And be it further enacted, That when the Regiment shall be disembodied, the Lord Mayor for the Time being, or any Three Magistrates of the said City, shall have Power and Authority to call out the Whole of the Permanent Staff in the Receipt of Daily Pay, or any Part thereof, for the Suppression of Riots, or any other Duty for which their Services may be required, for the better Preservation of the Peace of the said City and during the Time of their being so called out, they shall be entitled to the same Pay and Allowances as when embodied, and shall also be subject to the Mutiny Act; and the Lord Mayor, or other Magistrates so calling out the said Permanent Staff, or any Part thereof, shall make a Report of his or their having so called out the same, and of his, or their Reasons for so doing, to the next Court of Lieutenancy to be held after such calling out.

XXXI Permanent Staff to continue for One Month after passing this Act; and Non-commissioned Officers, &c. desirous of serving in the Regiment to be raised by this Act, at Liberty to do so, with Consent of the Commanding Officer.

Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Permanent Staff of the said Two Regiments of London Militia, now receiving Pay, shall continue to receive such Pay, and to be subject to the Provisions of the said Two Acts of the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-ninth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty, for One Calendar Month after the passing of this Act; and that" from and after the Expiration of the said Month this Act shall commence and take Effect, with regard to the Permanent Staff of the said Regiment to be raised by virtue of this Act, and the Pay to be received by such Staff: Provided always, that the Serjeant Majors, Serjeants, Corporals, Drum Majors and Drummers, now on Permanent Pay, in the said Two Regiments, and who may be desirous to serve in the said Regiment to be raised by virtue of this Act, and who shall take the Oath hereby required to be taken by Serjeants, Corporals, and Drummers, shall with the Approbation of the Commanding Officer of the said Regiment, but not otherwise, be at Liberty so to do; but no Vacancy occasioned by the Death, Discharge, or Removal of any such Serjeant, Corporal, or Drummer shall be filled up, until the Number of such Serjeants, Corporals, and Drummers shall be reduced below the Number of Serjeants, Corporals, and Drummers which the said Regiment is allowed by virtue of this Act.

XXXII Pay received by Adjutants, Surgeons, Paymasters and Quartermasters, as Staff Officers in the present Militia, and also Allowances received by lieutenants, Ensigns, and Surgeons Mates, to be continued under the like Regulations as they now receive the same.

And whereas in consequence of the Repeal by this Act of the said Two Acts passed in the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-ninth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, the Adjutants, Surgeons, Paymasters, and Quartermasters of the said Two Regiments of London Militia, who are now receiving Pay as Staff Officers of the said Regiments, and the Lieutenants, Ensigns, and Surgeons Mates of the said Two Regiments, who are now entitled to an Allowance, as having been actually serving in the said Militia at the Time of its being disembodied, under and by virtue of the annual Act passed to defray the Charge of the Pay, Clothing-and contingent Expences of the disembodied Militia of Great Britain, will cease to be entitled to such Pay and Allowances, unless Provision is made to the contrary by this Act; and it is just that such Persons should continue to receive the same Pay and Allowances, under the like Regulations and Restrictions as they now receive the same ; be it therefore further enacted, That every Adjutant, Surgeon; Paymaster, and Quartermaster, now serving in the said Two Regiments of London Militia, and receiving Pay, and who shall not be elected or appointed to any Commission or Office in the Regiment to be raised under and by virtue of this Act, and every Lieutenant, Ensign, and Surgeon's Mate now serving in the said Regiments, and receiving any Allowance by virtue of any Act now in force for defraying the Charge of the Pay, Clothing, and contingent Expences of the disembodied Militia of Great Britain, shall continue to be entitled to receive the same Pay or Allowance as he now receives, subject to such Regulations and Restrictions as now or hereafter shall be in force in relation thereto, by any Act or Acts for defraying of the Charge of the Pay, Clothing, and contingent Expences of the disembodied Militia of Great Britain; and such Pay and Allowances shall be issued to the Paymaster of the Regiment to be raised by virtue of this Act, and shall be by him paid to the several Persons who shall be entitled to receive the same, in the like Manner as the present Pay and Allowances are issued to the respective Paymasters of the said Two Regiments, and under the like Regulations, or such other Regulations as may be directed by any future Act or Acts, having relation to the disembodied Militia of Great Britain: Provided nevertheless, that nothing contained in this Act shall be deemed to disqualify the Adjutants, Surgeons, Paymasters, or Quartermasters now serving and entitled to receive disembodied Pay, from being re-appointed to the same Rank which they now hold, and from executing the Duties thereof; any thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIII Officers now holding Commissions to retain the same Rank in the Army, if appointed to Commissions in the Militia.

And be it further enacted, That all Officers who now hold any Commission in either of the Two Regiments of London Militia raised by virtue of the said Two Acts passed in the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-ninth Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty, and who shall be appointed to any Commission in the Militia to be raised by virtue of this Act, shall, during the Time they shall respectively hold such Commission, retain the same Rank in the Army as they now hold.

XXXIV Militia to enjoy the same Rights to the Artillery Ground as the former Militia.

And be it further enacted, That the Militia to be raised by virtue of this Act shall possess and enjoy the same Rights and Privileges as are reserved or granted to the Militia raised by virtue of the said Two Acts passed in the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-ninth Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty, by any Lease or Leases, granted by the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of London, under which the Honourable the Artillery Company now possess and enjoy the Artillery Ground, situate in the Parish of Saint Luke in the County of Middlesex.

XXXV How the Charges of the Militia are to be defrayed.

And be it further enacted, That for defraying the necessary Charges and incidental Expences of the said Militia, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to continue to raise and levy as heretofore, in every Year, the Proportion of One Month's Tax, amounting to Four thousand six hundred and sixty-six Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Four-pence, which the said City hath been used to pay by virtue of an Act of Parliament passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for ordering the Forces in the several Counties of this Kingdom; and no Warrant shall be issued for the raising of any Trophy Money, till the Justices of the Peace, or the major Part of such Justices, at some General or Quarter Sessions for the said City, shall have examined and allowed the Accounts of the Trophy Money last raised, levied, and collected, and certified such Examination of the said Accounts, under the Hands and Seals of Three or more of such Justices, to the said Commissioners; and the said Justices are hereby required forthwith to examine the said Accounts accordingly.

XXXVI Commissioners to appoint a Treasurer and Clerk. Account of Trophy Tax to be delivered to the Corporation before a new Rate is made.

And, for the better and more speedy Execution of the Premises, be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and are hereby required to appoint One or more Treasurer Or Treasurers, Clerk or Clerks, for receiving and paying such Monies as shall be received or levied by virtue of this Act, and of all which Receipts and Disbursements the said Treasurer or Treasurers, Clerk or Clerks, are, before any new Trophy Tax is raised, to give their Accounts in Writing and upon Oath to the said Commissioners, which Oath the said Commissioners are hereby empowered and required to administer; and that a Duplicate of the said Accounts, so far as the same relates to the Receipts and Disbursements of the Trophy Tax by the said Commissioners, shall be certified on Oath, and delivered by the said Clerk or Treasurer to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, previous to the making of any new Rate or Assessment of the Trophy Tax.

XXXVII Security to be taken from Treasurer and Clerk.

Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required to take such Security from the Treasurer or Treasurers, Clerk or Clerks, to be appointed by virtue of this Act, for the due Execution of their respective Offices, as shall be satisfactory to the said Commissioners; and the said Commissioners may make such other Civil Appointments as they may see necessary for carrying the Purposes of this Act into Execution.

XXXVIII Collectors of the Month's Tax neglecting their Duty to be fined.

And be it further enacted, That if any of the Collectors duly appointed for the Collection of the said Proportion of One Month's Tax as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to perform his Duty in the Collection thereof, or having collected the same, shall neglect or refuse to pay the same to the Treasurer appointed by the said Commissioners, it shall be lawful for any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said City, to summon the Party before him or them, and to fine him for such Neglect or Refusal any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Twenty Pounds, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offenders Goods and Chattels (in case such Fine shall not be forthwith paid), by Warrant under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals of any One or more of the said Justices, causing the Overplus, if any, after deducting the Charges of such Distress and Sale, to be rendered to the Party, and the Penalty so adjudged shall be paid to the said Treasurer to the said Commissioners, to be applied by him as they shall direct.

XXXIX Commissioners may build an Head Quarters, and defray the Expences out of the Trophy Tax.

And whereas it is necessary that the said Militia should be provided with an Head Quarters and other proper Accommodations and Conveniences for their assembling and mounting Guard when embodied, and for the depositing and safe Custody of the Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, and Stores of the said Militia when disembodied, and for their assembling for their annual Exercise and for other Military Purposes be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty's said Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to pay, expend, and apply so much of the Trophy Tax to be hereafter raised in and for the City of London, under and by virtue of the said Acts passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, and of this Act, as may be necessary and expedient in, for, and towards the providing and building of an Head Quarters and other necessary Accommodations and Conveniences for the several Purposes aforesaid, and in the necessary Expences attendant thereon, and in keeping the same in Repair ; and all Payments to be made by the said Commissioners for the several Purposes aforesaid by virtue of this Act, shall from Time to Time be allowed in their Accounts of the Expenditure of the Trophy Money raised in the said City ; and the Justices of the Peace acting for the said City, in examining and allowing the said Accounts, pursuant to the Directions contained in this Act, are hereby directed and required to allow the same accordingly.

XL And may accept Leases, &c. in the Name of their Treasurer.

And be it further enacted, That for the several Purposes aforesaid, His Majesty's said Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the said City are hereby authorized and empowered from Time to Time to accept and take in the Name of their Treasurer for the Time being, and his Successors, any Grant, Demise, Lease or Agreement of Ground and Premises whereon to erect and build such Head Quarters as aforesaid, and to charge and make liable the said Trophy Tax, with the Payment of such Rent, Fine, or Acknowledgment as may be by them deemed a proper Rent or Compensation for such Land and Premises, and to authorize and empower such Treasurer, on their Behalf, to enter into proper Covenants and Agreements for the Purposes aforesaid, and to execute a Counterpart or Counterparts of any such Grant, Demise, Lease, or Agreement, and such Treasurer shall be indemnified and saved harmless by the said Commissioners by virtue of this Act.

XLI Stock and Money in the Hands of the Executors of Edward Wigan, &c. may be applied towards building an Head Quarters.

And whereas there is now standing in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, a Sum of Three Pounds per Cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities, in the Names of Nathaniel Newnham, Edward Wigan, and Christopher Porter, Esquires, who are all now dead ; and the said Edward Wigan was the Survivor ; and Jane Wigan, Widow, Edward Wigan, Esquire, and John Alfred Wigan, Esquire, are the Executors of the said Edward Wigan ; and there is also a Sum of Money accrued, due for Dividends on the said Sum of Three Pounds per Cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities; and there is a further Sum invested in Exchequer Bills, which are in the Possession or Power of the said Jane Wigan, Edward Wigan, and John Alfred Wigan, and there is likewise a Sum of Money in the Hands of Messrs. Everett, Walker, Maltby, Ellis, and Company, Bankers, standing in the Names of the said Nathaniel Newnham, Edward Wigan, and Christopher Porter: And whereas the said several Sums of Money have arisen from Savings made in the West Regiment of London Militia in recruiting Men to serve in the said Regiment, and from Dividends and Interest thereon, and it is doubtful whether any Person has now any legal Claim to the said several Sums : And whereas it is considered, that if the said several Sums of Money and Securities were to be paid and transferred to the said Commissioners to be by them applied in aid of the Expence of building an Head Quarters for the London Militia, subject nevertheless to such Claims (if any) as any Person or Persons may have on the same, it would be a fit and proper Appropriation of the same ; and the said Jane Wigan, Edward Wigan, and John Alfred Wigan, the Executors of the said Edward Wigan, maybe willing and desirous so to apply the same, or some Part thereof, on their being tully indemnified and discharged from all Claims and Demands in respect thereof, or of so much thereof as they may think fit so to apply; be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Jane Wigan, Edward Wigan, and John Alfred Wigan, and the Survivors or Survivor of them, if they shall so think fit, at any Time after the passing of this Act to pay and transfer to the Treasurer of the said Commissioners for the Time being, the said several Sums of Money and Securities, or any Part thereof, and any further Sums that may become due for Dividends or Interest on the said Stock the Securities, or any Part thereof, before they shall so transfer or pay the same ; and every such Transfer and Payment shall be a full Discharge and Indemnity to the said Jane Wigan, Edward Wigan, and John Alfred Wigan, and the Survivors and Survivor of them, for having made the same ; and every such Transfer and Payment may be pleaded in Bar to any Action or Suit that may be commenced or prosecuted against them, their Executors or Administrators, in respect of the said several Sums of Money, Securities, Dividends, and Interests, and of their having so transferred and paid the same ; but in case it shall appear to the said Commissioners, that any Person or Persons hath or have any Claims or Demands upon or in respect of the said several Sums of Money and Securities, or such Part thereof as may be paid or transferred to their said Treasurer, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to allow, satisfy, and discharge any such Claims or Demands, or to compound the same ; and any Person or Persons having or making any such Claim or Demand shall be at liberty, if he or they shall so think fit, and it shall be necessary, to bring any Action, or file any Bill in Equity against the said Treasurer to the said Commissioners for the Time being, and all other proper and necessary Parties for the Purpose of establishing such Claim or Demand ; and the said Sums of Money and Securities in the Hands of the said Treasurer shall be subject and liable to the Payment of such Claims and Demands, and to all Costs incurred in the substantiating and Recovery of the same, in like Manner as if no such Transfer and Payment of the same had been made by the said Jane Wigan, Edward Wigan, and John Alfred Wigan, or the Survivors or Survivor of them, to the said Treasurer- to the said Commissioners ; and after Satisfaction of all such Claims and Demands, and Payment of all such Costs as aforesaid (if any such shall be made and incurred), then the said Commissioners are hereby required to pay and apply the Residue of the said Sums of Money and Securities ; or in case no such Claims or Demands shall be made or substantiated, then the Whole of the said several Sums of Money and Securities, and all future Dividends and Interest that may arise from the same, in aid of the Expence of building an Head Quarters for the said Militia.

XLII Powers of the General Militia Act to apply to this Act, so far as the same are not altered hereby. The Wives and Families of Non-commissioned Officers, &c. not to have Allowance.

And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, all the Powers and Authorities, Clauses, Provisions, Rules, and Regulations of any Act or Acts of Parliament that now is or are or hereafter shall be in force for regulating the Militia in England, or the Pay of the same, and for the regulating of the Number of Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, and Fifers, to be serving in the said Militia, and in all other Respects whatsoever, so far as the same are not altered or varied by this Act, and can be made applicable thereto, shall extend and be applied and be put in force as to the Militia to be raised by virtue of this Act, and as to the Officers, Serjeants, Corporals, Drummers, and Private Men thereof, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the same were severally and separately re-enacted in and made Part of the Body of this Act; and that from and after the passing of this Act, the several Powers and Authorities given, granted, and contained in the said Act passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, so far as the same are repugnant to this Act, shall no longer be applied or put into Execution with respect to the City of London : Provided always, that nothing in the said Acts contained, or any of them, shall extend or be construed to extend to entitle the Wives and Families of the Serjeants, Corporals, Drummers, Fifers, and Private Men of the said Militia, or any of them, to any Maintenance or Allowance whilst the said Militia shall be embodied, or otherwise be in actual Service, by reason of such Serjeant, Corporal, Drummer, Fifer, or Private Man being serving in the said Militia, XLIII 24 G.2 c.44 to extend to the Mayor and Aldermen, Commissioners, Assessors, and Collectors.

And be it further enacted, That the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for rendering Justices of the Peace more safe in the Execution of their Office, and for indemnifying Constables and others acting in obedience to their Warrants, shall extend to the said Mayor and Aldermen, and also to His Majesty's said Commissioners and the Assessors and Collectors in the Execution of this Act, or any other which relates to the said Militia, in like Manner and as fully and effectually as the same extend to Justices of the Peace acting in the Execution of their Office.

XLIV Act not to prejudice the Rights of the City.

And in order that the Rights and Privileges of the City of London may not be infringed, be it further enacted, That this Act or any thing herein contained shall not diminish or be prejudicial to the Rights, Privileges, Immunities, and Exemptions to which the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or the Freemen, Citizens, and Inhabitants of the said City, or the Suburbs and Liberties of the same, or of all privileged Places within the Limits and Precincts of the same, as well within the Liberties as without, are entitled to enjoy by Prescription, Act of Parliament, Charter, or Usage; but the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens and Inhabitants of the said City, shall and may continue to enjoy all and singular the said Rights, Liberties, Usages, Customs, Privileges, Immunities, and Exemptions, in as full, ample, and beneficial a Manner as if this Act had not been made.

XLV Times of holding Courts of Lieutenancy.

And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and are hereby required and empowered to hold Courts of Lieutenancy for the said City from Time to Time, as often as they shall think expedient, and to issue such Precepts at the said Courts, and to make such Orders as shall be requisite and necessary for the Purpose of carrying this Act into Execution.

XLVI Recovery and Application of Penalties.

And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures by this Act directed, which shall exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, shall be recoverable by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Privilege, Protection, Wager of Law, nor more than One Imparance shall be allowed ; and that all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, which shall not exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, shall, on Proof upon Oath of the Offence before the Mayor, or any other Magistrate of the said City, or any Justice of the Peace for the County, Liberty, or Place where the Offence shall be committed, shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of the said Mayor, Magistrate, or other Officer, rendering the Overplus (if any) on Demand, after deducting the Charges of such Distress and Sale, to the Person whose Goods and Chattels shall have been so distrained and sold; and for Want of sufficient Distress the said Mayor, Magistrate or Justice is hereby required, in all Cases when no particular Time of Commitment is by this Act directed, to commit such Offender to Prison where the Offences shall have been committed, for any Time not exceeding Three Calendar Months; and the Money arising by all such Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, the Application whereof is not otherwise particularly directed by this Act, shall be paid to the Treasurer appointed by the said Commissioners, to be applied for the Purposes of this Act.

XLVII Distress not unlawful for Want of Form.

And be it further enacted, That when any Distress shall be made for any Sum or Sums of Money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the Distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the Party or Parties making the same be deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers, on account of any Defect or Want of Form in any Proceedings relating thereto, nor shall the Party or Parties be deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers ab initio on account of any Irregularity which shall afterwards be done or committed by the Party or Parties distraining, but the Person or Persons aggrieved by such Irregularity may recover full Satisfaction for the special Damage by an Action on the Case.

XLVIII No Rate or Proceedings to be quashed or vacated for Want of Form, or be removable by Certiorari, &c.

Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Rate or Assessment, nor any Order to be made, or Proceedings to be had, or any other Matter or Thing to be done or transacted in or relating to the Execution of this Act, by the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or by His Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the Time being, or the Assessors or Collectors acting under the Authority of this Act, or by the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City, shall be vacated or quashed for Want of Form only, or be removed or removable by Certiorari, or by any other Writ or Process whatsoever, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding : Provided always, that no Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall recover in any Action for such Irregularity, Trespass, or other Proceedings, if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made by or on the Behalf of the Party of Parties who shall have committed or caused to be committed any such Irregularity, Trespass, or wrongful Proceedings, before such Action brought in case no such Tender shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action, by Leave of the Court where my such Action shall depend at any Time before Issue joined, to pay into Court such Sum of Money as he or they shall think fit, whereupon such Proceedings or Order and Judgment shall be had, made, and given in and by such Court, as in other Actions where the Defendant is allowed to pay Money into Court, XLIX Limitations of Actions. General Issue. Treble Costs.

And be it further enacted, That if any Action shall be brought against any Person for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within Six Calendar Months next after the Fact committed and not afterwards, and shall be laid in the County or Place where the Cause of Complaint did arise, and not elsewhere ; and the Defendant or Defendants in every such Action or Suit, may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants in any Action or Suit, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his or their Action or Suit after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if on Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant hath in any other Cases to recover Costs by Law.

And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others, without being specially pleaded.
