(13) Section 11(11) was amended by section 62 of the 1981 Act and S.I. 1974/691.

(2) The second reference in subsection (2) and the first reference in subsection (3) of section 29 of the 1969 Act to the Post Office shall be read as references to the successor postal services company.

10.—(1) Section 30 of the 1969 Act (the Post Office to be subject to limited liability in respect of registered inland packets) shall apply in respect of a postal packet posted before 26th March 2001.

(2) A reference to the Post Office in section 30 of the 1969 Act shall be read as including a reference to the successor postal services company.

(3) A reference in section 30 of the 1969 Act to an officer, servant or agent of the Post Office shall be read as including a reference to an employee or agent of the successor postal services company.

(4) A reference in section 30 of the 1969 Act to a scheme made under section 28 of the 1969 Act includes a reference to a scheme treated, by virtue of this Order, as made under section 89 of the Act (schemes as to terms and conditions for the provision of a universal postal service).

11. Section 37(2) to (4)(14) of the 1969 Act (loans by the Secretary of State to the Post Office) shall apply in respect of a loan made by the Secretary of State before 26th March 2001.

12. Section 39(15) of the 1969 Act (accounts of the Secretary of State with reference to Post Office indebtedness) shall apply in so far as it relates to a loan made before 26th March 2001 by the Secretary of State under section 37 of the 1969 Act.

13.—(1) Section 64 of the 1969 Act (inviolability of mails) shall apply in respect of a postal packet posted before 26th March 2001 and the references in section 64 to the Post Office and to a person who is engaged in its business shall be read as including references to the successor postal services company and to a person engaged in its business, respectively.

(2) The references in section 64(3) of the 1969 Act to sections 16 and 17 of the 1953 Act shall be read as including references to sections 105 (application of customs and excise enactments to certain postal packets) and 106 (power to detain postal packets containing contraband) of the Act.

14. Section 69(3)(16) of the 1969 Act (documentary evidence as to sums due for services) shall apply in respect of proceedings instituted before 26th March 2001 and the second reference in section 69 to the Post Office shall be read as including a reference to the nominated company or the successor postal services company, as the case may be.

15.—(1) Section 70(1) to (5) of the 1969 Act (provisions as to money and postal orders) shall apply in respect of payment by the Post Office before 26th March 2001 of a money or postal order and in respect of payment before 26th March 2001 of a money or postal order outside the British Islands in accordance with arrangements made by the Post Office.

(2) The second reference in subsection (4) and the third reference in subsection (5) of section 70 of the 1969 Act to the Post Office shall be read as including a reference to the nominated company.

(3) Section 70(6) of the 1969 Act shall apply in respect of a refusal or delay by the Post Office in paying a money or postal order before 26th March 2001 and no proceedings shall lie against the nominated company in respect of such a refusal or delay.

16. Section 71 of the 1969 Act (recoupment of losses on money orders wrongly paid to bankers) shall apply in respect of a payment by the Post Office before 26th March 2001 as if the third reference in subsection (1) to the Post Office included a reference to the nominated company.

(14) Section 37 of the 1969 Act was amended by S.I. 1974/691, paragraph 51(3) of Schedule 3 to the 1981 Act and section 115 of the Postal Services Act 2000. Its repeal was commenced by S.I. 2000/2957 \(C.88\) with effect from 26th March 2001.

(15) Section 39 of the 1969 Act was amended by S.I. 1974/691 and section 5 of the Post Office (Banking Services) Act 1976 (c. 10).

(16) Section 69(3) of the 1969 Act was amended by paragraph 51(5) of Schedule 3 and Schedule 6 to the 1981 Act.

17.—(1) Section 84(17) of the 1969 Act (exemption from postage of certain petitions and addresses, and limitation of amount of postage recoverable in respect of parliamentary proceedings) shall apply on and after 26th March 2001 in respect of—

- (a) a petition or address forwarded to Her Majesty, or, in Northern Ireland, to the Secretary of State, by post before 26th March 2001 and a petition or address to Her Majesty or a petition addressed to either House of Parliament, the Scottish Parliament or the Northern Ireland Assembly sent by post to a member of either House of Parliament, a member of the Scottish Parliament or a member of the Northern Ireland Assembly (as the case may be) before 26th March 2001;
- (b) a packet consisting of parliamentary proceedings posted before 26th March 2001.

(2) References in section 84 of the 1969 Act to the Post Office shall be read as including references to the successor postal services company and references to a scheme under section 28 of the 1969 Act shall be read as including references to a scheme made, or treated by virtue of this Order as made, under section 89 of the Act.

18. On and after 26th March 2001, the duties set out in paragraph 4 of Schedule 1 to the 1969 Act (incidental provisions with respect to the Post Office and members thereof) to make payments to members and former members of the Post Office shall be duties of the nominated company.

The 1981 Act

19. Section 60(18) of the 1981 Act (redistribution of property, rights and liabilities among wholly owned subsidiaries) shall apply on and after 26th March 2001 in respect of a scheme which came into force before 26th March 2001.

20.—(1) In so far as it relates to a scheme made under section 60 of the 1981 Act in which the Post Office is the transferor, Schedule 2 to the 1981 Act shall apply on and after 26th March 2001 with the following modifications.

(2) The following references in Schedule 2 to the transferor shall be read as references to the nominated company—

- (a) in paragraph 2, all references other than the second and fourth references in subparagraph (1);
- (b) in paragraphs 5 and 7, all references; and
- (c) in paragraph 12, all references other than the reference in subparagraph (1), the first, second and third references in subparagraph (3) and the references in subparagraph (4).

(3) The following references in Schedule 2 to the transferor shall be read as including a reference to the nominated company—

- (a) in paragraph 1(2), the third reference;
- (b) in paragraph 1(4), the first reference;
- (c) in paragraph 10, the second reference;
- (d) the reference in paragraph 6; and
- (e) in paragraph 12, the reference in subparagraph (1), the first, second and third references in subparagraph (3) and the first, second and fifth references in subparagraph (4).

(17) Section 84 of the 1969 Act was amended by S.I. 1973/2163, S.I. 1999/1042 and Schedule 12 to the Northern Ireland Act 1998 (c. 47) and its repeal was commenced by S.I. 2000/2957 \(C.88\) with effect from 26th March 2001.

(18) The repeal of section 60 was commenced by S.I. 2000/2957 \(C.88\) with effect from 26th March 2001.

21. Section 66(2) to (4)(19) of the 1981 Act (exclusive privilege of the Post Office with respect to the conveyance etc of letters) shall apply on and after 26th March 2001 in respect of any act done or service performed before 26th March 2001 which infringed the exclusive privilege conferred on the Post Office by section 66(1) and in respect of a letter caused to be conveyed, or tendered, or delivered to be conveyed, before 26th March 2001 by any means which infringed that privilege.

22. Section 68(4) and (7)(20) of the 1981 Act (savings for things done under a licence) shall apply in respect of a payment which was due to be rendered before 26th March 2001.

23.—(1) The Post Office shall on and after 26th March 2001 be under the duty set out in section 75(1)(21) of the 1981 Act (the Post Office’s accounts and audit thereof) in respect of the period ending on 25th March 2001 and section 75(2) to (8) shall apply for that purpose.

(2) The expenses incurred on or after 26th March 2001 by the Post Office in connection with paragraph (1) of this article shall be met by the nominated company.

24. In its application in respect of a scheme made under section 60 of the 1981 Act and which came into force before 26th March 2001, section 81 of the 1981 Act (stamp duty) shall be read on and after 26th March 2001 as if the reference to the Post Office included a reference to the nominated company.

The 2000 Act

25. In its application in respect of the period prior to 1st April 2002, section 76 of the Act (accounts of the Secretary of State in relation to loans) shall apply as if, in subsection (1), for “each financial year” there were substituted “the period beginning on 26th March 2001 and ending on 31st March 2002” and, in subsection (2), for “the month of November in the following financial year” there were substituted “November 2002”.

26.—(1) Sections 91 (limited liability for registered inland packets) and 92 (section 91: supplementary) of the Act shall apply in respect of an inland packet to which section 30 of the 1969 Act does not apply and which was delivered to a post office letter box before 26th March 2001.

(2) The successor postal services company shall be taken to have accepted liability for such a packet in pursuance of the Successor Postal Services Company Inland Letter Post Scheme 2001 and the Successor Postal Services Company Inland Parcel Post Scheme 2001.

(3) The reference in section 91(2) of the Act to an officer, servant, employee, agent or sub-contractor of the universal service provider shall be read as including a reference to an officer, servant or agent of the Post Office.

(4) Without prejudice to paragraph (1) of articles 37 to 41 of this Order, a reference in sections 91 and 92 of the Act to a scheme made under section 89 of the Act shall include a reference to a scheme made under section 28 of the 1969 Act and a scheme treated, by virtue of this Order, as made under section 89 of the Act.

27. Section 100 of the Act (exemption from postage etc) shall apply in respect of—

- (a) a petition or address forwarded to Her Majesty, or, in Northern Ireland, to the Secretary of State, by post;
- (b) a petition or address to Her Majesty sent by post to a member of either House of Parliament, a member of the Scottish Parliament, a member of the National Assembly for Wales, or a member of the Northern Ireland Assembly;

(19) Section 66 of the 1981 Act was amended by S.I. 1999/2107 and its repeal was commenced by S.I. 2000/2957 \(C.88\) with effect from 26th March 2001.

(20) The repeal of section 68 was commenced by S.I. 2000/2957 \(C.88\) with effect from 26th March 2001.

(21) Section 75 of the 1981 Act was amended by paragraph 30 of Schedule 10 to the Companies Act 1989 \(c. 40\).

- (c) a petition addressed to either House of Parliament, the Scottish Parliament, the National Assembly for Wales or the Northern Ireland Assembly sent by post to a member of either House of Parliament, a member of the Scottish Parliament or the Clerk of the Scottish Parliament, a member of the National Assembly for Wales, or a member of the Northern Ireland Assembly (as the case may be);
- (d) a packet consisting of parliamentary proceedings, to which section 84 of the 1969 Act does not apply and which was delivered to a post office letter box before 26th March 2001.

28. Section 104(1) to (3) of the Act (inviolability of mails) shall apply in respect of a postal packet to which section 64 of the 1969 Act does not apply and which was delivered to a post office letter box before 26th March 2001.

29. Section 107(1) of the Act (conditions of transit of postal packets) shall apply in respect of a postal packet to which section 8(3) of the 1953 Act does not apply and which was delivered to a post office letter box before 26th March 2001.

30. Section 108 of the Act (evidence of the amount of postage etc) shall apply in respect of a postal packet to which section 19 of the 1953 Act does not apply and which was delivered to a post office letter box before 26th March 2001.

31. In sections 111(1), (2), (3) and (4) (exclusion of liability in relation to postal and money orders) and 113(1)(a) (recoupment of losses on wrongly paid money orders) of the Act, a reference to a postal or money order issued by the Post Office company shall include a reference to a postal or money order issued by the Post Office before 26th March 2001.

32. The first financial year of the Council shall end on 31st March 2002.

General transitional and saving provisions

33. No repeal of an enactment commenced on or after 25th March 2001 by an order under section 130(1) of the Act shall apply so far as the enactment is necessary for any purpose in connection with a transfer effected by virtue of section 4(22) or section 10 of the 1981 Act or section 60 of the Telecommunications Act 1984(23).

34. Except as provided in articles 8(1) and 23(1), nothing in this Order shall be taken as conferring a power or duty on the Post Office in respect of any period commencing on or after 26th March 2001.

35. Any provision contained in an order made under section 129 of the Act (transitional provisions etc) as to the application of an enactment contained in the Act is without prejudice to any wider application of that enactment.

36. In section 200A(2) of the Representation of the People Act 1983(24), the reference to a scheme made under section 89 of the Act shall include a reference to a scheme treated, by virtue of this Order, as made under section 89 of the Act.

Inland Letter Post Scheme

37.—(1) Subject to the following paragraphs, the Post Office Inland Letter Post Scheme 2000(25) (referred to in this article as “the Scheme”) shall continue in force on and after 26th March 2001 as if made by the successor postal services company under section 89 of the Act.

(22) Section 4 of the 1981 Act was repealed by section 109(6) of the Telecommunications Act 1984 (c. 12).

(23) 1984 c. 12. Section 60 was amended by Schedule 2 to the Companies Consolidation (Consequential Provisions) Act 1985 (c. 9).

(24) 1983 c. 2. Section 200A was inserted by paragraph 18 of Schedule 8 to the Act.

(25) London Gazette, 20/04/00, pages 4503–4514.

(2) The Scheme may be cited as the Successor Postal Services Company Inland Letter Post Scheme 2001.

(3) Except as provided in the following paragraph, a reference in the Scheme to the Post Office shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be read as a reference to the successor postal services company.

(4) The following references in the Scheme to the Post Office shall be read as including a reference to the successor postal services company—

- (a) in sections 5.1.1, 5.1.2, 46.2.2, 46.3.3, 50.1.8, 50.1.9 and 50.2, all references;
- (b) in Schedule II, in the definitions of “post”, “posted”, “postage”, “post box”, “postmark” and “private postbox”, all references; and
- (c) in Schedule II, in the definition of “postage stamp or mark”, the first two references.

(5) In calculating the maximum periods referred to in section 27.2 of the Scheme, the successor postal services company may include the period during which the Post Office retained the letter in question before 26th March 2001.

(6) In sections 10.1.2, 13.3 and 19 of the Scheme, a reference to Parliament shall be read as including a reference to the Scottish Parliament, the National Assembly for Wales or the Northern Ireland Assembly.

(7) In making the calculation under section 43.2 of the Scheme, the successor postal services company may take into account letters received by the Post Office before 26th March 2001.

(8) In section 44.1 of the Scheme, the reference to section 16 of the 1953 Act shall be read as including a reference to section 105(1) and (2) of the Act (application of customs and excise enactments to certain postal packets).

(9) In section 50.1.9 of the Scheme, the reference to section 8(3) of the 1953 Act shall be read as including a reference to section 107(1) of the Act (conditions of transit of postal packets).

(10) Anything agreed, approved, prescribed or specified for the purposes of the Scheme by the Post Office shall be treated as agreed, approved, prescribed or specified by the successor postal services company.

(11) A reference in the Scheme to a scheme made under section 28 of the 1969 Act shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be read as including a reference to a scheme made, or treated by virtue of this Order as made, under section 89 of the Act.

Inland Parcel Post Scheme

38.—(1) Subject to the following paragraphs, the Post Office Inland Parcel Post Scheme 1989(26) (referred to in this article as “the Scheme”) shall continue in force on and after 26th March 2001 as if made by the successor postal services company under section 89 of the Act.

(2) The Scheme may be cited as the Successor Postal Services Company Inland Parcel Post Scheme 2001.

(3) Except as provided in the following paragraph, a reference in the Scheme to the Post Office shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be read as a reference to the successor postal services company.

(4) In paragraph 35 of the Scheme, the reference to the Post Office shall be read as including a reference to the successor postal services company.

(5) In paragraph 3(1) of the Scheme, in the definition of “sender”, the reference to section 30 of the 1969 Act shall be read as including a reference to section 91 of the Act (limited liability for registered inland packets).

(6) In paragraph 7(1) of the Scheme, the reference to section 11(1)(a), (b), and (c) of the 1953 Act shall be read as including a reference to section 85(1) to (4) of the Act (prohibition on sending certain articles by post).

(7) In paragraphs 7(2) and 24(4) of the Scheme, the reference to section 8(3) of the 1953 Act shall be read as including a reference to section 107(1) of the Act.

(8) In paragraph 15(6) of the Scheme, the reference to section 16 of the 1953 Act shall be read as including a reference to section 105(1) and (2) of the Act.

(9) In making the calculation under paragraph 40(2) of the Scheme, the successor postal services company may take into account postal packets received by the Post Office before 26th March 2001.

(10) In Schedule 1 to the Scheme—

(a) in column 1—

(i) in paragraph (a), for “30 kg” there shall be substituted “20 kg”; and

(ii) in paragraph (b), the words “or weight” and “and weight” shall be omitted;

(b) in column 4, for “30 kg (save as the Post Office may allow in (b)), or such lower weight as the Post Office may from time to time determine.” there shall be substituted “20 kg”.

(11) Anything agreed, approved, prescribed or specified for the purposes of the Scheme by the Post Office shall be treated as agreed, approved, prescribed or specified by the successor postal services company.

(12) A reference in the Scheme to a scheme made under section 28 of the 1969 Act shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be read as including a reference to a scheme made, or treated by virtue of this Order as made, under section 89 of the Act.

The Scheme for Franking Letters and Parcels

39.—(1) Subject to the following paragraphs, the Post Office Scheme for Franking Letters and Parcels 2000⁽²⁷⁾ (referred to in this article as “the Scheme”) shall continue in force on and after 26th March 2001 as if made by the successor postal services company under section 89 of the Act.

(2) The Scheme may be cited as the Successor Postal Services Company Scheme for Franking Letters and Parcels 2001.

(3) Except as provided in the following paragraph, a reference in the Scheme to the Post Office shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be read as a reference to the successor postal services company.

(4) In paragraph 14.2.3 of the Scheme, the reference to the Post Office shall be read as including a reference to the successor postal services company.

(5) In Schedule I to the Scheme, in the definition of “letter”, the reference to section 84(1) of the 1969 Act shall be read as including a reference to section 100(1) to (3) of the Act (certain exemptions from postage etc).

(6) Anything agreed, approved, prescribed or specified for the purposes of the Scheme by the Post Office shall be treated as agreed, approved, prescribed or specified by the successor postal services company.

(7) A reference in the Scheme to a scheme made under section 28 of the 1969 Act shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be read as including a reference to a scheme made, or treated by virtue of this Order as made, under section 89 of the Act.

The Overseas Letter Post Scheme

40.—(1) Subject to the following paragraphs, the Post Office Overseas Letter Post Scheme 2001⁽²⁸⁾ (referred to in this article as “the Scheme”) shall continue in force on and after 26th March 2001 as if made by the successor postal services company under section 89 of the Act.

(2) The Scheme may be cited as the Successor Postal Services Company Overseas Letter Post Scheme 2001.

(3) Except as provided in the following paragraph, a reference in the Scheme to the Post Office shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be read as a reference to the successor postal services company.

(4) The following references in the Scheme to the Post Office shall be read as including a reference to the successor postal services company—

- (a) in paragraph 3(1), in the definitions of “Swiftpack”, “Swiftair plus Registered” and “Swiftair plus Recorded”, all references;
- (b) in paragraph 38(1), the second reference;
- (c) in paragraphs 17(3) and (5)(c), 19(2)(c), 33(5), 37(8), 38(3)(a) and (7), all references.

(5) In paragraph 11(1) of the Scheme, the reference to section 11(1)(a), (b) or (c) of the 1953 Act shall be read as including a reference to section 85(1) to (4) of the Act.

(6) In making the calculation under paragraph 11(5)(b) of the Scheme, the successor postal services company may take into account postal packets received by the Post Office before 26th March 2001.

(7) In paragraphs 33(5), 37(8) and 38(7) of the Scheme, the reference to section 8(3) of the 1953 Act shall be read as including a reference to section 107(1) of the Act.

(8) Anything agreed, approved, prescribed or specified for the purposes of the Scheme by the Post Office shall be treated as agreed, approved, prescribed or specified by the successor postal services company.

(9) A reference in the Scheme to a scheme made under section 28 of the 1969 Act shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be read as including a reference to a scheme made, or treated by virtue of this Order as made, under section 89 of the Act.
