

SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 1

Sections 6, 54 and 66.

THE COMMISSION AND THE COUNCILS

Introductory

- 1 (1) The authorities for the purposes of this Schedule are the Commission, the English Council and the Welsh Council.
- (2) In this Schedule, in relation to the Welsh Council—
- (a) references to the Secretary of State or to Parliament are to be read as references to the Assembly;
 - (b) references to the Comptroller and Auditor General are to be read as references to the Auditor General for Wales.

Status

- 2 An authority is not to be regarded as the servant or agent of the Crown or as enjoying any status, immunity or privilege of the Crown; and an authority's property is to not to be regarded as property of, or property held on behalf of, the Crown.

General powers

- 3 (1) Subject to any directions given by the Secretary of State, an authority may do anything which appears to it to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of, or in connection with, the exercise of its functions.
- (2) That includes, in particular—
- (a) co-operating with other public authorities in the United Kingdom;
 - (b) acquiring and disposing of land and other property; and
 - (c) entering into contracts.

General duty

- 4 It is the duty of an authority to carry out its functions effectively, efficiently and economically.

Membership

- 5 Each authority is to consist of a chairman and other members appointed by the Secretary of State.

Appointment, procedure etc.

- 6 The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision as to—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) the appointment of the chairman and other members of an authority (including the number, or limits on the number, of members who may be appointed and any conditions to be fulfilled for appointment);
- (b) the tenure of office of the chairman and other members of an authority (including the circumstances in which they cease to hold office or may be removed or suspended from office);
- (c) the appointment of, constitution of and exercise of functions by committees and sub-committees of an authority (including committees and sub-committees which consist of or include persons who are not members of the authority); and
- (d) the procedure of an authority and any committees or sub-committees of an authority (including the validation of proceedings in the event of vacancies or defects in appointment).

Remuneration and allowances

- 7
- (1) An authority may pay to its chairman, to any other member of the authority and to any member of a committee or sub-committee who is not a member of the authority, such remuneration and allowances as the Secretary of State may determine.
 - (2) If the Secretary of State so determines, an authority must pay or make provision for the payment of such pension, allowance or gratuities as the Secretary of State may determine to or in respect of a person who is or has been the chairman or any other member of an authority.
 - (3) If the Secretary of State determines that there are special circumstances that make it right for a person ceasing to hold office as chairman of an authority to receive compensation, the authority must pay to him or make provision for the payment to him of such compensation as the Secretary of State may determine.

Chief officer

- 8
- (1) There is to be a chief officer of each authority who is to be a member of the staff of the authority and is to be responsible to the authority for the general exercise of its functions.
 - (2) The first chief officer is to be appointed by the Secretary of State on such terms and conditions as the Secretary of State may determine.
 - (3) Any subsequent chief officer is to be appointed by the authority.
 - (4) An appointment under sub-paragraph (3) requires the approval of the Secretary of State.

Regional directors

- 9
- (1) The Secretary of State may direct the Commission to appoint directors for regions specified in the direction.
 - (2) Directors appointed under sub-paragraph (1) shall be members of the staff of the Commission and shall have such functions as may be prescribed.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).
