If no Motion for Revisal is made as above provided, or if such Motion is refused, or after the Lapse of the Period within which the revised Pleadings fall to be lodged where a Revisal has been allowed or ordered, the Pursuer shall cause the Pleadings which are to form- the Record to be printed, and shall within Eight Days from the lodging of the Defences or revised Pleadings, as the Case may be, deliver Two Printer's Proofs thereof to the Agent or to each of the Agents of the other Parties, and also to the Clerk to the Process, who shall transmit the same to the Lord Ordinary, and the Lord Ordinary shall direct the Cause to be put to the Roll for a Day, not less than Pour and not more than Six Days thereafter; and upon such Day the Lord Ordinary shall require the Parties then to adjust their Pleadings, and shall close the Record : Provided that if the Pursuer shall fail to deliver the Printer's Proofs as aforesaid the Defender may enrol the Cause, and move for Decree of Absolvitor by Default, which Decree the Lord Ordinary shall grant unless the Pursuer shall show good Cause to the contrary : Provided also, that it shall not be competent of Consent of Parties to prorogate the Time for complying with any Statutory Enactment or Order of the Court, whether with reference to the making up and closing of the Record or otherwise.

27 Procedure after Record closed, and Adjustment of Issues.

The Lord Ordinary shall at the Time of closing the Record require the Parties then to state whether they are ready to renounce farther Probation; and if they are ready to do so the Counsel for the Parties shall sign a Minute to that Effect on the Interlocutor Sheet; and the Lord Ordinary shall, in the Interlocutor closing the Record, pronounce a Finding that farther Probation has been renounced, and shall appoint the Cause to be debated.

If the Parties shall not agree to renounce farther Probation, the Lord Ordinary shall appoint the Cause to be debated summarily at the End of the Motion Roll on a Day to be then fixed, before which Day the Parties shall respectively lodge the Issue or Issues, if any, which they propose for the Trial of the Cause; and the Lord Ordinary, after hearing Parties, shall, on the said Day, determine whether farther Probation should be allowed; and if he shall consider that it is necessary, he shall determine whether it is to be limited to Proof by Writ or Oath, and if not, whether it is to be taken before a Jury, or in what other Manner of Way:

- (1) If the Lord Ordinary considers that the Cause may be disposed of without farther Probation, he may, without any Adjournment, hear the Parties upon their Pleas, and dispose of them as appears to him just:
- (2) If the Lord Ordinary considers that farther Probation should be allowed, but that it should be limited to Proof by Writ or Oath, he may pronounce an Interlocutor to that Effect, and at the same Time determine how such Proof is to be taken, and make such Order as may be necessary:
- (3) If the Lord Ordinary shall think that farther Probation should be allowed, and that it should be taken before a Jury, he may, without Adjournment, proceed to adjust Issues for the Trial of the Cause, and pronounce an Interlocutor approving of the Issue or Issues which have been so adjusted; provided that if the Parties consent, and the Lord Ordinary approves, it shall be competent to direct the Cause to be tried by Jury without adjusting any such Issues, and such Cause shall be tried as nearly as may be in the same Manner in which Causes are tried in which Issues have been adjusted according to the present Law and Practice:
- (4) If the Lord Ordinary shall think farther Probation should be allowed, but that such Probation should not be taken before a Jury, he may pronounce an Interlocutor dispensing with the adjusting of Issues, and determining the Manner in which Proof is to be taken or Inquiry to be made, and make such Order as may be necessary for giving Effect to such Interlocutor.

28 Review of certain Interlocutors of the Lord Ordinary.

Any Interlocutor pronounced by the Lord Ordinary as provided for in the preceding Section, except under Sub-division (1), shall be final, unless within Six Days from its Date the Parties, or either of them, shall present a Reclaiming Note against it to One of the Divisions of the Court by whom the Cause shall be heard summarily; and when the Reclaiming Note is advised, the Division shall dispose of the Expenses of the Reclaiming Note, and of the Discussion, and shall remit the Cause to the Lord Ordinary to proceed as accords : Provided always, that it shall be lawful to either Party within the said Period, without presenting a Reclaiming Note, to move the said Division to vary the Terms of any Issue that may have been approved of by an Interlocutor of the Lord Ordinary, specifying in the Notice of Motion the Variation that is desired: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be held to prevent the Lord Ordinary or the Court from dismissing the Action at any Stage upon any Ground upon which such Action might at present be dismissed according to the existing Law and Practice.

29 Amendment of Records in defended Actions.

The Court or the Lord Ordinary may at any Time amend any Error or Defect in the Record or Issues in any Action or Proceeding in the Court of Session, upon such Terms as to Expenses and otherwise as to the Court or Lord Ordinary shall seem proper; and all such Amendments as may be necessary for the Purpose of determining in the existing Action or Proceeding the real Question in Controversy between the Parties shall be so made: Provided always, that it shall not be competent, by Amendment of the Record or Issues under this Act, to subject to the Adjudication of the Court any larger Sum or any other Fund or Property than such as are specified in the Summons or other original Pleading, unless all the Parties interested shall consent to such Amendment: And provided also, that no such Amendment shall have the Effect of validating Diligence used on the Dependence of the Action so as to prejudice the Rights of Creditors of the Defender interested in defeating such Diligence, but shall be operative to the Effect of obviating any Objections to such Diligence when stated by the Defender himself, or by any Person representing him by a Title, or in right of a Debt contracted by him, subsequent to the Execution of such Diligence.

30 Pleadings in Actions of Multiplepinding.

In Actions of Multiplepinding it shall not be necessary to lodge Answers to the original Condescendences and Claims, unless it is made to appear to the Satisfaction of the Lord Ordinary that the Claimants are at Issue on Matters of Fact material to the Action, and that Answers are necessary; and in such Actions it shall be competent for Parties having opposing Interests (where they are agreed upon the Facts) to make their Averments in the Form of a Joint Case, appending thereto their respective Claims and Pleas in Law: Provided always, that where the Competition involves the Construction of written Documents, such Documents shall not be set out at Length on the Record, but shall be printed separately, and referred to in the Pleadings as set forth in such separate Print.

31 Motions in the Outer House.

The Motion Rolls of the Lords Ordinary in the Outer House shall, instead of being called before these Judges respectively, be hereafter called before the Clerks to the Processes therein enrolled; such Calling shall take place at such Hours as shall from Time to Time be fixed by the Lord President of the Court, and shall not be attended by Counsel, but by Agents practising before the Court, or by their Clerks duly authorized by them. If any Motion is unopposed, it may be granted by the Clerk, who shall write on the Interlocutor Sheet an Order in Terms of said Motion, which Order, being signed by said Clerk, shall have the same Effect and be treated in all respects as if it were an Interlocutor of the Lord Ordinary before whom the Cause depends, made out and signed according to the present Law and Practice. All Motions which are opposed, and also those which the Clerk thinks should be disposed of by the Lord Ordinary, shall, on a Requisition to that Effect by the said Clerk, be put to a Roll of continued Motions, which the Clerk of the Lord Ordinary is hereby required' to make up, and which shall be called before the Lord Ordinary himself on such Days, not exceeding Two in each Week, as he may appoint for the hearing of Motions and summary Debates, and shall be disposed of by the Lord Ordinary after hearing Counsel; and it shall not be necessary that any Notice of the Enrolment of such continued Motions shall be given by either Part)" to the other. The Lord Ordinary, in disposing of any continued Motion, shall, unless he see Cause to the contrary, award such Sum of modified Expenses as he shall think fit to the Party who has successfully insisted in or opposed the same, as the Case may be.

All Causes ready for Trial by a Proof before any of the Lords Ordinary, under the last-mentioned Acts, at the End of the Winter and Summer Sessions of the Court respectively, shall be tried at Sittings to be held by the Lord Ordinary before whom the Cause depends, or by some other Judge acting for him at his Request, during the ensuing Vacation, at such Time as may be fixed by the Lord Ordinary.

V.—JURY TRIAL.

34 Exceptions taken at a Jury Trial may be insisted in, either by Motion for new Trial, or by Bill of Exceptions.

When an Exception is taken in the Course of a Jury Trial, a Note thereof shall be taken by the Judge, or, if he shall so direct, or the Party excepting shall think proper, a Note thereof shall be written out, and signed by such Party or his Counsel, and also by the Judge at the Time; and such Exception may be made the Ground of an Application to set aside the Verdict, either by Motion for a new Trial, or by Bill of Exceptions.

35 Form of Bill of Exceptions; Evidence need not be set forth at Length in the Bill.

The Bill of Exceptions (which may be subsequently prepared, and of which Notice shall be given as in the Case of a Motion for a new Trial,) shall consist of a distinct Statement of the Exception or Exceptions so noted, with such a Statement of the Circumstances in which the Exception or Exceptions were taken (including, if necessary, a Statement of the Purport of the Evidence, or Extracts therefrom, so far as bearing upon such Exception or Exceptions, but without any Argument,) as, along with the Record in the Cause, may enable the Court to judge of such Exception or Exceptions'; and, unless the Party excepting shall choose, or the Judge at the Trial, or the Court at the Discussion of the Bill, shall so direct, it shall be unnecessary to print or submit to the Court the Notes of Evidence or the Documentary Evidence adduced at the Trial; and when such Notes and Documents are submitted to the Court, they shall form no Part of the Bill of Exceptions ; and in discussing a Bill of Exceptions it shall be competent for either Party to refer to the Record, and to every Document produced and put in Evidence at the Trial, and the Notes of Evidence at the Trial may be produced and founded on at any Time.

36 Verdict may be taken subject to the Opinion of the Court on a Point reserved.

The Judge at the Trial may direct the Jury upon any Matter of Law (subject to the Opinion of the Court upon such Direction), and with Liberty to either Party to move the Court to enter the Verdict for such Party, although returned against him, if the Court should be of opinion that such Direction was erroneous, and that such Party was truly entitled to a Verdict. The Opinion of the Court upon any Direction so given may be obtained upon Motion to enter the Verdict for the Party moving; and if the Court shall be of opinion that the Direction was erroneous, and that the Party moving is truly entitled to the Verdict in whole or in part, they shall direct the Verdict to be entered for him in whole or in part, either absolutely, or on such Terms as they may think fit; otherwise they shall refuse the Motion, or they may, if necessary, set aside the Verdict and order a new Trial: Provided also, that in such Applications, as well as in Motions for a new Trial, it shall not be necessary to print the Notes of the Evidence for the Use of the Court, but the Judge's Notes may be produced at any Time, if required.

No Document tendered in Evidence at any Trial or Proceeding in the Court of Session (and which at the Time when the same is tendered might lawfully be stamped on Payment of a Penalty) shall be rejected by reason of the Omission to affix a Stamp thereto, or by reason of the Insufficiency of the Stamp ; provided the Party tendering the same shall, before the Conclusion of such Trial or Proceeding, pay into Court such Sum as the Judge shall certify to be the Amount of Stamp Duty or of additional Stamp Duty chargeable thereon, with the Penalty required by Statute, and an additional Penalty of One Pound ; and the Deliverance of the Judge that the Stamp upon any Document is sufficient, or that such Document does not require a Stamp, shall not be subject to Review.

VI.—INNER HOUSE PROCEDURE.

51 Form of Reclaiming Notes, and Time of presenting.

Reclaiming Notes to the Inner House shall not contain any Prayer, but shall bear in general Terms that the Interlocutor or Interlocutors reclaimed against are submitted to Review.

52 Effect of a Reclaiming Note against a Final Judgment.

Every Reclaiming Note, whether presented before or after the whole Cause has been decided in the Outer House, shall have the Effect of submitting to the Review of the Inner House the whole of the prior Interlocutors of the Lord Ordinary of whatever Date, not only at the Instance of the Party reclaiming, but also at the Instance of all or any of the other Parties who have appeared in the Cause, to the Effect of enabling the Court to do complete Justice, without Hindrance from the Terms of any Interlocutor which may have been pronounced by the Lord Ordinary, and without the Necessity of any counter Reclaiming Note; and after a Reclaiming Note has been presented, the Reclaimer shall not be at liberty to withdraw it without the Consent of the other Parties as aforesaid; and if he shall not insist therein, any other Party in the Cause may do so, in the same Way as if it had been presented at his own Instance.

53 Definition of Final Judgment in the Outer House.

It shall be held that the whole Cause has been decided in the Outer House when an Interlocutor has been pronounced by the Lord Ordinary, which, either by itself, or taken along with a previous Interlocutor or Interlocutors, disposes of the whole Subject Matter of the Cause, or of the Competition between the Parties in a Process of Competition, although Judgment shall not have been pronounced upon all the Questions of Law or Pact raised in the Cause; but it shall not prevent a Cause from being held as so decided that Expenses, if found due, have not been taxed, modified, or decerned for; and for the Purpose of determining the Competency of Appeals to the Court of Session, this Provision shall be applicable to the Causes in the Sheriff and other Inferior Courts, the Name of the Sheriff or other Inferior Judge or Court being read, instead of the Words "the Lord Ordinary," and the Name of the Sheriff Court or other Inferior Court being read instead of the Words " Outer House."

54 No Appeal allowed against Interlocutory Judgment without Leave; Effect of such Appeal.

Except in so far as otherwise provided by the Twenty-eighth Section hereof, until the whole Cause has been decided in the Outer House, it shall not be competent to present a Reclaiming Note against any Interlocutor of the Lord Ordinary without his Leave first had and obtained ; but where such Leave has been obtained, a Reclaiming Note, presented before the whole Cause has been decided in the Outer House, may be lodged within Ten Days from the Date of the Interlocutor granting Leave with One of the Clerks of the Division of the Court in which the Cause depends, without Transmission of the Process, or any Part thereof; and such Note shall not have the Effect of removing the Cause or the Process from the Outer House, or of staying Procedure before the Lord Ordinary, or of excusing Obedience to or Implement of the Interlocutor reclaimed against, unless the Lord Ordinary shall otherwise direct, upon Motion made for that Purpose, and the Decision of the Lord Ordinary on such Motion shall be final.

55 Disposal of such Reclaiming Notes.

Failing such Direction by the Lord Ordinary as aforesaid, the Process shall remain, and the Cause shall proceed in the Outer House in all respects as if no such Reclaiming Note had been presented, until it is advised by the Inner House, when the Court shall pronounce such Judgment or Order as they shall think fit; and when the Cause shall be called for Hearing in the Inner House on such Reclaiming Note, the Interlocutor Sheet shall be delivered to the Inner House Clerk that the Judgment of the Court may be written thereon ; and the Process shall, if required by either Party or by the Court, be delivered to the Inner House Clerk by the Outer House Clerk, but shall nevertheless be considered as still in the Outer House.

56 After Reclaiming Note against a Final Judgment, Cause not to be remitted to Outer House.

After the whole Cause has been decided in the Outer House within the Meaning of this Act, it shall not in any Case be necessary for the Inner House to remit the same back to the Outer House; but the Cause, when taken to the Inner House, after having been so decided in the Outer House, even though the Interlocutor of the Lord Ordinary or any of the Procedure shall be held to have been incompetent, shall, except in special Circumstances rendering a Remit expedient, remain in the Inner House, until it shall be finally and completely decided in the Court of Session.

57 Inner House may order Repayment of Money, &c.

In the event of any Interim Decree or Interlocutor pronounced in the Outer House having been implemented, it shall be lawful for the Court, in any Interlocutor recalling or altering such Interim Decree or Interlocutor, to order the Repayment of any Money which shall have been paid or recovered in Implement thereof, or to pronounce such Warrant ad factum praestandum or other Order as may be necessary in order to give Effect to such Recall or Alteration of the Lord Ordinary's Interlocutor, notwithstanding that the Interlocutor of the Lord Ordinary may have been extracted and put to Execution.

58 Hearing of Motion for new Trials, &c.

When a Motion for a new Trial or a Bill of Exceptions comes before One of the Divisions of the Court, if the Judge who tried the Cause is not One of the Judges of the Division, such Judge shall be called in to hear the Motion or Bill, as the Case may be; and when the Cause is advised, such Judge shall give his Judgment with the other Judges, and the Decision shall be in conformity with the Opinion of the Majority of the Judges present.

59 Provision for Rehearing before Five Judges in case of equal Division of Opinion

In the event of the Judges of either of the Divisions of the Inner House being equally divided in Opinion on a Question of Fact arising upon a Proof, or upon a Cause which in their Opinion does not involve any legal Principle of Importance, it shall be competent for such Division to appoint the Cause to be re-heard before the Judges of the said Division, or such of them as shall be able to give Attendance in Court on the Day appointed, with the Assistance of such additional Judge or Judges to be afterwards named by the President or Judge presiding in the Division as shall make up the Number of Five Judges ; and the Judgment to be pronounced upon such Hearing shall be in conformity with the Opinion of the Majority of the Five Judges, and shall bear to be the Judgment of the Division by which the Hearing was appointed, after consulting with such additional Judge or Judges, and may be signed at any ordinary Sitting of the said Division, without the Presence of such additional Judge or Judges, if he or they do not desire to attend for the Purpose of delivering separate Opinions.

60 Cases of Difficulty and Importance may be referred to Seven Judges in place of to the whole Court.

In Cases of equal Division of Opinion not falling under the preceding Section, and in Cases of Difficulty or Importance which, according to the existing Practice, may be referred by One of the Divisions of the Inner House to the whole Court, it shall be competent for such Division to direct that the printed Papers in the Cause shall be laid before Three other Judges to be named in the Interlocutor with a view to their Opinions being communicated in Writing, or to direct that the Cause shall be argued before themselves with the Assistance of such Three Judges (or Four Judges when that is necessary to complete the Number of Seven at the Time of the Re-hearing); and the Judgment to be pronounced thereon shall be in conformity with the Opinions of the Majority of the Seven Judges, and shall bear to be the Judgment of the Division by whom the Hearing was appointed, after consulting with such other Judges, and may be signed in the Absence of such other Judges at any ordinary Sitting of the Division.

61 New Trial not to be granted if Court equally divided.

No Verdict of a Jury shall be discharged or set aside upon a Motion for a new Trial, unless in conformity with the Opinion of a Majority of the Judges of the Division, and in case of equal Division Judgment shall be given in conformity with the Verdict; but this Provision shall not apply to Hearings upon Bills of Exceptions.

62 Amendment of 29 & 30 Vict. c.112 s. 3.

The Third Section of the Act Twenty-nine and Thirty Victoria, Chapter One hundred and twelve, is hereby amended to the Effect of providing that, notwithstanding the Terms of said Section, " where Proof shall be ordered by One of the Divisions of Court," it shall no longer be competent to remit to One of the Lords Ordinary to take such Proof, but it shall be taken before any One of the Judges of the said Division, whose Place may for the Time be supplied by One of the Lords Ordinary called in for that Occasion.

63 Special Cases on Questions of Law.

Where any Parties interested, whether personally or in some fiduciary or official Character, in the Decision of a Question of Law shall be agreed upon the Facts, and shall dispute only on the Law applicable thereto, it shall be competent for them, without raising any Action or Proceeding, or at any Stage of an Action or Proceeding, to present to One of the Divisions of the Court a Special Case, signed by their Counsel, setting forth the Facts upon which they are so agreed, and the Question of Law thence arising upon which they desire to obtain the Opinion of the Court; and which Case may set forth alternatively the Terms in which the Parties agree that Judgment shall be pronounced according to the Opinion of the Court upon the Question of Law aforesaid. When a Special Case is laid before One of the Divisions, the Court may order such Documents as appear to be necessary to be printed and boxed, and shall hear Parties in the Summar Roll, and give their Opinion or pronounce Judgment, as the Case may be, and such Judgment shall be extractible in common Form: Provided always, that the Case may be amended of Consent, and that, if the Court shall think fit, they may appoint the Case to be reheard in Terms of the Sixtieth Section hereof; and the Court shall dispose of all Questions of Expenses. Judgments pronounced in virtue of this Section shall be liable to Review by the House of Lords, unless such Review shall be excluded of Consent of all Parties.
