- (i) made by the person concerned before the end of the service appropriate in his case, or
- (ii) made otherwise than as aforesaid but specified by the person responsible for the superannuation arrangements applicable to the previous service or employment mentioned in the said sub-paragraph (e) as having been made for the purpose of increasing any benefit which might become payable in respect of so much of that previous service or employment as forms part of the service appropriate in the policeman's case.

- (a) in the calculation of which account would be taken of the service which would be taken into account in calculating a pension under this paragraph, and
- (b) which would be at least as favourable in his case as a pension under this paragraph.

(3) Such a regular policeman as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) or (2)—

- (a) on attaining state pensionable age, and
- (b) in the case mentioned in sub-paragraph (2), satisfying the police authority as there mentioned, shall be entitled to a pension which equals the graduated retirement benefit mentioned in Regulation A5(4).

(4) Regulation B8 (commutation—small pensions) shall apply in relation to a pension in pursuance of sub-paragraph (3) as though this paragraph were included in Part B of these Regulations.

(2) Where this paragraph applies the annual amount of the widow’s ordinary pension shall, subject to paragraphs 2 and 3 of Part I, equal a half of the amount specified in paragraph 5(1) of this Part:

Provided that the amount payable in respect of any week on account of the pension shall not be less than it would have been either—

- (a) had the weekly amount thereof fallen to be calculated as provided in Scheme II of Part II of Schedule 3 to the Police Pensions Regulations 1971(4), or Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (b) a sixth of the amount specified in paragraph 5(1) of this Part, except that, where the husband died otherwise than while in receipt of an ordinary or short service pension and the said aggregate is less than a half of the amount specified in paragraph 5(2) of this Part, the annual amount of the widow’s ordinary pension shall equal a half of the amount so specified:

Provided that the annual amount of the widow’s ordinary pension shall not be less than it would have been had it fallen to be calculated in accordance with Part V of Schedule C in like manner as a widow’s requisite benefit pension.

Specified amounts for purposes of paragraphs 3 and 4

5.—(1) The references in paragraphs 3(2) and 4(2) to the amount specified in this sub-paragraph are references to the amount which is, subject to sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph, the difference between the two following amounts, namely—

- (a) an amount which is the aggregate of—
 - (i) an amount equal to a sixtieth of the husband’s average pensionable pay multiplied by the period in years of his pensionable service up to 20 years, and
 - (ii) an amount equal to 2 sixtieths of that pay multiplied by the period in years by which his pensionable service exceeds 20 years;
- (b) an amount calculated as aforesaid but by reference only to the husband’s pre-1972 pensionable service.

(2) The reference in paragraph 4(2) to the amount specified in this sub-paragraph is a reference to the annual amount of the pension or notional pension mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 1 of Part I of Schedule C calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (3) thereof but, subject to sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph—

- (a) where the husband’s weighted relevant pensionable service does not exceed 20 years, by reference thereto;
- (b) where that service exceeds 20 years, by reference to his relevant pensionable service with the addition of a half of his pre-1972 pensionable service, instead of by reference to his pensionable service.

(3) Where the husband’s pensionable service exceeds 30 years there shall be reduced by that excess—

- (a) his pensionable service taken into account for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(a);
- (b) his pre-1972 pensionable service taken into account for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(b);

 - (iv) section 10 of the Police Pensions Act 1921⁽⁵⁾, and
- (c) other than pensionable service reckonable by him immediately before 1st April 1973, which was reckonable otherwise than as mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) above and did not exceed a year;

“relevant pensionable service” means the period in years of the husband’s pensionable service reduced by his pre-1972 pensionable service;

“weighted relevant pensionable service” means the husband’s relevant pensionable service, so much of such service as exceeds his relevant number of years (if any) being counted twice and, for the purposes hereof, “relevant number of years” means the period in years by which his pre-1972 pensionable service falls short of 20 years.

(5) Where the husband ceased to serve as a regular policeman before 24th January 1975 (without prejudice to the provisions of paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of Part IV of this Schedule), sub-paragraph (4) shall have effect as if for the definitions therein of “relevant pensionable service” and “weighted relevant pensionable service” there were substituted the following definitions:—

“relevant pensionable service” means the period in years of the husband’s pensionable service reduced by his completed years of pre-1972 pensionable service;

“weighted relevant pensionable service” means the husband’s completed years of relevant pensionable service up to the relevant number of years with the addition of a year for each completed half-year by which his relevant pensionable service exceeds the relevant number of years and, for the purposes hereof, “relevant number of years” means the period in years by which his completed years of pre-1972 pensionable service fall short of 20 years.

(a) in the case of half-rate service, in the second column of the Table in question, and

(4) In this paragraph (including the Tables)—

- (a) any reference to police service is a reference to service as a member of a police force or of the Royal Ulster Constabulary;
- (b) the expressions “Airports Scheme” and “Scheme deduction” have the same meanings as in Regulation 61A of the Regulations of 1973 and the proviso to paragraph (3) of that Regulation shall have effect for the purposes of sub-paragraph (5) as it has effect for the purposes of the said paragraph (3), and Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (c) any reference to a person having been granted a back service credit is a reference to his having been granted such a credit, within the meaning of the Airports Scheme, before his transfer from the British Airports Authority constabulary.

(5) Where, for the purposes of the Airports Scheme, any payments were made by, or on behalf of, the husband for securing family benefits thereunder in respect of a back service credit, entries (f) and (g) in Table A and the entries in Table B shall have effect as though, by virtue of Regulation F3(1)(f), there were reckonable by him, by reason of the back service credit, only that part of the pensionable service so reckonable which bears the same proportion to the whole as the Scheme deduction in his case bears to what BAA plc certifies it would have been if the payments first mentioned in this sub-paragraph had not been made so, however, that, where the Scheme deduction is zero, entry (f) in Table A shall have effect as though the husband had no back service credit.

(6) Without prejudice to sub-paragraph (5), where the husband satisfies the conditions specified in both entry (g) in Table A and entry (a) in Table B, the references in those entries to his pensionable service reckonable by virtue of Regulation F3(1)(f) by reason of a back service credit shall be construed—

- (a) in the case of entry (g) in Table A, as a reference to that part of that service which bears the same proportion to the whole as the lump sum payment under Regulation 61A of the Regulations of 1973 bears to the Scheme deduction;
- (b) in the case of entry (a) in Table B, as a reference to the other part of that service.

(7) The proportion referred to in entry (a) in Table B shall be the proportion which the period for which the husband paid special contributions under Regulation 61A of the Regulations of 1973 bore to the period from the date of his transfer from the British Airports Authority constabulary until the date mentioned in paragraph (4)(a) or (b) of that Regulation.

(8) The proportion referred to in entry (b) in Table B and in entries (f) and (g) in Table C shall be the proportion which the husband's actual police service—

- (a) on or after his transfer from the British Airports constabulary, in the case of entry (b) in Table B,
- (b) on or after 1st April 1972, in the case entry (f) in Table C, or
- (c) on or after 1st April 1956, in the case of entry (g) in Table C, bears to the period of such service as he would have had if (irrespective of the date of his death) he had continued to serve until entitled to an immediately payable ordinary pension or until he could be required to retire on account of age, whichever is the earlier, each period being reckoned in completed years and completed months:

Provided that where on ceasing to serve as a regular policeman he had already served as aforesaid, the said proportion shall be the whole.

(9) The proportion referred to in entries (d) and (e) in Table C shall be the proportion which the period for which the husband paid further contributions or, as the case may be, additional contributions, bore to the period by which the pensionable service he was entitled to reckon on the relevant date fell short of 25 years or, where that period is less than 5 years, to a period of 5 years, each period being reckoned in completed years and completed months. In this sub-paragraph "the relevant date" means—

- (a) where the husband last served as a regular policeman before 6th April 1978, the date on which he made the election referred to in the entry in question;
- (b) in any other case, the date from which the further contributions or, as the case may be, additional contributions were payable in pursuance of the election referred to in the entry in question.

Husband's pensionable service not fully up-rated

8.—(1) In the case of such a widow as is mentioned in paragraph 7(1), Part III of Schedule C shall have effect as if paragraph 1(1) thereof provided that the annual amount of her accrued pension should equal the aggregate of the following amounts namely—

- (a) in respect of her husband's half-rate service, a sixth of the corresponding proportion of his deferred pension;
- (b) in respect of his mixed-rate service, a third of the corresponding proportion of his deferred pension.

(2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) "the corresponding proportion", in relation to the husband's deferred pension, means the proportion which his half-rate or, as the case may be, his mixed-rate service bears to the pensionable service reckonable by him.

(3) Unless the husband ceased to serve as a regular policeman before 1st April 1987 where—

- (a) the husband's half-rate service;
- (b) his mixed-rate service, or
- (c) the pensionable service reckonable by him,
