shall, if and to the extent required by regulations under subsection (11) of this section, be advertised in such manner as may be prescribed.
- (7) If either party to the appeal so requests, an appeal shall be in the form of a hearing (which may, if the person hearing the appeal so decides, be held, or held to any extent, in private).
- (8) On determining an appeal from a decision of the chief inspector under subsection (1) of this section the Secretary of State—
 - (a) may affirm the decision, or
 - (b) where that decision was the refusal of an application, may direct the chief inspector to grant the application,
 - (c) where that decision involved limitations or conditions attached to a registration or authorisation, may quash those limitations or conditions wholly or in part,
 - (d) where that decision was a cancellation or revocation of a registration or authorisation, may quash the decision,and where the Secretary of State does any of the things mentioned in paragraph (b), (c) or (d) of this subsection he may give directions to the chief inspector as to the limitations and conditions to be attached to the registration or authorisation in question.
- (9) On the determination of an appeal in respect of a notice under subsection (2) of this section, the Secretary of State may either cancel or affirm the notice and, if he affirms it, may do so either in its original form or with such modifications as he may think fit.
- (10) The bringing of an appeal against a cancellation or revocation of a registration or authorisation shall, unless the Secretary of State otherwise directs, have the effect of suspending the operation of the cancellation or revocation pending the determination of the appeal; but otherwise the bringing of an appeal shall not, unless the Secretary of State so directs, affect the validity of the decision or notice in question during that period.

- (c) all other documents sent by him to any local authority in pursuance of directions of the Secretary of State; and
 - (d) such records of convictions under section thirteen of this Act as may be prescribed in regulations;
- and he shall make copies of those documents available to the public except to the extent that that would involve the disclosure of information relating to any relevant process or trade secret (within the meaning of subsection (3) of section thirteen of this Act) or would involve the disclosure of applications or certificates as respects which the Secretary of State has directed that knowledge should be restricted on grounds of national security.
- (2) Each local authority shall keep and make available to the public copies of all documents sent to the authority under any provision of this Act unless directed by the chief inspector or, as the case may be, the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and the chief inspector, that all or any part of any such document is not to be available for inspection.
 - (3) Directions under the preceding subsection shall only be given for the purpose of preventing disclosure of relevant processes or trade secrets (within the meaning of subsection (3) of section thirteen of this Act) and may be given generally in respect of all, or any description of, documents or in respect of specific documents.
 - (4) The copies of documents required to be made available to the public by this section need not be kept in documentary form.
 - (5) The public shall have the right to inspect the copies of documents required to be made available under this section at all reasonable times and, on payment of a reasonable fee, to be provided with a copy of any such document.”
