E4.—(1) Save as provided in paragraph (2), this Regulation shall apply to any pension under Part C (“a widow’s pension”).

(2) Where on the death of her husband before he attained state pensionable age a woman became entitled to a widow’s ordinary or special pension under Regulation C1 or C2, the police authority may, subject to Regulation E6, commute for a gratuity that part of the pension (expressed as a weekly amount) which is in excess of her guaranteed minimum pension or so much of that part as may be commuted without contravening Regulation E6:

Provided that a police authority shall not exercise their discretion under this paragraph unless—

- (a) the widow consents, and
- (b) they are satisfied that there are sufficient reasons for so doing.

(3) Where the annual amount of any widow’s pension does not exceed £104 (other than a pension which does not exceed that amount by reason of the commutation of part thereof under paragraph (2)), the police authority may, at their discretion, commute it for a gratuity.

(4) The provisions of Regulation C9 relating to the termination of a widow’s award on remarriage and certain other matters shall apply in relation to a gratuity under this Regulation as they apply in relation to a gratuity under Part C.

and, where one of those pensions is a widow's ordinary or special pension, that single pension shall be treated for the purposes of paragraph(2) as if it were a widow's ordinary or special pension.

(7) This Regulation has effect subject to Regulation J1(6)(b) and paragraph 9 of Part II of Schedule J.

- (a) any other gratuity so substituted under Regulation E4(2) or E5, and
- (b) any lump sum paid or payable under Regulation B7, where a portion of the principal pension has been commuted,

- (a) in the case of a man, did not leave a widow entitled to a pension which was payable for a continuous period of 13 weeks, or
- (b) in the case of a woman, was the child's only surviving parent, the allowance shall, so far as necessary, be increased in respect of the first 13 weeks for which it is payable so as to secure that, in respect of each such week, it is not less than the amount specified in paragraph (2)(a) or (b) except that, where 2 or more such allowances are payable in respect of the death of the same person, each allowance shall be so increased that it is of that amount divided by the number of such allowances:

Provided that where a widow's pension is payable in respect of any such week, a child's allowance in respect of the death of the same person shall not be so increased in respect of that week.
