

Gambling Act 2005

2005 CHAPTER 19

PART 5

OPERATING LICENCES

Introductory

65 Nature of licence

- (1) The Commission may issue operating licences in accordance with the provisions of this Part.
- (2) An operating licence is a licence which states that it authorises the licensee—
 - (a) to operate a casino (a “casino operating licence”),
 - (b) to provide facilities for playing bingo (a “bingo operating licence”),
 - (c) to provide facilities for betting other than pool betting (a “general betting operating licence”),
 - (d) to provide facilities for pool betting (a “pool betting operating licence”),
 - (e) to act as a betting intermediary (a “betting intermediary operating licence”),
 - (f) to make gaming machines available for use in an adult gaming centre (a “gaming machine general operating licence” for an adult gaming centre),
 - (g) to make gaming machines available for use in a family entertainment centre (a “gaming machine general operating licence” for a family entertainment centre),
 - (h) to manufacture, supply, install, adapt, maintain or repair a gaming machine, or a part of a gaming machine (a “gaming machine technical operating licence”),
 - (i) to manufacture, supply, install or adapt gambling software (a “gambling software operating licence”), or
 - (j) to promote a lottery (a “lottery operating licence”).
- (3) The issue of an operating licence does not affect the application of section 37.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by order amend subsection (2) so as to—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) add a kind of operating licence,
 - (b) remove a kind of operating licence, or
 - (c) vary a kind of operating licence.
- (5) An order under subsection (4) may, in particular, make consequential amendment of this Part (or a provision of this Act or another enactment that relates to this Part).

66 Form of licence

- (1) An operating licence must specify—
- (a) the person to whom it is issued,
 - (b) the period during which it is to have effect, and
 - (c) any condition attached by the Commission under section 75 or 77.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations require the Commission to ensure that an operating licence—
- (a) is issued in such form as the regulations may specify, and
 - (b) contains, in addition to the matters specified in subsection (1), such information as the regulations may specify (which may, in particular, include information about conditions attached to the licence by virtue of section 78).

67 Remote gambling

- (1) An operating licence is a “remote operating licence” if it authorises activity to be carried on—
- (a) in respect of remote gambling, or
 - (b) by means of remote communication.
- (2) A remote operating licence may not also authorise activity which is neither—
- (a) in respect of remote gambling, nor
 - (b) carried on by means of remote communication.
- (3) An operating licence must state whether it is a remote operating licence or not.

68 Combined licence

- (1) An operating licence may be a licence of more than one of the kinds described in section 65(2).
- (2) Subsection (1) is subject to the following provisions of this section.
- (3) A casino operating licence authorises the holder, by virtue of this subsection, to provide facilities—
- (a) for betting on the outcome of a virtual game, race, competition or other event or process, subject to any exclusion or restriction provided for by way of condition under section 75 or 77;
 - (b) for any game of chance other than bingo (and this paragraph does not prevent the combination of a casino operating licence and a bingo operating licence in reliance on subsection (1)).
- (4) A general betting operating licence authorises the holder, by virtue of this subsection, to provide facilities for betting on the outcome of a virtual race, competition or other event or process other than a game of chance, subject to any exclusion or restriction provided for by way of condition under section 75 or 77.

- (5) The following kinds of operating licence authorise the holder, by virtue of this subsection, to make one or more gaming machines within Categories A to D available for use (in addition to authorising the activities specified in accordance with section 65(2))—
- (a) a non-remote casino operating licence,
 - (b) a non-remote bingo operating licence,
 - (c) a non-remote general betting operating licence, and
 - (d) a non-remote pool betting operating licence.
- (6) No other kind of operating licence (other than a gaming machine general operating licence) may authorise the holder to make a gaming machine available for use.

- (5) In subsection (2)(g) “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State; and the regulations may, in particular, make different provision for—
- (a) applications for the authorisation of different classes of activity, or
 - (b) different circumstances.

70 Consideration of application: general principles

- (1) In considering an application under section 69 the Commission—
 - (a) shall have regard to the licensing objectives,
 - (b) shall form and have regard to an opinion of the applicant’s suitability to carry on the licensed activities,
 - (c) shall consider the suitability of any gaming machine to be used in connection with the licensed activities, and
 - (d) may consider the suitability of any other equipment to be used in connection with the licensed activities (by reference, in particular, to any relevant provision of standards established under section 89).
- (2) For the purpose of subsection (1)(b) the Commission may, in particular, have regard to—
 - (a) the integrity of the applicant or of a person relevant to the application;
 - (b) the competence of the applicant or of a person relevant to the application to carry on the licensed activities in a manner consistent with pursuit of the licensing objectives;

- (3) In considering an application for a non-remote casino operating licence the Commission shall have regard, in addition to the matters specified in subsection (1), to the applicant’s commitment to—
 - (a) protecting vulnerable persons from being harmed or exploited by gambling, and
 - (b) making assistance available to persons who are or may be affected by problems related to gambling.
- (4) The statement maintained by the Commission under section 23 must specify the principles to be applied by the Commission in considering applications under section 69.

 - (b) subsection (1)(c) and (d) shall not apply to the consideration of an application in so far as it specifies that a gaming machine or other equipment falling within a class specified under this subsection is to be used in connection with the licensed activities.
- (9) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) in relation to an application, a reference to the licensed activities is a reference to the activities which will be the licensed activities if the application is granted, and
 - (b) a person is relevant to an application if, in particular, he is likely to exercise a function in connection with, or to have an interest in, the licensed activities.
- (10) For the purposes of this section “equipment” includes—

- (2) This section does not prejudice the generality of section 70.
- (3) The reference in subsection (1) to a person who is relevant to an application shall be construed in accordance with section 70(9)(b).

72 Consideration of application: demand

In determining whether to grant an operating licence the Commission may not have regard to—

73 Procedure

- (1) For the purpose of considering an application under section 69 the Commission may—

 - (a) the applicant, or
 - (b) a person relevant to the application.
- (4) The statement maintained by the Commission under section 23 must, in particular, specify the Commission’s practice in relation to—

75 General conditions imposed by Commission

- (1) The Commission may specify conditions to be attached to—

 - (b) the circumstances in which the licensed activities are carried on;
 - (c) the nature or circumstances of the licensee or of another person involved or likely to be involved in the conduct of the licensed activities.

76 General conditions: procedure

- (1) The Commission may amend or revoke a condition specified under section 75; and a reference in this section to the specification of a condition includes a reference to the amendment or revocation of a condition.
- (2) Before specifying a condition the Commission shall consult—

 - (b) such of the persons specified in section 23(5) as the Commission thinks appropriate (if any).
- (3) The Commission shall publish any specification as soon as is reasonably practicable.
- (4) Where the Commission proposes to specify a condition—

 - (i) has effect at that time, and
 - (ii) is within a class affected by the specification,
 - (b) if the Commission issues, after that time but before the specification is made, an operating licence of a class affected by the specification, the Commission shall give the licensee notice of the proposed specification, and
 - (c) on the making of the specification an existing licence shall by virtue of this paragraph be subject to the condition specified.
- (5) If the Commission thinks it necessary by reason of urgency to make a specification without giving the notice required by subsection (4)(a)—
- (a) the Commission shall give as much notice as it thinks possible in the circumstances to the persons mentioned in that provision,
 - (b) subsection (4)(b) shall have effect after the time when notice is given under paragraph (a) above, and
 - (c) subsection (4)(c) shall have effect.
- (6) Subsection (4)(c), in its application to the amendment or revocation of a condition (by virtue of subsection (1)), shall be treated as—

77 Individual condition imposed by Commission

Where the Commission issues an operating licence it may attach a condition to the licence.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) Transitional provision of regulations under this section (made by virtue of section 355(1)(c)) may, in particular, apply a condition (with or without modification) to licences issued before the regulations are made (or come into force).

79 Scope of powers to attach conditions

- (1) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by sections 75, 77 and 78, a condition attached under any of those sections may, in particular, do any of the things specified in this section.

- (1) The Commission shall use its powers under sections 75 and 77 to ensure that in respect of each operating licence at least one person—
 - (a) occupies a specified management office in or in respect of the licensee or in connection with the licensed activities, and
 - (b) holds a personal licence authorising the performance of the functions of the office.
- (2) A condition under either of those sections may impose requirements which relate to a management office and are in addition to any required by subsection (1).
- (3) A condition attached to an operating licence by virtue of section 75, 77 or 78 may, in particular, provide that if a specified management office is held in or in respect of the licensee or in connection with a licensed activity (whether or not in pursuance of another condition)—
 - (a) it must be held by an individual who holds a personal licence authorising the performance of the functions of the office, and
 - (b) anything done in the performance of the functions of the office must be done in accordance with the terms and conditions of the personal licence.

 - (b) participate in, arrange, permit or knowingly facilitate the giving of credit in connection with gambling.
- (3) But the condition in subsection (2) shall not prevent the licensee from permitting the installation and use on the premises of a machine enabling cash to be obtained on credit from a person (the “credit provider”) provided that—

 - (b) the licensee neither makes nor receives any payment or reward (whether by way of commission, rent or otherwise) in connection with the machine, and

83 Return of stakes to children

- (1) An operating licence shall by virtue of this section be subject to the condition that if the licensee becomes aware that a child or young person is using or has used facilities for gambling provided in reliance on the licence, the licensee—
