11 Annual value for duty purposes where business restricted by war circumstances to part of premises.

Provided that if the carrying on of the business is restricted for part only of the year, the relief to be granted shall be reduced proportionately.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, the annual value of a part of any premises shall be ascertained in like manner as, under subsection (1) of section twelve of the Finance Act, 1924, the annual value of licensed premises is to be ascertained in cases where there is no income tax value applicable.
- (3) Where relief from duty has become due under subsection (1) of this section, and either the restriction comes to an end or the part of the premises in which the business is carried on is extended, that fact shall, within one month, be notified to the Commissioners, and if this subsection is not complied with the licence shall become void.
- (4) Where, by reason of the restriction coming to an end or the part of the premises being extended as aforesaid, the relief granted under subsection (1) of this section proves to have been excessive, the amount of the excess shall be recoverable as a debt due to His Majesty.

12 Reduction of duty for hotels and restaurants applicable notwithstanding effect of war circumstances on receipts.

Where in the case of any such licensed hotel or restaurant premises as are mentioned in section forty-five of the Finance (1909-10) Act, 1910, it is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioners as respects any year that by reason of war circumstances the reduction of duty provided for by the said section forty-five, in cases where in the preceding year the receipts from the sale of intoxicating liquor do not exceed a specified proportion of the total receipts of the business, would apart from this section not be applicable, the Commissioners may, if it appears to them necessary so to do to avoid hardship, direct that, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the said reduction is applicable, the said section forty-five shall have effect as if for references to receipts in the preceding year there were substituted references to receipts in such earlier year as the Commissioners think just; but if as the result of such a direction the reduced duty is payable under subsection (1) of the said section forty-five, the amount thereof shall be calculated by reference to the receipts of the preceding year, and not to those of the said earlier year.

13 Reduction of duty on publicans' licences in respect of diminution in supplies of wines and spirits.

A reduction of five per cent. of the amount which would have been payable apart from this section shall be made (either by repayment or by remission of duty), in respect of the diminution attributable to war circumstances in supplies of wines and spirits, in the licence duty in respect of a publican's licence granted for a year beginning in the year nineteen hundred and forty-two or granted for any later year at the beginning of which the Emergency Powers (Defence) Act, 1939, is still in force :

Provided that this section shall not have effect in relation to a licence granted in respect of any such licensed hotel or restaurant premises as are mentioned in section forty-five of the Finance (1909-10) Act, 1910.

14 Relief from duty where trade diminished by war circumstances.

- (1) If in the case of any premises in respect of which a licence for the sale of beer or wines or spirits is held as a separate licence (whether or not any other such licence is so held in respect of the premises) the Commissioners are satisfied, on a comparison of the trade (by quantities) in that liquor in the premises during such periods as will in their opinion afford a just basis of comparison, that war circumstances have caused a diminution of not less than twenty-five per cent. in that trade, they may reduce the duty in respect of the licence, either by repayment or by remission of duty, by two-thirds of twenty-five per cent. thereof, or, if the diminution represents a percentage higher than twenty-five, by two-thirds of that higher percentage of the duty.
- (2) If in the case of any premises in respect of which a publican's licence is held the Commissioners are satisfied as mentioned in the preceding subsection as regards the trade (by quantities) in beer in the premises, or, in the case of premises in Scotland in the case of which the holder of the licence desires relief under this subsection to be given by reference to spirits, as regards the trade (by quantities) in spirits in the premises, they may make such a reduction as is mentioned in that subsection in the amount of the duty in respect of the licence.
- (3) If the income tax value of any premises in respect of which relief is granted under this section has been reduced since the fourth day of September, nineteen hundred and thirty-nine, the amount of the relief shall be what it would have been if that value had not been so reduced, less the amount by which the duty is diminished in consequence of the reduction of that value.
- (4) This section shall have effect, subject to the next succeeding subsection, in relation to licences granted for a year beginning in the year nineteen hundred and forty-two or granted for any later year at the beginning of which the Emergency Powers (Defence) Act, 1939, is still in force.
- (5) This section shall not have effect in relation to a licence granted in respect of any such licensed hotel or restaurant premises as are mentioned in section forty-five of the Finance (1909-10) Act, 1910, or in relation to a licence granted for any year if section eleven of this Act has effect in relation to the duty on the licence for that year:

Provided that, where under the proviso to subsection (1) of the said section eleven the relief allowable under that section is related to a part only of that year, this section shall have effect but the relief allowable thereunder shall be reduced by an amount bearing to the full relief the same proportion as that part of that year bears to the whole of that year.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

15 Postponement of instalments of monopoly value payments on annual licences where business discontinued owing to war circumstances.

(1) Where—

- (a) a justices' on-licence granted as an annual licence is in force as respects any premises, and a condition attached to the licence requires the making of payments on any specified dates for securing monopoly value ; and
- (b) the business carried on in the premises is temporarily discontinued by reason of war circumstances, the Commissioners may direct that any of the payments shall not be payable until such later date as may be specified in the direction, and where such a direction is given the conditions attached to the licence shall have effect accordingly.

(2) A direction given under this section may specify different dates for different parts of any payment.

16 Repeal of s. 14 of Excise Licences Act, 1825.

It is hereby declared that section fourteen of the Excise Licences Act, 1825 (which provided that no excise on-licence for the sale of spirits or sweets should be granted except to holders of excise on-licences for the sale of beer) does not apply, and never has applied, to any of the licences charged with duty under Part II of the Finance (1909-10) Act, 1910, and the said section fourteen is hereby expressly repealed.

- (4) In considering, in relation to farming, whether any, and if so what, relief may be given to any person for the year 1942-43 or any subsequent year of assessment under section thirty-three of the Finance Act, 1926, or section twenty-nine of the Finance Act, 1927 (which relate to the carrying forward of losses) there may, if that person or a partnership of which he is a member is, by virtue of this section, chargeable under Schedule D for the year 1942-43 in respect of his or their farming, be carried forward to the year 1942-43 and subsequent years of assessment from the years of assessment preceding the year 1942-43 the amount (if any) which would have fallen to be carried forward to those years respectively if that person and every partnership of which he was a member had been charged under Schedule D in respect of his or their farming for all those preceding years and had been given in those preceding years all the relief which he or they could have been given under those sections if he or they had been so charged.
- (5) Where on a claim made for the purposes of this subsection within twelve months from the end of the year 1942-43 it is proved that the profits or gains from farming in that year of any individual or partnership of individuals are less than the amount of the profits or gains by reference to which he or they is or are charged by virtue of this section for that year—

- (a) that individual or partnership of individuals shall be entitled to such relief from income tax, other than surtax, as will reduce the amount of income tax, other than surtax, payable to the amount which would have been payable if he or they had been charged by reference to the actual profits or gains for that year ;
 - (b) the individual, or, in the case of a partnership of individuals, each of the individuals, shall be entitled to such relief from the surtax, if any, payable by him for that year as will reduce the amount of surtax so payable to the amount which would have been payable if the individual or, as the case may be, the partnership had been charged as aforesaid.
- (6) In this section the expression " farming " has the same meaning as in section ten of the Finance Act, 1941.

30 Amendment as to national savings certificates and Ulster savings certificates.

Section twenty-eight of the Finance Act, 1922 (which grants relief from income tax in respect of national savings certificates and Ulster savings certificates) shall have effect and be deemed always to have had effect as if at the end of subsection (1) thereof there were inserted the words " and whether the sum payable on the maturity of the certificate is one pound or any other sum, " and as if at the end of subsection (2) thereof there were inserted the words " and whether the sum payable on maturity is the same as in the case of national savings certificates or not. "

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the accumulated interest payable in respect of such savings certificates as are mentioned in subsection (2) of this section shall be exempt from income tax.
- (2) The said savings certificates are such savings certificates issued by the Government of Northern Ireland or of any colony as are declared by regulations made by the Treasury to be certificates the proceeds of the sale of which have been made available to His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom.
- (3) The exemption from income tax provided for by this section shall not extend to the interest on any certificate unless the person beneficially entitled to that certificate when it was issued was then resident—
 - (a) in the case of a certificate issued by the Government of Northern Ireland, in Northern Ireland ;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (b) in the case of a certificate issued in a colony, in that colony or in such neighbouring territory (if any) as may be prescribed in relation to that colony.
- (4) If, at the date of the encashment of any such certificates, the total savings certificate holding of the person beneficially entitled to the certificates encashed, computed in the prescribed manner, exceeds the prescribed limit, the said exemption—
- (a) shall not extend to the interest on the encashed certificates unless the encashment thereof brings the total savings certificate holding of the said person, computed as aforesaid, below the prescribed limit; and
 - (b) shall then extend only to the interest on so much of the encashed certificates as is equal to the amount by which the said total holding, so computed, is brought by the encashment below the prescribed limit.

In this subsection the expression " the total savings, certificate holding " means, in relation to a person, his total holding of such certificates as are mentioned in subsection (2) of this section and savings certificates issued by the Treasury through the Post Office.

- (5) This section shall apply in relation to any protectorate or protected state or any territory in respect of which a mandate from the League of Nations has been accepted by His Majesty and is being exercised by His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom as it applies in relation to a colony; and in this section the expression " prescribed " means prescribed by regulations made by the Treasury.
- (6) Nothing in this section shall deprive any person of any exemption from income tax under subsection (2) of section twenty-eight of the Finance Act, 1922 (which exempts from income tax interest on Ulster savings certificates held by a person resident and domiciled in Northern Ireland).

32 Alteration of certifying authority for the purposes of s. 18 (1) of Finance Act, 1941.

33 Extension of time for assessments, proceedings, etc., in cases of fraud or wilful default.

- (1) Where any form of fraud or wilful default has been committed by or on behalf of any person in connection with or in relation to income tax for the year 1936-37 or any subsequent year of assessment, assessments, additional assessments and surcharges on that person to income tax for that year may, for the purpose of making good to the Crown any loss of tax attributable to the fraud or wilful default, be amended or made at any time, notwithstanding that, apart from this section, the time limited by the relevant enactments for the amendment or making of the assessment, additional assessment or sur-charge has expired.

- (2) The time limited by the Income Tax Acts for commencing proceedings for the recovery of any fine or penalty from any person in connection with or in relation to any income tax covered by any assessment (being income tax for the year 1936-37 or any subsequent year of assessment) shall, where any form of fraud or wilful default has been committed by him or on his behalf in connection with or in relation to that tax, be extended so as to authorise the commencement of such proceedings at any time within three years from the final determination of the amount of tax covered by the assessment.

For the purposes of this subsection the amount of the tax covered by any assessment shall not be deemed to be finally determined until that assessment can no longer be varied, whether by any Commissioners on appeal or by the order of any court.

- (3) An objection to the amending or making of any assessment, additional assessment or sur-charge to income tax on the ground that the time limited for the amendment or making thereof has expired shall only be made on appeal from the assessment, additional assessment or sur-charge.

34 Provisions as to evidence in cases of fraud or wilful default.

- (1) Statements made or documents produced by or on behalf of a person shall not be inadmissible in evidence against him in any such proceedings as are mentioned in subsection (2) of this section by reason only that it has been, drawn to his attention that—
- (a) in relation to income tax the Commissioners of Inland Revenue may accept pecuniary settlements instead of instituting proceedings ;
 - (b) though no undertaking can be given as to whether or not those Commissioners will accept such a settlement in the case of any particular person, it is the practice of the Commissioners to be influenced by the fact that a person has made "a full confession of any fraud or default to which he has been a party, and has given full facilities for investigation,
- and that he was or may have been induced thereby to make the statements or produce the documents.
- (2) The proceedings mentioned in subsection (1) of this section are—
- (a) any criminal proceedings against the person in question for any form of fraud or wilful default in connection with or in relation to income tax ;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

or where the Commissioners of Inland Revenue are not satisfied with the statement delivered by any such person, the Commissioners of Inland Revenue may serve on that person a notice in writing or notices in writing requiring him to do any of the following things, that is to say—

- (a) to deliver to the surveyor copies of such accounts (including balance sheets) relating to the trade, profession or vocation as may be specified or described in the notice within such period as may be therein specified, including, where the accounts have been audited, a copy of the auditor's certificate ;
- (b) to make available, within such time as may be specified in the notice, for inspection by the surveyor or by any officer authorised by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, all such books, accounts and documents in his possession or power as may be specified or described in the notice, being books, accounts and documents which contain information as to transactions of the trade, profession or vocation, and, if a person on whom any such notice is served fails without reasonable excuse to comply with the requirements of the notice, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds and, after judgment has been given for that penalty, to a further penalty of the like amount for every day during which the failure continues.

Where the person on whom the notice is served is a body corporate, that body corporate shall be liable to a penalty when there is any failure to comply with the notice, as well as the secretary or other officer performing the duties of secretary of the body corporate.

The following subsection shall be substituted for subsection (1) of section twenty-eight of the Finance Act, 1941 :—

“(1) After the termination of hostilities in the present war, there shall be ascertained and recorded, as respects every person who has paid any excess profits tax for any of the periods in respect of which the tax is chargeable at the rate of a hundred per cent. the amount (if any) by which the total sum paid by him by way of excess profits tax and the national defence contribution (less any sum repaid or repayable on account of any deficiency of profits or otherwise) would have been decreased if the rate of excess profits tax had been eighty per cent. in respect of all those periods, and the amount so ascertained and recorded as aforesaid shall, if such conditions as Parliament may hereafter-determine are satisfied (being conditions relating to the distribution, application or capitalisation of profits for the benefit of shareholders, whether by the payment of dividends, by the issue of bonus shares, or debentures, or by any other means whatsoever), be repaid at such date as Parliament may hereafter determine :

Provided that, in ascertaining the said amount, the capital employed in the trade or business shall be computed on the basis that the rate of tax during the said periods was a hundred per cent.”

Neither excess profits tax nor the national defence contribution shall be chargeable in respect of the interest on tax reserve certificates issued by the Treasury.

The right of appeal to the Board of Referees conferred by the proviso to subsection (4) of section thirty-eight of the Finance Act, 1940 (which subsection enables the Commissioners to modify the enactments relating to the computation, for, the purposes of excess profits tax, of profits and capital in certain cases of succession or amalgamation) shall extend to cases where the Commissioners refuse to make any modification requested by the person carrying on the trade or business, and accordingly for the said proviso the following proviso shall be substituted :—

“Provided that if the Commissioners make any such modifications and the person carrying on the trade or business is dissatisfied with the modifications so made, or if the Commissioners refuse to make any modification requested by the person carrying on the trade or business and he is dissatisfied with the refusal, he may appeal to the Board of Referees.”

- (2) Where any person shows to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue that for the year ending on the twenty-fourth day of March, nineteen hundred and forty-one, or for the year ending on the twenty-fourth day of March, nineteen hundred and forty-two, he has borne any sum on account of land tax which was in excess of the sum which he would have borne if the rate of tax for that year had, in the land tax parish in which the land was situate, been fixed for that year at the rate in force therein for the year ending on the twenty-fourth day of March, nineteen hundred and forty, he shall, on making application in that behalf to the said Commissioners at any time before the expiration of twelve months from the commencement of this Act, be entitled to repayment of the excess.

Section 10.

PART I

PROVISIONS AS TO JUSTICES' LICENCES IN SUSPENSE BY REASON OF WAR CIRCUMSTANCES.

Restoration to full force of licences in suspense.

- 1 Subject to the provisions of the next succeeding paragraph as to on-licences in cases in which it is certified that the war circumstances included the destruction of the premises or serious damage thereto, where after the passing of this Act the holder of a licence for the time being in suspense desires to resume the business carried on in the premises in respect of which it was granted, he may give notice in writing to that effect to the clerk of the licensing justices, and from the time of his giving such notice the licence shall be in force for all purposes.
- 2 In such a case as aforesaid, before a notice for the purposes of the preceding paragraph is given as respects an on-licence plans of such works as are reasonably necessary to secure the proper conduct of the business must have been submitted to the licensing justices and approved by them, and the licensing justices must have signified their satisfaction that the works have been executed in accordance with the plans approved.
- 3 Where a licence is deemed to have been in suspense but the business carried on in the premises in respect of which it was granted has been resumed before the passing of this Act, the licence shall be deemed to have been in force for all purposes from the time of the resumption of the business, unless it had previously been forfeited or become void under the Licensing Act.

- 4 Where a removal of a licence for the time being in suspense is or has been authorised, it shall be, and be deemed to have been, in force for all purposes from the time of the authorisation of the removal.
- 5 A licence in force for all purposes after being in suspense shall, unless previously forfeited or becoming void under the Licensing Act, be, and be deemed to have been, in force until the fifth day of April next following the first general annual licensing meeting after the time when it ceased to be in suspense, or, in the case of a licence granted for a term, next following the expiration of a period beginning on the last day of that term equal to the period of its suspension, and no longer.

Extinguishment of licences remaining in suspense when suspension no longer justified.

- 6 Where the licensing justices are satisfied as respects any licence which is for the time being in suspense that there are no longer any war circumstances which justify its continuing to be in suspense, they may by order direct that it shall be extinguished at the expiration of such period as may be specified in the order unless it is again in force for all purposes by virtue of the preceding provisions of this Schedule before the expiration of that period.
- 7 If His Majesty by Order in Council declares that there are in general no longer any war circumstances which justify licences continuing to be in suspense, every licence in suspense at the date of the Order in Council shall be extinguished at the expiration of such period as may be specified therein unless it is again in force for all purposes by virtue of the preceding provisions of this Schedule before the expiration of that period.
- 8 The licensing justices may, if application is made to them in that behalf, extend the period specified in an order made by them under paragraph 6 of this Part of this Schedule, or, in relation to any particular licence, the period specified in an Order in Council made under the last preceding paragraph.

Extinguishment of licences in suspense on grounds of conduct or fitness, or on reference to the compensation authority.

- 9 (1) Objection to the continuance of a licence which is for the time being in suspense may be made at any general annual licensing meeting on grounds relating to the conduct of the holder of the licence or to his fitness to be the holder thereof, and if objection is so made and the licensing justices are satisfied that if the licence had then been in force for all purposes and an application for the renewal thereof had been made at that meeting they would have refused it on those grounds, they may order that the licence shall be extinguished :

Provided that, notwithstanding the making of such an order, a transfer of the licence may be granted on an application made at the meeting at which the order was made or at the first transfer sessions thereafter, and if a transfer thereof is so granted the order shall not have effect.

- (2) In relation to an old off-licence or an old on-licence the reference in this paragraph to grounds relating to conduct or fitness of the holder of the licence shall be construed as a reference only to the grounds specified in the Second Part of the First Schedule to the Licensing Act or in the Second Part of the Second Schedule thereto, as the case may be, with the substitution for references therein to the applicant or proposed holder of the licence of references to the holder thereof and for references to the house or shop in respect of which a licence is sought or the applicant applies of references to the licensed premises:

Provided that, in a case in which it is certified that the war circumstances included the destruction of the premises or serious damage thereto, no regard shall be had for the purposes of this paragraph to the licensed premises' not being duly qualified as by law is required or being structurally deficient or structurally unsuitable.

- 10 (1) Where the licensing justices are of opinion, in the case of any old on-licence which is in suspense at the time of any general annual licensing meeting, that, if the licence had then been in force for all purposes and an application for the renewal thereof had been made at that meeting, the question of the renewal thereof would have required consideration on grounds other than those on which the renewal of an old on-licence can be refused by them, they shall refer to the compensation authority the question of the extinguishment of the licence together with their report thereon.
- (2) The compensation authority shall consider any report so made to them with respect to any licence, and may, if they think it expedient, after giving the persons interested in the licensed premises, and, unless it appears to the compensation authority unnecessary, any other persons appearing to them to be interested (including the licensing justices), an opportunity of being heard, extinguish the licence, subject to payment of the like compensation as would have been payable under the Licensing Act if an application for the renewal of the licence had been made, and refused by the compensation authority.
- (3) Sections twenty, twenty-one and forty-seven of the Licensing Act shall have effect with the requisite modifications in relation to the extinguishment of old on-licences under this paragraph as they have effect in relation to the refusal of renewal of such licences by the compensation authority.
- 11 (1) If a discontinuance of business by virtue of which a licence becomes a licence in suspense occurs, or has occurred, between the date of a general annual licensing meeting and the fifth day of April next following and, in proceedings taken in relation to any objection to the renewal of the licence made at that meeting on such grounds as are mentioned in paragraph 9 of this Part of this Schedule, or in relation to any reference to the compensation authority of the question of the renewal of the licence at that meeting, the renewal of the licence is or has been refused, the refusal shall have effect, or be deemed to have had effect, as if it had been an order made under paragraph 9 or paragraph 10, as the case may be, of this Part of this Schedule for the extinguishment of the licence.
- (2) A licence subsisting by virtue of a provisional renewal pending a reference to the compensation authority and becoming a licence in suspense, shall be, or be deemed to have been, extinguished upon a refusal of the renewal by the compensation authority.

Extension of authority to grant transfers in cases of licences in suspense.

- 12 Notwithstanding anything in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section twenty-three of the Licensing Act, a transfer of a licence to the owner of the licensed premises or a person applying on his behalf may be authorised—
- (a) in the case of wilful omission or neglect of the holder of the licence to take steps requisite for preventing extinguishment thereof under paragraph 6 or 7 of this Part of this Schedule;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (b) in the case of an order being made under paragraph 9 of this Part of this Schedule in relation thereto, or of renewal of the licence being refused in such circumstances as are mentioned in paragraph n thereof on such grounds as are mentioned in the said paragraph 9 ;
- (c) in the case of forfeiture of the licence, or the personal disqualification of the holder thereof, whilst it is in suspense, in circumstances in which a protection order could have been granted under section eighty-seven of the Licensing Act if the business had not been discontinued; or
- (d) in the case of occupation of the premises being given up by the holder of the licence or his representatives whilst the licence is in suspense.

Appeal to Quarter Sessions.

- 13 The provisions of sections twenty-nine to thirty-two of the Licensing Act as to appeal against a refusal of licensing justices to grant a renewal of a licence shall have effect with the requisite modifications in relation to a refusal of licensing justices to approve plans submitted to them for the purposes of paragraph 2 of this Part of this Schedule, or to signify their satisfaction as to works having been executed in accordance with plans approved, in relation to an order under paragraph 6 thereof, in relation to a refusal of licensing justices to grant an application under paragraph 8 thereof, and in relation to an order under paragraph 9 thereof.

General.

- 14 Any power exercisable by licensing justices under paragraph 2, 6 or 8 of this Part of this Schedule may be exercised at a general annual licensing meeting or at any transfer sessions.
- 15 The Secretary of State may make such rules, prescribe such forms and generally do such things as he thinks expedient for regulating the practice under this Schedule (including the service of documents), and, without prejudice to the generality of this paragraph, rules made thereunder may provide for the payment in respect of such matters as may be specified therein of such fees as may be thereby prescribed.
- 16 In this Part of this Schedule the expression " the Licensing Act " means the Licensing (Consolidation) Act, 1910, and expressions in this Part of this Schedule which are used in that Act have the same meaning as in that Act, and the expression " licence " means a justices' licence.

the clerk of the licensing court, and from the time of his giving such notice the certificate shall be in force for all purposes.

- 2 In such a case as aforesaid, before a notice for the purposes of the preceding paragraph is given as respects a certificate for an inn and hotel or a public house, plans of such works as are reasonably necessary to secure the proper conduct of the business must have been submitted to the licensing court and approved by them, and the licensing court must have signified their satisfaction that the works have been executed in accordance with the plans approved.
- 3 Where a certificate is deemed to have been in suspense but the business carried on in the premises in respect of which it was granted has been resumed before the passing of this Act, the certificate shall be deemed to have been in force for all purposes from the time of the resumption of the business unless it had previously been forfeited or become null and void under the Licensing Acts.
- 4 Where a removal of a certificate for the time being in suspense is authorised, it shall be in force for all purposes from the time of the authorisation of the removal, and where the holder of a certificate removal of which has been authorised desires to resume business in the premises specified in the certificate he may give notice in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Part of this Schedule in like manner as if the certificate were still in suspense and the said provisions shall apply accordingly.
- 5 A certificate in force for all purposes after being in suspense shall, unless previously forfeited or becoming null and void under the Licensing Acts, be and be deemed to have been in force until the twenty-eighth day of May next following the first April half yearly meeting of the licensing Court after the time when the certificate ceased to be in suspense.

Extinguishment of certificate remaining in suspense when suspension no longer justified.

- 6 Where the licensing court are satisfied as respects any certificate which is for the time being in suspense that there are no longer any war circumstances which justify its continuing to be in suspense, they may by order direct that it shall be extinguished at the expiration of such period as may be specified in the order unless it is again in force for all purposes by virtue of the preceding provisions of this Part of this Schedule before the expiration of that period.
- 7 If His Majesty by Order in Council declares that there are in general no longer any war circumstances which justify certificates continuing to be in suspense, every certificate in suspense at the date of the Order in Council shall be extinguished at the expiration of such period as may be specified therein unless it is again in force for all purposes by virtue of the preceding provisions of this Part of this Schedule before the expiration of that period.
- 8 The licensing court may, if application is made to them in that behalf, extend the period specified in an order made by them under paragraph 6 of this Part of this Schedule or, in relation to any particular certificate, the period specified in an Order in Council made under the last preceding paragraph.

Renewal of certificates in suspense.

- 9 The provisions of the Licensing Acts with regard to renewal of certificates shall apply with any necessary modifications in relation to certificates which are at any time after the passing of this Act in suspense in like manner as those provisions

Provisions as to removal of certificates.

- 10 (1) Where the premises specified in any certificate which is for the time being in suspense have been destroyed or seriously damaged or have been taken possession of on behalf of His Majesty in the exercise of emergency powers, it shall be lawful for the licensing court to authorise a removal of the certificate from the premises specified therein to other premises within their district (not being premises situated in an area in which a no-licence or a limiting resolution is in force) and where a removal is so authorised the certificate shall have effect as if those premises had been specified in it in lieu of the premises which have been so destroyed or damaged or taken possession of.
- (2) A removal to any premises under this paragraph shall not be authorised unless—
- (i) the licensing court are satisfied that no reconstruction or alteration of the premises is necessary to secure the proper conduct of the business ; or
 - (ii) plans of such works as are reasonably necessary for the said purpose have been submitted to the licensing court and approved by them and the licensing court have signified their satisfaction that the works have been executed in accordance with the plans approved.
- (3) A removal of a certificate authorised in pursuance of this paragraph shall cease to have effect on notice being given in pursuance of paragraph 4 of this Part of this Schedule.
