- (a) the proposed name of the CIO—
 - (i) is the same as, or
 - (ii) is in the opinion of the Commission too like,
the name of any other charity (whether registered or not), or
- (b) the Commission is of the opinion referred to in any of paragraphs (b) to (e) of section 42(2) (power to require charity's name to be changed) in relation to the proposed name of the CIO (reading paragraph (b) as referring to the proposed purposes of the CIO and to the activities which it is proposed it should carry on).

209 Registration of CIO

- (1) If the Commission grants an application under section 207 it must register the CIO to which the application relates as a charity in the register of charities.

 - (b) a note saying that it is constituted as a CIO.
- (3) A copy of the entry in the register must be sent to the charity at the principal office of the CIO.

210 Effect of registration of CIO

- (1) Upon the registration of the CIO in the register of charities, it becomes by virtue of the registration a body corporate—
 - (a) whose constitution is that proposed in the application,
 - (b) whose name is that specified in the constitution, and
 - (c) whose first member is, or first members are, the applicants referred to in section 207.
- (2) All property for the time being vested in the applicants (or, if more than one, any of them) on trust for the charitable purposes of the CIO (when incorporated) by virtue of this subsection becomes vested in the CIO upon its registration.

Name and status

211 Name

- (1) The name of a CIO must appear in legible characters—
 - (a) in every location, and in every description of document or communication, in which a charitable company would be required by regulations under section 82 of the Companies Act 2006 to state its registered name, and
 - (b) in all conveyances purporting to be executed by the CIO.
- (2) In subsection (1)(b), “conveyance” means any instrument creating, transferring, varying or extinguishing an interest in land.

212 Status

- (1) Subsection (3) applies if the name of a CIO does not include—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) “charitable incorporated organisation”,
 - (b) “CIO”, with or without full stops after each letter, or
 - (c) a Welsh equivalent mentioned in subsection (2) (but this option applies only if the CIO’s constitution is in Welsh),
- and it is irrelevant, in any such case, whether or not capital letters are used.
- (2) The Welsh equivalents referred to in subsection (1)(c) are—
 - (a) “sefydliad elusennol corfforedig”, or
 - (b) “SEC”, with or without full stops after each letter.
 - (3) If this subsection applies, the fact that a CIO is a CIO must be stated in legible characters in all the locations, documents, communications and conveyances mentioned in section 211(1).
 - (4) The statement required by subsection (3) must be in English, except that in the case of a document which is otherwise wholly in Welsh, the statement may be in Welsh.

213 Civil consequences of failure to disclose name or status

- (1) This section applies to any legal proceedings brought by a CIO to enforce a right arising out of a contract or conveyance in connection with which there was a failure to comply with section 211 or 212.
- (2) The proceedings must be dismissed if it is shown that the defendant to the proceedings—
 - (a) has a claim against the CIO arising out of the contract or conveyance that the defendant has been unable to pursue because of the failure to comply with section 211 or 212, or
 - (b) has suffered some financial loss in connection with the contract or conveyance because of the failure to comply with section 211 or 212, unless the court before which the proceedings are brought is satisfied that it is just and equitable to permit the proceedings to continue.
- (3) This section does not affect the right of any person to enforce such rights as that person may have against another in any proceedings brought by the other.

214 Offence of failing to disclose name or status

- (1) In the case of failure, without reasonable excuse, to comply with section 211 or 212 an offence is committed by—
 - (a) every charity trustee of the CIO who is in default, and
 - (b) any other person who on the CIO’s behalf—
 - (i) signs or authorises the signing of the offending document, communication or conveyance, or
 - (ii) otherwise commits or authorises the offending act or omission.
- (2) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding 10% of level 3 on the standard scale.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (3) The reference in subsection (1) to a charity trustee being in default, and the reference in subsection (2) to a daily default fine, have the same meaning as in the Companies Acts (see sections 1121 to 1123 and 1125 of the Companies Act 2006).

215 Offence of holding out that a body is a CIO

- (1) It is an offence for a person (in whatever way) to hold any body out as being a CIO when it is not.
- (2) It is a defence where a person is charged with an offence under subsection (1) to prove that the person believed on reasonable grounds that the body was a CIO.
- (3) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

CHAPTER 2

POWERS, CAPACITY AND PROCEDURE ETC.

216 Powers of CIO

- (1) Subject to anything in its constitution, a CIO may do anything which is calculated to further its purposes or is conducive or incidental to doing so.
- (2) The CIO's charity trustees are to manage the affairs of the CIO and may for that purpose exercise all the powers of the CIO.

217 Constitutional requirements

- (1) A CIO must use and apply its property in furtherance of its purposes and in accordance with its constitution.
- (2) If the CIO is one whose members are liable to contribute to its assets if it is wound up, its constitution binds the CIO and its members for the time being to the same extent as if its provisions were contained in a contract—
- (a) to which the CIO and each of its members was a party, and
 - (b) which contained obligations on the part of the CIO and each member to observe all the provisions of the constitution.
- (3) Money payable by a member to the CIO under the constitution is a debt due from that member to the CIO, and is of the nature of an ordinary contract debt.

218 Third parties

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), the validity of an act done (or purportedly done) by a CIO is not to be called into question on the ground that the CIO lacked constitutional capacity.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the power of the charity trustees of a CIO to act so as to bind the CIO (or authorise others to do so) is not to be called into question on the ground of any constitutional limitations on their powers.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) apply only in favour of a person who gives full consideration in money or money's worth in relation to the act in question, and does not know—
- (a) in a subsection (1) case, that the act is beyond the CIO's constitutional capacity, or
 - (b) in a subsection (2) case, that the act is beyond the constitutional powers of its charity trustees,
- and (in addition) subsection (2) applies only if the person dealt with the CIO in good faith (which the person is presumed to have done unless the contrary is proved).
- (4) A party to an arrangement or transaction with a CIO is not bound to inquire—
- (a) whether it is within the CIO's constitutional capacity, or
 - (b) as to any constitutional limitations on the powers of its charity trustees to bind the CIO or authorise others to do so.
- (5) If a CIO purports to transfer or grant an interest in property, the fact—
- (a) that the act was beyond its constitutional capacity, or
 - (b) that its charity trustees in connection with the act exceeded their constitutional powers,
- does not affect the title of a person who subsequently acquires the property or any interest in it for full consideration without actual notice of any such circumstances affecting the validity of the CIO's act.
- (6) In any proceedings arising out of subsections (1) to (3), the burden of proving that a person knew that an act—
- (a) was beyond the CIO's constitutional capacity, or
 - (b) was beyond the constitutional powers of its charity trustees,
- lies on the person making that allegation.
- (7) In this section and section 219—
- (a) references to a CIO's lack of constitutional capacity are to lack of capacity because of anything in its constitution, and
 - (b) references to constitutional limitations on the powers of a CIO's charity trustees are to limitations on their powers under its constitution, including limitations deriving from a resolution of the CIO in general meeting, or from an agreement between the CIO's members, and the references to constitutional powers are to be read accordingly.

219 Limits to s.218

- (1) Nothing in section 218 prevents a person from bringing proceedings to restrain the doing of an act which would be—
- (a) beyond the CIO's constitutional capacity, or
 - (b) beyond the constitutional powers of the CIO's charity trustees.
- (2) But no such proceedings may be brought in respect of an act to be done in fulfilment of a legal obligation arising from a previous act of the CIO.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not prevent the Commission from exercising any of its powers.
- (4) Nothing in section 218(2) affects any liability incurred by the CIO's charity trustees (or any one of them) for acting beyond their (or that charity trustee's) constitutional powers.

- (5) Nothing in section 218 absolves the CIO's charity trustees from their duty to act within the CIO's constitution and in accordance with any constitutional limitations on their powers.

220 Duty of CIO members

Each member of a CIO must exercise the powers that the member has in that capacity in the way that the member decides, in good faith, would be most likely to further the purposes of the CIO.

221 Duties of charity trustees

- (1) Each charity trustee of a CIO must exercise the powers and perform the functions that the charity trustee has in that capacity in the way that the charity trustee decides, in good faith, would be most likely to further the purposes of the CIO.
- (2) Each charity trustee of a CIO must in the performance of functions in that capacity exercise such care and skill as is reasonable in the circumstances, having regard in particular—
- (a) to any special knowledge or experience that the charity trustee has or purports to have, and
 - (b) if the charity trustee acts as such in the course of a business or profession, to any special knowledge or experience that it is reasonable to expect of a person acting in the course of that kind of business or profession.

But this is subject to any provision of a CIO's constitution permitted by virtue of regulations made under subsection (3).

- (3) CIO regulations may permit a CIO's constitution to provide that the duty in subsection (2)—
- (a) does not apply, or
 - (b) does not apply in so far as is specified in the constitution.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (3) may provide for limits on the extent to which, or the cases in which, a CIO's constitution may disapply the duty in subsection (2).

222 Personal benefit and payments

- (1) A charity trustee of a CIO may not benefit personally from an arrangement or transaction entered into by the CIO if, before the arrangement or transaction was entered into, the charity trustee did not disclose to all the charity trustees of the CIO any material interest (whether direct or indirect) which the charity trustee had in it or in any other person or body party to it.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) confers authority for a charity trustee of a CIO to benefit personally from any arrangement or transaction entered into by the CIO.
- (3) A charity trustee of a CIO—
- (a) is entitled to be reimbursed by the CIO, or
 - (b) may pay out of the CIO's funds,
- expenses properly incurred by the charity trustee in the performance of that charity trustee's functions as such.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

223 Regulations about procedure of CIOs

- (1) CIO regulations may make provision about the procedure of CIOs.
- (2) Subject to—
 - (a) any such regulations,
 - (b) any other requirement imposed by or by virtue of this Act or any other enactment, and
 - (c) anything in the CIO's constitution, a CIO may regulate its own procedure.
- (3) But a CIO's procedure must include provision for the holding of a general meeting of its members, and the regulations referred to in subsection (1) may in particular make provision about such meetings.

CHAPTER 3

AMENDMENT OF CONSTITUTION

224 Amendment of constitution and procedure

- (1) A CIO may by resolution of its members amend its constitution (and a single resolution may provide for more than one amendment).
- (2) Such a resolution must be passed—
 - (a) by a 75% majority of those voting at a general meeting of the CIO (including those voting by proxy or by post, if voting that way is permitted), or
 - (b) unanimously by the CIO's members, otherwise than at a general meeting.
- (3) The date of passing of such a resolution is—
 - (a) the date of the general meeting at which it was passed, or
 - (b) if it was passed otherwise than at a general meeting, the date on which provision in the CIO's constitution or in regulations made under section 223 treats it as having been passed (but that date may not be earlier than that on which the last member agreed to it).

225 Amendment of constitution and charitable status

The power of a CIO to amend its constitution is not exercisable in any way which would result in the CIO's ceasing to be a charity.

226 Amendment of constitution and Commission's consent

- (1) Subject to section 227(5), a resolution containing an amendment which would make any regulated alteration is to that extent ineffective unless the prior written consent of the Commission has been obtained to the making of the amendment.
- (2) The following are regulated alterations—
 - (a) any alteration of the CIO's purposes,
 - (b) any alteration of any provision of the CIO's constitution directing the application of property of the CIO on its dissolution, and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (c) any alteration of any provision of the CIO’s constitution where the alteration would provide authorisation for any benefit to be obtained by charity trustees or members of the CIO or persons connected with them.
- (3) Sections 248 (meaning of “benefit”) and 249 (meaning of “connected person”) apply for the purposes of this section.

227 Registration and coming into effect of amendments

- (1) A CIO must send to the Commission a copy of a resolution containing an amendment to its constitution, together with—
- (a) a copy of the constitution as amended, and
 - (b) such other documents and information as the Commission may require,
- by the end of the period of 15 days beginning with the date of passing of the resolution (see section 224(3)).
- (2) An amendment to a CIO’s constitution does not take effect until it has been registered.
- (3) The Commission must refuse to register an amendment if—
- (a) in the opinion of the Commission the CIO had no power to make it (for example, because the effect of making it would be that the CIO ceased to be a charity, or that the CIO or its constitution did not comply with any requirement imposed by or by virtue of this Act or any other enactment), or
 - (b) the amendment would change the name of the CIO, and the Commission could have refused an application under section 207 for the constitution and registration of a CIO with the name specified in the amendment on a ground set out in section 208(2).
- (4) The Commission may refuse to register an amendment if—
- (a) the amendment would make a regulated alteration, and
 - (b) the consent referred to in section 226(1) had not been obtained.
- (5) But if the Commission does register such an amendment, section 226(1) does not apply.

CONVERSION, AMALGAMATION AND TRANSFER

Conversion of certain bodies to CIO

228 Application for conversion by charitable company

- (1) A charitable company may apply to the Commission to be converted into a CIO, and for the CIO’s registration as a charity, in accordance with this section.
- (2) But such an application may not be made by—

- (5) Chapter 3 of Part 3 of the Companies Act 2006 (resolutions and agreements affecting a company’s constitution) does not apply to such a resolution.
- (6) In the case of a company limited by guarantee which makes an application under this section (whether or not it also has a share capital), the proposed constitution of the CIO must (unless subsection (8) applies) provide—
- (a) for the CIO’s members to be liable to contribute to its assets if it is wound up, and
 - (b) for the amount up to which they are so liable.
- (7) That amount must not be less than the amount up to which they were liable to contribute to the assets of the company if it was wound up.
- (8) If the amount each member of the company is liable to contribute to its assets on its winding up is £10 or less—
- (a) the guarantee is extinguished on the conversion of the company into a CIO, and
 - (b) the requirements of subsections (6) and (7) do not apply.

229 Application for conversion by registered society

- (1) A charity which is a registered society may apply to the Commission to be converted into a CIO, and for the CIO’s registration as a charity, in accordance with this section.
- “Registered society” has the same meaning as in the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies and Credit Unions Act 1965.
- (2) But such an application may not be made by—
- (a) a registered society having a share capital if any of the shares are not fully paid up, or
 - (b) an exempt charity.
- (3) The registered society must supply the Commission with—
- (a) a copy of a resolution of the registered society that it be converted into a CIO,
 - (b) a copy of the proposed constitution of the CIO,

- (4) The resolution referred to in subsection (3)(a) must be—

- (5) In subsection (4), “special resolution” has the meaning given in section 52(3) of the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies and Credit Unions Act 1965.

230 Commission to consult appropriate registrar and others

- (1) The Commission must notify the following of an application for conversion—
- (a) the appropriate registrar, and
 - (b) such other persons (if any) as the Commission thinks appropriate in the particular case,
- and must consult those notified about whether the application should be granted.
- (2) In subsection (1) and sections 231 to 233, “the appropriate registrar” means—
- (a) in the case of an application by a charitable company, the registrar of companies;
 - (b) in the case of an application by a registered society, the Financial Services Authority.
- (3) In this section and sections 231 to 233, “application for conversion” means an application under section 228 or 229.

231 Cases where application must or may be refused

- (1) The Commission must refuse an application for conversion if—
- (a) it is not satisfied that the CIO would be a charity at the time it would be registered,
 - (b) the CIO’s proposed constitution does not comply with one or more of the requirements of section 206 (constitution of CIOs) and any regulations made under that section, or
 - (c) in the case of an application for conversion made by a company limited by guarantee, the CIO’s proposed constitution does not comply with the requirements of section 228(6) and (7).
- (2) The Commission may refuse an application for conversion if—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

purposes of the CIO and to the activities which it is proposed it should carry on), or

- (c) having considered any representations received from those whom it has consulted under section 230(1), the Commission considers (having regard to any regulations made under subsection (3)) that it would not be appropriate to grant the application.
- (3) CIO regulations may make provision about circumstances in which it would not be appropriate to grant an application for conversion.
- (4) If the Commission refuses an application for conversion, it must so notify the appropriate registrar.

232 Provisional and final registration of converting body

- (1) If the Commission grants an application for conversion, it must—
- (a) register the CIO to which the application related in the register of charities, and
 - (b) send to the appropriate registrar a copy of—

- (2) In subsection (1)(b), “the relevant resolutions” means—

 - (b) in the case of a converting society, the resolutions referred to in section 229(3)(a) and (c).
- (3) The registration of the CIO in the register is provisional only until the appropriate registrar cancels the registration of the company or society as required by subsection (4)(b).
- (4) The appropriate registrar must—
- (a) register the documents sent under subsection (1)(b), and
 - (b) cancel the registration of the company in the register of companies, or of the society in the mutual societies register,
- and must notify the Commission that this action has been taken.
- (5) The entry relating to the charity’s registration in the register must include—
- (a) a note that it is constituted as a CIO,
 - (b) the date on which it became so constituted, and
 - (c) a note of the name of the company or society which was converted into the CIO.
- (6) But the matters mentioned in subsections (5)(a) and (b) are to be included only when the appropriate registrar has notified the Commission as required by subsection (4).
- (7) A copy of the entry in the register must be sent to the charity at the principal office of the CIO.

233 Effect of registration becoming final

- (1) Upon the cancellation by the appropriate registrar of the registration of the company or of the registered society, the company or society is converted into a CIO, a body corporate—
 - (a) whose constitution is that proposed in the application for conversion,
 - (b) whose name is that specified in the constitution, and
 - (c) whose first members are the members of the converting company or society immediately before the moment of conversion.
- (2) If the converting company or society had a share capital—
 - (a) upon the conversion of the company or society all the shares are by virtue of this subsection cancelled, and
 - (b) no former holder of any cancelled share has any right in respect of it after its cancellation.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not affect any right which accrued in respect of a share before its cancellation.
- (4) The conversion of a company or society into a CIO does not affect, in particular, any liability to which the company or society was subject by virtue of its being a charitable company or registered society.

234 Conversion of community interest company

- (1) CIO regulations may make provision for—
 - (a) the conversion of a community interest company into a CIO, and
 - (b) the CIO's registration as a charity.
- (2) The regulations may, in particular, apply, or apply with modifications specified in the regulations, or disapply, anything in—
 - (a) sections 53 to 55 of the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004, or
 - (b) sections 228 to 233.

Amalgamation of CIOs

235 Application for amalgamation of CIOs

- (1) Any two or more CIOs (“the old CIOs”) may, in accordance with this section, apply to the Commission to be amalgamated, and for the incorporation and registration as a charity of a new CIO (“the new CIO”) as their successor.
- (2) The old CIOs must supply the Commission with—
 - (a) a copy of the proposed constitution of the new CIO,
 - (b) such other documents or information as may be prescribed by CIO regulations, and
 - (c) such other documents or information as the Commission may require for the purposes of the application.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) a copy of a resolution of each of the old CIOs approving the proposed amalgamation, and
 - (b) a copy of a resolution of each of the old CIOs adopting the proposed constitution of the new CIO.
- (4) The resolutions referred to in subsection (3) must have been passed—
- (a) by a 75% majority of those voting at a general meeting of the CIO (including those voting by proxy or by post, if voting that way is permitted), or
 - (b) unanimously by the CIO’s members, otherwise than at a general meeting.
- (5) The date of passing of such a resolution is—
- (a) the date of the general meeting at which it was passed, or
 - (b) if it was passed otherwise than at a general meeting, the date on which provision in the CIO’s constitution or in regulations made under section 223 treats it as having been passed (but that date may not be earlier than that on which the last member agreed to it).

236 Notice of application for amalgamation

- (1) Each old CIO must—
- (a) give notice of the proposed amalgamation in the way (or ways) that in the opinion of its charity trustees will make it most likely to come to the attention of those who would be affected by the amalgamation, and
 - (b) send a copy of the notice to the Commission.
- (2) The notice must invite any persons who consider that they would be affected by the proposed amalgamation to make written representations to the Commission no later than a date determined by the Commission and specified in the notice.

237 Cases where application must or may be refused

- (1) The Commission must refuse an application for amalgamation if—
- (a) it is not satisfied that the new CIO would be a charity at the time it would be registered, or
 - (b) the new CIO’s proposed constitution does not comply with one or more of the requirements of section 206 and any regulations made under that section.
- (2) In addition to being required to refuse it on one of the grounds mentioned in subsection (1), the Commission must refuse an application for amalgamation if it considers that there is a serious risk that the new CIO would be unable properly to pursue its purposes.
- (3) The Commission may refuse an application for amalgamation if—
- (a) the proposed name of the new CIO—
 - (i) is the same as, or
 - (ii) is in the opinion of the Commission too like,
 the name of any other charity (whether registered or not), or
