

Corporation Tax Act 2010

2010 CHAPTER 4

PART 11

CHARITABLE COMPANIES ETC

CHAPTER 1

INTRODUCTION

466 Overview of Part

- (1) This Part makes provision about some gifts and payments made to charitable companies, including provision applying the charge to corporation tax on income and conferring exemptions (see sections 471 to 474).
- (2) This Part also provides for some of the income of charitable companies and others to be exempt from corporation tax (see sections 475 to 477 and Chapter 3).
- (3) In the case of a charitable company which has a non-exempt amount for an accounting period (see section 493), the exemptions under this Part are subject to restrictions (see section 492).
- (4) The non-exempt amount for an accounting period depends on the charitable company's attributable income and gains for the period and its non-charitable expenditure for the period (see sections 493 and 496 to 517).
- (5) See also Schedule 19 to FA 2008, which contains provision for transitional payments to charitable companies and certain other bodies in respect of gifts made in the tax years 2008-09 to 2010-11.

^{F1}467 Meaning of “charitable company”

469 Conditions for qualifying as a scientific research association

- (1) For the purposes of this Part a body qualifies as a scientific research association for an accounting period if—
 - (a) it is an association (see subsection (5)(a)), and
 - (b) it meets conditions A and B with respect to the accounting period.
- (2) Condition A is that the body has as its object the undertaking of research and development which may lead to or facilitate an extension of any class or classes of trade.
- (3) Condition B is that the memorandum of association or other similar instrument regulating the body's functions precludes the direct or indirect payment or transfer to any of its members of any of its income or property by way of dividend, gift, division, bonus or otherwise by way of profit.
- (4) For the purposes of compliance with condition B it is not necessary that the memorandum of association or other similar instrument regulating the body's functions should prevent the payment to its members of—
 - (a) reasonable remuneration for goods, labour or power supplied, or for services provided,
 - (b) reasonable interest for money lent, or
 - (c) reasonable rent for premises.
- (5) The Treasury may by regulations—
 - (a) make provision specifying what is to be treated as being, or as not being, an association for the purposes of subsection (1)(a), or
 - (b) prescribe circumstances in which a body is to be treated as not meeting condition A or B with respect to an accounting period.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 11. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) The Treasury may by regulations make provision specifying for the purposes of condition A—
- (a) circumstances in which a body is to be treated as having, or as not having, the undertaking of research and development as its object,
 - (b) circumstances in which the undertaking of research and development is to be treated as being, or as not being, capable of leading to or facilitating an extension of a class of trade, or
 - (c) what is to be treated as being, or as not being, a class of trade.

470 Meaning of “research and development” in section 469

- (1) Section 1138 (meaning of “research and development”) applies for the purposes of section 469(2).
- (2) Regulations under section 1006(3) of ITA 2007 (power to prescribe activities which are, or are not, research and development), as that section applies by virtue of section 1138(3), may make provision for the purposes of section 469(2) which is additional to, or different from, the provision made for other purposes under section 1006(3).

CHAPTER 2

GIFTS AND OTHER PAYMENTS

Gifts and other payments to charitable companies

471 Gifts qualifying for gift aid relief: income tax treated as paid

- (1) This section applies if a gift is made to a charitable company by an individual and the gift is a qualifying donation for the purposes of Chapter 2 of Part 8 of ITA 2007 (gift aid).
- (2) The charitable company is treated as receiving, under deduction of income tax at the basic rate for the tax year in which the gift is made, a gift of an amount equal to the grossed up amount of the gift.
- (3) References in this section to the grossed up amount of the gift are to the amount of the gift grossed up by reference to the basic rate for the tax year in which the gift is made.
- (4) The income tax treated as deducted is treated as income tax paid by the charitable company.

472 Gifts qualifying for gift aid relief: corporation tax liability and exemption

- (1) If a charitable company receives a gift from an individual and the gift is a qualifying donation for the purposes of Chapter 2 of Part 8 of ITA 2007 (gift aid), the grossed up amount of the gift is treated as an amount in respect of which the company is chargeable to corporation tax, under the charge to corporation tax on income.
- (2) But the grossed up amount of the gift is not taken into account in calculating total profits so far as that grossed up amount is applied to charitable purposes only.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 11. (See end of Document for details)

(3) References in this section to the grossed up amount of a gift are to the amount of the gift grossed up by reference to the basic rate for the tax year in which the gift is made.

(4) The exemption under subsection (2) requires a claim.

[^{F5}472A Gifts under payroll deduction schemes: corporation tax liability and exemption

(1) If a charitable company receives a gift from an individual and the gift is a donation for the purposes of Part 12 of ITEPA 2003 (payroll giving), the gift is treated as an amount in respect of which the charitable company is chargeable to corporation tax, under the charge to corporation tax on income.

(2) But the gift is not taken into account in calculating total profits so far as it is applied to charitable purposes only.

(3) The exemption under subsection (2) requires a claim.]

Textual Amendments

F5 S. 472A inserted (with effect in accordance with Sch. 8 para. 8(1)(2) of the amending Act) by Finance Act 2010 \(c. 13\), Sch. 8 para. 1\(2\)

473 Gifts of money from companies: corporation tax liability and exemption

(1) If a charitable company receives a gift of a sum of money from a company which is not a charity, the gift is treated as an amount in respect of which the charitable company is chargeable to corporation tax, under the charge to corporation tax on income.

(2) But the gift is not taken into account in calculating total profits so far as it is applied to charitable purposes only.

(3) The exemption under subsection (2) requires a claim.

474 Payments from other charities: corporation tax liability and exemption

(1) Subsection (2) applies if a charitable company receives from another charity a payment which—

- (a) is not made for full consideration in money or money's worth,
- (b) is not chargeable to corporation tax apart from this section, and
- (c) is not of a description which (on a claim) would be exempt from corporation tax under any of the exemptions conferred by this Part.

(2) The payment is treated as an amount in respect of which the charitable company is chargeable to corporation tax, under the charge to corporation tax on income.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 11. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) But the payment is not taken into account in calculating total profits so far as it is applied to charitable purposes only.
- (4) In the case of a payment to which section 494 of ITA 2007 (discretionary payments by trustees) applies, the references in subsections (2) and (3) to the payment are to be read as references to the grossed up amount of the discretionary payment within the meaning of that section.
- (5) The exemption under subsection (3) requires a claim.

Gifts to eligible bodies

475 Gifts qualifying for gift aid relief: income tax treated as paid and exemption

- (1) This section applies if a gift is made to an eligible body by an individual and the gift is a qualifying donation for the purposes of Chapter 2 of Part 8 of ITA 2007 (gift aid).
- (2) The eligible body is treated as receiving, under deduction of income tax at the basic rate for the tax year in which the gift is made, a gift of an amount equal to the grossed up amount of the gift.
- (3) References in this section to the grossed up amount of the gift are to the amount of the gift grossed up by reference to the basic rate for the tax year in which the gift is made.
- (4) The income tax treated as deducted is treated as income tax paid by the eligible body.
- (5) The grossed up amount of the gift is not taken into account in calculating total profits.
- (6) The exemption under subsection (5) requires a claim.
- ^{F6}(7)
- (8) In the case of an eligible body which is a charitable company, this section applies instead of sections 471 and 472.

Textual Amendments

F6 S. 475(7) omitted (retrospective to 6.4.2012) by virtue of Finance Act 2012 \(c. 14\), s. 50(2)(e)(4)

476 Gifts of money from companies: exemption

- (1) If an eligible body receives a gift of a sum of money from a company, the gift is not taken into account in calculating total profits.
- (2) The exemption under subsection (1) requires a claim.
- (3) In the case of an eligible body which is a charitable company, this section applies instead of section 473.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 11. (See end of Document for details)

Gifts to scientific research associations

477 Gifts of money from companies: exemption

- (1) A gift of a sum of money that a body receives from a company is not taken into account in calculating total profits if the body receiving the gift qualifies as a scientific research association for the relevant accounting period.
- (2) The exemption under subsection (1) requires a claim.
- (3) In subsection (1) “the relevant accounting period” means the accounting period for which the exemption is to be claimed.
- (4) In the case of a body which qualifies as a scientific research association and is also a charitable company, this section applies instead of section 473.

480 Exemption for profits of small-scale trades

- (1) The income mentioned in subsection (2) is not taken into account in calculating total profits if conditions A and B are met.
- (2) The income referred to in subsection (1) is—
 - (a) the profits of a trade carried on by a charitable company, and
 - (b) post-cessation receipts arising from a trade carried on by a charitable company which are received by the company or to which it is entitled.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of—
 - (a) profits of a trade that are, apart from this section, exempt from corporation tax chargeable under Part 3 of CTA 2009, or
 - (b) post-cessation receipts that are, apart from this section, exempt from corporation tax chargeable under Chapter 15 of Part 3 of CTA 2009.
- (4) Condition A is—
 - (a) in the case of the profits of a trade, that the profits are profits of an accounting period in relation to which the condition specified in section 482 (condition as to trading and miscellaneous incoming resources) is met, and
 - (b) in the case of a post-cessation receipt, that it is received in such an accounting period.
- (5) Condition B is that the profits are, or (as the case may be) the receipt is, applied to the purposes of the charitable company only.
- (6) The exemption under subsection (1) requires a claim.
- (7) In this section “post-cessation receipt” means an amount that is a post-cessation receipt for the purposes of Part 3 of CTA 2009 (see sections 190 to 195 of that Act).

481 Exemption from charges under provisions to which section 1173 applies

- (1) Any income or gains of a charitable company that is or are chargeable to corporation tax under or by virtue of any provision to which section 1173 applies is not or are not taken into account in calculating total profits if conditions A and B are met.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of any income or gains that is or are chargeable to corporation tax by virtue of any of—
 - ^{F10}(a)
 - (b) section 1086(2) (chargeable payments connected with exempt distributions), and
 - (c) any other enactment specified in an order made by the Treasury.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of any income that is, or gains that are, apart from this section, exempt from corporation tax chargeable under or by virtue of any provision to which section 1173 applies.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 11. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Condition A is that the income is, or the gains are, for an accounting period in relation to which the condition specified in section 482 (condition as to trading and miscellaneous incoming resources) is met.
- (5) Condition B is that the income is, or the gains are, applied to the purposes of the charitable company only.

482 Condition as to trading and miscellaneous incoming resources

- (1) The condition in this section is met in relation to an accounting period if—
 - (a) the sum of the charitable company's trading incoming resources and miscellaneous incoming resources for the accounting period does not exceed the requisite limit for the period, or
 - (b) the charitable company had, at the beginning of the period, a reasonable expectation that it would not do so.
- (2) The charitable company's “trading incoming resources” for the accounting period are—
 - (a) the incoming resources which are required to be taken into account in calculating the profits of, or losses made in, the period for any non-exempt trade carried on by the company, and
 - (b) the incoming resources which are post-cessation receipts arising from such a trade.“Post-cessation receipt” has the meaning given by section 480(7).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) a trade is a “non-exempt trade” if any profits of the trade would not, apart from section 480, be exempt from corporation tax chargeable under Part 3 of CTA 2009.
- (4) The charitable company's “miscellaneous incoming resources” for the accounting period are the incoming resources which are required to be taken into account in calculating non-exempt miscellaneous income or non-exempt miscellaneous losses for the period.
- (5) In subsection (4)—

“non-exempt miscellaneous income” means income or gains chargeable to corporation tax under or by virtue of any provision to which section 1173 applies that is not, or are not, apart from section 480 or 481, exempt from corporation tax chargeable under or by virtue of that provision, and

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 11. (See end of Document for details)

“non-exempt miscellaneous losses” means losses arising from a transaction which is of such a nature that if income or gains had arisen from it the income would have been non-exempt miscellaneous income.

- (6) The requisite limit—
- (a) is 25% of the charitable company's total incoming resources for the accounting period, but
 - (b) must not be less than [^{F11}£8,000]or more than [^{F12}£80,000.]
- (7) If the accounting period is shorter than 12 months, the amounts of [^{F13}£8,000]and [^{F14}£80,000]mentioned in subsection (6)(b) are proportionately reduced.

- (b) annual payments charged to tax under Chapter 7 of Part 10 of CTA 2009, and
 - (c) qualifying income from intangible fixed assets.
- (4) The exemption under subsection (1) requires a claim.
- (5) In this section—
- “intangible fixed asset” has the same meaning as in Part 8 of CTA 2009 (see section 713 of that Act),
 - “non-trading credit” has the meaning given by section 301 of CTA 2009,
 - “non-trading gain” has the meaning given by section 751 of CTA 2009,
 - “pre-FA 2002 asset” has the meaning given by sections 881 and 892 to 895 of CTA 2009, and
 - “qualifying income from intangible fixed assets” means income which—
 - (a) is in respect of intangible fixed assets which are pre-FA 2002 assets,
 - (b) is of a kind which, if the intangible fixed assets were not pre-FA 2002 assets, would fall to be brought into account under Chapter 6 of Part 8 of CTA 2009 as non-trading credits, and
 - (c) does not fall within subsection (3)(a) or (b).

489 Exemption for income from estates in administration

- (1) If a charitable company is liable for any corporation tax charged under section 934 of CTA 2009 (charge to tax on estate income), the estate income is not taken into account in calculating total profits.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies so far as the estate income is applied to the purposes of the charitable company only.
- (3) The exemption under subsection (1) requires a claim.
- (4) In this section “estate income” has the same meaning as in Chapter 3 of Part 10 of CTA 2009 (see section 934 of that Act).

Application of exemptions to certain bodies

490 Eligible bodies

- (1) The provisions mentioned in subsection (3) apply in relation to an eligible body as they apply in relation to a charitable company.
- (2) But in relation to an eligible body those provisions have effect as if the whole income of the body were applied to charitable purposes.
- (3) The provisions referred to in subsection (1) are—
 - (a) sections 478 and 479 (profits of charitable trades),
 - (b) section 483 (profits from fund-raising events),
 - (c) section 484 (profits from lotteries),
 - (d) section 485 (property income etc),
 - (e) section 486 (investment income etc),
 - (f) section 488 (certain miscellaneous income), and
 - (g) section 489 (income from estates in administration).

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 11. (See end of Document for details)

491 Scientific research associations

- (1) The provisions mentioned in subsection (3) (which confer exemptions) apply in relation to a body which qualifies as a scientific research association for the relevant accounting period as they apply in relation to a charitable company.
- (2) But in relation to such a body those provisions have effect as if the whole income of the body were applied to charitable purposes.
- (3) The provisions referred to in subsection (1) are—
 - (a) sections 478 and 479 (profits of charitable trades),
 - (b) section 483 (profits from fund-raising events),
 - (c) section 484 (profits from lotteries),
 - (d) section 485 (property income etc),
 - (e) section 486 (investment income etc),
 - (f) section 488 (certain miscellaneous income), and
 - (g) section 489 (income from estates in administration).
- (4) In subsection (1) “the relevant accounting period” means the accounting period for which the exemption in question is to be claimed.

491A Claims in relation to certain reliefs

- (1) Subsections (2) to (5) of section 477A (claims in relation to gift aid relief) apply to—
 - (a) claims for amounts to be exempt from tax by virtue of a provision listed in subsection (2), and
 - (b) claims for repayment of income tax deducted at source from income which is exempt from tax by virtue of such a provision, as they apply to claims to which that section applies.
- (2) The provisions are—
 - (a) section 486 (investment income and non-trading profits from loan relationships),
 - (b) section 487 (public revenue dividends),
 - (c) section 488 (certain miscellaneous income), and

RESTRICTIONS ON EXEMPTIONS

Restrictions on exemptions

492 Restrictions on exemptions

- (1) This section applies if a charitable company has a non-exempt amount for an accounting period (see section 493).
- (2) The exemptions mentioned in subsection (3) do not apply, and are treated as never having applied, to so much of any income of the charitable company for the accounting period as is attributed under section 494 to the non-exempt amount.
- (3) Those exemptions are—
 - (a) the exemptions under this Part, and
 - (b) the exemption under regulation 31(1) of the Offshore Funds (Tax) Regulations 2009 (S.I. 2009/3001) (exemption from corporation tax in respect of certain offshore income gains).
- (4) Section 256(4) of TCGA 1992 contains corresponding restrictions which apply in relation to section 256(1) of that Act (gains accruing to charities not to be chargeable gains).

493 The non-exempt amount

- (1) A charitable company has a non-exempt amount for an accounting period if it has—
 - (a) non-charitable expenditure for the period (amount A), and
 - (b) attributable income and gains for the period (amount B).
- (2) The non-exempt amount for the accounting period is—
 - (a) amount A, or
 - (b) if less, amount B.
- (3) For the purposes of this Part—
 - (a) a charitable company's "attributable income" for an accounting period is the charitable company's income for the period that is exempt from corporation tax as a result of any of the exemptions mentioned in section 492(3),
 - (b) a charitable company's "attributable gains" for an accounting period are any gains accruing to the charitable company in the period that as a result of section 256(1) of TCGA 1992 are not chargeable gains, and
 - (c) a charitable company's "attributable income and gains" for an accounting period is the sum of its attributable income for the period and its attributable gains for the period.
- (4) In applying subsection (3)(a) ignore any restrictions on the exemptions under this Part which result from section 492(2).
- (5) In applying subsection (3)(b) ignore any restriction on the exemption under section 256(1) of TCGA 1992 which results from section 256(4) of that Act.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 11. (See end of Document for details)

494 Attributing income to the non-exempt amount

- (1) This section applies if a charitable company has a non-exempt amount for an accounting period.
- (2) Attributable income of the charitable company for the accounting period may be attributed to the non-exempt amount but only so far as the non-exempt amount has not been used up.
- (3) The non-exempt amount can be used up (in whole or in part) by—
 - (a) attributable income being attributed to it under this section, or
 - (b) attributable gains being attributed to it under section 256C of TCGA 1992.
- (4) The whole of the non-exempt amount must be used up by—
 - (a) attributable income being attributed to the whole of it under this section,
 - (b) attributable gains being attributed to the whole of it under section 256C of TCGA 1992, or
 - (c) a combination of attributable income being attributed to some of it under this section and attributable gains being attributed to the rest of it under section 256C of TCGA 1992.

495 How income is attributed to the non-exempt amount

- (1) This section is about the ways in which attributable income can be attributed to a non-exempt amount under section 494.
- (2) The charitable company may specify the attributable income that is to be attributed to the non-exempt amount.
- (3) A specification under subsection (2) is made by notice to an officer of Revenue and Customs.
- (4) Subsection (6) applies if—
 - (a) an officer of Revenue and Customs requires a charitable company to make a specification under this section, and
 - (b) the charitable company has not given notice under subsection (3) of the specification before the end of the required period.
- (5) The required period is 30 days beginning with the day on which the officer made the requirement.
- (6) An officer of Revenue and Customs may determine the attributable income that is to be attributed to the non-exempt amount.

Non-charitable expenditure

496 Meaning of “non-charitable expenditure”

- (1) For the purposes of this Part a charitable company's non-charitable expenditure for an accounting period is—
 - (a) any loss made in the accounting period in a trade carried on by the charitable company unless—
 - (i) the trade is a charitable trade, or

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 11. (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) the trade is not a charitable trade but profits of the trade arising in the period would be exempt from corporation tax as a result of one of the exemptions in section 480, 483 or 484,
- (b) any loss made in the accounting period in a trade, or in a UK property business or an overseas property business, carried on by the charitable company, if—
 - (i) the loss relates to land, and
 - (ii) profits of the trade, or income of the business, generated from the land in the period would not be exempt from corporation tax as a result of the exemptions in section 485,
- (c) any loss made in the accounting period in a miscellaneous transaction entered into by the charitable company otherwise than in the course of carrying out a charitable purpose,
- (d) any expenditure incurred by the charitable company in the accounting period which is not incurred for charitable purposes only and is not required to be taken into account in calculating—
 - (i) the profits of, or losses made in, any trade, UK property business or overseas property business carried on by the charitable company, or
 - (ii) the profit or loss made in any miscellaneous transaction entered into by the charitable company,
- ^{F18}(e)
- ^{F18}(f)
- (g) the amount of any of the charitable company's funds that is invested in the accounting period in an investment which is not an approved charitable investment (see section 511), and
- (h) any amount lent in the accounting period by the charitable company, if the loan is neither an investment nor an approved charitable loan (see section 514).

But anything which falls within more than one of the above paragraphs counts as non-charitable expenditure only once.

- (2) An amount may also be non-charitable expenditure for an accounting period as a result of section 515 (excess expenditure treated as non-charitable expenditure of earlier periods).
- (3) This section needs to be read with—
 - section 479 (meaning of “charitable trade”),
 - sections 497 to 501 (supplementary provision in relation to this section, in particular in relation to subsection (1)(d), (g) and (h)),
 - sections 502 to 510 (transactions with substantial donors),
 - section 511 (approved charitable investments), and
 - section 514 (approved charitable loans).

Textual Amendments

F18 S. 496(1)(e)(f) omitted (with effect in accordance with Sch. 3 para. 27 of the amending Act) by virtue of Finance Act 2011 (c. 11), Sch. 3 para. 22

497 Section 496: supplementary

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of section 496.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 11. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) A transaction is a miscellaneous transaction if it is of such a nature that, if income or gains had arisen from it (ignoring section 481 (exemption from charges under provisions to which section 1173 applies)), it would have been charged to corporation tax under or by virtue of any provision to which section 1173 applies.
- (3) For rules about the calculation of losses, see—
- (a) section 47 of CTA 2009 (losses of a trade calculated on same basis as profits),
 - (b) section 210 of that Act (which applies section 47 of that Act, so that losses of a UK property business or overseas property business are calculated on the same basis as profits), and
 - (c) section 1306 of that Act (losses from miscellaneous transactions calculated on same basis as miscellaneous income).

498 Section 496(1)(d): meaning of expenditure

- (1) For the purposes of section 496(1)(d) “expenditure” includes expenditure of a capital nature.
- (2) None of the following is “expenditure” for those purposes—
- (a) the investment of any of the charitable company's funds,
 - (b) the making of a loan by the charitable company, or
 - (c) the repayment by the charitable company of the whole or a part of a loan made to it.

499 Section 496(1)(d): accounting period in which certain expenditure treated as incurred

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of section 496(1)(d).
- (2) Subsection (3) applies to expenditure which is referable to commitments (whether or not of a contractual nature) that the charitable company has entered into before or during an accounting period.
- (3) The expenditure is treated as incurred in the accounting period if, had the charitable company been required to draw up accounts that met the requirements mentioned in subsection (4), the expenditure would have been required to be taken into account in preparing those accounts.
- (4) The requirements referred to in subsection (3) are—
- (a) that the accounts are drawn up for the accounting period, and
 - (b) that UK generally accepted accounting practice applies with respect to them.

500 Section 496(1)(d): payment to body outside the UK

A payment made, or to be made, to a body situated outside the United Kingdom is non-charitable expenditure under section 496(1)(d) if—

- (a) it is incurred for charitable purposes only, but
- (b) the charitable company has not taken such steps as [^{F19}the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs consider] are reasonable in the circumstances to ensure that the payment will be applied for charitable purposes.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 11. (See end of Document for details)

501 Section 496(1)(g) and (h): investments and loans

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if in an accounting period a charitable company—
- (a) realises the whole or part of an investment which was made in the period and is not an approved charitable investment (see section 511), or
 - (b) is repaid the whole or part of a loan which was made in the period and is neither an investment nor an approved charitable loan (see section 514).
- (2) Any further investment or lending in the accounting period of the sum realised or repaid, so far as it does not exceed the sum originally invested or lent, is not non-charitable expenditure as a result of section 496(1)(g) or (h).

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 11. (See end of Document for details)

An investment in a fund which—

- (a) is similar to a fund mentioned in relation to Type 2 or 3, and
- (b) is established for the exclusive benefit of charities by or under a provision relating to any particular charities or class of charities contained in an Act (including an Act of the Scottish Parliament).

Type 5

An interest in land, other than an interest held as security for a debt.

Type 6

Any of the following issued by Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom—

- (a) bills,
- (b) Certificates of Tax Deposit,
- (c) Savings Certificates, and
- (d) Tax Reserve Certificates.

Type 7

Northern Ireland Treasury Bills.

Type 8

Units in a unit trust scheme (as defined in section 237(1) of FISMA 2000) or in a recognised scheme (as defined in section 237(3) of FISMA 2000).“Units” is defined in section 237(2) of FISMA 2000.

Type 9

A deposit with a bank (as defined in section 1120)—

- (a) in respect of which interest is payable at a commercial rate, and
- (b) which is not made as part of an arrangement under which a loan is made by the bank to some other person.

Type 10

A deposit with—

- (a) the National Savings Bank,
- (b) a building society, or
- (c) a credit institution which operates on mutual principles and which is authorised by an appropriate governmental body in the territory in which the deposit is taken.

Type 11

Certificates of deposit (including uncertificated eligible debt security units as defined in section 986(3) of ITA 2007).

Type 12

A loan or other investment as to which an officer of Revenue and Customs is satisfied, on a claim, that it is made for the benefit of the charitable company and not for the avoidance of tax (whether by the company or any other person).

513 Conditions to be met for some securities

- (1) Section 512 does not apply to an investment by virtue of subsection (1)(b), (c) or (d) of that section unless—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 11. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) condition A is met in relation to the securities, and
- (b) if the securities are shares or debenture stock, condition B is met in relation to the securities.

But see subsection (3) of this section.

- (2) In the case of an investment in securities issued by a company which is incorporated, section 512 does not apply to the investment by virtue of subsection (1)(i) of that section unless—
- (a) condition A is met in relation to the securities,
 - (b) if the securities are shares or debenture stock, condition B is met in relation to the securities, and
 - (c) condition C is met in relation to the company.

But see subsection (3) of this section.

- (3) Conditions A and B need not be met if the securities are traded or quoted on a money market supervised by the government or a governmental body of any territory or part of a territory.

- (4) Condition A is that the securities are traded or quoted on—
- (a) a recognised investment exchange (as defined in section 285(1) of FISMA 2000), or
 - (b) an investment exchange which constitutes the principal or only market established in a territory on which securities admitted to official listing are dealt in or traded.

- (5) Condition B is that—
- (a) the securities are fully paid up,
 - (b) the terms of the issue of the securities require them to be fully paid up within the period of 9 months beginning with the day after the day on which they are issued, or
 - (c) the securities are shares issued with no nominal value.

- (6) Condition C is that—
- (a) throughout the last business day before the investment day, the company has total issued and paid up share capital of at least £1,000,000 (or the equivalent of £1,000,000 in some other currency), and
 - (b) in each of the 5 years immediately before the calendar year in which the investment day falls, the company paid a dividend on all the shares issued by the company (excluding any shares issued after the dividend was declared and any shares which by their terms of issue did not rank for dividend for that year).

- (7) For the purposes of the words in brackets in subsection (6)(a) use the exchange rate prevailing in the United Kingdom at the close of business on the last business day before the investment day.

- (8) For the purposes of subsection (6)(b) a company formed—
- (a) to take over the business of another company or other companies, or
 - (b) to acquire the securities of, or control of, another company or other companies,
- is treated as having paid a dividend in any year in which a dividend has been paid by the other company or all of the other companies (as the case may be).

- (9) It is irrelevant that the company is formed for other purposes in addition to those mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (8).
- (10) In this section—
- “business day” means, in relation to an investment, a business day in the place where the investment is made, and
 - “the investment day” means, in relation to an investment, the day on which the investment is made.

514 Approved charitable loans

- (1) A loan is an approved charitable loan for the purposes of section 496 (meaning of “non-charitable expenditure”) if it meets conditions A and B.
- (2) Condition A is that the loan is not made by way of investment.
- (3) Condition B is that either—
- (a) the loan is made to another charity for charitable purposes only,
 - (b) it is made to a beneficiary of the charitable company in the course of carrying out the purposes of the charitable company,
 - (c) it consists of money placed on current account with a bank otherwise than as part of an arrangement under which a loan is made by a bank to some other person, or
 - (d) an officer of Revenue and Customs is satisfied, on a claim, that the loan is made for the benefit of the charitable company and not for the avoidance of tax (whether by the charitable company or by some other person).
- (4) In this section “bank” has the meaning given by section 1120.

Carry back of excess non-charitable expenditure

515 Excess expenditure treated as non-charitable expenditure of earlier periods

- (1) This section applies if a charitable company's non-charitable expenditure for an accounting period exceeds its available income and gains for the period.
- (2) The excess is the charitable company's “excess expenditure” for the accounting period.
- (3) The charitable company's excess expenditure for the accounting period is treated for the purposes of this Part as non-charitable expenditure for earlier accounting periods so far as it can be attributed to earlier accounting periods under section 516.
- (4) For the purposes of this Part a charitable company's “available income and gains” for an accounting period is the sum of—
- (a) the amount in respect of which the charitable company is chargeable for the period under the charge to corporation tax on income after giving effect to any exemption under this Part,
 - (b) any chargeable gains accruing to the charitable company in the period,
 - (c) the charitable company's attributable income and gains for the period (see section 493), and
 - (d) any non-taxable sums received by the charitable company in the period.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 11. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) In subsection (4) “non-taxable sums” means donations, legacies and other sums of a similar nature which, ignoring exemptions from corporation tax under this Part and under section 256 of TCGA 1992, are not liable to corporation tax.
- (6) Any restrictions on the exemptions under this Part which result from sections 492(2) and 494 are to be ignored in calculating the amount mentioned in subsection (4)(a).
- (7) Any restriction on the exemption under section 256(1) of TCGA 1992 which results from section 256(4) of that Act is to be ignored in calculating the amount of any chargeable gains to be taken into account in accordance with subsection (4)(b).

516 Rules for attributing excess expenditure to earlier periods

- (1) The rules in this section apply for attributing a charitable company's excess expenditure for an accounting period to earlier accounting periods under section 515.
- (2) The excess expenditure for an accounting period may be attributed to an earlier accounting period if—
 - (a) the earlier period ends not more than 6 years before the end of the period in question, and
 - (b) the charitable company's available income and gains for the earlier period exceed its non-charitable expenditure for the earlier period.
- (3) If the conditions in subsection (2) are met in the case of more than one earlier accounting period, the excess expenditure is to be attributed to a later accounting period in priority to an earlier accounting period.
- (4) The amount of excess expenditure that is to be attributed to an earlier accounting period must not be greater than the amount by which the charitable company's available income and gains for the earlier period exceed its non-charitable expenditure for the earlier period.
- (5) For the purposes of subsections (2)(b) and (4) the charitable company's non-charitable expenditure for the earlier accounting period includes any excess expenditure attributed to the earlier period as a result of a previous operation of this section, but ignores the attribution in question.

517 Adjustments in consequence of section 515

Such adjustments must be made (whether by way of the making of assessments or otherwise) as may be required in consequence of section 515.
