The Local Government Pension Scheme (Management and Investment of Funds) (Scotland) Regulations 1998

Made	- - - -	16th November 1998
Laid before Parliament		27th November 1998
Coming into force	- -	18th December 1998

The Secretary of State, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 7 of the Superannuation Act 1972(1) and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, after consultation with such associations of local authorities as appeared to him to be concerned, and such representatives of other persons likely to be affected by the Regulations as appeared to him to be appropriate in accordance with section 7(5) of that Act, and not having considered consultation with any individual local authority desirable, hereby makes the following Regulations:

Preliminary

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Local Government Pension Scheme (Management and Investment of Funds) (Scotland) Regulations 1998 and shall come into force on 18th December 1998.

“Transitional Regulations” means the Local Government Pension Scheme (Transitional Provisions) (Scotland) Regulations 1998⁽⁸⁾;

“unquoted securities investment partnership” means a partnership for investing in securities which are normally not quoted on a recognised stock exchange when the partnership buys them.

Definition of “investment”

3.—(1) In these Regulations “investment” and similar expressions have their normal meaning.

(2) However, the following provisions of this regulation specify things which count as investments for these Regulations, although they might not otherwise do so, and exclude things which might otherwise count.

(3) A contract entered into in the course of dealing in financial futures or traded options is an investment.

(4) 1995 c. 26.

(5) 1987 c. 22.

(6) 1992 c. 12; Section 263B was inserted by Finance Act 1997 (c. 16), Schedule 10, paragraph 5.

(7) 1988 c. 1.

(8) S.I. 1998/364.

(4) If the administering authority use fund money for any purpose for which they may borrow money, that counts as an investment.

(5) An insurance contract is an investment if and only if the contract is made with a person within paragraph (6) for whom making the contract is business within class III or VII in Schedule 1 to the Insurance Companies Act 1982(9) (linked long term or pension fund management business).

(6) The persons within this paragraph are—

- (a) a person whom the Insurance Companies Act 1982 permits to carry on such business; and
- (b) an insurance company which, because it has its head office in a member State, is permitted under the law of such a State to carry on insurance business of a similar sort.

(7) A stock lending arrangement is an investment if, and only if, it complies with the conditions in regulation 5.58 and 5.60 of section L of the Financial Services (Regulated Schemes) Regulations 1991(10) modified as specified in paragraph (8).

(8) The modifications referred to in paragraph (7) are—

- (a) for the references in regulation 5.58 to section 129 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 substitute a reference to section 263B of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992;
- (b) delete paragraphs 1a, 1c(ii) and 2b;
- (c) for the references in both those regulations to the trustee, substitute a reference to the administering authority; and
- (d) for the reference in paragraph 1c(iii) of regulation 5.58 to Guidance of the Board, substitute a reference to Guidance Release 4/91 issued by the Securities and Investments Board in June 1991.

(9) It is an investment to contribute to a limited partnership in an unquoted securities investment partnership.

(10) A sub-underwriting contract is an investment.

Definition of “investment manager”

4.—(1) This regulation describes those persons who count as an “investment manager” for these Regulations.

(2) A person is an investment manager if he is authorised under the Financial Services Act 1986(11) to manage the assets of occupational pension schemes.

(3) A person is also an investment manager if he—

- (a) does not transact investment business (within the meaning of the Financial Services Act 1986) from a permanent place of business maintained by him in the United Kingdom;
- (b) has a head office situated outside the United Kingdom in a member State;
- (c) is recognised by the law of that State as a national of a member State;
- (d) is authorised under that law to engage in one or more of the activities specified in Part II of Schedule 1 to the Financial Services Act 1986 (activities constituting investment business); and
- (e) is not prevented by that law from managing the assets of occupational pension schemes or assets belonging to another person.

(9) 1982 c. 50.

(10) Made by the Securities and Investments Board (from 28 October 1997 known as the Financial Services Authority) in exercise of powers contained in sections 52, 81, 85, 86(3), 87(4) and (5), 88(10) and 90 of the Financial Services Act 1986 (c. 60). Copies may be obtained from the Financial Services Authority, 25 North Colonnade, Canary Wharf, London E14 5HS.

(11) 1986 c. 60.

(4) A European institution carrying on home-regulated investment business in the United Kingdom is also an investment manager.

Management of pension fund

Management of pension fund

5.—(1) This regulation is about the sums which an administering authority must pay or credit to and may pay from the pension fund administered by them.

(2) They must pay or credit to their pension fund, in addition to any other sum which the 1998 Regulations specify must be paid or credited to the fund—

- (a) the amounts payable by them or paid to them for the credit of the fund by any other authority under regulations 78 and 79 of the 1998 Regulations (employers' contributions) or by virtue of the Transitional Regulations;
- (b) all members' contributions except contributions payable under regulations 60 and 67 of the 1998 regulations (additional voluntary contributions);
- (c) all income arising during the year from investment of the fund;
- (d) all capital money deriving from such investment; and
- (e) all additional payments received by the authority under the 1998 Regulations or the Transitional Regulations.

(3) In the case of an administering authority which maintains more than one pension fund, as respects sums which relate to specific members the references in paragraph (2) to the authority's fund are to the fund which is the appropriate fund for the members in question in accordance with Schedule 5 to the 1998 Regulations.

(4) Interest under regulation 12 must be credited and paid to the fund to which repayment is due.

(5) Interest under regulation 81(1) of the 1998 Regulations must be credited and paid to the fund to which the overdue payment is due.

(6) Any costs, charges and expenses incurred administering a pension fund (except those incurred in connection with a FSAVC scheme) may be paid from it.

Investment managers

Choice of investment managers

6.—(1) Instead of managing and investing fund money for themselves, an administering authority may appoint one or more investment managers to manage and invest it for them.

(2) However, they may appoint an investment manager only if they comply with paragraphs (3) to (6).

(3) They must reasonably believe that the investment manager is suitably qualified by his ability in and practical experience of financial matters to make investment decisions for them.

(4) The investment manager must not be their employee.

(5) They must be satisfied—

- (a) that the fund is managed by an adequate number of investment managers; and
- (b) that the value of the fund money to be managed by any one investment manager will not be excessive.

(6) They must have taken proper advice.

Terms of appointment of investment managers

7.—(1) Investment managers must, if appointed, be appointed on the terms set out in paragraphs (2) to (7).

(2) The administering authority must be able to terminate the appointment by not more than one month's notice.

(3) The investment manager must report to the administering authority at least once every three months on the action he has taken for them.

(4) The investment manager must comply with all the administering authority's instructions except in circumstances permitted by his terms of appointment.

(5) In managing the fund the investment manager must bear in mind—

(a) that fund money must be invested in a wide variety of investments;

(b) the suitability of those types of investment for the fund; and

(c) the suitability of any particular investment of that type.

(6) However, paragraph (5)(a) does not apply where the investment manager only manages part of the fund and the terms of his appointment provide that it does not apply.

(7) The investment manager must not make investments which would contravene regulation 11 or Schedule 1.

(8) In determining the investment manager's terms of appointment the administering authority must take proper advice.

Review of investment managers' performance

8.—(1) Where an administering authority have appointed an investment manager they must keep his performance under review.

(2) At least once every three months they must review the investments he has made.

(3) Periodically they must consider whether or not to retain him.

(4) In reviewing an investment manager's decisions and appointment an administering authority must take proper advice—

(a) if regulation 7(5)(a) applies, about the width of variety of the investments he has made; and

(b) about the suitability of those investments for the fund generally and as investments of their type.

Investments

Use and investment of fund money

9.—(1) An administering authority must invest any fund money that is not needed immediately to make payments from the fund.

(2) They may vary their investments.

(3) Their investment policy must be formulated with a view—

(a) to the advisability of investing fund money in a wide variety of investments; and

(b) to the suitability of particular investments and types of investments.

(4) An administering authority must obtain proper advice at reasonable intervals about their investments.

(5) They must consider such advice in taking any steps about their investments.

Investments under s.11 of the Trustee Investments Act 1961

10.—(1) An administering authority may invest in any investment made in accordance with a section 11 scheme without any restriction as to quantity.

(2) A “section 11 scheme” is a scheme under section 11 of the Trustee Investments Act 1961⁽¹²⁾ (local authority investment schemes).

Limits on investments

11.—(1) Schedule 1 sets out the limits which apply to certain sorts of investments.

(2) The percentages set out in the headings in Part I are the limits on the amount of each description of investment listed under those headings.

(3) Those percentages are percentages of the total value of all existing investments in the fund before making the investment which is subject to the limit.

(4) The limits in that Schedule only apply at the time the investment is made.

(5) Part II of that Schedule sets out certain exceptions to the limits.

(6) Part III of that Schedule applies for interpreting Parts I and II.

Use of fund money by an administering authority

12.—(1) An administering authority must pay interest on the total from day to day of any fund money used by them and not repaid.

(2) That interest must not be paid at a rate lower than the lowest rate at which they could have obtained a commercial loan of that amount at 7 days' notice (otherwise than by bank overdraft).

Supplementary

Consequential amendments and revocations

13.—(1) The provisions in Schedule 2 are amended as set out in that Schedule.

(2) Regulations P5, P6, P12(4) and P15(3) of the Local Government Superannuation (Scotland) Regulations 1987⁽¹³⁾ are revoked.

SCHEDULE 2

Regulation 13(1)

CONSEQUENTIAL AMENDMENTS

1. In regulation 2(1) of the Local Government Pension Scheme (Transitional Provisions) (Scotland) Regulations 1998(17)–

- (a) in the definition of “the Investment Regulations” for the words “regulations P5, P6, P12(4) and P15(3) of the 1987 Regulations” substitute the words “the Local Government Pension Scheme (Management and Investment of Funds) (Scotland) Regulations 1998”; and
- (b) in the definition of “the replaced provisions” omit the words “(but not including the Investment Regulations)”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations replace regulations P5, P6, P12(4) and P15(3) of the Local Government Superannuation (Scotland) Regulations 1987 (S.I. 1987/1850) which are now revoked.

The only changes of substance are–

- (a) the inclusion, as investments, of insurance contracts with persons for whom making an insurance contract is business within class III in Schedule 1 to the Insurance Companies Act 1982 \(c. 50\) (linked long term business);
- (b) the inclusion of sub-underwriting as an investment with a limit on such investment in any single sub-underwriting contract of one per cent of the total value of the fund; and
- (c) the inclusion in the limit of 25 per cent of the total value of the fund of investments in open-ended investment company schemes.

The Occupational Pension Schemes (Investment) Regulations 1996 (S.I. 1996/3127), which impose restrictions on the amount of the resources of an occupational pension scheme which may be invested in employer-related investments, may further restrict or limit investments of fund money. Those regulations are made under powers conferred by, amongst others, section 40 of the Pensions Act 1995 \(c. 26\) (restrictions on employer-related investments).

(17) S.I. 1998/364.
